World Wrestling Federation and the World Wrestling Federation logo are two of our marks. This prospectus also contains trademarks and trade names of other companies. All trademarks and trade names appearing in this prospectus are the property of their respective holders. Because insertion of our stylized and distinctive scratch logo is impossible in this prospectus, we refer to that logo as "WWF" herein for explanatory purposes only. RISK FACTORS

You should carefully consider the following factors and other information contained or incorporated by reference in this prospectus in evaluating our business before deciding whether to invest in shares of our Class A common stock.

THE FAILURE TO CONTINUE TO DEVELOP CREATIVE AND ENTERTAINING PROGRAMS AND EVENTS WOULD LIKELY LEAD TO A DECLINE IN THE POPULARITY OF OUR BRAND OF ENTERTAINMENT.

The creation, marketing and distribution of our live and televised entertainment, including our pay-per-view events, is the core of our business and is critical to our ability to generate revenues. A failure to continue to create popular live events and televised programming would likely lead to a decline in our television ratings and attendance at our live events, which would adversely affect our ability to generate revenues.

THE FAILURE TO RETAIN OR CONTINUE TO RECRUIT KEY PERFORMERS COULD LEAD TO A DECLINE IN THE APPEAL OF OUR STORY LINES AND THE POPULARITY OF OUR BRAND OF ENTERTAINMENT.

Our success depends, in large part, upon our ability to recruit, train and retain athletic performers who have the physical presence, acting ability and charisma to portray characters in our live events and televised programming. We cannot assure you that we will be able to continue to identify, train and retain these performers in the future. Additionally, we cannot assure you that we will be able to retain our current performers when their contracts expire. Our failure to attract and retain key performers, or a serious or untimely injury to, or the death of, any of our key performers, would likely lead to a decline in the appeal of our story lines and the popularity of our brand of entertainment, which would adversely affect our ability to generate revenues.

THE LOSS OF THE CREATIVE SERVICES OF VINCENT MCMAHON COULD ADVERSELY AFFECT OUR ABILITY TO CREATE POPULAR CHARACTERS AND CREATIVE STORY LINES.

For the foreseeable future, we will depend heavily on the vision and services of Vincent McMahon. In addition to serving as Chairman of our board of directors, Mr. McMahon leads the creative team that develops the story lines and the characters for our televised programming and live events. Mr. McMahon is also an important member of the cast of performers. The loss of Mr. McMahon due to retirement, disability or death could have a material adverse effect on our ability to create popular characters and creative story lines. We do not carry key man life insurance on Mr. McMahon sufficient to cover the loss of his services.

THE FAILURE TO MAINTAIN OR RENEW KEY AGREEMENTS COULD ADVERSELY AFFECT OUR ABILITY TO DISTRIBUTE OUR TELEVISION AND PAY-PER-VIEW PROGRAMMING.

We have an agreement with Viacom Inc. through the television season ending September 2005 under which five hours of our programming are shown on cable networks owned by Viacom. Our flagship program, Raw, as well as our post-produced program, Excess, are aired on TNN: The National Network, and Sunday Night Heat is aired on the MTV Network. Smackdown is broadcast on UPN through the 2002/2003 television season. In addition, Tough Enough airs on the MTV Network through 2002. We have a contract expiring in 2004 with In Demand, the leading distributor of pay-per-view programming in the United States, to continue to provide services to us. Because our revenues are generated, directly and indirectly, from the distribution of our televised programming, any failure to maintain or renew these arrangements with the distributors of our programs or the failure of the distributors to continue to provide services to us could have a material adverse effect on our operating results. In this regard, we have recently reached an impasse in negotiations with DirecTV, which carried our pay-per-view events until October 2001. We anticipate the negative impact of the termination of our relationship with DirectTV on our income before taxes to be approximately $1.0 to $1.3 million per month.

THE MARKETS IN WHICH WE OPERATE ARE HIGHLY COMPETITIVE, AND WE MAY NOT BE ABLE TO COMPETE EFFECTIVELY, ESPECIALLY AGAINST COMPETITORS WITH GREATER FINANCIAL RESOURCES OR MARKETPLACE PRESENCE.

We compete for advertising dollars with other media companies. For our live, television and pay-per-view audiences we face competition from professional and college sports, as well as from other forms of live and televised entertainment and other leisure activities. We compete with entertainment companies, professional and college sports leagues and other makers of branded apparel and merchandise for the sale of our branded merchandise. Certain companies with whom we compete have greater financial resources than we do.

In addition to a wide variety of clubs and other entertainment centers in the New York metropolitan area, our WWF New York themed entertainment complex competes with themed and other restaurants in the Times Square area.

Our failure to compete effectively could result in a significant loss of viewers, venues, distribution channels or performers and fewer entertainment and advertising dollars spent on our form of sports entertainment, any of which could have a material adverse effect on our operating results, financial condition and prospects.

BECAUSE WE DEPEND UPON OUR INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS, OUR INABILITY TO PROTECT THOSE RIGHTS, OR OUR INFRINGEMENT OF OTHERS' INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS, COULD NEGATIVELY IMPACT OUR ABILITY TO COMPETE.

Our inability to protect our large portfolio of trademarks, service marks, copyrighted material and characters, trade names and other intellectual property rights could negatively impact our ability to compete. Intellectual property is material to all aspects of our operations, and we expend substantial cost and effort in an attempt to maintain and protect our intellectual property and to maintain compliance vis-a-vis other parties' intellectual property. We have a large portfolio of registered and pending trademarks and service marks worldwide and maintain a large catalog of registered copyrights on all of our merchandise containing artwork, including merchandise, music, photographs, books and magazines, videos and apparel art. The focus of our continuous registration effort is to seek copyright and trademark registration of marks and works which embody our originally created characters portrayed by our performers and which encompass images, likenesses or names of these characters, commonly referred to as their trade dress. We also own a large number of Internet web domain names and have a network of developed sites, which contribute to the exploitation of our trademarks and service marks worldwide.

In April 2000, the WWF - World Wide Fund for Nature (the "Fund"), a non-profit environmental conservation organization, instituted legal proceedings against us in the English High Court seeking injunctive relief and unspecified damages for alleged breaches of an agreement between the Fund and us. The Fund alleges that our use of the initials "WWF" in various contexts, including (i) the wwf.com and wwfshopzone.com internet domain names and in the contents of various of our websites; and (ii) our "scratch" logo, violate the agreement between the Fund and us. In January 2001, the Fund filed for summary judgment on its claims, and on August 10, 2001, the trial judge granted the Fund's motion for summary judgment, holding that we breached the agreement by using the website address and scratch logo and that a trial is not warranted on these issues. The judge issued a form of written injunction on October 1, 2001, granted us leave to appeal and stayed the order pending our appeal. We believe this decision is erroneous, and we are vigorously pursuing our appeal. An unfavorable outcome of this suit may have a material adverse effect on our financial condition, results of operations or prospects.

We vigorously enforce our intellectual property rights by, among other things, searching the Internet to ascertain unauthorized use of our intellectual property, seizing goods at our live events that feature unauthorized use of our intellectual property and seeking restraining orders in court against any individual or entity infringing our intellectual property rights. To the extent that we are not effective in curtailing infringement of our intellectual property rights by others, we could be impacted negatively.

A CONTINUING DECLINE IN GENERAL ECONOMIC CONDITIONS OR A DECLINE IN THE POPULARITY OF OUR BRAND OF SPORTS ENTERTAINMENT COULD ADVERSELY IMPACT OUR BUSINESS.

Our operations are affected by general economic conditions and consumer tastes, and therefore our future success is unpredictable. The demand for entertainment and leisure activities tends to be highly sensitive to consumers' disposable incomes, and thus a continuing decline in general economic conditions could result in our fans or potential fans having less discretionary income to spend on our live and televised entertainment and branded merchandise, which could have an adverse effect on our business or operating results.

The continued popularity of our brand of entertainment is important to our results of operations and the long-term value of our brand. Public tastes are unpredictable and subject to change and may be affected by changes in the country's political and social climate. A change in public tastes may adversely affect our future success.

OUR INSURANCE MAY NOT BE ADEQUATE TO COVER LIABILITIES RESULTING FROM ACCIDENTS OR INJURIES.

We hold approximately 200 live events each year primarily in the United States and Canada. This schedule exposes our performers and our employees who are involved in the production of those events to the risk of travel and performance-related accidents, the consequences of which may not be fully covered by insurance. The physical nature of our events exposes our performers to the risk of serious injury or death. Although we have general liability insurance and umbrella insurance policies, and although our performers, as independent contractors, generally have health, disability and life insurance, we cannot assure you that the consequences of any accident or injury will be fully covered by insurance. Our liability resulting from any accident or injury not covered by our insurance could have a material adverse effect on our operating results and financial condition.

WE MAY BE PROHIBITED FROM PROMOTING AND CONDUCTING OUR LIVE EVENTS IF WE DO NOT COMPLY WITH APPLICABLE REGULATIONS.

In various states in the United States and some Canadian provinces, athletic commissions and other applicable regulatory agencies require us to obtain promoters' licenses, performers' licenses, medical licenses and/or event permits in order for us to promote and conduct our live events. In the event that we fail to comply with the regulations of a particular jurisdiction, we may be prohibited from promoting and conducting our live events in that jurisdiction. The inability to present our live events over an extended period of time or in a number of jurisdictions would lead to a decline in the various revenue streams generated from our live events, which could have an adverse effect on our business or operating results.

WE COULD INCUR SUBSTANTIAL LIABILITIES IF PENDING MATERIAL LITIGATION IS RESOLVED UNFAVORABLY.

We are currently a party to civil litigation which, if concluded adversely to our interests, could have a material adverse effect on our operating results and financial condition or could require us to conduct certain aspects of our business differently. These material legal proceedings are more fully described in documents incorporated into this prospectus by reference. For example, pending litigation includes the claim by the World Wide Fund for Nature mentioned above.

WE WILL FACE A VARIETY OF RISKS AS WE EXPAND INTO NEW AND COMPLEMENTARY BUSINESSES.

Over the last 20 years, our core operations have consisted of marketing, promoting and distributing our live and televised entertainment and our branded merchandise. Our current strategic objectives include not only further developing and enhancing our existing business but also entering into new or complementary businesses, such as the creation of new forms of entertainment and brands, the development of new television programming and the development of branded location-based entertainment businesses, such as WWF New York, which we acquired in early 2000. In February 2001, we launched the XFL, a start-up professional football league which ceased operations after one season. The following risks are associated with expanding into new or complementary businesses by acquisition, strategic alliance, investment, licensing or other arrangements:

- o potential diversion of management's attention and resources from our existing business and an inability to recruit or develop the necessary management resources to manage new businesses;
- o unanticipated liabilities or contingencies from new or complementary businesses or ventures;
- o reduced earnings due to increased amortization and depreciation, increased interest costs and additional costs related to the integration of acquisitions;
- o potential reallocations of resources due to the growing complexity of our business and strategy;
- o competition from companies then engaged in the new or complementary businesses that we are entering;
- o possible additional regulatory requirements and compliance costs;
- o dilution of our stockholders' percentage ownership and/or an increase of our leverage when issuing equity or convertible debt securities or incurring debt; and
- o potential unavailability on acceptable terms, or at all, of additional financing necessary for expansion.

THROUGH HIS BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP OF A SUBSTANTIAL MAJORITY OF OUR CLASS B COMMON STOCK, MR. MCMAHON CAN EXERCISE SIGNIFICANT INFLUENCE OVER OUR AFFAIRS, AND HIS INTERESTS MAY CONFLICT WITH THE HOLDERS OF OUR CLASS A COMMON STOCK.

We have two classes of common stock -- Class A, which carries one vote per share, and Class B, which carries ten votes per share. A substantial majority of the issued and outstanding shares of Class B common stock is owned by Vincent

McMahon directly or as the trustee of a trust for the benefit of his children. As a result, Mr. McMahon controls approximately 96% of the voting power of the issued and outstanding shares of our common stock as of October 26, 2001. Accordingly, he is able to control the outcome of substantially all actions requiring stockholder approval, including the election of our directors, the adoption of amendments to our certificate of incorporation and approval of mergers or sales of substantially all of our assets. The interests of Mr. McMahon may conflict with the interests of the holders of our Class A common stock. In addition, the voting power of Mr. McMahon through his ownership of our Class B common stock could discourage others from initiating potential mergers, takeovers or other change of control transactions. As a result, the market price of our Class A common stock could decline.

A SUBSTANTIAL NUMBER OF SHARES WILL BE ELIGIBLE FOR FUTURE SALE BY MR. MCMAHON, AND THE SALE OF THOSE SHARES COULD LOWER OUR STOCK PRICE.

We cannot predict the effect, if any, that future sales of shares of our Class B common stock (which, upon distribution to anyone other than Mr. McMahon, Mrs. McMahon, any descendant of either of them, any entity which is owned and controlled by any combination of such persons or any trust, all the beneficiaries of which are any combination of such persons, shall automatically convert on a one-for-one basis into shares of Class A common stock) or the availability of those shares for future sale will have on the market price of our Class A common stock. Sales of substantial amounts of our Class B common stock, or the perception that such sales could occur, may lower the prevailing market price of our Class A common stock. These factors could also make it more difficult for us to raise funds through future offerings of our Class A common stock.

SELLING STOCKHOLDER

The following table sets forth, as of October 26, 2001, the name of the selling stockholder, the aggregate number of shares owned by the selling stockholder prior to this offer and the aggregate number of shares of our Class A common stock registered on behalf of such selling stockholder. The shares of our Class A common stock offered under this prospectus may be offered from time to time by the selling stockholder. The selling stockholder is not obligated to sell all or any portion of its shares pursuant to this prospectus. The decision of the selling stockholder to sell some or all of the stockholder's shares of our Class A common stock offered under this prospectus is dependent upon a variety of factors, including the price of our Class A common stock and the selling stockholder's financial circumstances. Because the selling stockholder may sell all or some of its shares, no estimate can be given as to the amount of Class A common stock actually to be offered for sale by the selling stockholder or as to the amount of Class A common stock that will be held by the selling stockholder upon the termination of this offering.

STOCK BENEFICIALLY OWNED

Selling Stockholder -----	Shares Owned Prior to the Offering -----	Number of Shares Being Registered for Sale -----
Invemed Catalyst Fund, L.P.	2,582,773	2,582,773

Except as provided below, the selling stockholder does not have, or within the past three years, has not had, any position, office or material relationship with us or any of our predecessors or affiliates. Mr. Michael Solomon, one of our directors, is a member of Gladwyne Catalyst GenPar, LLC, one of the managing members of Invemed Catalyst GenPar, LLC, the general partner of Invemed Catalyst Fund, L.P.

The selling stockholder purchased its shares of our Class A common stock at a price of $13.25 per share in a private sale from The Vincent K. McMahon Irrevocable Trust on August 30, 2001. We are registering the resale of these shares pursuant to a registration rights agreement we entered into with the selling stockholder on August 30, 2001. Under this registration rights agreement, we will pay all expenses relating to this registration statement and the offering of shares of Class A common stock hereby except for (i) fees and expenses of the selling stockholder's counsel; (ii) any costs which arise as a result of an underwriting requested by the selling stockholder; and (iii) in the case of an underwriting initiated by us, underwriting discounts and commissions payable to underwriters, selling brokers, managers and similar persons engaged in the distribution of the shares of Class A common stock. We have also agreed to indemnify the selling stockholder against certain liabilities under the Securities Act, or to contribute to payments the selling stockholder may be required to make in respect thereof. Reciprocally, the stockholder has agreed to indemnify us for similar liabilities or to contribute to payments we must make in respect thereof. We will receive no part of the proceeds from the sales of the Class A common stock offered hereby.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

Subject to restrictions contained in the registration rights agreement, the Class A common stock held by the selling stockholder and its successors and permitted assigns who acquire the shares after the date of this prospectus, may be sold from time to time on any stock exchange or automated interdealer quotation system on which the shares are listed, in privately negotiated transactions or otherwise. The selling stockholder may sell the Class A common stock at market prices prevailing at the time of sale, at prices related to such prevailing market prices, at fixed prices, prices subject to changes or at prices otherwise negotiated, by one or more methods, including the following, without limitation:

- o Block trades in which the broker or dealer so engaged will attempt to sell the shares as agent but may position and resell a portion of the block as principal to facilitate the transaction;

- o Purchases by a broker or dealer as principal and resale by the broker or dealer for its own account pursuant to this prospectus;
- o An exchange distribution in accordance with the rules of any stock exchange on which the shares are listed;
- o Ordinary brokerage transactions and transactions in which the broker solicits purchases;
- o Market transactions;
- o Privately negotiated transactions;
- o Short sales;
- o Through the writing of options on the shares, whether or not the options are listed on an options exchange;
- o Through one or more underwritten offerings on a firm commitment or best efforts basis;
- o Sales through agents;
- o Any combination of any of these methods of sales, or
- o Any other legally available means.

We do not know of any arrangements by the selling stockholder for the sale of any of the shares of Class A common stock.

The selling stockholder may effect transactions by selling the Class A common stock directly to purchasers or through or to brokers or dealers, and brokers or dealers may receive compensation in the form of discounts, concessions or commissions from the selling stockholder, and/or from the purchasers of the Class A common stock for whom it may act as agent or to whom it may sell as principal, or both (which compensation as to a particular broker or dealer might be in excess of customary commissions). Any brokers and dealers engaged by the selling stockholder may arrange for other brokers or dealers to participate in effecting sales of the shares. These brokers or dealers may act as principals, or as an agent of the selling stockholder. Broker-dealers may agree with the selling stockholder to sell a specified number of the shares at a stipulated price per share. If the broker-dealer is unable to sell shares acting as agent for the selling stockholder, it may purchase as principal any unsold shares at the stipulated price. Broker-dealers who acquire shares as principals may thereafter resell the shares from time to time in transactions on any stock exchange or automated interdealer quotation system on which the shares are then listed, at prices and on terms then prevailing at the time of sale, at prices related to the then-current market price or in negotiated transactions. Broker-dealers may use block transactions and sales to and through broker-dealers, including transactions of the nature described above.

Upon our being notified by the selling stockholder that any material arrangement has been entered into with a broker-dealer for the sale of any of the Class A common stock offered hereby through a block trade, special offering, exchange distribution or secondary distribution or a purchase by a broker or dealer, to the extent required, a prospectus supplement will be filed that will set forth the specific shares to be sold and the terms of the offering, including the name or names of any underwriters or dealer-agents, any discounts, commissions and other items constituting compensation from the selling stockholder and any discounts, commissions or concessions allowed or reallocated or paid to dealers.

Any of the shares covered by this prospectus which qualify for sale pursuant to Rule 144 under the Securities Act of 1933 may be sold under that rule rather than pursuant to this prospectus.

We cannot assure you that the selling stockholder will sell any or all of the Class A common stock offered by them under this prospectus.

The selling stockholder may enter into hedging transactions with broker-dealers, and the broker-dealers may engage in short sales of the shares in the course of hedging the positions they assume with the selling stockholder, including, without limitation, in connection with distributions of the shares by those broker-dealers. The selling stockholder may enter into option or other transactions with broker-dealers that involve the delivery of the shares offered hereby to the broker-dealers, who may then resell or otherwise transfer those shares pursuant to this prospectus (as supplemented or amended to reflect such transaction). In addition, the selling stockholder may, from time to time, sell the shares short, and, in those instances, this prospectus may be delivered in connection with the short sales and the shares offered under this prospectus may be used to cover short sales. The selling stockholder may also pledge the shares offered hereby to a broker-dealer or other financial institution, and, upon a default, the broker-dealer or other financial institution may effect sales of the pledged shares pursuant to this prospectus (if required, as supplemented or amended to reflect such transaction).

The selling stockholder and any broker-dealer acting in connection with the sale of the common stock offered hereby may be deemed to be "underwriters" within the meaning of the Securities Act of 1933, in which event any discounts, concessions or commissions received by them, which are not expected to exceed those customary in the types of transactions involved, or any profit on resales of the Class A common stock by them, may be deemed to be underwriting commissions or discounts under the Securities Act of 1933. We have advised the selling stockholder that the provisions of the Exchange Act and the rules and regulations under the Exchange Act, including, without limitation, the anti-manipulation rules of Regulation M promulgated by the SEC, may apply to their sales in the market and have informed them that they will be subject to the prospectus delivery requirements of the Securities Act of 1933 which may include delivery through the facilities of the New York Stock Exchange pursuant to Rule 153 under the Securities Act of 1933. All of the above may affect the marketability of the shares of Class A common stock and the ability of any person to engage in market-making activities with respect to these shares of Class A common stock.

Under the securities laws of certain states, the shares of Class A common stock may be sold in those states only through registered or licensed brokers or dealers. In addition, in certain states the shares of Class A common stock may not be sold unless the shares of Class A common stock have been registered or qualified for sale in the state or an exemption from registration or qualification is available and is complied with.

The selling stockholder may agree to indemnify any agent, broker or dealer that participates in transactions involving sales of our common stock against certain liabilities, including liabilities under the Securities Act of 1933. Under a registration rights agreement with the selling stockholder, we are required to pay all expenses relating to this registration statement and the offering of shares of Class A common stock hereby, except for (i) fees and expenses of the selling stockholder's counsel; (ii) any such costs which arise as a result of an underwriting requested by the selling stockholder; and (iii) in the case of any underwriting initiated by us, discounts and commissions payable to underwriters, selling brokers, managers and similar persons engaged in the distribution of the shares. We have also agreed to indemnify the selling stockholder against certain liabilities under the Securities Act, or to contribute to payments the selling stockholder may be required to make in respect thereof. We will receive no part of the proceeds from sales of the Class A common stock offered hereby.

We are permitted to suspend the use of this prospectus under certain circumstances relating to pending corporate developments, public filings with the SEC and similar events for a period not to exceed 90 days in any 12 month period.

The shares of Class A common stock are listed for trading on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol "WWF".
