Joint Communiqué

Bradesco signs agreement to assume Brazil operations of American Express

Banco Bradesco S.A. (Bradesco) announced today to its shareholders, clients and the market in general that it has signed an agreement with American Express Company to assume the company's card and related operations in Brazil. Among the documents signed were a Share Purchase Agreement and an Independent Operator Agreement, which governs the relationship between the two companies.

The partnership comprises:

- 1 - The transfer to Bradesco of American Express Brazilian subsidiaries operating in the credit card and related businesses, such as insurance brokerage, business travel, retail foreign exchange services and direct consumer financing operations.
- 2 - The granting to Bradesco of the exclusive right to issue the Centurion line of charge and credit cards in Brazil. The Centurion line includes the classic green, gold and platinum cards that carry the American Express Centurion logo. The exclusive right is for a minimum of 10 years and allows Bradesco to issue American Express-branded cards to individual and corporate clients, offer the Membership Rewards Program in conjunction with those cards, and manage the merchant network that accepts American Express Cards in Brazil.

Bradesco and proprietary American Express card operations: main statistics in Brazil as of year ended December 31, 2005:

	Bradesco	Proprietary American Express Operations
Annual billings	R$ 13.8 billion	R$ 8.9 billion
Market Share - based on billings (*)	10.7%	6.9%
Card Base	8.7 million	1.2 million

Bradesco will pay American Express approximately US$490 million for the subsidiaries when the transaction closes, currently equivalent to R$1.04 billion on March 17, 2006.

American Express possesses extensive expertise in the credit card market and is considered one of the world's most valued brands, enjoying considerable international prestige. In Brazil, it possesses an excellent operational platform and a team of highly qualified professionals. It has been increasing its share in key markets around the globe and leads the high-spend and corporate-card segments in Brazil.

The partnership represents an important strategic advance for Bradesco, allowing it to expand its client base in a highly competitive segment, complement its existing credit card activities and provide added convenience for its customers. It will also permit significant gains in scale, help strengthen the card and merchant base and create added value for both institutions.

Edgar Filing: BANK BRADESCO - Form 6-K

American Express cardmembers in Brazil will continue to enjoy the same services, benefits, and features, including travel assistance at more than 2,200 Travel Service Locations around the world, and access to more than 550,000 ATMs worldwide. Bradesco's more than 23,000 ATMs will also be available to Cardmembers in this partnership in the near future. As the latest addition to the nearly 100 card-issuing partnerships American Express through its Global Network Services division has established around the world, Bradesco is committed to upholding the high quality standards American Express offers customers worldwide and the American Express brand attributes of quality, security and trust.

The completion of this transaction is subject to approval by the appropriate authorities. Closing is expected by the end of the second quarter.

Not included in the transaction are a representative office of American Express Bank Ltd. in São Paulo, the company's local Travelers Cheques business and existing card licensing agreements with other banks in Brazil, which do not include the Centurion line of products.

Goldman Sachs acted as financial advisor to American Express in the transaction, while Bradesco's Capital Markets Department - BBI acted as financial advisor to Banco Bradesco.
