Pursuant to the Letter Agreement, among other things:

Fifth Amendment to Partnership Agreement

Concurrently with the execution of the Letter Agreement, Parkway LP entered into the fifth amendment to the Partnership Agreement (the Fifth Amendment). The Fifth Amendment shall become automatically effective upon the closing of the Merger.

The Fifth Amendment provides that, among other things:

upon the closing of the Merger, the Company will succeed to all rights and obligations of Parkway under the Partnership Agreement, and Cousins Properties LP, a subsidiary of the Company to be formed in connection with the consummation of the Merger, will succeed to all rights and obligations of Parkway LP under the Partnership Agreement;

If TRST determines that leasing services provided by the Company or an affiliate of the Company present a conflict of interest with other leasing activities of the Company for a particular investment of the Partnership, TRST may require the Company to cease providing leasing services for such investment, subject to certain procedural requirements;

the asset management fee payable to PPOF will be adjusted as set forth in the Fifth Amendment;

from the closing of the Merger until December 31, 2017, upon 30 days' notice, the Company will have a call option to purchase TRST's interest in the Partnership for a cash purchase price based on TRST's internal rate of return as of the closing of the Merger, as calculated pursuant to the terms of the Fifth Amendment; and from and after January 1, 2018, TRST will have the right upon notice, on one or more occasions, to cause the sale of one or more investments of the Partnership, in each case, subject to an appraisal and the right of first refusal of PPOF to purchase such investment as set forth in the Fifth Amendment.

Except as amended by the Fifth Amendment, the remaining terms of the Partnership Agreement will remain in full force and effect.

The foregoing summary of the Fifth Amendment is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Fifth Amendment, a copy of which is attached as Exhibit 10.2 hereto and incorporated herein by reference.
