Economic review

Economic activity in the U.S. was mixed during the twelve months ended November 30, 2018 (the reporting period). Looking back, the U.S. Department of Commerce reported that fourth quarter 2017 and first quarter 2018 U.S. gross domestic product (GDP growth was 2.3% and 2.2%, respectively. GDP growth then accelerated to 4.2% during the second quarter of 2018 the strongest reading since the third quarter of 2014. Finally, the U.S. Department of Commerce s final reading for third quarter 2018 GDP growth released after the reporting period ended was 3.4%. The deceleration in GDP growth in the third quarter of 2018 reflected a downturn in exports and decelerations in nonresidential fixed investment and personal consumption expenditures. Imports increased in the third quarter after decreasing in the second. These movements were partly offset by an upturn in private inventory investment.

Job growth in the U.S. was solid overall and supported the economy during the reporting period. As reported by the U.S. Department of Labor, when the reporting period ended on November 30, 2018, the unemployment rate was 3.7%, versus 4.1% when the period began. November 2018 s reading equaled the lowest unemployment rate since 1969. The percentage of longer-term unemployed also declined during the reporting period. In November 2018, 20.8% of Americans looking for a job had been out of work for more than six months, versus 22.9% when the period began.

Looking back, at its meeting that concluded on September 20, 2017, the Federal Reserve Board (the Fed kept the federal funds rateiii on hold, but reiterated its intention to begin reducing its balance sheet, saying, In October, the Committee will initiate the balance sheet normalization program. At its meeting that ended on December 13, 2017, the Fed raised rates to a range between 1.25% and 1.50%. As widely expected, the Fed again raised rates at its meetings that ended on March 21, 2018 (to a range between 1.50% and 1.75%), June 13, 2018 (to a range between 1.75% and 2.00%) and September 26, 2018 (to a range between 2.00% and 2.25%). Finally, at its meeting that ended on December 19, 2018, after the reporting period ended, the Fed raised rates to a range between 2.25% and 2.50%.

As always, thank you for your confidence in our stewardship of your assets.

Sincerely,

Jane Trust, CFA

Fund overview

Q. What is the Fund s investment strategy?

A. The Fund s primary investment objective is to provide current income and then to liquidate and distribute substantially all of the Fund s net assets to stockholders on or about December 2, 2024. As a secondary investment objective, the Fund will seek capital appreciation. There can be no assurance the Fund will achieve its investment objectives.

The Fund seeks to achieve its investment objectives by investing, under normal market conditions, at least 80% of its net assets in investment grade corporate fixed-income securities of varying maturities. The Fund may invest up to 20% of its net assets in corporate fixed-income securities of below investment grade quality (commonly known as high yield or junk bonds) at the time of investment and other securities, including obligations of the U.S. government, its agencies or instrumentalities, common stocks, warrants and depositary receipts. While the Fund may invest up to 20% of its net assets in below investment grade securities, the Fund will, under normal market conditions, maintain a portfolio with an overall dollar-weighted average of investment grade credit quality. The Fund may invest up to 20% of its net assets in securities of foreign issuers located anywhere in the world, including issuers located in emerging market countries. Additionally, the Fund may invest up to 20% of its net assets in non-U.S. dollar denominated securities.

The Fund may invest in derivative instruments, such as options contracts, futures contracts, options on futures contracts, indexed securities, credit default swaps and other swap agreements, provided that the Fund s exposure to derivative instruments, as measured by the total notional amount of all such instruments, will not exceed 20% of its net assets.

In purchasing securities and other investments for the Fund, we may take full advantage of the entire range of maturities and durationsⁱ offered by corporate fixed-income securities and may adjust the average maturity or duration of the Fund s portfolio from time to time, depending on our assessment of the relative yields available on securities of different maturities and durations and our expectations of future changes in interest rates.

The Fund may take on leveraging risk by utilizing certain management techniques, whereby it will segregate liquid assets, enter into offsetting transactions or own positions covering its obligations. To the extent the Fund covers its commitment under such a portfolio management technique, such instrument will not be considered a senior security for the purposes of the Investment Company Act of 1940. However, as a fundamental policy, the Fund will not leverage its capital structure by issuing senior securities such as preferred shares or debt instruments.

At Western Asset Management Company, LLC (formerly known as Western Asset Management Company) (Western Asset), the Fund's subadviser, we utilize a fixed-income team approach, with decisions derived from interaction among various investment management sector specialists. The sector teams are comprised of Western Asset's senior portfolio management personnel, research analysts and an in-house economist. Under this team approach, management of client fixed-income portfolios will reflect a consensus of interdisciplinary views within the Western Asset organization. The individuals responsible for development of investment strategy, day-to-day portfolio management, oversight and coordination of the Fund are S. Kenneth Leech, Michael C. Buchanan and Ryan K. Brist.

Q. What were the overall market conditions during the Fund s reporting period?

A. Fixed income markets generally posted weak results over the twelve-month reporting period ended November 30, 2018. Spread sectors (non-Treasuries) experienced periods of elevated volatility as they were impacted by a number of factors, including the December 2017 signing of the U.S. tax reform bill, solid economic growth in the U.S., four interest rate hikes by the Federal Reserve Board (the Fed, concerns over a global trade war and geopolitical issues.

Both short- and long-term Treasury yields moved sharply higher during the reporting period. The yield for the two-year Treasury note began the reporting period at 1.78% equaling the low for the period and ended the period at 2.80%. Their high for the period of 2.98% occurred on November 8, 2018. The yield for the ten-year Treasury began the reporting period at 2.42% and ended the period at 3.01%. The low of 2.33% occurred on December 6, 2017, and the peak of 3.24% took place on November 8, 2018.

All told, the Bloomberg Barclays U.S. Aggregate Indexⁱⁱⁱ returned -1.34% for the twelve months ended November 30, 2018. Comparatively, the Bloomberg Barclays U.S. Credit Index^{iv} returned -2.79% and the Bloomberg Barclays U.S. Corporate High Yield 2% Issuer Cap Index returned 0.36% over the same period.

Q. How did we respond to these changing market conditions?

A. From a sector perspective, we reduced the Funds underweight to the Consumer Non-Cyclicalssector during the reporting period. This was largely driven by participating in the CVS Health Corp. deal issued in March of 2018 to fund their purchase of health insurer Aetna. We also added to the Funds real estate investment trust (REIT'sex)posure as a lower betavii (risk) diversifier. We kept the Funds Financials sector overweight largely unchanged. Given a lack of broader compelling valuations in most sectors and some late economic cycle behavior, such as increased mergers and acquisitions (M&A) activity, we reduced our exposures to Communication Basic Industry (but maintained an overweight to the Metals & Mining subsector). Elsewhere, we reduced the Funds overweight to the Energy sector, mainly by selling certain lower quality securities. More recently, we pared the Funds overall risk exposure and increased its allocation to U.S. Treasuries.

From a quality standpoint, we reduced the Fund s allocation to high-yield corporate bonds. The Fund s ratings profile also changed organically, as several rising star

- 1 Consumer Non-Cyclicals consists of the following industries; Consumer Products, Food/Beverage, Health Care, Pharmaceuticals, Supermarkets and Tobacco.
- ² Communications consists of the following industries: Media Cable, Media Non-Cable and Telecommunications.
- ³ Basic Industry consists of the following industries: Chemicals, Metals & Mining and Paper.
- Western Asset Investment Grade Defined Opportunity Trust Inc. 2018 Annual Report

candidates were upgraded to investment-grade over the reporting period. We also modestly increased the Fund s allocation to securities rated BBB and AAA, while reducing its exposure to securities rated A on a relative value basis.

During the reporting period, we employed U.S. Treasury futures and interest rate swaps to manage the Fund s duration. Both these futures and swap contracts aided performance on a standalone basis. Currency forwards, which were utilized to manage the Fund s currency exposure, marginally contributed to results. Finally, high yield index swaps (CDX), which were used to manage the Fund s credit exposure, modestly detracted from performance.

Performance review

For the twelve months ended November 30, 2018, Western Asset Investment Grade Defined Opportunity Trust Inc. returned -3.78% based on its net asset value (NAVⁱⁱⁱ)and -13.06% based on its New York Stock Exchange (NYSE) market price per share. The Fund s unmanaged benchmark, the Bloomberg Barclays U.S. Credit Index, returned -2.79% for the same period. The Lipper Corporate Debt BBB-Rated Closed-End Funds Category Average^{ix} returned -2.79% over the same time frame. Please note that Lipper performance returns are based on each fund s NAV.

During the twelve-month period, the Fund made distributions to shareholders totaling $1.02 per share.* The performance table shows the Fund s twelve-month total return based on its NAV and market price as of November 30, 2018. Past performance is no guarantee of future results.

Q. What were the leading contributors to performance?

A. The largest contributor to the Fund s relative performance during the reporting period was security selection. In particular, the Fund s holdings in the Consumer Non-Cyclicals, Utilities and Energy sectors added the most value. Within the Consumer Non-Cyclicals sector, an underweight to the underperforming Food & Beverage subsector was beneficial, as were the Fund s selection within Health Care and Pharmaceuticals. Specifically, holdings such as Bausch Health (formerly Valeant) and HCA Healthcare, Inc. performed well due to an improved fundamental backdrop and execution on liability reduction. Within the Utilities sector, the Fund s position in FirstEnergy performed well as the company exited the merchant generation business (FirstEnergy Solutions) and converted to a fully regulated business model. On the back of this move, the company was also upgraded to investment-grade by Standard & Poor s towards the end of the reporting period. Within the Energy sector, several of the Fund s overweight positions added value as they continued to demonstrate prudent balance sheet management. In addition, several of the Fund s Energy sector holdings, such as Williams Companies, were upgraded to investment-grade from high-yield.

Positioning in several sectors was beneficial for results. An overweight to the outperforming Communications industry was rewarded as it held up relatively well considering it was already trading at wider levels on the back of anticipated M&A activity. In terms of the Fund s quality biases, an underweight to securities rated A was beneficial as they lagged the benchmark.

Q. What were the leading detractors from performance?

A. The largest detractor from the Funds relative performance during the reporting period was its quality biases. In particular, an overweight to lower quality securities was not rewarded as bonds rated BBB underperformed their higher rated counterparts in what was an overall risk-off and volatile period. An allocation to high-yield corporate bonds, which initially benefited performance, sold off toward the end of the reporting period in sympathy with lower rated investment-grade credit.

Sector allocation was negative for performance overall. An overweight to the Energy sector, while initially a strong performer, ultimately detracted from results as oil traded down substantially during the last two months of the reporting period. An underweight to outperforming non-corporate debt was also a headwind for returns as the sector held up relatively well given its higher quality bias.

In terms of security selection, the Fund s emerging markets holdings, including the Fund s positions in Argentina, detracted from performance. A crisis of confidence around Argentina s economic policymaking and mixed signals by the country s central bank precipitated a sustained depreciation of the Argentinian peso. The decline of its currency and a generally weaker economic backdrop impacted the valuations of both Argentina s local and U.S. dollar-denominated debt. Elsewhere, the Fund s holdings in the Banking subsector and Capital Goddsector detracted from performance. Within the Banking subsector, an overweight to European banks, such as Intesa SanPaolo, was negative for results as they were dragged down by Brexit and Italian budget headlines. Within the U.S. bank space, an overweight to longer dated bonds was not rewarded, as they underperformed their shorter dated counterparts. Within the Capital Goods sector, an overweight to General Electric Co. detracted from performance. The company s bonds traded down on weaker than expected earnings, concerns about the profitability of its power business, the size of liabilities related to its legacy insurance contracts, and forced selling due to downgrades.

Capital Goods consists of the following industries: Aerospace & Defense, Building Materials, Diversified Manufacturing, Construction Machines, Packaging and Environmental.

RISKS: The Fund is a non-diversified, closed-end management investment company designed primarily as a long-term investment and not as a trading vehicle. The Fund is not intended to be a complete investment program and, due to the uncertainty inherent in all investments, there can be no assurance that the Fund will achieve its investment objectives. The Fund's common stock is traded on the New York Stock Exchange. Similar to stocks, the Fund's share price will fluctuate with market conditions and, at the time of sale, may be worth more or less than the original investment. Shares of closed-end funds often trade at a discount to their net asset value. Because the Fund is non-diversified, it may be more susceptible to economic, political or regulatory events than a diversified fund. The Fund's investments are subject to a number of risks, including credit risk, inflation risk and interest rate risk. As interest rates rise, bond prices fall, reducing the value of the Fund's holdings. The Fund may invest in lower-rated high-yield bonds or junk bonds, which are subject to greater liquidity and credit risk (risk of default) than higher-rated obligations. The Fund may use derivatives, such as options and futures, which can be illiquid, may disproportionately increase losses and have a potentially large impact on Fund performance. The Fund may invest in securities or engage in transactions that have the economic effects of leverage which can increase the risk and volatility of the Fund.

Portfolio holdings and breakdowns are as of November 30, 2018 and are subject to change and may not be representative of the portfolio managers current or future investments. Please refer to pages 10 through 24 for a list and percentage breakdown of the Fund s holdings.

The information provided regarding such sectors is not a sufficient basis upon which to make an investment decision.
