NOTICE TO THE MARKET

Companhia Brasileira de Distribuição ("CBD", the "Company" or "GPA"), in accordance with Material Fact disclosed on the date hereof, announces today a change in its leadership. The Board of Directors of the Company has appointed Peter Paul Estermann to the position of CEO of GPA, replacing Ronaldo Iabrudi Pereira. Iabrudi will be appointed by the controlling shareholder to the position of co-vice president of the Board of Directors, alongside Arnaud Strasser, on the first General Shareholders Meeting to be held in 2018 and will also remain as chairman of the Via Varejo board of directors. Peter Paul Estermann will thus leave the presidency of Via Varejo, which he has held since October 2015, and will assume his new position on April 27, 2018.

"We live in an era of retail transformation, and I see no better person than Peter to guide GPA through the next cycle," says Jean-Charles Naouri, chairman of the Board of Directors. "At Via Varejo, Peter strongly focused on efficiency, productivity and customer service, and helped position the Company for its digital future, showing he is the right person to take on this new challenge."

At the age of 60, Peter Paul Estermann had a distinguished career in companies from various economic sectors. He took over the presidency of Via Varejo after a term as Director of Operations of GPA. Under his command, Via Varejo completed the integration of its online and offline operations and increased its sales from R$ 19 billion to R$ 25 billion. During Peter's tenure, Via Varejo's shares appreciated by more than 500%.

"Replacing Ronaldo is at the same time the greatest honor of my career and an immense responsibility," says Estermann. "We have known each other for decades, and he has always been an example of leadership. I am counting on his help, and of the entire GPA team, so that we can keep taking the Company to the level expected by our millions of customers, our employees and our shareholders". Estermann will also be directly in charge of the Multivarejo Unit.

Ronaldo labrudi will dedicate himself to the Boards of GPA and Via Varejo. Under his leadership, and in the midst of the greatest economic crisis in Brazilian history, GPA implemented a meritocratic model with strong financial discipline and a strategic management of the store portfolio. labrudi laid the foundations for the Company's digital transformation. The Assaí brand, led by Belmiro Gomes, doubled its sales in the last four years, becoming GPA's main growth engine. labrudi also focused on raising the corporate governance level of GPA, resulting in a stronger culture and team engagement.

"Leading GPA in this challenging economic period has been a huge satisfaction. We achieved important goals, and I thank our team for the partnership", says Ronaldo labrudi. "I will be on the Board helping Peter, Belmiro and our top executives, always focusing on the constant improvement of the Company".

"Ronaldo has been a loyal and competent partner, and his leadership has taken GPA to a new level of governance and efficiency," says Jean-Charles Naouri. "The transition to be conducted by him and his new role on the Board of Directors ensure that there will be continuity in the management of GPA."

Christophe Hidalgo, who has been GPA CFO since 2012, will also be responsible for the Malls business unit, focusing on continuing to monetize the Company's real estate assets. Luis Moreno Sanchez will become a consultant, focused on projects of great relevance to the Company, such as digital transformation, retail brands and loyalty programs. Flavio Dias, current executive Director of the On-line Business Unit, takes over as President of Via Varejo on April 26, 2018.

GPA is the largest retail and distribution group in Brazil, with more than 2,000 points of sale in all regions of the country. The Company is controlled by Casino Group. With more than 140,000 employees, it is the largest private employer in the Country in its segment.
