(2) Registration of plan interests with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") is not required when, in the context of providing a self-directed "brokerage window" in which plan participants could trade in employer securities with employee contributions, the employer company and the 401(k) plan do no more than describe the self-directed "brokerage window" as part of the investment alternatives under the 401(k) plan, make payroll deductions, and pay administrative expenses not in any way tied to particular investments selected by employees and take no action to draw employees' attention to the possibility of investing in employer securities through the brokerage window.

In light of the foregoing, on January 13, 2017, the Company filed a Post-Effective Amendment No.1 to the Form S-8 Registration Statement (File No. 333-205340), filed with the SEC on June 29, 2015, to deregister the remaining shares of Common Stock and related plan interests offered under the 401(k) Plan, and the 401(k) Plan is filing this Form 15 with the SEC to terminate the registration of the plan interests and to suspend the 401(k) Plan's duty to file reports under Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act, including on Form 11-K.
