PROXY STATEMENT

Annual Meeting of Shareholders

July 7, 2017

This proxy statement is furnished in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the board of directors of Noble Roman's, Inc., an Indiana corporation ("Noble Roman's", "we" or the "Company"), for use at the annual meeting of shareholders to be held on Wednesday, July 7, 2017 at 10:30 a.m., local time, at the Noble Roman's Craft Pizza & Pub, 17409 Wheeler Road, Westfield, Indiana 46074, and any adjournment or postponement thereof, for the purposes set forth in the accompanying notice of the annual meeting of shareholders.

Unless otherwise directed by the giver of the proxy, the persons named in the enclosed form of proxy, or the one of them who acts, will vote all shares subject to the proxy as follows:

FOR the election of Mr. Coape-Arnold and Mr. Herbst as Class I directors of the Company, to serve until the 2020 annual meeting of shareholders or until their successors are elected and qualified;
2.
FOR the ratification of the engagement of Somerset CPAs, P.C. as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm for the year ending December 31, 2017; and 3.
In their discretion on the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the annual meeting.

This proxy statement, the notice of annual meeting and the accompanying proxy form were first mailed to the holders of our common stock on or about May 16, 2017. We will bear the entire expense of soliciting proxies. Proxies will be solicited by mail initially. Our directors, officers and employees also may solicit proxies personally or by telephone or other means, but they will not be specially compensated for such services. Certain holders of record, such as brokers, custodians and nominees, may be requested to distribute proxy materials to beneficial owners and will be reimbursed by us for their reasonable expenses incurred in sending proxy materials to beneficial owners.

A shareholder who executes a proxy may revoke it at any time before it is exercised by delivering to us another proxy bearing a later date, by submitting written notice of the revocation to our corporate secretary, or by personally appearing at the annual meeting and casting a contrary vote.

VOTING RIGHTS AND SOLICITATION OF PROXIES

Only common shareholders of record at the close of business on April 28, 2017 are entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the annual meeting. On such date, there were 20,783,032 shares of our common stock outstanding. There are approximately 262 holders of record of our common stock. Holders of common stock are entitled to one vote for each share held on each matter to be voted upon at the annual meeting.

The Company's Amended and Restated By-Laws (the "By-Laws") provide that the holders of a majority of the Company's outstanding shares of stock entitled to vote at the meeting, present in person or represented by proxy, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at the meeting. Abstentions and "broker non-votes" will be counted as present for the purpose of determining the presence of a quorum.

A "broker non-vote" occurs when a broker lacks discretionary voting power to vote on a "non-routine" proposal and a beneficial owner fails to give the broker voting instructions on that matter. The election of directors is not considered a "routine" matter. Beneficial owners who hold their shares through stock brokerage accounts will have to give voting instructions to their brokers in order for the brokers to vote on the election of directors. If you are a beneficial owner, failure to provide instructions to your broker will result in your shares not being voted in connection with the election of directors. The ratification of the selection of Somerset CPAs, P.C. as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm for 2017 is considered a "routine" matter and a broker has the discretionary voting power to vote on this matter without any instructions from the beneficial owner. Broker non-votes are counted for purposes of determining a quorum, but will have no effect on the election of directors, or the ratification of the selection of Somerset CPAs, P.C. An abstention will not count as a vote against the ratification of the selection of Somerset CPAs, P.C.

The affirmative vote of the holders of a plurality of the shares present in person or represented by proxy at the meeting and eligible to vote is required for the election of the director nominees. At this year's meeting there are two duly nominated individuals for election as a Class I director. Therefore, those nominees will be elected if they receive any votes "FOR" their election, regardless of how many votes to "WITHHOLD AUTHORITY" those nominees receive.

The affirmative vote of holders of a majority of the shares present in person or represented by proxy at the meeting and voting on such matter will be required for:

(1) ratification of Somerset CPAs, P.C. as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm for the year ending December 31, 2017; and (2) for the approval of any other matter that might be properly raised and submitted to a vote at the meeting. However, consistent with our By-Laws, the agenda for this year's meeting is set and no additional matters, other than the proposals described in this proxy statement, may be submitted for consideration by our shareholders at the meeting, other than procedural issues such as adjournment, postponement or continuation. On procedural issues, all shares represented by proxy may be voted at the discretion of the attorneys-in-fact named in the proxies, to the extent permitted by law.

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

At the 2017 annual meeting of shareholders, in accordance with the Company's By-Laws, the shareholders will elect two Class I directors to serve until the 2020 annual meeting of shareholders or until their successors are duly elected and qualified. The board of directors has nominated Mr. Coape-Arnold and Mr. Herbst as Class I directors. Mr. Coape-Arnold and Mr. Herbst are currently directors of the Company, have consented to being named in this proxy statement, and have agreed to continue to serve as a director, if elected.

Should either of the nominees become unavailable or decline to serve for any reason, the Company expects that each person named in the proxy will vote for the election of another person as may be designated by the board of directors. The board of directors is not aware of any circumstances likely to cause either nominee to be unavailable for election or to decline to serve.

The board of directors recommends a vote "FOR" the election of the director nominees.

Set forth below is certain information regarding the director nominees, the executive officers and the directors of the Company:

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

For a number of years until November 2014, the Company operated using a common U.S. board leadership structure under which the Chief Executive Officer also served as Chairman of the board of directors. In November 2014, the Company determined to separate these roles and appointed Paul W. Mobley to serve as the Executive Chairman of the board of directors and A. Scott Mobley to serve as Chief Executive Officer. The Company may elect to combine these positions in the future if it determines it is best for the Company and its shareholders.

Our whole board of directors has responsibility for the oversight of risk management. Our whole board of directors from time to time discusses with management areas of material risk exposures, their potential impact on the Company, the steps we take to monitor risk exposure, and controls to mitigate such exposures.

The Company has adopted a code of ethics for its senior executive and financial officers. The code of ethics can be obtained without charge by contacting the Company's executive office at One Virginia Ave., Suite 300, Indianapolis, IN 46204, and requesting a copy of the code of ethics.

In 2016, the board of directors met four times, and each of the directors of the Company attended all four meetings of the board of directors. All directors are encouraged to attend our annual meeting of shareholders. The Company held an annual meeting of shareholders on July 7, 2016, at which all directors were in attendance. The Company also held a special meeting of shareholders on January 19, 2017. The Company does not have standing audit, compensation, or nominating and corporate governance committees.

Certain Relationships and Transactions

The Company has reviewed all transactions to which the Company and officers and directors of the Company are a party or have a financial interest. The board of directors of the Company has adopted a policy that all transactions between the Company and its officers, directors, principal shareholders and other affiliates must be approved by a majority of the Company's disinterested directors, and be conducted on terms no less favorable to the Company than could be obtained from unaffiliated third parties.

In 2016, the Company borrowed $250,000 from Paul W. Mobley and $60,000 from A. Scott Mobley, evidenced by promissory notes which mature in June 2018. Interest on the notes is payable at the rate of 10% per annum payable quarterly in arrears and these notes are unsecured and subordinated to the loan to the Company from Super G Funding, Inc. In January 2017, Paul Mobley loaned the Company $600,000, evidenced by a promissory note, which matures in March 2018. Interest on the note is payable at a rate of 7% per annum payable quarterly in arrears. Proceeds from the loan were used by the Company to repay the loan from Kingsway America for $600,000 at an interest rate of 8% per annum, which was due in July 2017.

The Company sold 48 units in a private placement which began in October 2016 and completed in January 2017. Three of those units were purchased by Paul W. Mobley, and four units were purchased by Mr. Herbst. Each unit consists of a note in the principal amount of $50,000 with interest at the rate of 10% per annum and convertible to the Company's common stock at the rate of $.50 per share and a warrant to purchase 50,000 shares of the Company's common stock at $1.00 per share. The units purchased by Mr. Mobley and Mr. Herbst were on the same terms and conditions as the other 41 units that were purchased by independent investors.

During 2012, the Company executed a franchise agreement with TNB, Inc. for three locations to operate the Company's former stand-alone take-n-bake format. The principal shareholder of TNB, Inc. was a long-time operator of Noble Roman's locations in a different format. The officers of the Company invested their personal funds in TNB, Inc. as minority shareholders, without operational responsibilities. The Company officers invested with a view to providing TNB, Inc. financial resources to drive the development of the Company's overall take-and-bake format by operating units in the Indianapolis area which Company management could closely observe and which provided the opportunity to test ideas to improve the take-and-bake format, initially without having to invest the Company's funds. In addition, the Company's Executive Chairman loaned TNB, Inc. approximately $500,000 to cover working capital requirements of operating the business. Given the value of being able to utilize TNB, Inc.'s locations in testing and development to refine the take-and-bake format for the benefit of the entire system, during 2015 the Company advanced approximately $600,000 and during the first six months of 2016, the Company advanced approximately an additional $250,000 when it became apparent that TNB, Inc.'s initial funding would be insufficient to maintain operations for development purposes. However, in the third quarter of 2016, the Company made the decision to discontinue the take-and-bake format, resulting in a charge of $505,000 after-tax benefit related to TNB, Inc. and the Company's officers realized a complete loss of their respective investments and loan. The Company has no exposure to loss related to this entity in the future. Neither the Company, nor any officers of the Company, has guaranteed any obligations of the franchisee.

The Company's board of directors is currently comprised of: Paul W. Mobley, our Executive Chairman and Chief Financial Officer; A. Scott Mobley, our President and Chief Executive Officer; Douglas H. Coape-Arnold; and Marcel Herbst. For the purpose of determining director independence, the Company has adopted the New York Stock Exchange definition of independence. The board of directors has determined that Mr. Coape-Arnold and Mr. Herbst are independent directors under that definition.

Board Role in Audit Process

The board of directors does not have a separately established audit committee. Because no separate audit committee has been established, the board of directors, as a whole, performs certain functions ordinarily delegated to an audit committee. The board of directors has determined that each of Mr. Coape-Arnold and Mr. Herbst qualify as an "Audit Committee Financial Expert."

The board of directors has reviewed, and communicated with management and with Somerset CPAs, P.C., the Company's independent auditor, with respect to, the Company's audited consolidated financial statements as of December 31, 2016 and for the year then ended. The board of directors also has communicated with Somerset CPAs, P.C. with respect to the matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standard No. 1301, "Communication with Audit Committees." The board of directors has received the written disclosures and the letter from Somerset CPAs, P.C. required by applicable requirements of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board regarding the independent accountant's communications with the board of directors concerning independence, and has communicated with the independent accountant with respect to the independent accountant's independence. Based upon the board of directors' review and communications noted above, the board of directors authorized the audited consolidated financial statements of the Company to be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2016, as filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Board of Directors of Noble Roman's, Inc.

Paul W. Mobley, A. Scott Mobley, Douglas Coape-Arnold
and Marcel Herbst

Board Role in Nominations

The Company does not have a standing nominating committee. The board of directors does not believe that a nominating committee is necessary due to the Company's relatively small size, the relatively small size of its board of directors, and its historically limited need to add new directors. When the Company has had a vacancy on the board of directors, the entire board has participated in the nomination process. The board expects all of the directors to participate in the nomination process and in the review of potential nominees. The board of directors does not have a formal policy regarding the consideration of shareholder nominees; however, the board will consider candidates on a case-by-case basis. There are no specific qualifications that a candidate must have in order to be considered. When a vacancy exists, the board generally relies on the personal knowledge and references of the directors and publicly available data to identify potential nominees.

The Company's By-Laws contain the procedures by which shareholders may nominate directors. Among other items, these provisions set forth the procedures that shareholders must follow in order for a shareholder nominee to be considered at a meeting, the information that a shareholder must provide to the Company with respect to itself and the nominee, and the deadlines by which a shareholder nomination must be received in order to be considered at a meeting.

Board Role in Compensation Determinations

The Company does not have a standing compensation committee. The compensation program is supervised by the entire board of directors. The board of directors does not believe that a compensation committee is necessary due to the Company's relatively small size and the relatively small size of its board of directors. All directors participate in compensation discussions. A director that is also an officer does not vote on his own compensation. The compensation of the Executive Chairman/Chief Financial Officer and the President/Chief Executive Officer of the Company has been set by long-term contracts with those individuals. The compensation of other executive officers of the Company is recommended by the Executive Chairman/Chief Financial Officer and President/Chief Executive Officer and reviewed by the Company's board of directors as it deems appropriate. Other than the Executive Chairman/Chief Financial Officer and President/Chief Executive Officer, no other executive officer participates in the compensation process.

Communication with the Board

Communications by shareholders or by other parties may be sent to the board of directors by U.S. mail or overnight delivery and should be addressed to the board of directors c/o Secretary, Noble Roman's, Inc., One Virginia Avenue, Suite 300, Indianapolis, IN 46204. Communications directed to the entire board of directors, or one or more directors, will be reviewed by the Secretary and forwarded to the board of directors as appropriate and may be made anonymously.

SECTION 16(a) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

Based solely on a review of the copies of reports of ownership and changes in ownership of the Company's common stock, furnished to the Company, the Company believes that all filing requirements under Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, during the year ended December 31, 2016, were complied with, except that Paul W. Mobley did not timely file two Form 4s in connection with his purchase of a total of three units (on two separate dates), each of which consists of a note in the principal amount of $50,000 with interest at the rate of 10% per annum and convertible to the Company's common stock at the rate of $.50 per share and a warrant to purchase 50,000 shares of the Company's common stock at $1.00 per share. A total of 450,000 shares of common stock are issuable upon conversion and exercise, as applicable, of the purchased notes and warrants. Mr. Mobley filed a Form 4 on April 10, 2017 to report these transactions.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE INTERLOCKS AND INSIDER PARTICIPATION

Because no separate Compensation Committee has been established, the board of directors, as a whole, performs certain functions ordinarily delegated to a Compensation Committee. Paul W. Mobley, A. Scott Mobley, Douglas H. Coape-Arnold and Marcel Herbst all participated in executive compensation decisions for the year ended December 31, 2016.

Equity Incentive Awards

The Summary Compensation Table includes the grant date fair value for stock options granted in 2015 and 2016 to the named executive officers under the Company’s employee stock option plan. The Company determines the grant date fair value of stock options calculated in accordance with FASB ASC Topic 718. See Note 7 to the Notes to the Company’s Consolidated Financial Statements in the Company’s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2016 for a discussion of the Company’s determination of the grant date fair value of stock options.

The Company granted options to purchase 410,000 shares on June 23, 2015 at an exercise price equal to the then-current market price of $1.00 per share. During 2015, employees exercised stock options for 877,333 shares and stock options for 330,000 shares were forfeited. The Company granted options to purchase 20,000 shares on February 22, 2016 at an exercise price equal to the then-current market price of $.95 per share, 340,000 shares on July 7, 2016 at an exercise price equal to the then-current market price of $.53 per share and 35,000 shares on September 21, 2016 at an exercise price equal to the then-current market price of $.50 per share. During 2016, employees exercised stock options for 20,000 shares and stock options for 75,000 shares were forfeited.

The Company maintains an employee stock option plan for our employees, officers and directors that is designed to motivate them to increase shareholder value. Any employee, officer or director of the Company is eligible to be awarded options under the plan. The employee stock option plan provides that any options issued pursuant to the plan for non-director employees will have a three-year vesting period and for director employees will vest one-third each year and both will expire ten years after the date of grant. The vesting period is intended to provide incentive for longevity with the Company. Awards under the plan are periodically made at the recommendation of the Executive Chairman/Chief Financial Officer and President/Chief Executive Officer, and then approved by the board of directors. The employee stock option plan does not have a limit on the number of shares that may be issued under the plan.

Non-Equity Incentive Arrangements

The Company currently has a non-equity incentive arrangement with our Executive Vice President under which he may earn additional compensation. His compensation is based on 2.5% of all royalty and fee revenue associated with franchising less the direct expenses of those activities excluding any administrative cost. The net revenue for this activity under this calculation in 2016 and 2015 was $3.7 million and $3.5 million, respectively. RATIFICATION OF SELECTION OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

The board of directors has appointed the firm of Somerset CPAs, P.C. ("Somerset") as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm for 2017. Somerset has served as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm since 2006. Although action by the shareholders in this matter is not required, the board of directors believes that in light of the critical role played by the independent registered public accounting firm in maintaining the integrity of the Company's financial controls and reporting, it is a matter of good practice.

In the event our shareholders fail to approve the proposal to appoint Somerset as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm, the board of directors will reconsider retaining another firm. Even if the selection is ratified, the board of directors in its discretion may direct the appointment of a different independent registered public accounting firm at any time during the year if it determines that such a change would be in the best interest of the Company and our shareholders.

The board of directors recommends a vote "FOR" the proposal to ratify the selection of Somerset CPAs, P.C. as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm for the year ending December 31, 2017.

Somerset has not been engaged by the Company to perform any services other than audits of the financial statements included in its Form 10-Ks and review of the financial statements in its Form 10-Qs. The board of directors does not have a pre-approval policy with respect to work performed by the Company's independent auditor.
