Emerging growth company

If an emerging growth company, indicate by check mark if the registrant has elected not to use the extended transition period for complying with any new or revised financial accounting standards provided pursuant to Section 13(a) of the Exchange Act.

Item 2.02 Results of Operations and Financial Condition.

In the supplemental schedules to the investment community conference call deck posted today, a slide titled Free Cash Flow Reconciliation From Continuing Operations (slide 27) included, in error, certain draft projection numbers for the third and fourth quarters of 2018. These draft numbers were included erroneously and should not be relied upon.

The slide was corrected and re-posted to omit quarterly free cash flow projections for the third and fourth quarters of 2018. As discussed in today's earnings call, free cash flow for 2018 is projected at this time at about $100M use for full-year 2018.

Forward-Looking Statements

This 8-K contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, including statements regarding anticipated adjusted revenue growth, adjusted internal revenue growth, adjusted diluted earnings per share and adjusted earnings per share growth. Statements can generally be identified as forward looking because they include words such as "believes," "anticipates," "expects," "could," "should" or words of similar meaning. Statements that describe the company's future plans, objectives or goals are also forward looking statements. Forward looking statements are subject to assumptions, risks and uncertainties that may cause actual results to differ materially from those contemplated by such forward-looking statements. The factors that may affect the company's results include, among others: the ultimate impact of the domination and profit and loss transfer agreement with Diebold Nixdorf AG ("DPLTA") and the outcome of the appraisal proceedings initiated in connection with the implementation of the DPLTA; the ultimate outcome and results of integrating the operations of the company and Diebold Nixdorf AG; the ultimate outcome of the company's pricing, operating and tax strategies applied to Diebold Nixdorf AG and the ultimate ability to realize cost reductions and synergies; the company's ability to successfully operate its strategic alliances in China; the changes in political, economic or other factors such as currency exchange rates, inflation rates, recessionary or expansive trends, taxes and regulations and laws affecting the worldwide business in each of the company's operations, including the impact of the Tax Act; the company's reliance on suppliers and any potential disruption to the company's global supply chain; the impact of market and economic conditions on the financial services and retail industries; the capacity of the company's technology to keep pace with a rapidly evolving marketplace; pricing and other actions by competitors; the effect of legislative and regulatory actions in the United States and internationally; the company's ability to comply with government regulations; the impact of a security breach or operational failure on the company's business; the company's ability to successfully integrate acquisitions into its operations; the impact of the company's strategic initiatives, including DN Now; the company's success in divesting, reorganizing or exiting non-core businesses; and other factors included in the company's filings with the SEC, including its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2017 and in other documents that the company files with the SEC. You should consider these factors carefully in evaluating forward looking statements and are cautioned not to place undue reliance on such statements. The company assumes no obligation to update any forward looking statements, which speak only to the date of this release.
