If the subject report could not be filed without unreasonable effort or expense and the registrant seeks relief pursuant to Rule 12b-25(b), the following should be completed. (Check box if appropriate.)

- (b) The subject annual report, semi-annual report, transition report on Form 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, Form N-SAR or Form N-CSR, or portion thereof, will be filed on or before the fifteenth calendar day following the prescribed due date; or the subject quarterly report or transition report on Form 10-Q or subject distribution report on Form 10-D, or portion thereof will be filed on or before the fifth calendar day following the prescribed due date; and
- (c) The accountant's statement or other exhibit required by Rule 12b-25(c) has been attached if applicable.

PART III
NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR or N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

The Children's Place Retail Stores, Inc. (the Company) was unable to file its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended February 3, 2007 (the Fiscal 2006 Form 10-K) on April 4, 2007 because Company management needs additional time to complete its analysis of the correct accounting treatment for the Company's past stock option grants and to determine the extent of the changes that are required to the Company's previously reported financial results, as well as the effect of these corrections and changes on the Company's financial results for its fiscal year ended February 3, 2007 (Fiscal 2006). This delay could not be eliminated by the Company without unreasonable effort and expense.

As previously announced, an internal investigation into the Company's stock option practices was conducted by outside counsel under the supervision of a Special Committee of the Company's Board of Directors. Based on the results of this investigation and Company management's own review, the Company concluded that incorrect measurement dates had been used for financial reporting purposes with respect to various stock option grants since the time of the Company's initial public offering in 1997. The Company is conducting an analysis to determine the correct measurement dates to use for these option grants for financial reporting purposes. In connection with its analysis, the Company expects to seek guidance regarding the correct measurement dates from the Office of the Chief Accountant of the Securities and Exchange Commission. As a result of its previous use of incorrect measurement dates, the Company announced that it is restating its previously issued financial statements for the fiscal years 2003, 2004, 2005 as well as its previously released financial information for the first and second quarters of fiscal 2006.

The Company will complete the restatement of its previous financial statements and the preparation of its Fiscal 2006 Form 10-K as soon as practicable.

(2) Have all other periodic reports required under Section 13 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or Section 30 of the Investment Company Act of 1940 during the preceding 12 months or for such shorter period that the registrant was required to file such report(s) been filed? If the answer is no, identify reports(s).

Yes No

The Company has not filed its Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for the quarters ended July 29, 2006 and October 28, 2006.

(3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?

Yes No

If so: attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

The Company anticipates that the statement of income for Fiscal 2006 to be included in its Fiscal 2006 Form 10-K will reflect significant changes in the Company's results of operations from the preceding fiscal year ended January 28, 2006 (Fiscal 2005) because (i) the Company has opened new stores, and the Company's business has grown, since Fiscal 2005, (ii) Fiscal 2005 was a 52-week fiscal year whereas Fiscal 2006 was a 53-week fiscal year, (iii) the Company expects to record in Fiscal 2006 costs, estimated at approximately $14.3 million (pre-tax), that were paid or accrued in connection with the above-referenced stock option investigation and tax implications relating to certain employee options, (iv) the Company expects to recognize a tax benefit totaling $9.5 million in Fiscal 2006 due to certain foreign tax credits, and (v) during Fiscal 2006, the Company recorded pre-tax charges totaling approximately $17.7 million, related to the write-off of certain investments and the write-down of fixed assets at certain recently remodeled Disney Stores, which are deemed to be impaired.

The Company expects to report in its Fiscal 2006 Form 10-K that consolidated sales increased from $1,668.7 million in Fiscal 2005 to $2,017.7 million in Fiscal 2006 and that net income increased from $46.8 million in Fiscal 2005 to $84.6 million (on a preliminary basis) in Fiscal 2006. However, these net income amounts are subject to change because of the Company's pending restatement of its previously filed financial statements for prior fiscal years and the first quarter of Fiscal 2006 and because the Company has not completed its analysis of the appropriate measurement dates for its past stock option grants.
