ING Raises EUR 1 Billion with Perpetual Subordinated Bond Sale

ING Group announced today it raised EUR 1 billion from the sale of perpetual subordinated bonds, called ING Perpetuals III. The bonds were sold to private banking clients in the Netherlands (64%), Belgium (26%), and other European countries (10%).

The transaction size was increased from a planned EUR 500 million to EUR 1 billion, and the subscription period was closed after just four days because the sale was more than two-times oversubscribed. The ING Perpetuals III were distributed through ING Bank, CenE Bankiers, ING Belgium, and several other ING entities. Third parties also sold approximately 18% of the total transaction. ING Financial Markets lead managed the sale.

It is the third time ING has issued such securities since 2001. ING Group raised EUR 750 million from a similar issue of ING Perpetuals II in May 2003, and it raised EUR 600 million from the sale of the first ING Perpetuals in September 2001. The proceeds from the current sale will be used for regular financing of ING's banking activities.

ING Perpetuals III, which are denominated in euros, will pay investors a variable coupon based on the yield of 10-year Dutch government bonds plus an additional spread of 0.1%. The first coupon has been set at 4.44% and will be reset each quarter in line with the government bond yield. The maximum coupon is 9% a year. The ING Perpetuals III will be traded on Euronext Amsterdam and Euronext Brussels starting today, 16 June.
