Item 8.01 Other Events

On March 17, 2016, Independent Bank Corp. (“Independent”) (NASDAQ: INDB), the parent of Rockland Trust Company (“Rockland Trust”), announced the March 17, 2016 signing of a definitive agreement and plan of merger under which Independent will acquire New England Bancorp, Inc. (“New England Bancorp”) and Rockland Trust will acquire Bank of Cape Cod (the “Merger”).

A copy of the joint press release issued by Independent and New England Bancorp announcing the transaction is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.

Forward Looking Statements:

Certain statements contained in this filing that are not statements of historical fact constitute forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 (the “Act”), notwithstanding that such statements are not specifically identified. In addition, certain statements may be contained in the future filings of Independent with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”), in press releases and in oral and written statements made by or with the approval of Independent and New England Bancorp that are not statements of historical fact and constitute forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Act. Examples of forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to: (i) statements about the benefits of the Merger, including future financial and operating results, cost savings, enhanced revenues and accretion to reported earnings that may be realized from the Merger; (ii) statements of plans, objectives and management expectations; (iii) statements of future economic performance; and (iv) statements of assumptions underlying such statements. Words such as “believes,” “anticipates,” “expects,” “intends,” “targeted,” “continue,” “remain,” “will,” “should,” “may” and other similar expressions are intended to identify forward-looking statements but are not the exclusive means of identifying such statements.

Forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance and involve certain risks, uncertainties, and assumptions that are difficult to predict. Therefore, actual outcomes and results may differ materially from what is expressed or forecasted in such forward-looking statements. Factors that could cause actual results to differ include, but are not limited to: (i) the risk that the businesses involved in the Merger will not be integrated successfully or such integration may be more difficult, time-consuming, or costly than expected; (ii) expected revenue synergies and cost savings from the Merger may not be fully realized or realized within the expected time frame; (iii) revenues following the Merger may be lower than expected; (iv) deposit attrition, operating costs, customer loss, and business disruption following the Merger, including, without limitation, difficulties in maintaining relationships with employees, may be greater than expected; (v) the ability to obtain governmental approvals of the Merger on the proposed terms and schedule; (vi) local, regional, national and international economic conditions and the impact they may have on the parties to the Merger and their customers; (vii) changes in interest rates, spreads on earning assets and interest-bearing liabilities, and interest rate sensitivity; (viii) prepayment speeds, loan originations and credit losses; (ix) sources of liquidity; (x) fair value of and number of stock-based compensation awards to be issued in future periods; (xi) legislation affecting the financial services industry as a whole, and/or the parties and their subsidiaries individually or collectively; (xii) regulatory supervision and oversight, including required capital levels; (xiii) increasing price and product/service competition by competitors, including new entrants; (xiv) rapid technological developments and changes; (xv) the parties' ability to continue to introduce competitive new products and services on a timely, cost-effective basis; (xvi) the mix of products/services;

(xvii) containing costs and expenses; (xviii) governmental and public policy changes; (xix) protection and validity of intellectual property rights; (xx) reliance on large customers; (xxi) technological, implementation and cost/financial risks in large, multi-year contracts; (xxii) the outcome of pending and future litigation and governmental proceedings; (xxiii) continued availability of financing; (xxiv) financial resources in the amounts, at the times and on the terms required to support the parties' future businesses; and (xxv) material differences in the actual financial results of merger and acquisition activities compared with expectations, including the full realization of anticipated cost savings and revenue enhancements. Additional factors that could cause Independent's results to differ materially from those described in the forward-looking statements can be found in Independent's Annual Reports on Form 10-K, Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q, and Current Reports on Form 8-K filed with the SEC. All subsequent written and oral forward-looking statements concerning the proposed transaction or other matters and attributable to the parties or any person acting on their behalf are expressly qualified in their entirety by the cautionary statements referenced above. Forward-looking statements speak only as of the date on which such statements are made. The parties undertake no obligation to update any forward-looking statement to reflect events or circumstances after the date on which such statement is made, or to reflect the occurrence of unanticipated events.

Additional Information and Where to Find it:

In connection with the proposed Merger, Independent intends to file with the SEC a Registration Statement on Form S-4 containing a proxy statement of New England Bancorp and a prospectus of Independent. Investors and security holders are advised to read the proxy statement/prospectus when it becomes available because it will contain important information. Investors and security holders may obtain a free copy of the registration statement (when available), including the proxy statement/prospectus and other documents filed by Independent with the SEC at the SEC's web site at www.sec.gov. These documents may be accessed and downloaded, free of charge, at Independent's web site at www.RocklandTrust.com under the tab "Investor Relations" and then under the heading "SEC Filings" or by directing a request to Investor Relations, Independent Bank Corp., 288 Union Street, Rockland, Massachusetts 02370, telephone (781) 982-6858.

Participants in the Solicitation:

Independent, New England Bancorp, and their respective directors and executive officers may be deemed to be participants in the solicitation of proxies from New England Bancorp stockholders in connection with the proposed Merger. Independent, New England Bancorp, their respective directors and executive officers and other persons may be deemed to be participants in the solicitation of proxies from stockholders of New England Bancorp in respect of the proposed transaction. Information regarding the directors and executive officers of Independent may be found in its definitive proxy statement relating to its 2015 Annual Meeting of Shareholders, which was filed with the SEC on March 30, 2015 and its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2015, which was filed with the SEC on February 25, 2016, each of which can be obtained free of charge from Independent's website. Information regarding the directors and executive officers of New England Bancorp may be found in the proxy statement/prospectus filed with the SEC. Other information regarding the participants in the proxy solicitation and a description of their direct and indirect interests, by security holdings or otherwise, will be contained in the proxy statement/prospectus and other relevant materials to be filed with the SEC when they become available. You may obtain free copies of this document as described in the preceding paragraph.
