Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

(e) Approval of Severance Benefits Agreement

On December 11, 2009, Phoenix Technologies Ltd. (the "Company") entered into a Severance and Change of Control Agreement (the "Severance Agreement") with Timothy Chu ("Executive"), which amends and restates Mr. Chu's previous agreement with the Company relating to severance and change of control. The initial term of the Severance Agreement is four years. In the event that the Company terminates Executive's employment for any reason other than cause, death or disability, the Company will pay to Executive salary continuation benefits equal to such Executive's then-current base salary for 6 months. Executive and Executive's eligible dependents will also receive continuation of health, dental and vision benefits for six months following such termination.

If the Company terminates Executive's employment for any reason other than cause, death or disability, or Executive resigns for good reason, within the period beginning two months prior to and ending twelve months following a change of control of the Company, then in addition to the severance and benefits described above, 50% of Executive's then-unvested stock options and restricted stock will vest as of the termination date. If Executive's employment is terminated as a result of his death or disability, Executive and/or the Executive's eligible dependents will receive continuation of health, dental and vision benefits during the first six months following such termination.

In the event that the payments under the Severance Agreement constitute "parachute payments" within the meaning of Section 280G of the Internal Revenue Code (the "Code") and would subject the Executive to the excise tax under Section 4999 of the Code, Executive is entitled to either (i) the full payments provided under the Severance Agreement, or (ii) such lesser amount which would result in no portion of such payments being subject to excise tax under Section 4999 of the Code, whichever of the foregoing amounts, taking into account all applicable income and excise taxes, would result in a greater after-tax benefit to Executive. The Executive's right to receive the payments described in his Severance Agreement is subject to his signing and not revoking a separation and release of claims agreement with the Company within the time period provided for in the Separation Agreement.

The description in this Item 5.02 of the Severance Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Severance Agreement, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1 and incorporated herein by reference.

Item 9.01 Financial Statements and Exhibits.
