FOR CONSOLIDATED TOMOKA ANNOUNCES SETTLEMENT

IMMEDIATE OF LITIGATION WITH WINTERGREEN ADVISERS

RELEASE

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla. March 7, 2017 Consolidated-Tomoka Land Co. (NYSE MKT: CTO) (the Company) today announced that it has reached a settlement agreement (the Settlement) with Wintergreen Advisers, LLC (Wintergreen) regarding the complaint filed by Wintergreen in February 2017 against the Company and its Board of Directors (the Board) in the Circuit Court of the Seventh Judicial Circuit in Volusia County, Florida (the Lawsuit).

Under the terms of the Settlement, Wintergreen's four candidates may stand for election at the Company's 2017 annual meeting of shareholders (the Annual Meeting), and the Company will not amend its Bylaws or change the intended size of its Board prior to the Annual Meeting. The Company and Wintergreen will each file their own proxy statements and related proxy materials and bear their own costs in connection with their respective proxy solicitations and the Lawsuit. In addition, as part of the Settlement, Wintergreen has agreed to dismiss the Lawsuit after each of the Company's and Wintergreen's proxy statements have been mailed to the Company's shareholders.

The Company issued the following statement:

In order to avoid the disruption of protracted litigation, the Board determined that it was the prudent course of action to settle the Lawsuit and let the Company's shareholders choose the composition of the Board and the future direction of the Company. We believe it is important to note that Wintergreen, by running a slate of four nominees, none of whom are independent of Wintergreen, is seeking to take control of the Company without paying a control premium or making any offer to our other shareholders that is reflective of the value in obtaining control of the Company.

The Board and our management team are unified in the belief that a hurried sale of the Company or liquidation of its assets, at this time, would be destructive to shareholder value, which is obviously contrary to what is in the best interests of all shareholders. The Company is continuing to successfully execute its business plan, completing value-enhancing transactions in an orderly, deliberate, and effective manner.

We look forward to engaging with our shareholders regarding the tremendous progress being achieved and value being created by this Board and management team.

SAFE HARBOR

Certain statements contained in this press release (other than statements of historical fact) are forward-looking statements. Words such as believe, estimate, expect, intend, anticipate, will, could, may, should, predict, forecast, project, and similar expressions and variations thereof identify certain of such forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the dates on which they were made. Although forward-looking statements are made based upon management's expectations and beliefs concerning future developments and their potential effect upon the Company, a number of factors could cause the Company's actual results to differ materially from those set forth in the forward-looking statements. Such factors may include the completion of 1031 exchange transactions, the availability of investment properties that meet the Company's investment goals and criteria, the modification of terms of certain land sales agreements, uncertainties associated with obtaining required governmental permits and satisfying other closing conditions, as well as the uncertainties and risk factors discussed in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2015 as filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission. There can be no assurance that future developments will be in accordance with management's expectations or that the effect of future developments on the Company will be those anticipated by management.
