Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On October 3, 2008, as previously filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission, EDCI Holdings, Inc. (the “Company” or “EDCI”) and Mr. Michael W. Klinger (“Mr. Klinger”) entered into an employment agreement (the “MWK CFO Employment Agreement”) defining certain terms and conditions of Mr. Klinger’s employment as Executive Vice President - Chief Financial Officer (“CFO”) and Treasurer of the Company. The MWK CFO Employment Agreement provides that either the termination of Mr. Klinger’s employment by the Company with “cause” (“Cause,” as defined therein), or resignation without “good reason” (“Good Reason,” as defined therein), shall result in the termination of Mr. Klinger’s employment by the Company without severance payments. Please see Exhibit 99.1 hereto.

As a result of the January 2, 2009, assumption by Mr. Robert L. Chapman, Jr. (“Mr. Chapman”) of the role of CEO of the Company and Entertainment Distribution Company, LLC (“EDC LLC”), the Company’s majority owned subsidiary that provides CD and DVD replication and logistics services, Mr. Chapman came into a position of active oversight and supervision of the Company’s senior executives, including Mr. Klinger.

On January 8, 2009, EDC LLC and Company management held two separate telephonic meetings, labeled the “EDC Operations/Finance Weekly Review/Cleanup” and “EDCI Management Weekly Review/Cleanup” conference calls. At no point during these meetings did Mr. Klinger make any mention of any severance compensation that had been awarded to any Employees of the Company or EDC LLC.

On January 24, 2009, during an in-person meeting of the Company’s Chairman, Clarke H. Bailey (“Mr. Bailey”) and the Company’s senior management including Mr. Klinger, Mr. Klinger personally was reminded of the importance of his ceasing to fail to communicate immediately information that reasonably could be considered material to the Company’s decision makers, including Mr. Chapman. During this same meeting, the Company’s actual and offered payment of severance to past and current employees of the Company and EDC LLC was discussed and debated actively. At no point during this meeting did Mr. Klinger make any mention of any severance compensation that had been awarded to any Employees of the Company or EDC LLC.

On March 9, 2009, Mr. Chapman sent written correspondence to Mr. Klinger related to Mr. Chapman’s concern regarding Mr. Klinger’s performance deficiencies as the Company’s CFO, specifically citing Mr. Klinger’s unacceptable preparation of a presentation for the Company’s Audit Committee. See Exhibit 99.2 hereto

On March 13, 2009, Mr. Chapman sent written correspondence to Mr. Klinger, in which Mr. Chapman cited his concern over Mr. Klinger’s confirmed non-communication with a senior finance executive of EDC LLC for over one week. This senior finance executive, at Mr. Klinger’s own request, had his direct, “solid” line of upward organizational reporting redirected to Mr. Klinger on February 11, 2009. Mr. Chapman conveyed to Mr. Klinger in this written correspondence that “this modus operandi of extremely weak communications cannot continue. It must end at once, as your continuance of exhibiting weak compliance with your fiduciary duty of due care puts EDC, and EDCI, at serious risk.” See Exhibit 99.3 hereto.

On March 13, 2009, Mr. Chapman sent written correspondence to Mr. Klinger, citing Mr. Chapman’s and Mr. Bailey’s concerns regarding Mr. Klinger’s “imprecise, loose, tardy, and at times non-existent business communications. On March 13, 2009, Mr. Klinger sent written correspondence to Mr. Chapman, in response to Mr. Chapman’s March 13, 2009, correspondence, in which Mr. Klinger acknowledged receipt of Mr. Chapman’s March 13, 2009 correspondence. See Exhibit 99.4 hereto.

On March 13, 2009, following Mr. Chapman’s written correspondences to Mr. Klinger on such date (see above), Mr. Chapman and Mr. Klinger engaged in a telephone conversation regarding Mr. Klinger’s unsatisfactory performance as the Company's CFO. Mr. Chapman indicated to Mr. Klinger that the Company's Chairman of the Board of Directors, Mr. Bailey, would be calling Mr. Klinger to engage in a conversation on the same matter.

On March 14, 2009, Mr. Chapman and Mr. Bailey engaged in a telephone conversation regarding Mr. Klinger's unsatisfactory performance as the Company's CFO.

On March 14, 2009, following a conversation in which Mr. Klinger committed to improving his performance as the Company's CFO, Mr. Chapman sent written correspondence to Mr. Klinger conveying a critical review of Mr. Klinger's continued "deportment," despite the conversation between Mr. Chapman and Mr. Klinger of the prior day (see above). See Exhibit 99.5 hereto.

On March 14, 2009, Mr. Chapman discovered that on January 8, 2009, the same date of the EDC LLC and Company management conference calls (see above), Mr. Klinger, without proper authorization, and without any prior or post-notification to Mr. Chapman, had bound legally Entertainment Distribution Company (USA) LLC (“EDC USA”) to severance payments in violation of the explicit financial limitations of EDC USA’s Severance Pay Policy dated just three months earlier in October 2008 (the “Severance Pay Policy”; see Exhibit 99.6 hereto). EDC USA is a wholly-owned subsidiary of EDC LLC. The Severance Pay Policy provides that eligible employees may receive severance of one week of pay for each complete year of service up to a maximum of 10 weeks’ pay. Modifications to the Plan may only be made by a written instrument signed by the President of EDC USA, a requisite that at no time has been met. However, despite the Severance Pay Policy’s financial limitation of 10 weeks’ pay and the unmet governance requirement of EDC President’s signature to any modification of that limitation, Mr. Klinger legally bound EDC USA to make severance payments of twenty weeks’ pay to 12 employees, which caused EDC USA to incur an unauthorized and thus improper severance expense of approximately $176,000. (the “Double Severance Payments”). See Exhibit 99.7 hereto.

In March and April 2009, the Company investigated thoroughly Mr. Klinger’s actions (the “Klinger Investigation”) in connection with the Double Severance Payments and other matters. As part of the Klinger Investigation, on March 16, 2009, Mr. Chapman sent written correspondence to Mr. Klinger summarizing the related discoveries to that date, noting in particular that the Double Severance Payments were a material breach of the Plan by Mr. Klinger. See Exhibit 99.8 hereto.

On March 17, 2009, Mr. Klinger sent written correspondence to Mr. Chapman confirming various conclusions of the Klinger Investigation, acknowledging that his own “actions were wrong.” See Exhibit 99.9 hereto.

On March 18, 2009, Mr. Chapman sent written correspondence to Mr. Klinger in which Mr. Chapman identified a second specific occurrence of Mr. Klinger’s own written reference to the Double Severance Payments as related to “severance” vs. “retention,” the latter of which Mr. Klinger initially had attempted to use as justification for his binding of EDC USA, contrary to the Severance Pay Policy, to make the Double Severance Payments (an obviously flawed justification as retention compensation also requires Compensation Committee approval). The first such discovered instance of Mr. Klinger’s own written reference to the Double Severance Payments as “severance” was in Mr. Klinger’s December 9, 2008 E-mail to a senior EDC USA employee in which Mr. Klinger identified the Double Severance Payments as “20 weeks of severance.” Following Mr. Chapman’s March 18, 2009 written correspondence referenced above, Mr. Klinger ceased his attempts to utilize the defense that he had believed the Double Severance Payments were retention compensation, authorized or otherwise. See Exhibit 99.10 herein.

On March 18, 2009, Mr. Chapman sent written correspondence to Mr. Klinger regarding Mr. Chapman’s concern related to Mr. Klinger’s continuing performance deficiencies as the Company’s CFO, citing Mr. Klinger’s March 18, 2009, unacceptable performance in connection with the improper completion of an important presentation related to the Blackburn-Hannover Consolidation Feasibility Study. See Exhibit 99.11 hereto.

On March 24, 2009, Mr. Chapman sent written correspondence to Mr. Klinger citing his concerns over how Mr. Klinger, as the Company’s CFO who claimed to have reviewed very recently EDC LLC’s most recent amended credit agreement, could not respond to Mr. Chapman with an accurate answer to the question of what was the rate of interest EDC LLC was paying to EDC LLC’s creditor per such credit agreement. Mr. Chapman noted that such information in question, along with a credit facility’s maturities/expiration, is “considered the most basic of any loan agreement, whether it be a residential mortgage or corporate term loan.” See Exhibit 99.12 hereto.

On March 24, 2009, Mr. Chapman sent written correspondence to Mr. Klinger, Michael D. Nixon and Kyle E. Blue formalizing Mr. Chapman’s decision to create an Office of the CFO. In such email, Mr. Chapman stated that the duties of each member of the Office of the CFO will be “nearly identical” to those each individual had been performing prior the time of the creation of said office. On March 24, 2009, Mr. Klinger sent written correspondence, in response to Mr. Chapman's March 24, 2009 written correspondence (see above), a) acknowledging receipt of this correspondence and b) that in no way or form disputed the assertion made by Mr. Chapman regarding these "nearly identical duties." See Exhibit 99.13 hereto.

In March and April 2009, during communications related to Mr. Klinger's performance as the Company's CFO, Mr. Chapman informed Mr. Klinger, and Klinger acknowledged, that Mr. Klinger's improper conduct in connection with the Double Severance Payments provided the Company with sufficient grounds for the termination of Mr. Klinger's employment by the Company with Cause.

On April 4, 2009, in line with the terms of the MWK CFO Employment Agreement, Mr. Chapman conducted a telephonic review of Mr. Klinger's first six months' pay and performance as the Company's CFO (the "MWK Six Months Review.") During the MWK Six Months Review, Mr. Chapman reiterated that the Company had sufficient grounds for the termination of Mr. Klinger's employment by the Company with Cause as a result of the Double Severance Payments, and also identified other significant deficiencies in Mr. Klinger's performance. Mr. Klinger and the Company thereafter began negotiations for a separation of his employment from the Company. In connection with such negotiations, Mr. Klinger explicitly requested as particular consideration to his benefit the Company's agreement not to terminate his employment by the Company with Cause, based on the Double Severance Payments.

On April 9, 2009, Mr. Chapman sent Mr. Klinger written correspondence defining key terms of a Separation Agreement (the "Proposed Separation Agreement") that had been negotiated and agreed to verbally between the Company and Mr. Klinger on that date. A material term of the Proposed Separation Agreement, as sought by Mr. Klinger, was the Company's agreement not to terminate Mr. Klinger's employment by the Company with Cause, based on the Double Severance Payments. See Exhibit 99.14 hereto.

On April 9, 2009, Mr. Klinger sent Mr. Chapman written correspondence, in response to Mr. Chapman's written correspondence dated April 9, 2009, indicating that Mr. Klinger had reviewed such written correspondence and confirmed that the terms detailed in the Proposed Separation Agreement were "as agreed." See Exhibit 99.15 hereto. On April 9, 2009, Mr. Chapman sent Mr. Klinger written correspondence, in response to Mr. Klinger's most recent written correspondence dated April 9, 2009 (see Exhibit 99.15 hereto), thanking Mr. Klinger for confirming agreement to the terms of the Proposed Separation Agreement. See Exhibit 99.16 hereto.

On April 13, 2009, despite the fact that the Company and Mr. Klinger had agreed, in writing on April 9, 2009 (see Exhibits 99.14 – 99.16) to the terms of the Proposed Separation Agreement, which required only formal legal documentation be completed through the weekend of April 10-12, 2009, Mr. Klinger unexpectedly rescinded his agreement to the terms of the Proposed Separation Agreement before such agreement could become finalized. Instead, Mr. Klinger E-mailed a letter dated April 13, 2009 (the "MWK Termination for Good Reason Letter"), to the Company's Board of Directors, in which he baselessly asserted his right to resign for Good Reason if certain changes were not made by the Company within thirty days. The Company believes that the MWK Termination for Good Reason Letter a) was constructed and delivered in order to attempt to preempt the termination of his employment by the Company with Cause, and b) calls into question whether the Proposed Separation Agreement was negotiated by Mr. Klinger in good faith. See Exhibit 99.17 hereto.

On April 13, 2009, the Company served written notice to Mr. Klinger of the termination of Mr. Klinger's employment by the Company with Cause, subject to approval by the Company's Board of Directors. See Exhibit 99.18 hereto.

On April 14, 2009, the Company's Board of Directors approved the termination of Mr. Klinger's employment by the Company with Cause. The Board of Directors also considered, among other factors, six additional specific examples of deficiencies in Mr. Klinger's work performance in the 1Q2009 alone, such deficiencies having been communicated previously by Mr. Chapman to the Company's Compensation Committee in written correspondence on March 27, 2009, as follows:

- 1) Severance Pay Policy Violation;
- 2) March 2009 Board Meeting Preparation Disorganization;

- 3) Blackburn – Hannover Consolidation Feasibility Study Disorganization;
- 4) EDC LLC Credit Agreement Ignorance;
- 5) EDC LLC Creditor Mis-Communication;
- 6) EDCI 4Q2008 Investor Conference Call Script Ghost-writing;
- 7) EDC LLC Financial Statement Ignorance.

See Exhibit 99.19 hereto. The Company's Board of Directors sent written correspondence to Mr. Klinger notifying him of its unanimous vote to terminate his employment by the Company on April 14, 2009. See Exhibit 99.20 hereto.

On April 14, 2009, concurrent with its approval of the termination of Mr. Klinger's employment by the Company with Cause, the Company's Board of Directors authorized Mr. Chapman, with the assistance of Matthew K. Behrent, to continue to consider a reasonable, negotiated legal settlement with Mr. Klinger. No progress regarding such settlement was achieved by April 17, 2009, nor has been achieved since that date.

On April 17, 2009, the Company, EDC LLC and EDC USA as plaintiffs, filed a legal complaint against Mr. Klinger as defendant, in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York (the “The Klinger ERISA Complaint”; Case #: 1:09-cv-03880-BSJ). The Klinger ERISA Complaint seeks: a) a declaratory judgment that, pursuant to the MWK CFO Employment Agreement, the circumstances of the termination of Mr. Klinger’s employment constitute Cause and, in the alternative, that Mr. Klinger resigned without Good Reason, as a result of which the Company may terminate Mr. Klinger’s employment by the Company with Cause; b) recovery for the loss occasioned by the breach of fiduciary duty perpetrated by Mr. Klinger in connection with the Double Severance Payments; c) attorney’s fees and related costs and d) such other relief as the Court deems appropriate. See Exhibit 99.21 hereto.

In April 2009, the Klinger Investigation has led to the discovery of other improprieties by Mr. Klinger in his capacity as the Company’s CFO. The Company expects to make further disclosures on Form 8-K updating the Company’s shareholders on developments related to this matter.
