Speedemissions, Inc. Due to the Company’s current financial situation, we have been unable to pay our accounting firm for services previously performed which has impaired the accounting firm’s ability to maintain its independence and complete the review of our Form 10-Q until our financial obligation has been satisfied. We are working to resolve this matter and anticipate we will be able to file our Form 10-Q within the five-day extension period provided by Rule 12b-25 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.
