Item 3.02 Unregistered Sales of Equity Securities.

1) New Issuances

On April 27, 2006, Wave Wireless Corporation (the "Registrant") closed the sale of 90,533 shares of its Series J Convertible Preferred Stock (the "Series J Preferred Stock"). On that date, the Registrant received gross proceeds of Six Hundred and Seventy-Nine Thousand Dollars ($679,000) from accredited investors. The net proceeds to the Registrant were Six Hundred and Eleven Thousand One Hundred Dollars ($611,100) after the payment of a 10% placement fee to the placement agent. Pursuant to the terms of the transaction, the investors also received 2,716,000 Series J Warrants to purchase the Company's common stock. The Series J Warrants have an exercise price of $0.12 per share of common stock and expire five years from the date of issuance.

The sales of securities described above have not been registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act") and were made in reliance upon the exemption from registration available under Regulation D promulgated under the Securities Act. This exemption was claimed on the basis that the transactions did not involve any public offering and the purchasers provided written assurances that they were accredited investors (as defined in Rule 501(a) of the Securities Act). The securities were, or shall be, issued with the appropriate restrictive legend indicating that they may not be offered or sold absent registration or an applicable exemption from registration requirements.
