Item 5.02(b) Departure of Directors or Principal Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Principal Officers.

On November 15, 2005, the Starbucks Board of Directors proposed amendments to the company's articles of incorporation that would effect the declassification of the Board of Directors and result in the annual election of directors starting in 2007. The proposed amendments effecting the declassification are subject to, and contingent on, shareholder approval at the company's annual meeting of shareholders to be held on February 8, 2006 (the 2006 Annual Meeting).

On December 1, 2005, in connection with the company's declassification proposal, each Class 1 director nominee to be considered for election at the 2006 Annual Meeting (whose term would otherwise expire at the company's annual meeting of shareholders to be held in 2009, absent approval of the declassification proposal) and each current Class 3 director (whose term would otherwise expire at the company's annual meeting of shareholders to be held in 2008, absent approval of the declassification proposal) signed the Director Resignation Agreement (the Agreement) which is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1 and is incorporated by reference herein. The Class 2 directors did not sign the Agreement because their terms expire in 2007. Under the Agreement, each such director and director nominee has contractually agreed to resign without further action effective immediately prior to the company's annual meeting of shareholders to be held in 2007, subject to shareholder approval of the declassification proposal and the filing of appropriate amendments to the company's articles of incorporation. The purpose of the resignations reported today is simply to facilitate the transition to a declassified Board of Directors by shortening the director terms of the Class 1 and Class 3 directors and allowing all directors to be elected to one-year terms starting in 2007.
