FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

TEVA TO ACQUIRE SICOR FOR $3.4 BILLION

Combination Strengthens Leadership Position in Injectable and Oral Generic Pharmaceuticals and Active Pharmaceutical Ingredients

Jerusalem, Israel and Irvine, CA, October 31, 2003 - Teva Pharmaceutical Industries Ltd. (Nasdaq: TEVA) and SICOR Inc. (Nasdaq: SCRI) jointly announced today that they have signed a definitive agreement providing for the acquisition of SICOR by Teva. Under the terms of the agreement, each share of SICOR common stock will be exchanged for $16.50 in cash and 0.1906 Teva ADRs. Based upon the NASDAQ closing price of Teva's ADRs on October 30, 2003, the indicated combined per share consideration for each outstanding share of SICOR Common Stock amounts to $27.50, or a total indicated purchase price of approximately $3.4 billion. As a result of the transaction, SICOR's shareholders will come to own approximately 7% of Teva on a fully-diluted basis. The cash portion of the consideration will be funded using a combination of Teva's cash on hand and committed credit facilities.

This acquisition brings together two premier generic pharmaceutical companies, combining Teva's successful oral dose generic drugs franchise with SICOR's leading generic injectable business. In addition, the complementary Active Pharmaceutical Ingredients (API) businesses will enhance and expand the combined company's product offerings. Further, SICOR's biogenerics capabilities will enhance Teva's participation in this market.

Commenting on today's transaction, Israel Makov, Teva's President & CEO, said, "I am extremely excited about Teva's strategic combination with SICOR Inc. SICOR offers Teva the rare opportunity to extend our clear leadership position in solid oral dose generics into a new segment for Teva in the US, the generic injectables market. We have been seeking the right acquisition opportunity in this field for quite some time and SICOR is the prize for our patience. As a result of the SICOR transaction, Teva will generate growth oriented synergies from our expanded product offering, customer base and geographic reach."

"The SICOR transaction significantly supports our long term strategy of profitable growth and global leadership. I anticipate that this merger will be accretive to earnings within the first year. The transaction presents the shareholders, customers and employees of both companies with new horizons and enhanced opportunities."

Marvin Samson, President & CEO of SICOR said, "We are extremely enthusiastic about the mutual benefits associated with joining SICOR and Teva. Teaming up with Teva provides SICOR with the ability to leverage our presence as a leader in the generic biopharmaceuticals market. In addition, Teva's extensive global presence will also broaden SICOR's injectable business beyond our few core markets and provide opportunities for expanded distribution and manufacturing. We also believe that Teva will benefit from the extension of its current product offerings, such as injectable antibiotics, into SICOR's geographic centers of excellence and distribution channels."

In conclusion, Mr. Makov said, "Taking the lead in the consolidation of our industry ensures that the two companies together will be better positioned for future growth."

Transaction Terms

The transaction, which involves a merger of a Teva acquisition subsidiary into SICOR, is subject to approval by the holders of a majority of SICOR's Common Stock and clearance under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act and comparable antitrust notification statutes in Mexico and Lithuania, and is expected to be completed during the first quarter of 2004. The transaction is fully taxable to the stockholders of SICOR.

Rakepoll Finance N.V. and Mr. Carlo Salvi, who together hold approximately 19% of the outstanding stock of SICOR, have entered into an agreement under which they have agreed to vote all of their shares in favor of the proposed transaction.

Lehman Brothers and Credit Suisse First Boston acted as financial advisors to Teva in this transaction, while SICOR used Bear Stearns as its financial advisor.
