ITEM 8.01 Other Events.

On July 1, 2015, Bank of America Corporation (the "Corporation") submitted a resolution plan (the "2015 Plan") as required by the Joint Resolution Plan Rule of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System and the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (together, the "Agencies") under Title I, Section 165(d) of the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act ("Section 165(d)").

On April 13, 2016, the Agencies notified the Corporation of their joint determination that the Corporation's 2015 Plan "was not credible or would not facilitate an orderly resolution under the U.S. Bankruptcy Code". While the Agencies noted that the Corporation has taken important steps to enhance its resolvability and facilitate its orderly resolution in bankruptcy, they jointly identified deficiencies (the "Deficiencies") and shortcomings (the "Shortcomings") in the 2015 Plan. The notification requested that the Corporation provide a submission by October 1, 2016 explaining the actions taken by the Corporation to remedy the Deficiencies, as well as include a status report on the Corporation's actions to address the Shortcomings (the "2016 Submission"). The 2016 Submission will satisfy the annual informational requirements of Section 165(d) for 2016. In addition, the Corporation's resolution plan due on July 1, 2017 (the "2017 Plan") must address the Shortcomings.

If the Agencies jointly determine that the Corporation's 2016 Submission does not adequately remedy the Deficiencies, they may jointly impose more stringent capital, leverage or liquidity requirements or restrictions on growth, activities or operations. If the Agencies impose such requirements or restrictions and, within two years of the imposition of such requirements or restrictions, the Corporation does not adequately remedy the Deficiencies, the Corporation may also be required to take certain actions that could impose operating costs and could potentially result in the divestiture or restructuring of certain businesses and subsidiaries. If the Agencies jointly determine the 2017 Plan does not adequately address the Shortcomings, they may determine the 2017 Plan "is not credible or would not facilitate an orderly resolution under the U.S. Bankruptcy Code".
