On March 6, 2008, the following subsidiaries of WellCare Health Plans, Inc. (the “Company”) filed annual unaudited financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2007 (the “Health Annual Statements”) with state regulatory authorities in each jurisdiction, other than as described below, where such subsidiaries were required to be filed as of March 1, 2008:

- WellCare of Connecticut, Inc.
- WellCare of Louisiana, Inc.
- WellCare of Georgia, Inc.
- WellCare of Ohio, Inc.
- WellCare Health Insurance of Illinois, Inc.
- WellCare Prescription Insurance, Inc.
- WellCare Health Insurance of Arizona, Inc.
- WellCare Health Insurance of New York, Inc.
- WellCare of Texas, Inc.
- WellCare of New Jersey, Inc.

As of the date hereof, the Company has not filed a Health Annual Statement for Harmony Health Plan of Illinois, Inc. which also was required to be filed as of March 1, 2008. The Company is in discussions with the Illinois Department of Insurance to pursue an extension for this filing and may be subject to fines or other sanctions for the delay in filing.

As previously disclosed, on October 24, 2007, several government agencies, under the supervision of the United States Attorney’s Office for the Middle District of Florida executed a search warrant and served subpoenas on the Company and various related entities. The Board of Directors of the Company subsequently formed a special committee of independent directors to conduct an independent investigation. Because to date, neither the Company, nor any of its subsidiaries, has been advised by these agencies as to the full scope of the investigations, the Health Annual Statements are necessarily subject to revision based upon the outcome of these investigations.

In preparing the Health Annual Statements, the Company has considered information about the ongoing investigations known to the Company as of the date hereof. However, as noted, the information contained in the Health Annual Statements may be subject to adjustment based on the outcome of the pending investigations or as new information becomes available. The Health Annual Statements filed in each of the states listed above have been prepared in accordance with the requirements of each respective state’s law and have not been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States (“GAAP”). Additionally, the Health Annual Statements filed in each of the states listed above should not be considered, individually or in the aggregate, as representative or indicative of the Company’s results of operations or financial condition on a consolidated GAAP basis. As previously announced, until the independent investigation conducted by the special committee is complete, the Company, in addition to having been unable to file its Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 2007, will not be in a position to file its Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2007 by the required filing date or on or before the fifteenth calendar day following the required filing date as prescribed in Rule 12b-25.

Copies of the Health Annual Statements for each of the subsidiaries listed above can be accessed at the Company's website at www.wellcare.com/investor relations/financial reports/statutory filings. All forward-looking statements attributable to the Company are expressly qualified in their entirety by the cautionary statements in this paragraph. Additional information concerning these and other important risks and uncertainties are detailed from time to time in the Company's filings with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission.
