Pursuant to the share withholding provisions of the Fourth Amended and Restated Revlon, Inc. These withheld shares were recorded as treasury stock using the cost method, at a price per share of $35.00 during the six months ended June 30, 2016, based on the closing price of Revlon, Inc. Class A Common Stock (representing vested shares of restricted stock) from Lorenzo Delpani, the Company's former President and Chief Executive Officer, at a price of $36.83 per share based upon the NYSE closing price of Revlon, Inc. Class A Common Stock on April 20, 2016, for a total purchase price of $2.7 million.

NOTES TO UNAUDITED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

(except where otherwise noted, all tabular amounts in millions, except share and per share amounts)

Item 1. Financial Statements

1. DESCRIPTION OF BUSINESS AND SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Revlon, Inc. (and together with its subsidiaries, the "Company") conducts its business exclusively through its direct wholly-owned operating subsidiary, Revlon Consumer Products Corporation ("Products Corporation"), and its subsidiaries. Revlon, Inc. is an indirect majority-owned subsidiary of MacAndrews & Forbes Incorporated (together with certain of its affiliates other than the Company, "MacAndrews & Forbes"), a corporation wholly-owned by Ronald O. Perelman. The Company's vision is to establish Revlon as the quintessential and most innovative beauty company in the world by offering products that make consumers feel attractive and beautiful. The Company wants to inspire its consumers to express themselves boldly and confidently. The Company operates in three reporting segments: the consumer division ("Consumer"); the professional division ("Professional"); and Other. The Company manufactures, markets and sells worldwide an extensive array of beauty and personal care products, including color cosmetics, hair color, hair care and hair treatments, beauty tools, men's grooming products, anti-perspirant deodorants, fragrances, skincare and other beauty care products. The Company's principal customers for its products in the Consumer segment include large volume retailers, chain drug and food stores, chemist shops, hypermarkets, general merchandise stores, the Internet/e-commerce, television shopping, department stores, one-stop shopping beauty retailers, specialty cosmetics stores and perfumeries in the U.S. and internationally. The Company's principal customers for its products in the Professional segment include hair and nail salons and distributors to professional salons in the U.S. and internationally. The Other segment primarily includes the operating results of the CBBeauty Group and certain of its related entities (collectively "CBB" and such transaction, the "CBB Acquisition"). CBB develops, manufactures, markets and distributes fragrances and other beauty products under a variety of celebrity, lifestyle and fashion brands licensed from third parties, principally through department stores and selective distribution in international territories. The results included within the Other segment are not material to the Company's consolidated results of operations.

The accompanying Consolidated Financial Statements are unaudited. In management's opinion, all adjustments necessary for a fair presentation have been made. The Consolidated Financial Statements include the accounts of the Company after the elimination of all material intercompany balances and transactions.

The preparation of the Company's Consolidated Financial Statements in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles ("U.S. GAAP") requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities as of the date of the financial statements and reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the periods presented. Actual results could differ from these estimates. Estimates and assumptions are reviewed periodically and the effects of revisions are reflected in the Consolidated Financial Statements in the period they are determined to be necessary. Significant estimates made in the accompanying Consolidated Financial Statements include, but are not limited to, allowances for doubtful accounts, inventory valuation reserves, expected sales returns and allowances, trade support costs, certain assumptions related to the valuation of acquired intangible and long-lived assets and the recoverability of goodwill, intangible and long-lived assets, income taxes, including deferred tax valuation allowances and reserves for estimated tax liabilities, restructuring costs, certain estimates and assumptions used in the calculation of the net periodic benefit (income) costs and the projected benefit obligations for the Company's pension and other post-retirement plans, including the expected long-term return on pension plan assets and the discount rate used to value the Company's pension benefit obligations. The Consolidated Financial Statements should be read in conjunction with the consolidated financial statements and related notes contained in Revlon, Inc.'s 2015 Form 10-K.

The Company's results of operations and financial position for interim periods are not necessarily indicative of those to be expected for a full year.

Certain prior year amounts in the Consolidated Financial Statements have been reclassified to conform to the current period's presentation.

Recently Adopted Accounting Pronouncements

In November 2015, the FASB issued ASU No. 2015-17, "Income Taxes (Topic 740): Balance Sheet Classification of Deferred Taxes," which requires deferred income tax assets and liabilities to be classified as noncurrent within a company's balance sheet. Under previous guidance, the Company was required to separate deferred income tax assets and liabilities into current and noncurrent amounts. Netting deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities by tax jurisdiction is still required under ASU 2015-17. The Company adopted ASU No. 2015-17 beginning on January 1, 2016 and the Company's previously recorded deferred tax assets were adjusted to reflect the adoption of ASU No. 2015-17. The adoption of ASU No. 2015-17 resulted in no adjustment to the Company's results of operations and stockholders' deficiency and had the following impact on the previously reported Consolidated Balance Sheets for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2015 and the Consolidated Statements of Cash Flows for the fiscal period ended June 30, 2015:

In September 2015, the FASB issued ASU No. 2015-16, "Business Combinations (Topic 805): Simplifying the Accounting for Measurement Period Adjustments," which eliminates the requirement for an acquirer in a business combination to account for measurement-period adjustments retrospectively. Instead, acquirers must recognize measurement-period adjustments during the period in which they determine the amounts, including the effect on earnings of any amounts they would have recorded in previous periods if the accounting had been completed at the acquisition date. The guidance is effective for annual periods beginning after December 15, 2015, with early adoption permitted. The Company adopted ASU No. 2015-16 beginning on January 1, 2016 and the adoption of the new guidance did not have a material impact on the Company's results of operations, financial condition and financial statement disclosures.

In April 2015, the FASB issued ASU No. 2015-03, "Simplifying the Presentation of Debt Issuance Costs," which requires debt issuance costs to be presented in the financial statements as a deduction from the corresponding debt liability, consistent with the presentation of debt discounts. The guidance is effective for annual periods beginning after December 15, 2015, with early adoption permitted, and is to be applied retrospectively. The Company adopted ASU No. 2015-03 beginning on January 1, 2016 and the Company's previously recorded other assets and long-term debt were adjusted to reflect the adoption of ASU No. 2015-03. The adoption of ASU No. 2015-03 resulted in no adjustment to the Company's results of operations, cash flows and stockholders' deficiency and had the following impact on the previously reported Consolidated Balance Sheets for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2015:

Consolidated Balance Sheets	Total as reported at 12/31/2015	Adjustment	Total as adjusted at 12/31/2015
Long-Term Debt	1,803.7	(20.0)	1,783.7
Other Assets	104.1	(20.0)	84.1

In August 2014, the FASB issued ASU No. 2014-15, "Disclosure of Uncertainties about an Entity's Ability to Continue as a Going Concern," that will explicitly require management to assess an entity's ability to continue as a going concern and to provide related footnote disclosures if conditions give rise to substantial doubt. According to ASU No. 2014-15, substantial doubt exists if it is probable that the entity will be unable to meet its obligations within one year after the issuance date. The likelihood threshold of "probable," similar to its current use in U.S. GAAP for loss contingencies, will be used to define substantial doubt. Disclosures will be required under ASU No. 2014-15 if conditions give rise to substantial doubt, including whether and how management's plans will alleviate the substantial doubt. The guidance is effective for annual periods beginning after December 15, 2015, with early adoption prohibited. The Company adopted ASU No. 2014-15 beginning January 1, 2016 and the adoption of the new guidance did not have a material impact on the Company's results of operations, financial condition and financial statement disclosures.

Recently Issued Accounting Pronouncements

In March 2016, the FASB issued ASU No. 2016-09, "Improvements to Employee Share-Based Payment Accounting," which simplifies certain aspects of accounting for share-based payment transactions, including transactions in which an employee uses shares to satisfy the employer's minimum statutory income tax withholding obligation, forfeitures and income taxes when awards vest or are settled. The guidance is effective for annual periods beginning after December 15, 2016, with early adoption permitted.

REVLON, INC. AND SUBSIDIARIES

(except where otherwise noted, all tabular amounts in millions, except share and per share amounts)

The Company expects to adopt ASU No. 2016-09 beginning on January 1, 2017 and is in the process of assessing the impact that the new guidance will have on the Company's results of operations, financial condition and financial statement disclosures.

In February 2016, the FASB issued ASU No. 2016-02, "Leases (Topic 842)" which requires lessees to recognize a right-of-use asset and a liability on the balance sheet for all leases, with the exception of short-term leases. The lease liability will be equal to the present value of lease payments and the right-of-use asset will be based on the lease liability, subject to adjustment such as for initial direct costs. Leases will continue to be classified as either operating or finance leases in the income statement. The guidance is effective for annual periods beginning after December 15, 2018, with early adoption permitted. The Company expects to adopt ASU No. 2016-02 beginning on January 1, 2019 and is in the process of assessing the impact that the new guidance will have on the Company's results of operations, financial condition and financial statement disclosures.

2. BUSINESS COMBINATIONS

The Cutex International Acquisition

On May 31, 2016 (the "Cutex International Acquisition Date"), the Company completed the acquisition of certain international Cutex businesses ("Cutex International") from Coty Inc. (the "Cutex International Acquisition"), which primarily operate in Australia and the U.K., and related assets for total cash consideration of $29.1 million. Following the Company's October 2015 acquisition of the Cutex business and related assets in the U.S. from Cutex Brands, LLC, the Cutex International Acquisition completed the Company's global consolidation of the Cutex brand and enhances and complements the Company's existing brand portfolio of nail care products. Cutex International's results of operations are included in the Company's Consolidated Financial Statements commencing on the Cutex International Acquisition Date. Pro forma results of operations have not been presented, as the impact of the Cutex International Acquisition on the Company's consolidated financial results is not material.

The Company accounted for the Cutex International Acquisition as a business combination in the second quarter of 2016. The table below summarizes the allocation of the total consideration of $29.1 million paid on the Cutex International Acquisition Date:

	Fair Value at May 31, 2016
Inventory	$ 0.8
Purchased Intangible Assets ^(a)	19.7
Goodwill	8.6
Total consideration transferred	$ 29.1

^(a) Purchased intangible assets include customer networks fair valued at $14.0 million, intellectual property fair valued at $0.9 million, which are amortized over useful lives of 15 and 10 years, respectively, and indefinite lived trade names fair valued at $4.8 million.

The Company reacquired the Cutex trade name, which had previously provided Coty with an exclusive right to manufacture, market and sell Cutex branded products for an initial term and perpetual automatic 20-year renewals. Based on the terms and conditions of the existing license agreements and other factors, the Cutex trade name was assigned an indefinite-life and, therefore, will not be amortized.

The fair values of the net assets acquired in the Cutex International Acquisition were based on management's preliminary estimate of the respective fair values. The estimated fair values of net assets and resulting goodwill are subject to the Company finalizing its analysis of the fair value of Cutex International's assets as of the Cutex International Acquisition Date and may be adjusted upon completion of such analysis. In addition, information unknown at the time of the Cutex International Acquisition Date could result in adjustments to the respective fair values and resulting goodwill within the year following the Cutex International Acquisition Date.

In determining the estimated fair values of net assets acquired and resulting goodwill related to the Cutex International Acquisition, the Company considered, among other factors, the analysis of Cutex International's historical financial performance and an estimate of the future performance of the acquired business, as well as market participants' intended use of the acquired assets. Factors contributing to the purchase price resulting in the recognition of goodwill include the anticipated benefits the Company expects to achieve through the expansion of its nail product portfolio. Both the intangible assets acquired and goodwill are not deductible for income tax purposes.

3. RESTRUCTURING CHARGES

2015 Efficiency Program

In September 2015, the Company initiated certain restructuring actions to drive certain organizational efficiencies across the Company's Consumer and Professional segments (the "2015 Efficiency Program"). These actions, which commenced during 2015 and are planned to occur through 2017, are expected to reduce general and administrative expenses within the Consumer and Professional segments. Of the $1.2 million of restructuring and related charges recognized in the first six months of 2016 for the 2015 Efficiency Program, $0.5 million related to the Consumer segment and $0.6 million related to the Professional segment, with the remaining charges included within unallocated corporate expenses. The Company expects to recognize total restructuring and related charges for the 2015 Efficiency Program of $11.7 million by the end of 2017, of which $6.9 million is expected to relate to the Consumer segment, $4.4 million is expected to relate to the Professional segment and the remaining charge relates to unallocated corporate expenses.

A summary of the restructuring and related charges incurred through June 30, 2016 in connection with the 2015 Efficiency Program is presented in the following table:

	Restructuring Charges and Other, Net Employee Severance and Other Personnel Benefits			Total Restructuring Charges
Charges incurred through December 31, 2015	$9.4	$0.1	$	9.5
Charges incurred in the six months ended June 30, 2016	$0.6	$0.6	$	1.2
Cumulative charges incurred through June 30, 2016	$10.0	$0.7	$	10.7
Total expected charges	$10.0	$1.7	$	11.7

Of the cumulative $10.7 million of restructuring and related charges recognized through the second quarter of 2016 related to the 2015 Efficiency Program, $6.5 million related to the Consumer segment, $3.8 million related to the Professional segment and the remaining charges related to unallocated corporate expenses.

The Company expects that cash payments will total approximately $12 million in connection with the 2015 Efficiency Program, including $0.2 million for capital expenditures (which capital expenditures are excluded from total restructuring and related charges expected to be recognized for the 2015 Efficiency Program), of which $1.6 million was paid in the six months ended June 30, 2016 and $2.8 million was paid in 2015. A total of $6.2 million is expected to be paid during the remainder of 2016, with the remaining balance expected to be paid in 2017.

("Colomer" and the "Colomer Acquisition"), the Company implemented actions to integrate Colomer's operations into the Company's business which reduced costs across the Company's businesses and generated synergies and operating efficiencies within the Company's global supply chain and consolidated offices and back office support (all such actions, together, the "Integration Program"). The Integration Program was substantially completed as of December 31, 2015.

^(b) In December 2013, the Company announced restructuring actions that primarily included exiting its direct manufacturing, warehousing and sales business operations in mainland China (the "December 2013 Program"). 2016 Debt Related Transaction

Amended Term Loan Facility - Excess Cash Flow Payment

On February 29, 2016, Products Corporation prepaid $23.2 million of indebtedness, representing 50% of its 2015 "excess cash flow" as defined under the Amended Term Loan Agreement, in accordance with the terms of its Amended Term Loan Facility. The prepayment was applied on a ratable basis between the principal amounts outstanding under the 2011 Term Loan and the Acquisition Term Loan. The amount of the prepayment that was applied to the 2011 Term Loan reduced the principal amount outstanding by $11.5 million to $651.4 million (as all amortization payments under the 2011 Term Loan had been paid). The $11.7 million that was applied to the Acquisition Term Loan reduced Products Corporation's future annual amortization payments under the Acquisition Term Loan on a ratable basis from $6.9 million prior to the prepayment to $6.8 million after giving effect to the prepayment and through its maturity on October 8, 2019.

See Note 18, "Subsequent Events," to the Unaudited Consolidated Financial Statements in this Form 10-Q for debt-related transaction details that occurred subsequent to the second quarter of 2016.

Covenants

Products Corporation was in compliance with all applicable covenants under the Amended Term Loan Agreement and the Amended Revolving Credit Facility as of June 30, 2016. At June 30, 2016, the aggregate principal amounts outstanding under the Acquisition Term Loan and the 2011 Term Loan were $658.6 million and $651.4 million, respectively, and availability under the $175.0 million Amended Revolving Credit Facility, based upon the calculated borrowing base less $8.3 million of outstanding undrawn letters of credit and nil then drawn on the Amended Revolving Credit Facility, was $166.7 million.

Products Corporation was in compliance with all applicable covenants under its 5¾% Senior Notes Indenture as of June 30, 2016 and December 31, 2015.

9. FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS

Assets and liabilities are required to be categorized into three levels of fair value based upon the assumptions used to price the assets or liabilities. Level 1 provides the most reliable measure of fair value, whereas Level 3, if applicable, generally would require significant management judgment. The three levels for categorizing the fair value measurement of assets and liabilities are as follows:

• Level 1: Fair valuing the asset or liability using observable inputs, such as quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities;

• Level 2: Fair valuing the asset or liability using inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the applicable asset or liability, either directly or indirectly, such as quoted prices for similar (as opposed to identical) assets or liabilities in active markets and quoted prices for identical or similar assets or liabilities in markets that are not active;

and

• Level 3: Fair valuing the asset or liability using unobservable inputs that reflect the Company's own assumptions regarding the applicable asset or liability.

The fair value of the Company's long-term debt, including the current portion of long-term debt, is based on quoted market prices for similar issues and maturities.

The carrying amounts of cash and cash equivalents, trade receivables, notes receivable, accounts payable and short-term borrowings approximate their respective fair values.

10. FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

Products Corporation maintains standby and trade letters of credit for various corporate purposes under which Products Corporation is obligated, of which $8.3 million and $8.8 million (including amounts available under credit agreements in effect at that time) were maintained at June 30, 2016 and December 31, 2015, respectively. Included in these amounts are approximately $7.2 million and $7.5 million at June 30, 2016 and December 31, 2015, respectively, in standby letters of credit that support Products Corporation's self-insurance programs. The estimated liability under such programs is accrued by Products Corporation.

Derivative Financial Instruments

The Company uses derivative financial instruments, primarily: (i) FX Contracts, intended for the purpose of managing foreign currency exchange risk by reducing the effects of fluctuations in foreign currency exchange rates on the Company's net cash flows; and (ii) interest rate hedging transactions, such as the 2013 Interest Rate Swap referred to below, intended for the purpose of managing interest rate risk associated with Products Corporation's variable rate indebtedness.

Foreign Currency Forward Exchange Contracts

The FX Contracts are entered into primarily to hedge the anticipated net cash flows resulting from inventory purchases and intercompany payments denominated in currencies other than the local currencies of the Company's foreign and domestic operations and generally have maturities of less than one year.

The U.S. Dollar notional amount of the FX Contracts outstanding at June 30, 2016 and December 31, 2015 was $74.2 million and $76.3 million, respectively.

Interest Rate Swap Transaction

In November 2013, Products Corporation executed a forward-starting floating-to-fixed interest rate swap transaction with a 1.00% floor, based on a notional amount of $400 million in respect of indebtedness under the Acquisition Term Loan over a period of three years (the "2013 Interest Rate Swap"). The Company designated the 2013 Interest Rate Swap as a cash flow hedge of the variability of the forecasted three-month LIBOR interest rate payments related to the $400 million notional amount under the Acquisition Term Loan over the three-year term of the 2013 Interest Rate Swap. Products Corporation receives from the counterparty a floating interest rate based on the higher of three-month USD LIBOR or 1.00%, while paying a fixed interest rate payment to the counterparty equal to 2.0709% (which effectively fixes the interest rate on such notional amount at 5.0709% over the three-year term of the 2013 Interest Rate Swap). For the six months ended June 30, 2016, the 2013 Interest Rate Swap was deemed effective and therefore the changes in fair value related to the 2013 Interest Rate Swap have been recorded in Other Comprehensive Loss. As of June 30, 2016, the balance of deferred net losses on derivatives included in accumulated other comprehensive loss was $4.5 million after-tax. (See "Quantitative Information – Derivative Financial Instruments" below).

The Company expects that $2.6 million of the after-tax deferred net losses related to the 2013 Interest Rate Swap will be reclassified into earnings over the next 12 months as a result of transactions that are expected to occur over that period. The amount ultimately realized in earnings may differ, as LIBOR is subject to change. Realized gains and losses are ultimately determined by actual rates at maturity of the derivative.

Credit Risk

Exposure to credit risk in the event of nonperformance by any of the counterparties is limited to the gross fair value of the derivative instruments in asset positions, which totaled $1.1 million and $2.0 million as of June 30, 2016 and December 31, 2015, respectively. The Company attempts to minimize exposure to credit risk by generally entering into derivative contracts with counterparties that have investment-grade credit ratings and are major financial institutions. The Company also periodically monitors any changes in the credit ratings of its counterparties. Given the current credit standing of the Company's counterparties to its derivative instruments, the Company believes that the risk of loss under these derivative instruments arising from any non-performance by any of the counterparties is remote.

In the three and six months ended June 30, 2016, the Company recognized net periodic benefit income of $0.1 million and $0.4 million, respectively, compared to net periodic benefit income of $0.7 million and $1.3 million in the three and six months ended June 30, 2015, primarily due to the lower expected return on plan assets, partially offset by lower interest cost as a result of the Company's adoption of the alternative approach to calculating the service and interest components of net periodic benefit cost for pension and other post-retirement benefits (the "full yield curve" approach) which was adopted by the Company at December 31, 2015.

Net periodic benefit costs (income) are reflected in the Company's Consolidated Financial Statements as follows:

The Company expects that it will have net periodic benefit income of approximately $1 million for its pension and other post-retirement benefit plans for all of 2016, compared with net periodic benefit cost of $18.8 million in 2015. During the second quarter of 2016, $1.4 million and $0.3 million were contributed to the Company's pension plans and other post-retirement benefit plans, respectively. During the first six months of 2016, $3.1 million and $0.5 million were contributed to the Company's pension plans and other post-retirement benefit plans, respectively. During 2016, the Company expects to contribute approximately $10 million in the aggregate to its pension and other post-retirement benefit plans.

Relevant aspects of the qualified defined benefit pension plans, nonqualified pension plans and other post-retirement benefit plans sponsored by Products Corporation are disclosed in Note 14, "Savings Plan, Pension and Post-Retirement Benefits," to the Consolidated Financial Statements in Revlon, Inc.'s 2015 Form 10-K.

12. INCOME TAXES

The provision for income taxes represents federal, foreign, state and local income taxes. The effective tax rate differs from the applicable federal statutory rate due to the effect of state and local income taxes, tax rates and income in foreign jurisdictions, utilization of tax loss carryforwards, foreign earnings taxable in the U.S., non-deductible expenses and other items. The Company's tax provision changes quarterly based on various factors including, but not limited to, the geographical mix of earnings, enacted tax legislation, foreign, state and local income taxes, tax audit settlements and the interaction of various global tax strategies. In addition, changes in judgment from the evaluation of new information resulting in the recognition, derecognition and/or remeasurement of a tax position taken in a prior period are recognized in the quarter in which any such change occurs.

For the second quarter of 2016 and 2015, the Company recorded a provision for income taxes of $10.6 million and $20.5 million, respectively. The $9.9 million decrease in the provision for income taxes was primarily due to lower pre-tax income and the phasing of the recognition of income taxes.

For the first six months of 2016 and 2015, the Company recorded a provision for income taxes of $16.4 million and $29.2 million, respectively. The $12.8 million decrease in the provision for income taxes was primarily due to lower pre-tax income and the phasing of the recognition of income taxes.

The Company's effective tax rate for the three months ended June 30, 2016 was higher than the federal statutory rate of 35% as a result of foreign and U.S. tax effects attributable to operations outside the U.S., state and local taxes, and foreign dividends and earnings taxable in the U.S.

The Company's effective tax rate for the six months ended June 30, 2016 was higher than the federal statutory rate of 35% as a result of certain foreign dividends and earnings taxable in the U.S.

The Company remains subject to examination of its income tax returns in various jurisdictions including, without limitation: Australia and Spain for tax years ended December 31, 2011 through December 31, 2014; South Africa, the U.K. and the U.S. (federal) for tax years ended December 31, 2012 through December 31, 2014; and Canada for tax years ended December 31, 2012 through December 31, 2015.

(b) For the six months ended June 30, 2016, the Company's 2013 Interest Rate Swap was deemed effective and therefore, the changes in fair value related to the 2013 Interest Rate Swap were recorded in other comprehensive income (loss). See Note 10, "Financial Instruments," for further discussion of the 2013 Interest Rate Swap.

14. SEGMENT DATA AND RELATED INFORMATION

Operating segments include components of an enterprise about which separate financial information is available that is evaluated regularly by the chief operating decision maker (the Company's "Chief Executive Officer") in deciding how to allocate resources and in assessing the Company's performance. As a result of the similarities in the procurement, manufacturing and distribution processes for the Company's products, much of the information provided in the Consolidated Financial Statements, and provided in the segment table below, is similar to, or the same as, that reviewed on a regular basis by the Company's Chief Executive Officer.

At June 30, 2016, the Company's operations are organized into the following reportable segments:

Consumer - The Consumer segment is comprised of the Company's consumer brands, which primarily include Revlon, Almay, SinfulColors and Pure Ice in color cosmetics; Revlon ColorSilk in women's hair color; Revlon in beauty tools; and Mitchum in anti-perspirant deodorants. The Company's principal customers for its consumer products include large volume retailers, chain drug and food stores, chemist shops, hypermarkets, general merchandise stores, the Internet/e-commerce, television shopping, department stores, one-stop shopping beauty retailers, specialty cosmetics stores and perfumeries in the U.S. and internationally. The Consumer segment also includes a skincare line under the Natural Honey brand and a hair color line under the Llongueras brand sold to large volume retailers and other retailers, primarily in Spain, which were acquired as part of the Colomer Acquisition. In October 2015 and in May 2016, the Company acquired the U.S. Cutex business and Cutex International business and related assets, respectively. The results of operations relating to the sales of Cutex nail care products are included within the Consumer segment.

Professional - The Professional segment is comprised primarily of the brands which the Company acquired in the Colomer Acquisition, which include Revlon Professional in hair color and hair care; CND-branded products in nail polishes and nail enhancements; and American Crew in men's grooming products, all of which are sold worldwide to professional salons. The Company's principal customers for its professional products include hair and nail salons and distributors to professional salons in the U.S. and internationally. The Professional segment also includes a multi-cultural line consisting of Creme of Nature hair care products sold to large volume retailers, other retailers and professional salons, primarily in the U.S.

Other - The Other segment primarily includes the operating results of the CBB business and related purchase accounting for the CBB Acquisition. CBB develops, manufactures, markets and distributes fragrances and other beauty products under various celebrity, lifestyle and fashion brands licensed from third parties, principally through department stores and selective distribution in international territories. The results included within the Other segment are not material to the Company's consolidated results of operations.

The Company's management evaluates segment profit, which is defined as income from continuing operations before interest, taxes, depreciation, amortization, stock-based compensation expense, gains/losses on foreign currency fluctuations, gains/losses on the early extinguishment of debt and miscellaneous expenses, for each of the Company's reportable segments. Segment profit also excludes unallocated corporate expenses and the impact of certain items that are not directly attributable to the reportable segments' underlying operating performance, which includes the impacts of: (i) restructuring and related charges; (ii) acquisition and integration costs; (iii) deferred compensation related to the accounting for the CBB Acquisition; and (iv) costs of sales resulting from a fair value adjustment in the second quarter of 2016 and 2015 to inventory acquired in the Cutex International Acquisition and CBB Acquisition, respectively. Such items are shown below in the table reconciling segment profit to consolidated income from continuing operations before income taxes. Unallocated corporate expenses primarily include general and administrative expenses related to the corporate organization. These expenses are recorded in unallocated corporate expenses, as these items are centrally directed and controlled and are not included in internal measures of segment operating performance. The Company does not have any material inter-segment sales.

The accounting policies for each of the reportable segments are the same as those described in Note 1, "Description of Business and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies" in Revlon, Inc.'s 2015 Form 10-K. The Company's assets and liabilities are managed centrally and are reported internally in the same manner as the Consolidated Financial Statements; thus, no additional information regarding assets and liabilities of the Company's reportable segments is produced for the Company's Chief Executive Officer or included in these Consolidated Financial Statements.

15. BASIC AND DILUTED EARNINGS PER COMMON SHARE

Shares used in basic earnings per share are computed using the weighted average number of common shares outstanding during each period. Shares used in diluted earnings per share include the dilutive effect of unvested restricted stock under the Company's Stock Plan using the treasury stock method. At June 30, 2016 and 2015, there were no outstanding stock options under the Company's Stock Plan.

For the three and six months ended June 30, 2016, there are 329,678 and 171,000 shares, respectively, of unvested restricted stock that could potentially dilute basic earnings per common share in the future that were excluded from the computation of diluted earnings per common share, as their effect would be anti-dilutive. No unvested restricted stock awards were excluded from the computation of diluted earnings per common share for the three and six months ended June 30, 2015.

16. CONTINGENCIES

The Company is involved in various routine legal proceedings incidental to the ordinary course of its business. The Company believes that the outcome of all pending legal proceedings in the aggregate is not reasonably likely to have a material adverse effect on the Company's business, financial condition and/or its results of operations. However, in light of the uncertainties involved in legal proceedings generally, the ultimate outcome of a particular matter could be material to the Company's operating results for a particular period depending on, among other things, the size of the loss or the nature of the liability imposed and the level of the Company's income for that particular period.

17. RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

Reimbursement Agreements

As previously disclosed in the Revlon, Inc.'s 2015 Form 10-K, Revlon, Inc., Products Corporation and MacAndrews & Forbes have entered into reimbursement agreements (the "Reimbursement Agreements") pursuant to which: (i) MacAndrews & Forbes is obligated to provide (directly or through its affiliates) certain professional and administrative services, including, without limitation, employees, to the Company, and to purchase services from third party providers, such as insurance, legal, accounting and air transportation services, on behalf of the Company, to the extent requested by Products Corporation; and (ii) Products Corporation is obligated to provide certain professional and administrative services, including, without limitation, employees, to MacAndrews & Forbes and to purchase services from third party providers, such as insurance, legal and accounting services, on behalf of MacAndrews & Forbes, to the extent requested by MacAndrews & Forbes, provided that in each case the performance of such services does not cause an unreasonable burden to MacAndrews & Forbes or Products Corporation, as the case may be. The Company reimburses MacAndrews & Forbes for the allocable costs of the services that MacAndrews & Forbes purchases for or provides to the Company and for the reasonable out-of-pocket expenses that MacAndrews & Forbes incurs in connection with the provision of such services. MacAndrews & Forbes reimburses Products Corporation for the allocable costs of the services that Products Corporation purchases for or provides to MacAndrews & Forbes and for the reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred by Products Corporation in connection with the purchase or provision of such services. Each of the Company, on the one hand, and MacAndrews & Forbes, on the other, has agreed to indemnify the other party for losses arising out of the services provided by it under the Reimbursement Agreements, other than losses resulting from its willful misconduct or gross negligence.

REVLOL, INC. AND SUBSIDIARIES

(except where otherwise noted, all tabular amounts in millions, except share and per share amounts)

The Reimbursement Agreements may be terminated by either party on 90 days' notice. The Company does not intend to request services under the Reimbursement Agreements unless their costs would be at least as favorable to the Company as could be obtained from unaffiliated third parties.

The Company participates in MacAndrews & Forbes' directors and officers liability insurance program (the "D&O Insurance Program"), as well as its other insurance coverages, such as property damage, business interruption, liability and other coverages, which cover the Company, as well as MacAndrews & Forbes and its subsidiaries. The limits of coverage for certain of the policies are available on an aggregate basis for losses to any or all of the participating companies and their respective directors and officers. The Company reimburses MacAndrews & Forbes from time to time for their allocable portion of the premiums for such coverage or the Company pays the insurers directly, which premiums the Company believes are more favorable than the premiums that the Company would pay were it to secure stand-alone coverage. Any amounts paid by the Company directly to MacAndrews & Forbes in respect of premiums are included in the amounts paid under the Reimbursement Agreements.

The net activity related to services provided and/or purchased under the Reimbursement Agreements during the six months ended June 30, 2016 and 2015 was $1.4 million and $2.3 million, respectively, which primarily includes partial payments made by the Company to MacAndrews & Forbes during the first quarter of 2016 and 2015 for premiums related to the Company's allocable portion of the 5-year renewal of the D&O Insurance Program for the period from January 31, 2012 through January 31, 2017. As of June 30, 2016 and December 31, 2015, a receivable balance of nil and $0.1 million, respectively, from MacAndrews & Forbes were included in the Company's Balance Sheets for transactions subject to the Reimbursement Agreements.

Other

During the six months ended June 30, 2016 and 2015, the Company engaged several companies in which MacAndrews & Forbes had a controlling interest to provide the Company with various ordinary course business services. These services included processing approximately $24.8 million and $16.1 million of coupon redemptions for the Company's retail customers for the six months ended June 30, 2016 and 2015, respectively, for which the Company paid fees of approximately $0.2 million and $0.2 million during the six months ended June 30, 2016 and 2015, respectively, and other similar advertising, coupon redemption and raw material supply services, for which the Company paid fees aggregating to less than $0.2 million during the six months ended June 30, 2016 and 2015, respectively. The Company believes that its engagement of each of these affiliates was on arm's length terms, taking into account each firm's expertise in its respective field, and that the fees paid were at least as favorable as those available from unaffiliated parties.

18. SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

On June 16, 2016, Revlon, Inc. and Products Corporation entered into an agreement and plan of merger (the "Merger Agreement") by and among Revlon, Inc., Products Corporation, RR Transaction Corp., a wholly-owned subsidiary of Products Corporation ("Acquisition Sub") and Elizabeth Arden, Inc. ("Elizabeth Arden") pursuant to which, among other things, Acquisition Sub will merge with and into Elizabeth Arden (the "Merger" or the "Pending Acquisition"), with Elizabeth Arden surviving the Merger as a wholly-owned subsidiary of Products Corporation. The Company expects the Merger to close by the end of 2016, subject to receipt of regulatory approvals and satisfaction of other customary closing conditions.

Elizabeth Arden is a global prestige beauty products company with an extensive portfolio of iconic beauty brands that are highly complementary to the Company's existing brand portfolio and are sold worldwide. In North America, Elizabeth Arden's principal customers include prestige retailers, the mass retail channel and distributors, as well as direct sales to consumers via its branded retail outlet stores and e-commerce business. Elizabeth Arden products are also sold through the Elizabeth Arden Red Door Spa beauty salons and spas. Internationally, Elizabeth Arden's portfolio of owned and licensed brands is sold to perfumeries, boutiques, department stores, travel retailers and distributors.

In connection with the execution of the Merger Agreement, on June 16, 2016, Products Corporation entered into a debt financing commitment letter (the "Debt Commitment Letter") with Citigroup Global Markets Inc., Bank of America, N.A. and Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Incorporated (collectively, the "Lenders"). Pursuant to the Debt Commitment Letter, the Lenders have committed to arrange and provide Products Corporation with: (i) a seven-year senior secured term loan facility in an aggregate principal amount of $1.8 billion (the "New Term Loan Facilities"); (ii) a five-year senior secured asset-based revolving credit facility in a principal amount of $400 million (the "New Revolving Credit Facility"); and (iii) to the extent that the proceeds of the Unsecured Notes (as defined below) are not available to consummate the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, up to $400 million of senior unsecured bridge loans under a senior unsecured credit facility (the foregoing facilities collectively, the "Facilities"). The availability of the borrowings under the Facilities is subject to the satisfaction of certain customary conditions, including the consummation of the Merger.

Additionally, Products Corporation engaged affiliates of the Lenders to act as initial purchasers and placement agents for a private placement of up to $400 million of senior unsecured notes (the "Unsecured Notes"). The proceeds of the applicable Facilities and Unsecured Notes (to the extent borrowed or issued on the closing date of the Merger (the "Closing Date")) will be used to: (x) finance the Merger; (y) pay the fees, costs and expenses incurred in connection with, among other things, the Merger and the Facilities; and (z) fund the refinancing of substantially all of Products Corporation's existing long-term debt and credit facilities (such transactions in clauses (x) through (z) being the "Transactions"); provided that Products Corporation's existing 5¾% Senior Notes due 2021 will remain outstanding. On July 21, 2016, Revlon Escrow Corporation (the "Escrow Issuer"), a wholly owned subsidiary of Products Corporation, priced an offering of $450.0 million aggregate principal amount of 6.25% Senior Notes due 2024 (the "Notes"), the proceeds of which Products Corporation expects will be used, together with $1.8 billion of borrowings under the New Term Loan Facility and $100.0 million of borrowings under the New Revolving Credit Facility, to finance the Transactions. The amount of borrowings under the New Revolving Credit Facility will be subject to changes in working capital requirements and other adjustments. The offering of the Notes is expected to close on August 4, 2016.

The aggregate principal amount of Notes that will be issued represents an increase from the $400.0 million aggregate principal amount of Notes that Products Corporation had originally offered. The amount of cash on hand that Products Corporation had planned to use to finance the Pending Acquisition will be reduced by the amount of additional net proceeds of the Notes, and any remaining net proceeds will be used for general corporate purposes.

At the closing of the offering of the Notes, pursuant to an escrow agreement (the "Escrow Agreement"), the gross proceeds of the Notes, together with interest on the Notes, will be placed in an escrow account until the Closing Date of the Pending Acquisition. Under the Escrow Agreement, the Closing Date may be extended from time to time (subject to Products Corporation or an affiliate funding additional interest through the extended Closing Date into the escrow account), but not later than six months after the initial issuance date of the Notes.

The net proceeds of the Notes will be released from escrow upon the satisfaction of various customary conditions precedent, including completion of the Pending Acquisition. Upon the escrow release: (1) the Escrow Issuer will be merged with and into Products Corporation, with Products Corporation as the surviving corporation, and Products Corporation will assume the Escrow Issuer's obligations under the Notes and the related indenture; (2) Products Corporation's current subsidiaries that guarantee its existing 5¾% Senior Notes will guarantee the Notes and the related indenture (along with the New Term Loan Facility and the New Revolving Credit Facility); and (3) Elizabeth Arden and certain of its subsidiaries will guarantee the Notes and the related indenture (along with the New Term Loan Facility, the New Revolving Credit Facility and the 5¾% Senior Notes).

The increase in consolidated net sales in the second quarter of 2016 was primarily driven by a $14.0 million, or 3.9%, increase in Consumer segment net sales, a $2.1 million, or 48.8%, increase in Other segment net sales (as a result of the April 2015 CBB Acquisition) and a slight increase in Professional segment net sales.

Consolidated net sales in the first six months of 2016 were $928.5 million, an increase of $7.6 million, or 0.8%, compared to $920.9 million in the first six months of 2015. Excluding the $24.9 million unfavorable impact of foreign currency fluctuations, consolidated net sales increased by $32.5 million, or 3.5%, in the first six months of 2016 compared to the first six months of 2015. The increase in consolidated net sales in the first six months of 2016 was primarily driven by a $22.1 million, or 3.3%, increase in Consumer segment net sales, a $6.6 million, or 153.5%, increase in Other segment net sales (as a result of the April 2015 CBB Acquisition) and a $3.8 million, or 1.6%, increase in Professional segment net sales.

Consolidated income from continuing operations, net of taxes, in the second quarter of 2016 was $10.8 million, compared to consolidated income from continuing operations, net of taxes, of $26.0 million in the second quarter of 2015. The $15.2 million decrease in the second quarter of 2016 was primarily due to:

- $16.4 million of unfavorable variance in foreign currency losses (gains), net, as a result of $8.5 million in foreign currency losses recognized during the second quarter of 2016, as compared to $7.9 million in foreign currency gains, net, recognized during the second quarter of 2015;

- a $4.1 million increase in restructuring charges and other, net, which increase is due to $0.5 million of charges incurred during the second quarter of 2016, as compared to net reductions in estimated restructuring costs of $3.6 million during the second quarter of 2015; and

- $3.7 million of lower gross profit in the second quarter of 2016, primarily due to a $10.2 million increase in cost of sales, partially offset by a $6.5 million increase in net sales;

with the foregoing partially offset by:

- a $9.9 million decrease in the provision for income taxes recognized in the second quarter of 2016, primarily due to lower pre-tax income and the phasing of the recognition of income taxes.

Consolidated income from continuing operations, net of taxes, in the first six months of 2016 was $21.4 million, compared to $25.2 million of consolidated income from continuing operations, net of taxes, in the first six months of 2015. The $3.8 million decrease in the first six months of 2016 was primarily due to:

- $14.2 million of lower gross profit in the first six months of 2016, primarily due to a $21.8 million increase in cost of sales, partially offset by a $7.6 million increase in net sales; and

- a $4.9 million increase in restructuring charges and other, net, primarily due to $1.2 million of charges incurred under the 2015 Efficiency Program during the first six months of 2016, as compared to net reductions in estimated restructuring costs of $3.6 million during the second quarter of 2015;

with the foregoing partially offset by:

- a $12.8 million decrease in the provision for income taxes recognized in the first six months of 2016, primarily due to lower pre-tax income and the phasing of the recognition of income taxes.

These items are discussed in more detail within "Results of Operations" below.

Commitment Letter with the Lenders. Pursuant to the Debt Commitment Letter, the Lenders have committed to arrange and provide Products Corporation with the Facilities, consisting of: (i) a senior secured term loan facility in an aggregate principal amount of $1.8 billion (the "New Term Loan Facilities"); (ii) a senior secured asset-based revolving credit facility in a principal amount of $400 million; and (iii) to the extent that the proceeds of the Unsecured Notes are not available to consummate the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, up to $400 million of senior unsecured bridge loans under a senior unsecured credit facility. The availability of the borrowings under the Facilities is subject to the satisfaction of certain customary conditions, including the consummation of the Merger.

Additionally, Products Corporation engaged affiliates of the Lenders to act as initial purchasers and placement agents for a private placement of up to $400 million of Unsecured Notes. The proceeds of the applicable Facilities and Unsecured Notes (to the extent borrowed or issued on the Closing Date of the Merger) will be used to: (x) finance the Merger; (y) pay the fees, costs and expenses incurred in connection with, among other things, the Merger and the Facilities; and (z) fund the refinancing of substantially all of Products Corporation's existing long-term debt and credit facilities (such transactions in clauses (x) through (z) being the "Transactions"); provided that Products Corporation's existing 5¾% Senior Notes due 2021 shall remain outstanding.

On July 21, 2016, the Escrow Issuer, a wholly owned subsidiary of Products Corporation, priced an offering of $450.0 million aggregate principal amount of 6.25% Senior Notes due 2024, the proceeds of which Products Corporation expects will be used, together with $1.8 billion of borrowings under the New Term Loan Facility and $100.0 million of borrowings under the New Revolving Credit Facility, to finance the Transactions. The amount of borrowings under the New Revolving Credit Facility will be subject to changes in working capital requirements and other adjustments. The offering of the Notes is expected to close on August 4, 2016.

The aggregate principal amount of Notes that will be issued represents an increase from the $400.0 million aggregate principal amount of Notes that Products Corporation had originally offered. The amount of cash on hand that Products Corporation had planned to use to finance the Pending Acquisition will be reduced by the amount of additional net proceeds of the Notes, and any remaining net proceeds will be used for general corporate purposes.

At the closing of the offering of the Notes, pursuant to an escrow agreement (the "Escrow Agreement"), the gross proceeds of the Notes, together with interest on the Notes, will be placed in an escrow account until the Closing Date of the Pending Acquisition. Under the Escrow Agreement, the Closing Date may be extended from time to time (subject to Products Corporation or an affiliate funding additional interest through the extended Closing Date into the escrow account), but not later than six months after the initial issuance date of the Notes.

The net proceeds of the Notes will be released from escrow upon the satisfaction of various customary conditions precedent, including completion of the Pending Acquisition. Upon the escrow release: (1) the Escrow Issuer will be merged with and into Products Corporation, with Products Corporation as the surviving corporation, and Products Corporation will assume the Escrow Issuer's obligations under the Notes and the related indenture; (2) Products Corporation's current subsidiaries that guarantee its existing 5¾% Senior Notes will guarantee the Notes and the related indenture (along with the New Term Loan Facility and the New Revolving Credit Facility); and (3) Elizabeth Arden and certain of its subsidiaries will guarantee the Notes and the related indenture (along with the New Term Loan Facility, the New Revolving Credit Facility and the 5¾% Senior Notes).

Acquisition of Cutex International

On the Cutex International Acquisition Date, the Company completed the Cutex International Acquisition from Coty Inc. for total cash consideration of $29.1 million. Cutex International primarily operates in Australia and the U.K. Following the Company's October 2015 acquisition of the Cutex business and related assets in the U.S., the Cutex International Acquisition completes the Company's global consolidation of the Cutex brand and enhances and complements the Company's existing brand portfolio of nail care products. The Cutex International results of operations are included in the Company's Consolidated Financial Statements commencing on the Cutex International Acquisition Date. Pro forma results of operations have not been presented, as the impact of the Cutex International Acquisition on the Company's consolidated financial results is not material. See Note 2, "Business Combinations," to the Unaudited Consolidated Financial Statements in this Form 10-Q for further details related to the Cutex International Acquisition.

2016 Debt Related Transaction

On February 29, 2016, Products Corporation prepaid $23.2 million of indebtedness, representing 50% of its 2015 "excess cash flow" as defined under the Amended Term Loan Agreement, in accordance with the terms of its Amended Term Loan Facility. The prepayment was applied on a ratable basis between the principal amounts outstanding under the 2011 Term Loan and the Acquisition Term Loan. The amount of the prepayment that was applied to the 2011 Term Loan reduced the principal amount outstanding by $11.5 million to $651.4 million (as all amortization payments under the 2011 Term Loan had been paid). The $11.7 million that was applied to the Acquisition Term Loan reduced Products Corporation's future annual amortization payments under the Acquisition Term Loan on a ratable basis from $6.9 million prior to the prepayment to $6.8 million after giving effect to the prepayment and through its maturity on October 8, 2019. The results included within the Other segment are not material to the Company's consolidated results of operations.

Second quarter results:

Consolidated net sales in the second quarter of 2016 were $488.9 million, an increase of $6.5 million, or 1.3%, as compared to $482.4 million in the second quarter of 2015. Excluding the $10.3 million unfavorable impact of foreign currency fluctuations, consolidated net sales increased by $16.8 million, or 3.5%, during the second quarter of 2016.

Year-to-date results:

Consolidated net sales in the first six months of 2016 were $928.5 million, a $7.6 million increase, or 0.8%, as compared to $920.9 million in the first six months of 2015. Excluding the $24.9 million unfavorable impact of foreign currency fluctuations, consolidated net sales increased by $32.5 million, or 3.5%, during the first six months of 2016. See "Segment Results" below for further discussion.

Segment Results:

The Company's management evaluates segment profit, which is defined as income from continuing operations before interest, taxes, depreciation, amortization, stock-based compensation expense, gains/losses on foreign currency fluctuations, gains/losses on the early extinguishment of debt and miscellaneous expenses, for each of the Company's reportable segments. Segment profit also excludes unallocated corporate expenses and the impact of certain items that are not directly attributable to the segments' underlying operating performance, which includes the impact of: (i) restructuring and related charges; (ii) acquisition and integration costs; (iii) deferred compensation related to the accounting for the CBB Acquisition; and (iv) costs of sales resulting from fair value adjustments in the second quarter of 2016 and 2015 to inventory acquired in the Cutex International Acquisition and CBB Acquisition, respectively. Unallocated corporate expenses primarily include general and administrative expenses related to the corporate organization. These expenses are recorded in unallocated corporate expenses as these items are centrally directed and controlled and are not included in internal measures of segment operating performance. The Company does not have any material inter-segment sales. For a reconciliation of segment profit to income from continuing operations before income taxes, see Note 14, "Segment Data and Related Information" to the Unaudited Consolidated Financial Statements in this Form 10-Q.

Consumer Segment

Second quarter results:

Consumer segment net sales in the second quarter of 2016 were $359.5 million, a $4.8 million increase, or 1.4%, compared to $354.7 million in the second quarter of 2015. Excluding the $9.2 million unfavorable impact of foreign currency fluctuations (referred to herein as on an "XFX basis"), total Consumer net sales increased by $14.0 million, or 3.9%, in the second quarter of 2016, compared to the second quarter of 2015. This increase was primarily driven by higher net sales of Revlon color cosmetics, SinfulColors color cosmetics, Mitchum anti-perspirant deodorant products and Cutex nail products, partially offset by lower net sales of Almay color cosmetics.

Consumer segment profit in the second quarter of 2016 was $81.0 million, a $2.8 million decrease, or 3.3%, compared to $83.8 million in the second quarter of 2015. Excluding the $0.7 million unfavorable impact of foreign currency fluctuations, Consumer segment profit decreased by $2.1 million, or 2.5%, in the second quarter of 2016, compared to the second quarter of 2015. This decrease was primarily driven by the unfavorable impact of product mix and the impact of foreign currency transaction within cost of sales.

Year-to-date results:

Consumer segment net sales in the first six months of 2016 were $679.5 million, a $0.5 million increase, or 0.1%, compared to $679.0 million in the first six months of 2015. Excluding the $21.6 million unfavorable impact of foreign currency fluctuations,

REVLOON, INC. AND SUBSIDIARIES

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

(all tabular amounts in millions, except share and per share amounts) total Consumer net sales increased by $22.1 million, or 3.3%, in the first six months of 2016, compared to the first six months of 2015. This increase was primarily driven by higher net sales of Cutex nail products, SinfulColors color cosmetics and Mitchum anti-perspirant deodorant products, partially offset by lower net sales of Almay color cosmetics.

Consumer segment profit in the first six months of 2016 was $139.4 million, a $6.6 million decrease, or 4.5%, compared to $146.0 million in the first six months of 2015. Excluding the $1.6 million unfavorable impact of foreign currency fluctuations, Consumer segment profit decreased by $5.0 million, or 3.4%, in the first six months of 2016, compared to the first six months of 2015. This decrease was primarily driven by lower gross profit as a result of the unfavorable impact of product mix and the impact of foreign currency transaction within cost of sales.

Professional Segment

Second quarter results:

Professional segment net sales in the second quarter of 2016 were $123.3 million, a $0.1 million decrease, or 0.1%, compared to $123.4 million in the second quarter of 2015. Excluding the $0.8 million favorable impact of foreign currency fluctuations, total Professional net sales increased by $0.7 million in the second quarter of 2016, compared to the second quarter of 2015. This increase was primarily due to higher net sales of Revlon Professional hair products and American Crew men's grooming products throughout the international region, mostly offset by lower net sales of CND nail products due to the timing of product launches.

Professional segment profit in the second quarter of 2016 was $24.1 million, a $0.2 million decrease, or 0.8%, compared to $24.3 million in the second quarter of 2015. Excluding the $0.1 million unfavorable impact of foreign currency fluctuations, Professional segment profit decreased by $0.1 million in the second quarter of 2016, compared to the second quarter of 2015, essentially flat.

Year-to-date results:

Professional segment net sales in the first six months of 2016 were $238.4 million, a $0.8 million increase, or 0.3%, compared to $237.6 million in the first six months of 2015. Excluding the $3.0 million unfavorable impact of foreign currency fluctuations, total Professional net sales increased by $3.8 million in the first six months of 2016, compared to the first six months of 2015. This increase was primarily as a result of higher net sales of Revlon Professional hair products and American Crew men's grooming products, partially offset by lower net sales of CND nail products within the U.S. and International region.

Professional segment profit in the first six months of 2016 was $49.7 million, a $3.8 million decrease, or 7.1%, compared to $53.5 million in the first six months of 2015. This decrease was primarily due to a $3.0 million gain related to the sale of certain non-core assets that was recognized in the first six months of 2015.

International

In the Professional segment, International net sales in the second quarter of 2016 increased by $1.1 million, or 1.4%, to $78.6 million, as compared to $77.5 million in the second quarter of 2015. Excluding the $0.8 million unfavorable impact of foreign currency fluctuations, International net sales increased by $1.9 million, or 2.5%, in the second quarter of 2016, compared to the second quarter of 2015. Year-to-date results:

United States

In the Professional segment, U.S. net sales in the first six months of 2016 increased by $3.2 million, or 3.6%, to $91.9 million, as compared to $88.7 million in the first six months of 2015. This increase was primarily driven by new point-of-sale and merchandising initiatives for Creme of Nature multi-cultural hair products and the launch of the Elvis marketing campaign for American Crew men's grooming products, partially offset by lower net sales for CND nail products.

International

In the Professional segment, International net sales in the first six months of 2016 decreased by $2.4 million, or 1.6%, to $146.5 million, as compared to $148.9 million in the first six months of 2015. Excluding the $3.0 million unfavorable impact of foreign currency fluctuations, International net sales increased by $0.6 million, or 0.4%, in the first six months of 2016, compared to the first six months of 2015. This increase was primarily due to higher net sales of Revlon Professional hair products and American Crew men's grooming products throughout the International region, partially offset by lower net sales of CND nail products, primarily in Russia.

SG&A expenses decreased by $1.5 million in the first six months of 2016, as compared to the first six months of 2015, primarily driven by:

Restructuring charges and other, net, for the first six months of 2016 of $1.8 million primarily related to charges for employee-related costs incurred in connection with the 2015 Efficiency Program, as compared to $3.1 million of net reductions in estimated restructuring costs recognized during the first six months of 2015.

The Company expects to achieve approximately $9 million in cost reductions during 2016 from the 2015 Efficiency Program and annualized cost reductions thereafter are expected to be approximately $10 million to $15 million.

See Note 3, "Restructuring Charges" to the Unaudited Consolidated Financial Statements in this Form 10-Q for further discussion.

The $0.4 million and $1.4 million increase in interest expense in the second quarter and first six months of 2016, compared to the second quarter and first six months of 2015, respectively, was primarily due to higher weighted average borrowing rates, partially offset by lower average debt outstanding. The higher weighted average borrowing rates were driven by the impact of the 2013 Interest Rate Swap (as hereinafter defined). The lower average debt outstanding was the result of: (i) regularly scheduled quarterly amortization payments made towards the Acquisition Term Loan through June 30, 2016; and (ii) the excess cash flow prepayment of $23.2 million made in February 2016.

Foreign currency losses, net of $8.5 million during the second quarter of 2016, as compared to foreign currency gains, net, of $7.9 million during the second quarter of 2015, were primarily driven by the net unfavorable impact of the revaluation of certain U.S. Dollar denominated payables and foreign currency denominated receivables during the second quarter of 2016, as compared to the second quarter of 2015.

The decrease in foreign currency losses, net, of $2.9 million during the first six months of 2016, as compared to the first six months of 2015, was primarily driven by the net favorable impact of the revaluation of certain U.S. Dollar denominated intercompany payables and foreign currency denominated receivables during the first six months of 2016, as compared to the first six months of 2015.

Provision for income taxes:

Provision for income taxes	$ 10.6	$ 20.5	$ (9.9)	$ 16.4	$ 29.2	$ (12.8)

The provision for income taxes decreased by $9.9 million in the second quarter of 2016, compared to the second quarter of 2015, primarily due to lower pre-tax income and the phasing of the recognition of income taxes.

The provision for income taxes decreased by $12.8 million in the first six months of 2016, compared to the first six months of 2015, primarily due to lower pre-tax income and the phasing of the recognition of income taxes.

The Company's effective tax rate for the three months ended June 30, 2016 was higher than the 35% federal statutory rate as a result of foreign and U.S. tax effects attributable to operations outside the U.S., state and local taxes, and foreign dividends and earnings taxable in the U.S.

The Company's effective tax rate for the six months ended June 30, 2016 was higher than the 35% federal statutory rate as a result of certain foreign dividends and earnings taxable in the U.S.

The Company expects that its tax provision and effective tax rate in any individual quarter and year-to-date period will vary and may not be indicative of the Company's tax provision and effective tax rate for the full year.

Financial Condition, Liquidity and Capital Resources

At June 30, 2016, the Company had a liquidity position of $343.9 million, consisting of $177.2 million of cash and cash equivalents (net of any outstanding checks), as well as $166.7 million in available borrowings under Products Corporation's $175.0 million Amended Revolving Credit Facility, based upon the borrowing base less $8.3 million of undrawn outstanding letters of credit and no other borrowing outstanding under the Amended Revolving Credit Facility at such date.

The Company's foreign operations held $57.2 million out of the total $177.2 million in cash and cash equivalents (net of any outstanding checks) as of June 30, 2016. The cash held by the Company's foreign operations is primarily used to fund such operations. The Company regularly assesses its cash needs and the available sources of cash to fund these needs. As part of this assessment, the Company determines the amount of foreign earnings, if any, that it intends to repatriate to help fund its domestic cash needs, including for the Company's debt service obligations, and pays applicable U.S. income and foreign withholding taxes, if any, on such earnings to the extent repatriated, and otherwise records a tax liability for the estimated cost of repatriation in a future period. The Company believes that the cash generated by its domestic operations and availability under the Amended Revolving Credit Facility and other permitted lines of credit should be sufficient to meet its domestic liquidity needs for at least the next 12 months.

Therefore, the Company currently anticipates that restrictions and/or taxes on repatriation of foreign earnings will not have a material effect on the Company's liquidity during such period. See "Subsequent Events"/"Recent Events."

Changes in Cash Flows

At June 30, 2016, the Company had cash and cash equivalents of $185.8 million, compared with $326.9 million at December 31, 2015. The following table summarizes the Company's cash flows from operating, investing and financing activities for the six months ended June 30, 2016 and 2015:

	Six Months Ended June 30,
	2016	2015
Net cash (used in) provided by operating activities	$(54.5)	$2.5
Net cash used in investing activities	(47.4)	(49.4)
Net cash used in financing activities	(39.3)	(23.5)
Effect of exchange rate changes on cash and cash equivalents	0.1	(5.9)

Operating Activities

Net cash (used in) provided by operating activities was $(54.5) million and $2.5 million for the first six months of 2016 and 2015, respectively. The increase in cash used in operating activities in the first six months of 2016, compared to the first six months of 2015, was primarily driven by the shift in the timing of certain customer collections and accounts payable disbursements at the end of 2015.

Investing Activities

Net cash used in investing activities was $47.4 million and $49.4 million for the six months ended June 30, 2016 and 2015, respectively, which included $18.6 million and $17.2 million of cash used for capital expenditures, respectively. Net cash used in investing activities during the first six months of 2016 included $29.2 million in cash payments for the May 2016 Cutex International Acquisition, as compared to $34.2 million in cash payments, net of cash acquired, primarily for the Company's April 2015 CBB Acquisition.

Financing Activities

Net cash used in financing activities was $39.3 million and $23.5 million for the six months ended June 30, 2016 and 2015, respectively.

Net cash used in financing activities for the first six months of 2016 primarily included:

- a $23.2 million required excess cash flow prepayment made under the Amended Term Loan Facility, as discussed below;

- $3.4 million of scheduled amortization payments on the Acquisition Term Loan;

- a $8.4 million decrease in short-term borrowings and overdraft; and

- $2.7 million utilized for the repurchase of shares from a former executive.

Net cash used in financing activities for the first six months of 2015 included:

- a $24.6 million required excess cash flow prepayment made under the Amended Term Loan Facility; and

- $3.4 million of scheduled amortization payments on the Acquisition Term Loan;

with the foregoing partially offset by:

- $6.6 million of short-term borrowings and overdraft.

Long-Term Debt Instruments

For further detail regarding Products Corporation's long-term debt instruments, see Note 11, "Long-Term Debt," to the Consolidated Financial Statements in Revlon, Inc.'s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2015, filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") on February 26, 2015 (the "2015 Form 10-K"), as well as "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations - Financial Condition, Liquidity and Capital Resources" in Revlon, Inc.'s 2015 Form 10-K. See "Subsequent Events"/"Recent Events."

(a) 2016 Debt Related Transaction

Amended Term Loan Facility - Excess Cash Flow Payment

On February 29, 2016, Products Corporation prepaid $23.2 million of indebtedness, representing 50% of its 2015 "excess cash flow" as defined under the Amended Term Loan Agreement, in accordance with the terms of its Amended Term Loan Facility. The prepayment was applied on a ratable basis between the principal amounts outstanding under the 2011 Term Loan and the Acquisition Term Loan. The amount of the prepayment that was applied to the 2011 Term Loan reduced the principal amount outstanding by $11.5 million to $651.4 million (as all amortization payments under the 2011 Term Loan had been paid). The $11.7 million that was applied to the Acquisition Term Loan reduced Products Corporation's future annual amortization payments under the Acquisition Term Loan on a ratable basis from $6.9 million prior to the prepayment to $6.8 million after giving effect to the prepayment and through its maturity on October 8, 2019.

(b) Covenants

Amended Credit Agreements

Products Corporation was in compliance with all applicable covenants under the Amended Term Loan Agreement and the Amended Revolving Credit Facility as of June 30, 2016. At June 30, 2016, the aggregate principal amounts outstanding under the Acquisition Term Loan and the 2011 Term Loan were $658.6 million and $651.4 million, respectively. At June 30, 2016, availability under the $175.0 million Amended Revolving Credit Facility, based upon the calculated borrowing base less $8.3 million of outstanding undrawn letters of credit and nil then drawn on the Amended Revolving Credit Facility, was $166.7 million. There were no borrowings under the Amended Revolving Credit Facility during the first six months of 2016 and 2015. See "Subsequent Events"/"Recent Events."

Products Corporation was in compliance with all applicable covenants under its 5¾% Senior Notes Indenture as of June 30, 2016 and December 31, 2015.

Sources and Uses

The Company's principal sources of funds are expected to be operating revenues, cash on hand and funds available for borrowing under the Amended Revolving Credit Facility and other permitted lines of credit. The Amended Credit Agreements, and the 5¾% Senior Notes Indenture contain certain provisions that by their terms limit Products Corporation's and its subsidiaries' ability to, among other things, incur additional debt. See "Subsequent Events"/"Recent Events."

The Company's principal uses of funds are expected to be the payment of operating expenses, including expenses in connection with the continued execution of the Company's business strategy; purchases of permanent wall displays; capital expenditure requirements; debt service payments and costs; cash tax payments; pension and other post-retirement benefit plan contributions; payments in connection with the Company's restructuring programs; business and/or brand acquisitions (including, without limitation, through licensing transactions), if any; severance not otherwise included in the Company's restructuring programs; debt and/or equity repurchases, if any; costs related to litigation; and payments in connection with discontinuing non-core business lines and/or exiting certain territories. See "Subsequent Events"/"Recent Events." The Company's cash contributions to its pension and post-retirement benefit plans in the first six months of 2016 were $3.6 million. The Company expects cash contributions to its pension and post-retirement benefit plans to be approximately $10 million in the aggregate for 2016. The Company's cash taxes paid in the first six months of 2016 were $12.9 million. The Company expects to pay cash taxes of approximately $30 million in the aggregate for 2016. The Company's purchases of permanent wall displays and capital expenditures in the first six months of 2016 were $17.5 million and $18.6 million, respectively. The Company expects purchases of permanent wall displays and capital expenditures to be approximately $50.0 million and $55.0 million, respectively, in the aggregate for 2016. See also Note 2, "Business Combinations," for discussion regarding the utilization of funds related to the Company's May 2016 Cutex International Acquisition.

The Company has undertaken, and continues to assess, refine and implement, a number of programs to efficiently manage its working capital, including, among other things, initiatives intended to optimize inventory levels over time; centralized procurement to secure discounts and efficiencies; prudent management of trade receivables and accounts payable; and controls on general and administrative spending. In the ordinary course of business, the Company's source or use of cash from operating activities may vary on a quarterly basis as a result of a number of factors, including the timing of working capital flows.

Continuing to execute the Company's business strategy could include taking advantage of additional opportunities to reposition, repackage or reformulate one or more brands or product lines, launching additional new products, acquiring businesses or brands (including, without limitation, through licensing transactions), divesting or discontinuing non-core business lines (which may include exiting certain territories), further refining the Company's approach to retail merchandising and/or taking further actions to optimize its manufacturing, sourcing and organizational size and structure, including optimizing the Colomer Acquisition, the CBB Acquisition and/or the Cutex International Acquisition. Any of these actions, the intended purpose of which would be to create value through improving the Company's financial performance, could result in the Company making investments and/or recognizing charges related to executing against such opportunities. Any such activities may be funded with cash on hand, funds available under the Amended Revolving Credit Facility and/or other permitted additional sources of capital, which actions could increase the Company's total debt.

The Company may also, from time to time, seek to retire or purchase its outstanding debt obligations and/or equity in open market purchases, in privately negotiated transactions or otherwise and may seek to refinance some or all of its indebtedness based upon market conditions. Any retirement or purchase of debt and/or equity may be funded with operating cash flows of the business or other sources and will depend upon prevailing market conditions, liquidity requirements, contractual restrictions and other factors, and the amounts involved may be material.

The Company expects that operating revenues, cash on hand and funds available for borrowing under the Amended Revolving Credit Facility and other permitted lines of credit will be sufficient to enable the Company to pay its operating expenses for 2016, including expenses in connection with the execution of the Company's business strategy, purchases of permanent wall displays, capital expenditure requirements, debt service payments and costs, cash tax payments, pension and other post-retirement plan contributions, payments in connection with the Company's restructuring programs, business and/or brand acquisitions (including, without limitation, through licensing transactions), if any, severance not otherwise included in the Company's restructuring programs, debt and/or equity repurchases, if any, costs related to litigation and/or discontinuing non-core business lines and/or exiting certain territories. See "Subsequent Events"/"Recent Events."

There can be no assurance that available funds will be sufficient to meet the Company's cash requirements on a consolidated basis. If the Company's anticipated level of revenues is not achieved because of, among other things, decreased consumer spending in response to weak economic conditions or weakness in the consumption of beauty care products in one or more of the Consumer, Professional and/or Other segments; adverse changes in foreign currency exchange rates, foreign currency controls and/or government-mandated pricing controls; decreased sales of the Company's products as a result of increased competitive activities by the Company's competitors and/or decreased performance by third party suppliers; changes in consumer purchasing habits, including with respect to retailers; inventory management by the Company's customers; space reconfigurations or reductions in display space by the Company's customers; changes in pricing, marketing, advertising and/or promotional strategies by the Company's customers; or less than anticipated results from the Company's existing or new products or from its advertising, promotional, pricing and/or marketing plans; or if the Company's expenses, including, without limitation, for restructuring costs, acquisition and integration costs, costs related to litigation, advertising, promotional and marketing activities or for sales returns related to any reduction of space by the Company's customers, product discontinuances or otherwise, exceed the anticipated level of expenses, the Company's current sources of funds may be insufficient to meet the Company's cash requirements.

Any such developments, if significant, could reduce the Company's revenues and operating income and could adversely affect Products Corporation's ability to comply with certain financial covenants under the Amended Credit Agreements and in such event the Company could be required to take measures, including, among other things, reducing discretionary spending. (See Item 1A. "Risk Factors" in Revlon, Inc.'s 2015 Form 10-K, as updated by Part II, Item 1A. "Risk Factors" in this Form 10-Q, for further discussion of certain risks associated with the Company's business and indebtedness.)

Derivative Financial Instruments

Foreign Currency Forward Exchange Contracts

Products Corporation enters into FX Contracts and option contracts from time to time to hedge certain net cash flows denominated in currencies other than the local currencies of the Company's foreign and domestic operations. The FX

Contracts are entered into primarily for the purpose of hedging anticipated inventory purchases and certain intercompany payments denominated in currencies other than the local currencies of the Company's foreign and domestic operations and generally have maturities of less than one year. At June 30, 2016, the FX Contracts outstanding had a notional amount of $74.2 million and a net liability fair value of $0.7 million.

Interest Rate Swap Transaction

In November 2013, Products Corporation executed a forward-starting floating-to-fixed interest rate swap transaction with a 1.00% floor, based on a notional amount of $400 million in respect of indebtedness under the Acquisition Term Loan over a period of three years (the "2013 Interest Rate Swap"). The Company designated the 2013 Interest Rate Swap as a cash flow hedge of the variability of the forecasted three-month LIBOR interest rate payments related to the $400 million notional amount under Products Corporation's Acquisition Term Loan over the three-year term of the 2013 Interest Rate Swap. Products Corporation receives from the counterparty a floating interest rate based on the higher of three-month U.S. Dollar LIBOR or 1.00%, while paying a fixed interest rate payment to the counterparty equal to 2.0709% (which effectively fixes the interest rate on such notional amount at 5.0709% over the three-year term of the 2013 Interest Rate Swap). For the six months ended June 30, 2016, the 2013 Interest Rate Swap was deemed effective and therefore the changes in fair value related to the 2013 Interest Rate Swap have been recorded in Other Comprehensive (Loss) Income in the Company's Unaudited Consolidated Financial Statements. The fair value of the Company's 2013 Interest Rate Swap at June 30, 2016 and December 31, 2015 was a liability of $7.6 million and $6.5 million, respectively.

Credit Risk

Exposure to credit risk in the event of nonperformance by any of the counterparties is limited to the gross fair value of the derivative instruments in asset positions, which totaled $1.1 million and $2.0 million as of June 30, 2016 and December 31, 2015, respectively. The Company attempts to minimize exposure to credit risk by generally entering into derivative contracts with counterparties that have investment-grade credit ratings and are major financial institutions. The Company also periodically monitors any changes in the credit ratings of its counterparties. Given the current credit standing of the counterparties to the Company's derivative instruments, the Company believes the risk of loss arising from any non-performance by any of the counterparties under these derivative instruments is remote.

Item 3. Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures about Market Risk

Interest Rate Sensitivity

The Company has exposure to changing interest rates primarily under Products Corporation's Amended Term Loan Facility and its Amended Revolving Credit Facility. The Company manages interest rate risk through a combination of fixed and floating rate debt. The Company from time to time makes use of derivative financial instruments to adjust its fixed and floating rate ratio, such as with the 2013 Interest Rate Swap. The Company does not hold or issue financial instruments for trading purposes.

The qualitative and quantitative information presented in Item 7A of Revlon, Inc.'s 2015 Form 10-K ("Item 7A") describes significant aspects of the Company's financial instrument program that have material market risk as of December 31, 2015. The following tables present this information as required by Item 7A as of June 30, 2016. See "Subsequent Events"/"Recent Events."

^(a) Weighted average variable rates are based upon implied forward rates from the U.S. Dollar LIBOR and Euribor yield curves at June 30, 2016.

^(b) Includes total quarterly amortization payments required within each year under the Acquisition Term Loan.

At June 30, 2016, the Acquisition Term Loan bears interest at the Eurodollar Rate (as defined in the Amended Term Loan Agreement) plus 3.00% per annum (with the Eurodollar Rate not to be less than 1.00%). The 2011 Term Loan bears interest at the Eurodollar Rate plus 2.5% per annum (with the Eurodollar Rate not to be less than 0.75%).

If any of LIBOR, Euribor, the base rate, the U.S. federal funds rate or such equivalent local foreign currency rate increases, Products Corporation's debt service costs will increase to the extent that Products Corporation has elected such rates for its outstanding loans. Based on the amounts outstanding under the Amended Credit Agreements and other short-term borrowings (which, in the aggregate, are Products Corporation's only debt currently subject to floating interest rates) as of June 30, 2016, a 1% increase in both the LIBOR and Euribor rates would increase the Company's annual interest expense by $9.3 million.

In November 2013, Products Corporation executed the 2013 Interest Rate Swap, which is a forward-starting, floating-to-fixed interest rate swap transaction with a 1.00% floor, based on a notional amount of $400 million in respect of indebtedness under Products Corporation's Acquisition Term Loan over a period of three years. The Company designated the 2013 Interest Rate Swap as a cash flow hedge of the variability of the forecasted three-month LIBOR interest rate payments related to the $400 million notional amount under Products Corporation's Acquisition Term Loan over the three-year term of the 2013 Interest Rate Swap. Products Corporation receives from the counterparty a floating interest rate based on the higher of the three-month U.S. Dollar LIBOR or 1.00%, while paying a fixed interest rate payment to the counterparty equal to 2.0709% (which effectively fixes the interest rate on such notional amount at 5.0709% over the three-year term of the 2013 Interest Rate Swap). The fair value of the Company's 2013 Interest Rate Swap at June 30, 2016 was a liability of $7.6 million.

Exchange Rate Sensitivity

The Company manufactures and sells its products in a number of countries throughout the world and, as a result, is exposed to movements in foreign currency exchange rates. In addition, a portion of the Company's borrowings are denominated in foreign currencies, which are also subject to market risk associated with exchange rate movement. The Company from time to time hedges major foreign currency cash exposures through foreign exchange forward and option contracts. Products Corporation enters into these contracts with major financial institutions in an attempt to minimize counterparty risk. These contracts generally have a duration of less than 12 months and are primarily against the U.S. Dollar. In addition, Products Corporation enters into foreign currency swaps to hedge intercompany financing transactions. The Company does not hold or issue financial instruments for trading purposes.

Item 4. Controls and Procedures

(a) Disclosure Controls and Procedures. The Company maintains disclosure controls and procedures that are designed to ensure that information required to be disclosed in the Company's reports under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified in the SEC's rules and forms, and that such information is accumulated and communicated to management, including the Company's Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, as appropriate, to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure. The Company's management, with the participation of the Company's Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, has evaluated the effectiveness of the Company's disclosure controls and procedures as of the end of the fiscal period covered by this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q. Based upon such evaluation, the Company's Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer have concluded that, as of the end of such period, the Company's disclosure controls and procedures were effective.

(b) Changes in Internal Control Over Financial Reporting. There have not been any changes in the Company's internal control over financial reporting during the quarter ended June 30, 2016 that have materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect, the Company's internal control over financial reporting.

Forward-Looking Statements

This Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the three months ended June 30, 2016, as well as the Company's other public documents and statements, may contain forward-looking statements that involve risks and uncertainties, which are subject to the safe harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These forward-looking statements are based on the beliefs, expectations, estimates, projections, assumptions, forecasts, plans, anticipations, targets, outlooks, initiatives, visions, objectives, strategies, opportunities, drivers, focus and intents of the Company's management. While the Company believes that its estimates and assumptions are reasonable, the Company cautions that it is very difficult to predict the impact of known and unknown factors, and, of course, it is impossible for the Company to anticipate all factors that could affect its results. The Company's actual results may differ materially from those discussed in such forward-looking statements. Such statements include, without limitation, the Company's expectations and estimates (whether qualitative or quantitative) as to:

(i) the Company's future financial performance;

the effect on sales of decreased consumer spending in response to weak economic conditions or weakness in the consumption of beauty care products in the Consumer, Professional and/or Other segments; adverse changes in foreign currency exchange rates, foreign currency controls and/or government-mandated pricing controls; decreased sales of the Company's products as a result of increased competitive activities by the Company's competitors and/or decreased performance by third party suppliers, changes in consumer purchasing habits, including with respect to retailer preferences and/or among professional salons; inventory management by the

(ii) Company's customers; space reconfigurations or reductions in display space by the Company's customers; changes in pricing, marketing, advertising and/or promotional strategies by the Company's customers; less than anticipated results from the Company's existing or new products or from its advertising, promotional, pricing and/or marketing plans; or if the Company's expenses, including, without limitation, for pension expense under its benefit plans, acquisition-related integration costs, costs related to litigation, advertising, promotional and marketing activities, or for sales returns related to any reduction of space by the Company's customers, product discontinuances or otherwise, exceed the anticipated level of expenses;

the Company's belief that the continued execution of its business strategy could include taking advantage of additional opportunities to reposition, repackage or reformulate one or more brands or product lines, launching additional new products, acquiring businesses or brands, (including through licensing transactions, if any), divesting or discontinuing non-core business lines (which may include exiting certain territories), further refining its approach to retail merchandising and/or taking further actions to optimize its manufacturing, sourcing and organizational size and structure, including optimizing the Colomer Acquisition, the CBB Acquisition and/or the

(iii) Cutex International Acquisition (including the Company's belief that such acquisition enhances and complements the Company's existing brand portfolio of nail care products) and related non-restructuring costs, any of which, the intended purpose of which would be to create value through improving the Company's financial performance, could result in the Company making investments and/or recognizing charges related to executing against such opportunities, which activities may be funded with cash on hand, funds available under the Amended Revolving Credit Facility and/or other permitted additional sources of capital, which actions could increase the Company's total debt;

the Company's vision to establish Revlon as the quintessential and most innovative beauty company in the world by offering products that make consumers feel attractive and beautiful, as well as the Company's expectations regarding its strategic goal is to optimize the market and financial performance of our portfolio of brands and assets by: (a) building its strong brands by focusing on innovative, high-quality, consumer-preferred brand offerings, effective consumer brand communication, appropriate levels of targeted advertising and promotion and timely execution with the Company's retail partners; (b) the Company's innovation strategy that centers on creating fewer, bigger and better new product launches across the Company's brands that are relevant, impactful and distinctive; (c) the Company's Pending Acquisition of Elizabeth Arden will provide greater access to high-growth markets, such as the Asia Pacific region; (d) driving growth by strategically entering new territories and expanding within existing territories by leveraging the Company's distribution network and penetrating new

(iv) and existing sales channels; (e) generating consistent margins and plans to further drive margins by reducing costs across the supply chain, eliminating overhead redundancies and leveraging purchasing scale; (f) continuing to develop its organizational capability through retaining, attracting and rewarding highly capable people and through performance management, development planning, succession planning and training, and the Company's plans to develop and support employees who fit into its innovative culture and inspire the creative drive that represents the foundation of the Company's vision and execution of our strategy; and (g) that the Company seeks to opportunistically acquire brands to complement its core business and that our acquisition strategy has been, and will continue to be, successful as well, as the Company's focus on targets that will strengthen its existing capabilities or help the Company to expand into new product categories, channels or geographies and that the Company continues to look opportunistically for additional fragrance licenses to build its fragrance business;

(v) the effect of restructuring activities, restructuring costs and charges, the timing of restructuring payments and the benefits from such activities; including, without limitation, the Company's expectation (a) that the 2015 Efficiency

Program will drive certain organizational efficiencies across the Company's Consumer and Professional segments and reduce general and administrative expenses within the Consumer and Professional segments; (b) that the Company will recognize a total of approximately $11.7 million of restructuring and related charges for the 2015 Efficiency Program by the end of 2017; (c) that cash payments related to the 2015 Efficiency Program will total approximately $12 million, including $0.2 million for capital expenditures (which capital expenditures are excluded from total restructuring and related charges expected to be recognized for the 2015 Efficiency Program), of which $6.2 million is expected to be paid during the remainder of 2016, with the remaining balance expected to be paid in 2017; and (d) that approximately $9 million of cost reductions from the 2015 Efficiency Program are expected to benefit 2016 results and that annualized cost reductions thereafter are expected to be approximately $10 million to $15 million by the end of 2018;

the Company's expectation that operating revenues, cash on hand and funds available for borrowing under Products Corporation's Amended Revolving Credit Facility and other permitted lines of credit will be sufficient to enable the Company to cover its operating expenses for 2016, including the cash requirements referred to in item (vi)(viii) below, and the Company's beliefs that (a) the cash generated by its domestic operations and availability under the Amended Revolving Credit Facility and other permitted lines of credit should be sufficient to meet its domestic liquidity needs for at least the next 12 months, and (b) restrictions or taxes on repatriation of foreign earnings will not have a material effect on the Company's liquidity during such period;

the Company's expected principal sources of funds, including operating revenues, cash on hand and funds available for borrowing under Products Corporation's Amended Revolving Credit Facility and other permitted lines of credit, as well as the availability of funds from the Company taking certain measures, including, among other things, reducing discretionary spending;

the Company's expected principal uses of funds, including amounts required for the payment of operating expenses, including expenses in connection with the continued execution of the Company's business strategy; payments in connection with the Company's purchases of permanent wall displays; capital expenditure requirements; debt service payments and costs; cash tax payments; pension and other post-retirement benefit plan contributions; payments in connection with the Company's restructuring programs; business and/or brand acquisitions (including through licensing transactions, if any); severance not otherwise included in the Company's restructuring programs; debt and/or equity repurchases, if any; costs related to litigation; and payments in connection with discontinuing non-core business lines and/or exiting certain territories (including, without limitation, that the Company may also, from time to time, seek to retire or purchase its outstanding debt obligations and/or equity in open market purchases, in privately negotiated transactions or otherwise and may seek to refinance some or all of its indebtedness based upon market conditions and that any retirement or purchase of debt and/or equity may be funded with operating cash flows of the business or other sources and will depend upon prevailing market conditions, liquidity requirements, contractual restrictions and other factors, and the amounts involved may be material); and its estimates of the amount and timing of such operating and other expenses;

matters concerning the Company's market-risk sensitive instruments, as well as the Company's expectations as to (ix) the counterparty's performance, including that any risk of loss under its derivative instruments arising from any non-performance by any of the counterparties is remote;

the Company's expectation to efficiently manage its working capital, including, among other things, initiatives intended to optimize inventory levels over time; centralized procurement to secure discounts and efficiencies; prudent management of trade receivables and accounts payable; and controls on general and administrative spending; and the Company's belief that in the ordinary course of business, its source or use of cash from operating activities may vary on a quarterly basis as a result of a number of factors, including the timing of working capital flows;

the Company's expectations regarding its future net periodic benefit cost for its U.S. and international defined benefit plans;

the Company's expectation that its tax provision and effective tax rate in any individual quarter and year-to-date period will vary and may not be indicative of the Company's tax provision and effective tax rate for the full year;

(xiii) the Company's plan to vigorously defend against the Parker, Christiansen, Ross, Hutson and Stein complaints and the Company's belief that while the outcome of all pending legal proceedings in the aggregate is not reasonably likely to have a material adverse effect on the Company's business, financial condition and/or its results of operations, in light of the uncertainties involved in legal proceedings generally, the ultimate outcome of a particular matter could be material to the Company's operating results for a particular period depending on, among other things, the size of the loss or the nature of the liability imposed and the level of the Company's income for that particular period;

(xiv) certain estimates used by management in estimating the fair value of the assets acquired in the Cutex International Acquisition; and

(xv) the Company's plans to consummate the Pending Acquisition of Elizabeth Arden by the end of 2016, subject to receipt of regulatory approvals and satisfaction of other customary closing conditions, and the related financing transactions, as well as the terms and conditions of such transaction.

Statements that are not historical facts, including statements about the Company's beliefs and expectations, are forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements can be identified by, among other things, the use of forward-looking language such as "estimates," "objectives," "visions," "projects," "forecasts," "focus," "drive towards," "plans," "targets," "strategies," "opportunities," "assumptions," "drivers," "believes," "intends," "outlooks," "initiatives," "expects," "scheduled to," "anticipates," "seeks," "may," "will" or "should" or the negative of those terms, or other variations of those terms or comparable language, or by discussions of strategies, targets, long-range plans, models or intentions. Factors other than those listed above could also cause the Company's results to differ materially from expected results. This discussion is provided pursuant to the safe harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995.

PART II - OTHER INFORMATION

Item 1. Legal Proceedings

The Company is involved in various routine legal proceedings incidental to the ordinary course of its business.

Following Revlon, Inc.'s and Products Corporation's announcement of the execution of the Merger Agreement by and among Revlon, Inc., Products Corporation, Acquisition Sub and Elizabeth Arden, pursuant to which, among other things, Acquisition Sub will merge with and into Elizabeth Arden, five putative shareholder class action lawsuits and a derivative lawsuit have been filed challenging the Merger. On June 24, 2016, a putative shareholder class action lawsuit (Parker v. Elizabeth Arden, Inc. et al., Case No. CACE-16-011781) (referred to as the "Parker complaint") was filed in the Circuit Court of the Seventeenth Judicial Circuit in and for Broward County, Florida against Elizabeth Arden, the members of Elizabeth Arden's board of directors, Revlon, Inc. and Products Corporation. In general, the Parker complaint alleges that: (i) the members of Elizabeth Arden's board of directors breached their fiduciary duties to Elizabeth Arden's shareholders by, among other things, approving the Merger pursuant to an allegedly unfair process and at an allegedly inadequate and unfair price; and (ii) Elizabeth Arden, Revlon, Inc. and Products Corporation aided and abetted the breaches of fiduciary duty by the members of Elizabeth Arden's board of directors. The plaintiff seeks, among other things, injunctive relief prohibiting consummation of the Merger, compensatory damages, rescissory damages in the event the Merger is consummated, and an award of attorneys' fees and expenses.

On June 29, 2016, a putative shareholder class action and derivative lawsuit (Christiansen v. Rhône Capital L.L.C. et al., Case No. CACE-16-011746) (referred to as the "Christiansen complaint") was filed in the Circuit Court of the Seventeenth Judicial Circuit in and for Broward County, Florida against Rhône Capital L.L.C. ("Rhône"), Nightingale Onshore Holdings L.P. and Nightingale Offshore Holdings L.P. (collectively, "Nightingale"), the members of Elizabeth Arden's board of directors, Revlon, Inc. and Products Corporation. In general, the Christiansen complaint alleges that: (i) the members of Elizabeth Arden's board of directors breached their fiduciary duties to the holders of Elizabeth Arden's common stock and to Elizabeth Arden by, among other things, approving the Merger pursuant to a flawed process that placed the interests of the holders of Elizabeth Arden's preferred stock ahead of the interests of Elizabeth Arden and the holders of Elizabeth Arden common stock; (ii) Rhône and Nightingale, an alleged controlling shareholder of Elizabeth Arden, breached its alleged fiduciary duties to the holders of Elizabeth Arden common stock and to Elizabeth Arden by forcing Elizabeth Arden to agree to the allegedly unfair terms of the Merger; and (iii) Revlon, Inc. and Products Corporation aided and abetted the breaches of fiduciary duty by the members of Elizabeth Arden's board of directors to the holders of Elizabeth Arden common stock and to Elizabeth Arden. The plaintiff seeks, among other things, injunctive relief prohibiting consummation of the Merger, a declaration that the Merger Agreement was entered into in breach of the fiduciary duties owed to Elizabeth Arden and holders of Elizabeth Arden common stock by the members of Elizabeth Arden's board of directors, Rhône, and Nightingale, and an award of attorneys' fees and expenses.

On July 19, 2016, a putative class action lawsuit (Ross v. Elizabeth Arden, Inc., et al., Case No. CACE-16-013220) (referred to as the "Ross complaint") was filed in the Circuit Court of the Seventeenth Judicial Circuit in and for Broward County, Florida against Elizabeth Arden, the members of Elizabeth Arden's board of directors, Revlon, Inc. and Products Corporation. In general the Ross complaint alleges that: (i) the members of Elizabeth Arden's board of directors breached their fiduciary duties to Elizabeth Arden's public shareholders by, among other things, approving the Merger pursuant to an allegedly inadequate and unfair sale process and at an allegedly inadequate and unfair price depriving Elizabeth Arden's public shareholders of the true value of their investment and diverting consideration to themselves; and (ii) Revlon, Inc. and Products Corporation knowingly assisted, and aided and abetted the breaches of fiduciary duty by the members of Elizabeth Arden's board of directors. The plaintiff seeks, among other things, injunctive relief prohibiting consummation of the Merger, compensatory damages or rescissory damages in the event the Merger is consummated, and an award of attorneys' fees and expenses.

On July 25, 2016, a putative class action lawsuit (Stein v. Rhône Capital L.L.C., et al., Case No. CACE-16-013580) (referred to as the “Stein complaint”) was filed in the Circuit Court of the Seventeenth Judicial Circuit in and for Broward County, Florida against Rhône, Nightingale, the members of Elizabeth Arden’s board of directors, Revlon, Inc. and Products Corporation. In general, the Stein complaint alleges that: (i) the members of Elizabeth Arden’s board of directors breached their fiduciary duties to the holders of Elizabeth Arden common stock by, among other things, approving the Merger pursuant to an allegedly flawed process and placing the interests of the holders of Elizabeth Arden’s preferred stock over those of the holders of Elizabeth Arden common stock; (ii) Rhône and Nightingale, an alleged controlling shareholder of Elizabeth Arden, breached its alleged fiduciary duties to the holders of Elizabeth Arden common stock by compelling Elizabeth Arden and the members of Elizabeth Arden’s board of directors to approve the Merger and agree to allegedly unfavorable terms in the Merger Agreement; and (iii) Revlon, Inc. and Products Corporation aided and abetted the breaches of fiduciary duty by the members of Elizabeth Arden’s board of directors, Rhône and Nightingale to the detriment of Elizabeth Arden’s public shareholders. The plaintiff seeks, among other things, injunctive relief prohibiting consummation of the Merger, a declaration that the Merger Agreement was entered into in breach of the fiduciary duties of the members of Elizabeth Arden's board of directors, Rhône and Nightingale, rescission of the Merger Agreement to the extent already implemented, and an award of attorneys' fees and expenses.

The Company believes the allegations contained in the Parker complaint, the Christiansen complaint, the Ross complaint, the Hutchinson complaint and the Stein complaint are without merit and intends to vigorously defend against them.

The Company believes that the outcome of all pending legal proceedings in the aggregate is not reasonably likely to have a material adverse effect on the Company's business, financial condition and/or its results of operations. However, in light of the uncertainties involved in legal proceedings generally, the ultimate outcome of a particular matter could be material to the Company's operating results for a particular period depending on, among other things, the size of the loss or the nature of the liability imposed and the level of the Company's income for that particular period.

Item 1A. Risk Factors

In addition to the other information in this report, investors should consider carefully the risk factors discussed in Part I, Item 1A. "Risk Factors" in Revlon, Inc.'s 2015 Form 10-K, as well as the following updates to such risk factors: The results of the U.K.'s referendum on its withdrawal from the European Union may have a negative effect on global economic conditions, financial markets and the Company's business.

The Company is a multinational company with worldwide operations, including material business operations in Europe. In June 2016, a majority of voters in the U.K. elected to withdraw from the European Union in a national referendum. The referendum was advisory, and the terms of any withdrawal are subject to a negotiation period that could last at least two years after the government of the U.K. formally initiates a withdrawal process. Nevertheless, the referendum has created significant uncertainty about the future relationship between the U.K. and the European Union and has given rise to calls for the governments of other European Union member states to consider withdrawal from the European Union. These developments, or the perception that any of them could occur, have had and may continue to have a material adverse effect on global economic conditions and the stability of global financial markets and could significantly reduce global market liquidity and restrict the ability of key market participants to operate in certain financial markets. Asset valuations, currency exchange rates and credit ratings may be especially subject to increased market volatility. Lack of clarity about future U.K. laws and regulations as the U.K. determines which European Union laws to replace or replicate in the event of a withdrawal, including financial laws and regulations, tax and free trade agreements, intellectual property rights, supply chain logistics, environmental, health and safety laws and regulations, immigration laws and employment laws, could decrease foreign direct investment in the U.K., increase costs, depress economic activity, restrict the Company's access to capital and make regulatory compliance and the distribution, sourcing, manufacturing and sales and marketing of the Company's products more difficult or costly. If the U.K. and the European Union are unable to negotiate acceptable withdrawal terms or if other European Union member states pursue withdrawal, barrier-free access between the U.K. and other European Union member states or among the European economic area overall could be diminished or eliminated. Approximately 5% of the Company's net sales are in the U.K. and approximately 20% of the Company's net sales are in the remainder of the European Union. Any of these factors could have a material adverse effect on the Company's business, prospects, results of operations, financial condition and/or cash flows.

The Company's success depends, in part, on the quality, efficacy and safety of its products.

The Company's success depends, in part, on the quality, efficacy and safety of its products. If the Company's products are found or alleged to be defective or unsafe, or if they fail to meet customer or consumer standards, the Company's relationships with its customers or consumers could suffer, the appeal of one or more of the Company's brands could be diminished, and the Company could lose sales and/or become subject to liability claims, any of which could have a material adverse effect on our business, prospects, results of operations, financial condition and/or cash flows.

The Company may not realize the anticipated synergies, net cost reductions and growth opportunities from the Pending Acquisition.

The benefits that the Company expects to achieve as a result of the Pending Acquisition of Elizabeth Arden will depend, in part, on the ability of the combined company to realize anticipated growth opportunities, net cost reductions and synergies. The Company's success in realizing these growth opportunities, net cost reductions and synergies, and the timing of this realization, depends on the successful integration of the Company's historical business and operations and the historical business and operations of Elizabeth Arden. Even if the Company is able to integrate the businesses and operations of Products Corporation and Elizabeth Arden successfully, this integration may not result in the realization of the full benefits of the growth opportunities, net cost reductions and synergies that the Company currently expects from this integration within the anticipated time frame or at all. For example, the Company may be unable to eliminate duplicative costs. Moreover, the Company may incur substantial expenses in connection with the integration of its business and Elizabeth Arden's business. While the Company anticipates that certain expenses will be incurred, such expenses are difficult to estimate accurately and may exceed current estimates. Accordingly, the benefits from the Pending Acquisition may be offset by costs or delays incurred in integrating the businesses. The projected net cost reductions and synergies related to the Pending Acquisition are based on a number of assumptions relating to the Company's business and Elizabeth Arden's business. Those assumptions may be inaccurate, and, as a result, the Company's projected net cost reductions and synergies may be inaccurate, and the Company's business, prospects, results of operations, financial condition and/or cash flows could be materially and adversely affected.
