To: Knowles Employees
From: Jeffrey Niew, President & Chief Executive Officer
Subject: Knowles Acquires Audience: A Special Message from CEO Jeffrey Niew

Earlier today we announced the acquisition of Audience. The combined company changes the audio landscape, by creating the industry's most comprehensive range of audio capabilities. We will be uniquely positioned to optimize the audio signal path that will enhance performance and enable new applications. I am excited about this new relationship and the tremendous opportunity it offers us.

Why Audience? Why Now?

We are eager to build upon a decade of innovation at Audience as they are a leading provider of voice and audio processing solutions. Their technologies improve the voice quality and the user experience in mobile devices. Audience expands our digital signal processing and software capabilities and uniquely positions us to support a broad range of audio products. In addition, the acquisition creates the following benefits:

An aligned vision and values, which enable us to be future-focused and solutions-based.

A unique and comprehensive capability set through the combined expertise of Knowles' enhanced acoustic products and technology with Audience's strong audio processing and software portfolio and engineering innovations.

A stronger foothold to serve customers globally.

Overall, the integration solidifies Knowles' position as the market leader and supports our transition from an acoustics company to an audio solutions company.

What This Means for Knowles Employees

This is an exciting and historic day and you should take pride in your hard work and dedication through the years. It is because of you that we are well positioned to make this strategic acquisition. Your spirit of innovation and willingness to push boundaries is what made this integration possible. That's why I am confident we are ready to move forward together.

You will benefit from being part of an organization with enhanced capabilities in audio signal processing and software solutions. These enhancements create a path for improved products and technology, along with greater opportunities for us over the long term.

Leaders from both companies have continuously demonstrated their enthusiasm for this integration and each one has played a significant role in facilitating a successful union of companies. The benefits of a Knowles-Audience combination and its impact on you have been and will continue to be our focus throughout the completion of the transaction.

What Happens Next?

The transaction has been approved by Knowles' and Audience's Boards of Directors. We anticipate final approval of the transaction to be in the third quarter, depending on the timing of regulatory approvals.

Until the transaction is complete, Knowles and Audience will remain separate companies and it will be business as usual for all of us. The key to our success has been and must continue to be our customers. As we move forward, we ask that you continue to focus on your day-to-day responsibilities, and on providing our customers with quality products and solutions they come to expect from Knowles.

Keeping You Informed

As with any major change, I am sure today's announcement sparks many questions. I encourage you to share your questions with your manager.

I hope you share my excitement about the opportunities ahead. Thank you for all that you do for Knowles. And, thank you for your ongoing commitment to make this acquisition a success.

Sincerely,

Jeffrey Niew
