Item 5. Other Events

On August 7, 2004, BellSouth Corporation ("BellSouth") announced that it had reached agreement with the Communications Workers of America on a new, five-year contract covering approximately 45,000 BellSouth employees, subject to ratification by these employees.

The new contract provides for an increase in base wages of 10.5% over the contract term, pension improvements, and a health care solution that enables BellSouth to continue to provide its employees with high quality, affordable health care.

Specifically, the new contract provides for a 1 percent base salary increase in year one and a 2 percent base salary increase in year two, followed by annual base increases of 2.5 percent each year thereafter. The new contract also provides for a lump-sum payment of 4% upon ratification of the contract. Pension band increases will be in ranges slightly higher than wage increases. The new contract also provides for increased health care cost-sharing.

In addition to historical information, this document contains forward-looking statements regarding events and financial trends. Factors that could affect future results and could cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed or implied in the forward-looking statements include: (i) a change in economic conditions in domestic or international markets where we operate or have material investments which would affect demand for our services; (ii) the intensity of competitive activity and its resulting impact on pricing strategies and new product offerings; (iii) higher than anticipated cash requirements for investments, new business initiatives and acquisitions; (iv) unfavorable regulatory actions; (v) currency devaluations and continued economic weakness in certain international markets in which we operate or have material investments; and (vi) those factors contained in the Company's periodic reports filed with the SEC. The forward-looking information in this document is given as of this date only, and BellSouth assumes no duty to update this information.
