OTHER EVENTS

On December 19, 2017, the Registrant issued a press release titled “Calmare Therapeutics Cautions Shareholder.”

That press release was not intended to be soliciting material, but only to inform shareholders that the Registrant would be filing its own soliciting materials with the Securities And Exchange Commission and to request that shareholders refrain from taking any action until they receive the Registrant’s materials in opposition to those previously filed by others.

A copy of the press release is included as an exhibit to, and incorporated in, this Form 8-K.

Although it is the Registrant's position that the press release does not constitute soliciting material, this Form 8-K is being filed as a cautionary measure to the extent that the press release may be considered to be soliciting material.
