Item

3.01.

On October 4, 2018, Roadrunner Transportation Systems, Inc. (the “Company”) received a letter (the “Letter”) from the New York Stock Exchange (the “NYSE”) notifying the Company that it had fallen below compliance with respect to the applicable listing standards set forth in Section 802.01B of the NYSE Listed Company Manual (“Section 802.01B”). Section 802.01B states that a company will be considered below compliance if its average global market capitalization over a consecutive 30 trading-day period is less than $50,000,000, and at the same time stockholders’ investment is less than $50,000,000.

Pursuant to the Letter and the NYSE listing standards, the Company timely notified the NYSE that the Company will submit a plan (the “Plan”) within 45 calendar days from receipt of the Letter, advising the NYSE of definitive action the Company is taking that will bring it into compliance with Section 802.01B within 18 months from receipt of the Letter (the “Plan Period”). Upon receipt of the Plan, the NYSE has 45 calendar days to review the Plan and determine whether the Company has made a reasonable demonstration of its ability to come into compliance with the relevant standards during the Plan Period.

Following the NYSE’s review, the NYSE will either accept the Plan, at which time the Company will be subject to quarterly review for compliance with the Plan, or the NYSE will not accept the Plan and the Company will be subject to suspension and delisting proceedings. If the NYSE accepts the Plan, the Company’s shares would continue to be listed and traded on the NYSE during the Plan Period, subject to compliance with other NYSE listing standards. In the event the Company does not cure the compliance issue prior to the end of the Plan Period, the Company will be subject to suspension and delisting procedures; however, if the Company regains compliance for any two consecutive quarters during the Plan Period, the NYSE will deem the Plan Period over prior to the end of the full 18 months.
