MOODY'S UPGRADES TEVA RATING TO A3

JERUSALEM, January 14, 2010 - Teva Pharmaceutical Industries Ltd. (NASDAQ: TEVA) announced today that Moody's Investor services has upgraded the Company's rating to A3 from Baa1. Following this most recent upgrade, the rating outlook is now stable.

Teva is the first generics-focused pharmaceutical company to be rated in Moody's "A" category.

In its statement, Moody's indicated that the upgrade of Teva reflects a favorable growth outlook, clearly articulated financial targets and the expectation that M&A can be financed with debt levels appropriate for the A3 rating. The A3 rating is supported by Teva's excellent global leadership position and its strong cash flow.

"In our recent strategy update, we outlined our long term strategy to double revenues to $31 billion and reach net income of $6.8 billion by 2015," said Eyal Desheh, Teva's Chief Financial Officer. "Moody's upgrade reflects Teva's commitment to executing its growth strategy while maintaining a strong balance sheet."

Teva's Safe Harbor Statement under the U. S. Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995:

This release contains forward-looking statements, which express the current beliefs and expectations of management. Such statements are based on management's current beliefs and expectations and involve a number of known and unknown risks and uncertainties that could cause our future results, performance or achievements to differ significantly from the results, performance or achievements expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. Important factors that could cause or contribute to such differences include risks relating to: our ability to successfully develop and commercialize additional pharmaceutical products, the introduction of competing generic equivalents, the extent to which we may obtain U.S. market exclusivity for certain of our new generic products and regulatory changes that may prevent us from utilizing exclusivity periods, potential liability for sales of generic products prior to a final resolution of outstanding patent litigation, including that relating to the generic versions of Neurontin®[®], Lotrel®[®], Protonix®[®] and Eloxatin®[®], the current economic conditions, competition from brand-name companies that are under increased pressure to counter generic products, or competitors that seek to delay the introduction of generic products, the effects of competition on our innovative products, especially Copaxone®[®] sales, including potential oral and generic competition for Copaxone®[®], dependence on the effectiveness of our patents and other protections for innovative products, the impact of consolidation of our distributors and customers, the impact of pharmaceutical industry regulation and pending legislation that could affect the pharmaceutical industry, our ability to achieve expected results through our innovative R&D efforts, the difficulty of predicting U.S. Food and Drug Administration, European Medicines Agency and other regulatory authority approvals, the uncertainty surrounding the legislative and regulatory pathway for the registration and approval of biotechnology-based products, the regulatory environment and changes in the health policies and structures of various countries, supply interruptions or delays that could result from the complex manufacturing of our products and our global supply chain, our ability to successfully identify, consummate and integrate acquisitions, the potential exposure to product liability claims to the extent not covered by insurance, our exposure to fluctuations in currency, exchange and interest rates, significant operations worldwide that may be adversely affected by terrorism, political or economical instability or major hostilities, our ability to enter into patent litigation settlements and the intensified scrutiny by the U.S. government, the termination or expiration of governmental programs and tax benefits, impairment of intangible assets and goodwill, environmental risks, and other factors that are discussed in this report and in our other filings with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC").
