On December 22, 2017, the Board of Directors (the Board) of Alaska Communications Systems Group, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the Corporation), approved a form of director's and officer's indemnification agreement (the D&O Indemnification Agreement). The D&O Indemnification Agreement indemnifies directors and officers who are parties thereto with indemnification rights arising out of, or relating to, their service as directors and officers of the Corporation or where they serve at the request of, for the convenience of, or to represent the interests of, the Corporation as an officer, director, employee, fiduciary, representative or other agent at another entity. The D&O Indemnification Agreement also provides for the directors and officers who are parties thereto with certain rights to advancement of expenses incurred in defending a proceeding in advance of the final disposition of any proceeding for which indemnification rights may be available pursuant to the D&O Indemnification Agreement. Further, the D&O Indemnification Agreement provides for the Corporation to take certain actions with respect to maintaining liability insurance coverage naming the directors and officers who are parties to the D&O Indemnification Agreement as insureds, including tail insurance coverage in the event that the Corporation experiences a Change in Control (as defined in the D&O Indemnification Agreement).

The foregoing description of the form of D&O Indemnification Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete text of the form of D&O Indemnification Agreement, a copy of which is attached to this Current Report on Form 8-K as Exhibit 10.1 and incorporated by reference herein in this Item 1.01 in its entirety.

On December 22, 2017, the Board approved amendments to amend and restate the Corporation's By-laws (the By-laws). The By-laws were last amended on December 15, 2015. The amendments to the Bylaws are intended to, among other things (i) enhance the information that the Board has access to about proposing stockholders, proposed director nominees and/or stockholder proposals and facilitate the ability of the Board to make informed voting recommendations to stockholders on any matter that will come before a stockholders' meeting; (ii) enhance the information that the Corporation would have access to in preparing proxy materials commenting on any stockholder proposed nominees and/or stockholder proposals, including information relating to the interests, objectives and potential conflicts of a proposing stockholder in proposing director nominees and/or other business; and (iii) enhance the information available to all stockholders in advance of a stockholders' meeting and, accordingly, allow stockholders to make more informed voting decisions about any proposed director nominees and/or other business, including whether to vote by proxy or to attend the meeting in person and ask questions concerning the proposed director nominees and/or other business.

Specify that business and director candidates proposed to be brought before an annual meeting by a stockholder may not be brought before such meeting if such stockholder
