NAUC is an operator of online auction drop-off locations and develops relationships with independently owned and/or franchised pack and ship centers. We believe NAUC is ideal for people who want hassle-free selling of their used goods online using eBay internet auction site. In addition to the millions of people who trade on eBay, we believe there is a large population of people who would like to participate on eBay, but lack the skills, time or inclination to sell online directly. NAUC serves this population by extending the reach of eBay.

NAUC handles of all aspects of selling goods on eBay for its customers, including photographing the goods to be sold, posting a picture of the goods on eBay, drafting the product description for eBay, handling inquiries from potential purchasers, selling the goods, processing payments for the goods, and taking care of shipping the goods to the final purchaser. A customer of NAUC gets a majority of the proceeds from the sale of the goods and NAUC does all the work.

Currently, NAUC operates forty-seven (47) drop-off locations, in addition to the twenty-three (23) affiliate locations that were acquired in our acquisition of AuctionWagon, Inc. ("AWI") on September 30, 2005. NAUC has developed numerous commercial accounts whereby NAUC liquidates the excess inventory of such accounts on eBay. NAUC has obtained such commercial accounts in a wide variety of business industries or segments, including golf products, electronics-computer items, and shoes for both men and woman. NAUC continues to receive a customer satisfaction rating on eBay exceeding 99%. To learn more about the NAUC, please visit the website at www.net2auction.com.

Auction Wagon

NAUC acquired Auction Wagon, Inc ("AWI") on September 30, 2005. AWI was incorporated in September of 2003 and became the first eBay consignment store in the Los Angeles market. AWI is the first company to qualify as both an eBay certified developer and an eBay Trading Post. AWI is a frontrunner in both the retail and software segments of the industry, being featured in Entrepreneur, the New York Times, and the Wall Street Journal. AWI currently markets its consignment software to drop-off stores, and maintains a national affiliate network of drop-off locations.

AWI's software, Store Manager Pro G2, performs virtually all of the functions needed by an eBay consignment store, from printing contracts, barcodes, and inventory labels to managing its inventory, payment, shipping, and check writing as well as integrating photo editing. The Store Manager Pro offers multiple levels of software supporting different business requirements and charges both a monthly fee and an initial fee. The fees range from $99 to $330 per month per customer. For additional information about AWI, see www.auctionwagon.com.

Auction Boulevard

On September 14, 2005, NAUC acquired assets from Netelectronics.com d/b/a Auction Boulevard ("AB"). AB is an operator of online auction drop-off locations. Among the assets acquired by NAUC were all rights to the AB name, all of AB intellectual property, and all eBay accounts opened by AB. The following discussion should be read in conjunction with the audited financial statements and notes thereto included in our annual report on Form 10-KSB for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2005, and should further be read in conjunction with the financial statements included in this report. Comparisons made between reporting periods herein are for the three-month period ended March 31, 2006 as compared to the same period in 2005.

This increase is due to an increase in administration expenses, research and development expenses, and in legal expenses. The Company's expenses for the first quarter ended March 31, 2006 as compared to the same period in 2005 are set forth below:

R&D	0	$36,958
Total Expenses	845,484	$424,146

The increase in these expenses for the first quarter of 2006 as related to the same period for 2005 is due mostly to the increased operations of the Company's subsidiaries. The operating loss increase primarily due to the increased business activities of its subsidiaries, Net2Auction, Inc., Auction Wagon, Inc. and RoboServer Systems Corp.

Edgar Filing: AMERIRESOURCE TECHNOLOGIES INC - Form 10QSB operations of $18,769 for the same period in 2005. This increase is mainly attributable to an increase in non-cash services through the issuance of stock to $514,218 for the first quarter of 2006 as compared to $241,369 for the first quarter of 2005, and a decrease in notes receivable from $6,371 for the three months ended March 31, 2005 by $221 for the three months ended March 31, 2006.

The Company's cash flow used in investing activities was $23,520 during the first quarter of 2006, as compared to $0 for the same period in 2005. This increase is due to purchase of fixed assets and intangibles of $23,520.

The Company's cash flow provided by financing activities was $323,434 during the first quarter of 2006, as compared to $0 for the same period in 2005. This increase is due to a net increase in notes payable of $43,434 and proceeds from the issuance of stock of $280,000.

The Company has relied upon its chief executive officer for its capital requirements and liquidity. The Company's recurring losses, lack of cash flow and lack of cash on hand raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. Management's plans with respect to these matters include raising additional working capital through equity or debt financing and acquisitions of ongoing concerns, which generate profits, ultimately allowing the Company to achieve consistent profitable operations. The accompanying financial statements do not include any adjustments that might be necessary should the Company be unable to continue as a going concern.

OFF-BALANCE SHEET ARRANGEMENTS

We do not participate in transactions that generate relationships with unconsolidated entities or financial partnerships, such as entities often referred to as structure finance or special purpose entities ("SPEs"), which would have been established for the purpose of facilitating off-balance sheet arrangements or other contractually narrow or limited purposes as part of our ongoing business. As of March 31, 2006, we were not involved in any unconsolidated SPE transactions.
