The following email was sent to all Edison International Employees on March 21, 2012:

Subject: Edison International Proxy Materials

To: Edison International Employees

On Friday I sent you an email to advise you that proxy materials for the 2012 annual meeting of shareholders are available on our website at www.edison.com/annualmeeting. I also provided information regarding the Notice most shareholders will receive in the mail with instructions on how to access the proxy materials and vote your shares.

Shareholders began to receive their Notices in the mail on Monday. Below is an example of what the envelope looks like if you are a registered shareholder or hold shares through the Edison 401(k) Savings Plan. "Edison International" is displayed in the envelope window and the word "Vote" appears prominently.

Shareholders who hold their shares through a broker will receive a Notice with a similar envelope, but the broker's name will appear in the window in place of the Edison International name. Please make sure to open the envelope and vote your shares.

The Notice contains the control numbers you need to vote your shares. If you receive more than one Notice, it means that your shares are held in more than one account. Use the control numbers provided on each Notice to ensure that all of your shares are voted.
