NOTICE TO THE MARKET

For the third consecutive year, Telefônica Brasil SA ("Company") was included in the Corporate Sustainability Index (ISE) of BM&FBovespa. The Company integrates again the ranking that is formed by 51 shares of 40 companies included in 19 sectors of the economy. The portfolio of companies that comprise the ISE is in its tenth edition and will be valid throughout 2015.

A pioneer in Latin America, the index is a comparative analysis tool for the performance of the companies listed on Bovespa under the aspect of corporate sustainability. It is structured in partnership with the Getúlio Vargas Foundation. The achievement of the Company therefore reflects its commitment to sustainability, as well as the conduct that the company adopts in relationship with stakeholders.

Each year, a review of the ranking is performed, where are assessed the economic and financial, social and environmental dimensions of the companies, together with criteria and corporate governance indicators.

Telefônica Brasil is distinguished not only by the actions aimed at minimizing the impact of their activities, but also for investments in technological solutions that ensure quality of life for society, through education, security, mobility, health and well-being.
