Item 8.01 Other Events.

The following disclosures supplement the disclosures contained in the definitive proxy statement, dated as of August 15, 2017 (the “Proxy Statement”), which was filed by Bankrate, Inc. (“Bankrate”) with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) and mailed on or about August 15, 2017 to Bankrate stockholders of record as of the close of business on August 14, 2017 in connection with the previously announced proposed merger between Bankrate and Red Ventures Holdco, LP (“Red Ventures”).

The following disclosures should be read in conjunction with the disclosures contained in the Proxy Statement, which should be read in its entirety. To the extent that information set forth herein differs from or updates information contained in the Proxy Statement, the information contained herein supersedes the information contained in the Proxy Statement. All page references are to pages in the Proxy Statement, and any defined terms used but not defined herein shall have the meanings set forth in the Proxy Statement.

As disclosed in the Proxy Statement, two putative securities class action complaints were filed in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York on August 1, 2017 and August 2, 2017, respectively, against Bankrate, the members of the Bankrate board of directors and, in the case of one of the actions, Red Ventures and Merger Sub. The complaints allege, among other things, that the defendants violated Sections 14(a) and 20(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and certain rules and regulations promulgated thereunder by not disclosing certain allegedly material facts in the preliminary proxy statement that was filed by Bankrate with the SEC on July 28, 2017. On August 22, 2017, one of the plaintiffs filed a motion for a preliminary injunction seeking to enjoin the stockholder vote on the proposed merger, and the Court scheduled a hearing on that motion for September 8, 2017.

Bankrate believes that the claims asserted in the lawsuits and the motion for a preliminary injunction are without merit. However, to avoid the risk that the lawsuits may delay or otherwise adversely affect the consummation of the merger with Red Ventures and to minimize the expense of defending such actions, Bankrate wishes to voluntarily make the supplemental disclosures related to the merger set forth below. In light of the supplemental disclosures, the plaintiffs have agreed to withdraw the motion for a preliminary injunction and to dismiss their individual claims with prejudice. Nothing in this Current Report on Form 8-K shall be deemed an admission of the legal necessity or materiality under applicable law of any of the disclosures set forth herein. Bankrate specifically denies that any further disclosure is required to supplement the Proxy Statement under applicable law.

Supplements to the Proxy Statement

The Bankrate Projections

The Proxy Statement is hereby amended and supplemented on page 41 by adding the following sentence to the end of the second footnote under the table entitled “Summary of the Base Case for Fiscal Years 2017 through 2019”:

Bankrate’s management did not prepare or provide projections for operating income (loss) and net income (loss) for the Base Case for years 2020 through 2026 or for the High Sensitivity Case or the Low Sensitivity Case for years 2017 through 2026.

The Proxy Statement is hereby amended and supplemented on page 42 by adding the following paragraph and table after the table entitled “Summary of the Bankrate Projections for Fiscal Years 2017 through 2026” and the accompanying notes:

J.P. Morgan computed at the direction of Bankrate’s management, from financial information included in the Base Case, Bankrate’s estimated unlevered free cash flows for purposes of its discounted cash flow analysis described in the section of this proxy statement entitled “The Merger — Opinion of Bankrate’s Financial Advisor.” Such estimated unlevered free cash flows were computed by taking earnings before interest and after tax, then adding depreciation and amortization, subtracting capital expenditures, subtracting stock-based compensation, net of tax, and adjusting for changes in net working capital and other cash flow items, in the case of each of the foregoing, as prepared and estimated by Bankrate’s management as part of the Base Case and approved by Bankrate’s management for use by J.P. Morgan for purposes of its opinion. Such estimated unlevered free cash flows were reviewed and approved by Bankrate’s management and were not provided to Red Ventures.

Summary of Estimated Unlevered Free Cash Flows for the Base Case for Fiscal Years 2017 through 2026

Base Case	$80	$22	$80	$93	$111	$123	$141	$150	$167	$186

The Proxy Statement is hereby amended and supplemented on page 42 by replacing the first paragraph under the table entitled “Summary of the Bankrate Projections for Fiscal Years 2017 through 2026” with the following:

Bankrate does not normally provide a reconciliation of forward-looking non-GAAP financial measures to comparable GAAP financial measures. When planning, forecasting and analyzing future periods, Bankrate does so primarily on a non-GAAP basis without preparing a GAAP analysis, as that would require estimates for various cash and non-cash reconciling items that would be difficult to predict with reasonable accuracy. In this instance, Bankrate has provided a summary reconciliation for the Base Case that includes forecasts for tax expenses, interest and other expenses, depreciation and amortization and stock-based compensation for fiscal years 2017 through 2019 and forecasts for change in fair value of contingent acquisition consideration, restatement-related charges and other charges for 2017 based on current trends and expectations; however, due to the unavailability of the information needed to calculate certain other potential reconciling items for fiscal year 2017 through 2019 and potential reconciling items for fiscal years 2020 through 2026 and the variability and complexity of such items, Bankrate is limiting its forecast of reconciling items to the aforementioned line items and periods. The forecast of reconciling items for fiscal years 2017 through 2019 is based on numerous variables and assumptions that are inherently uncertain and should not be relied upon.

Opinion of Bankrate's Financial Advisor

The Proxy Statement is hereby amended and supplemented on page 48 by replacing the paragraph under the subsection entitled "Discounted Cash Flow Analysis" with the following:

J.P. Morgan conducted a discounted cash flow analysis for the purpose of determining an implied fully diluted equity value per share for the Company. J.P. Morgan calculated the present value of unlevered free cash flows that the Company is expected to generate during the remainder of 2017 (applying a valuation date as of March 31, 2017 by using 2017E unlevered free cash flows that did not include the Company's actual results for the fiscal quarter ended March 31, 2017) and calendar years 2018 through 2026 as derived from the Base Case. J.P. Morgan also calculated a range of terminal values for the Company at December 31, 2026 by applying perpetual growth rates ranging from 2.5% to 3.5%, which J.P. Morgan selected based on its professional judgment and expertise, for unlevered free cash flows for the Base Case. The unlevered free cash flows and the range of terminal values were then discounted to present values using a discount rate range of 10.5% to 12.5% for the Base Case, which discount rate range was chosen by J.P. Morgan using its professional judgment based upon an analysis of the weighted average cost of capital of the Company, taking into account macro-economic assumptions, estimates of risk, the Company's capital structure and other appropriate factors. The present value of the unlevered free cash flows and the range of terminal values were then adjusted by subtracting an estimated net debt balance of $118 million to indicate a range of implied fully diluted equity values per share for the Base Case of $12.00 to $17.50 per share (in each case, rounded to the nearest $0.25), as compared to the merger consideration of $14.00 per share.

Cautionary Statements Regarding Forward-Looking Information

Certain statements contained in this communication may constitute “forward-looking statements.” Actual results could differ materially from those projected or forecast in the forward-looking statements.
