Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Merger Agreement

On October 21, 2015, SmartPros Ltd., a Delaware corporation (the “Company”), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the “Merger Agreement”), by and among the Company, DF Institute, LLC, an Illinois limited liability company (“Parent”), and SPL Merger Corp., a Delaware corporation and wholly owned subsidiary of Parent (“Merger Sub”), pursuant to which Merger Sub shall be merged with and into the Company, and the separate corporate existence of Merger Sub shall thereupon cease, and the Company shall continue as the surviving corporation (the “Surviving Corporation”) and a wholly owned subsidiary of Parent (the “Merger”). The Merger Agreement was unanimously approved by the Board of Directors of the Company (the “Board”), based on the recommendation of a Special Committee of the Board (the “Special Committee”) that was formed to evaluate and negotiate the terms of a sale of the Company.

At the time the Merger becomes effective pursuant to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement and under Delaware law (the “Effective Time”): (a) each share of capital stock of Merger Sub issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be converted into and become one validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable share of common stock of the Surviving Corporation, (b) each share of common stock par value $.0001 per share of the Company issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (other than shares owned by the Company, Parent or Merger Sub and shares owned by shareholders of the Company who have perfected and not withdrawn a demand for appraisal rights under Delaware law) will automatically be canceled and converted into the right to receive $3.57 in cash, without interest (the “Merger Consideration”), and (c) each option outstanding (whether or not then vested or exercisable) that represents the right to acquire shares of common stock of the Company will be canceled and terminated and converted into the right to receive an amount for each such option equal to the excess, if any, of (i) the Merger Consideration over (ii) the exercise price payable in respect of such share of common stock of the Company issuable upon exercise of such option.

The Merger Agreement contains customary representations, warranties and covenants. The consummation of the Merger is subject to customary conditions, including, without limitation, (a) approval by the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of common stock of the Company entitled to vote on the Merger and (b) the absence of any law, order, injunction, ruling or other legal restraint prohibiting the Merger. Moreover, each party’s obligation to consummate the Merger is subject to certain other conditions, including, without limitation, (i) the accuracy of the other party’s representations and warranties (subject to customary qualifiers), and (ii) the other party’s compliance with its covenants and agreements contained in the Merger Agreement (subject to customary qualifiers). In addition, the obligation of Parent and Merger Sub to consummate the Merger is conditioned upon, among other things, (1) certain required consents having been obtained, (2) holders of not more than five percent (5%) of the outstanding shares of common stock of the Company having exercised their appraisal rights, (3) there not being any Company Material Adverse Effect (as defined in the Merger Agreement), (4) the completion of certain employment and consulting arrangements with certain current executives of the Company and (5) the satisfaction of certain financial conditions.

In addition, Parent has been authorized to contact a limited number of specified customers of the Company in order to be reasonably satisfied that such customers intend to continue doing business with the Company after completion of the Merger in a manner reasonably comparable to past experience. Parent must notify the Company prior to twenty (20) business days following the date of the Merger Agreement if it elects to terminate the Agreement because it is not reasonably satisfied with the results of such customer contacts.

From the date of the Merger Agreement, subject to certain exceptions, the Company is subject to customary “no-shop” restrictions on its ability to (a) solicit or respond to alternative takeover proposals from third parties, (b) furnish information to and engage in discussions with third parties regarding alternative takeover proposals, (c) recommend an alternative takeover proposal or (d) enter into an agreement with respect to an alternative takeover proposal.

The Merger Agreement contains certain termination rights for the Company and Parent, including the right of the Company under certain circumstances to terminate the Merger Agreement to accept a Superior Proposal (as defined in the Merger Agreement) and enter into a definitive agreement with respect thereto. Upon termination of the Merger Agreement under specified circumstances, including termination of the Merger Agreement to accept a Superior Proposal and enter into a definitive agreement with respect thereto, the Company is required to pay Parent a termination fee of $525,000. Upon termination of the Merger Agreement by the Company under certain other specified circumstances, Parent is required to pay the Company a termination fee of $525,000.

The foregoing description of the Merger Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Merger Agreement, a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 2.1 attached hereto, and the terms of which are incorporated herein by reference.

Support Agreements

As a condition to Parent entering into the Merger Agreement, on October 21, 2015, certain officers, directors and shareholders of the Company entered into support agreements with Parent (the “Support Agreements”), whereby they agreed to vote all of the shares of common stock of the Company owned beneficially (or of record) by such shareholder, including, but not limited to, any shares of common stock of the Company that such voting shareholder acquires after the date of the Support Agreement (i) in favor of adoption of the Merger Agreement and in favor of the Merger, (ii) against (A) any proposal for any recapitalization, merger, sale of assets or other business combination (other than the Merger) between the Company and any person or entity other than Parent, (B) any other action or agreement that would reasonably be expected to result in a breach of any obligation or agreement of the Company under the Merger Agreement or the voting shareholder under the Support Agreement, or (C) which would reasonably be expected to result in any of the conditions to the Company’s obligations under the Merger Agreement not being fulfilled.

The shareholders who are parties to the Support Agreements own approximately 27.1% of the shares entitled to vote on the Merger.

The foregoing description of the Support Agreements does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Form of Support Agreement, a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 10.1 attached hereto, and the terms of which are incorporated herein by reference.
