ITEM 8.01. OTHER EVENTS.

On March 19, 2015, The Bank of New York Mellon Corporation (the Company or BNY Mellon) announced that it has resolved substantially all of the foreign exchange (FX)-related actions currently pending against the Company, resulting in a total of $714 million in settlement payments, which are fully covered by preexisting reserves.

The Company has reached settlements with the U.S. Department of Justice (DOJ) and the New York Attorney General (NYAG), which fully resolve the DOJ s and NYAG s October 2011 lawsuits regarding standing instruction FX transactions in connection with certain custody services BNY Mellon provided prior to early 2012 to its custody clients. Under the terms of the settlements, the Company will pay each of the DOJ and NYAG $167.5 million and provide functionality allowing customers to compare pricing for the Company s defined spread and session range standing instruction FX products.

In addition, the Company reached settlements with the plaintiffs in the outstanding customer class actions and the U.S. Department of Labor (DOL) related to standing instruction FX transactions. Under the class action settlement, which is subject to court approval, the Company will pay $335 million. The Company will pay an additional $14 million to the DOL.

The Company has reached a settlement in principle on a standing instruction-related matter with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC). Under the terms of the agreement with the SEC staff, the Company will pay a $30 million penalty. This resolution is subject to approval by the Commission.

A copy of the Company s press release relating to the settlements is attached as Exhibit 99.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K. The contents of the Company s website referenced in the exhibit are not incorporated into this Current Report on Form 8-K.
