Other Events

On February 27, 2012, Adams Resources & Energy, Inc and its wholly owned subsidiary, Ada Resources, Inc (collectively the “Company”) completed the sale of certain assets previously associated with the Company’s marketing segment. Assets sold included equipment, tanks and trucks, as well as all refined petroleum product inventories and substantially all supplier and customer contracts associated with this business segment. With the consummation of this transaction, the Company has exited the refined petroleum products marketing business. The Company’s former refined petroleum products operation was active in the distribution and sale of lube oils and motor fuels such as gasoline and diesel.

Sales proceeds totaled $2,000,000 plus the market value of inventories. The Company will continue to collect any outstanding accounts receivable and satisfy all account payable obligations associated with this business. The Company anticipates recording a first quarter 2012 gain of approximately $1 million from this transaction.
