Franklin Templeton Investments

GAIN FROM OUR PERSPECTIVE

Franklin Templeton's distinct multi-manager structure combines the specialized expertise of three world-class investment management groups--Franklin, Templeton and Mutual Series.

SPECIALIZED EXPERTISE

Each of our portfolio management groups operates autonomously, relying on its own research and staying true to the unique investment disciplines that underlie its success.

FRANKLIN. Founded in 1947, Franklin is a recognized leader in fixed income investing and also brings expertise in growth- and value-style U.S. equity investing.

TEMPLETON. Founded in 1940, Templeton pioneered international investing and, in 1954, launched what has become the industry's oldest global fund. Today, with research offices in over 25 countries, they offer investors the broadest global reach in the industry.

MUTUAL SERIES. Founded in 1949, Mutual Series is dedicated to a unique style of value investing, searching aggressively for opportunity among undervalued stocks, arbitrage situations and distressed companies.

TRUE DIVERSIFICATION

Because our management groups work independently and adhere to distinctly different investment approaches, Franklin, Templeton and Mutual Series funds typically have a low overlap of securities. That's why our funds can be used to build truly diversified portfolios covering every major asset class.

RELIABILITY YOU CAN TRUST

At Franklin Templeton Investments, we seek to consistently provide investors with exceptional risk-adjusted returns over the long term, as well as the reliable account services that have helped us become one of the most trusted names in financial services.

Annual Report | 1

Dear Shareholder:

This annual report for Templeton Emerging Markets Income Fund covers the fiscal year ended August 31, 2004.

PERFORMANCE OVERVIEW

For the year under review, Templeton Emerging Markets Income Fund delivered cumulative total returns of 11.48% based on market price and 14.12% based on net asset value. In comparison, the J.P. Morgan (JPM) Emerging Markets Bond Index Global (EMBIG) posted a 13.57% cumulative total return in U.S. dollar terms for the same period. ¹ You can find the Fund's long-term performance data in the Performance Summary on page 8.

ECONOMIC AND MARKET OVERVIEW

Over the past fiscal year, the global economic recovery solidified, characterized by improved growth in the U.S. and Asia and export-led growth in much of Europe. Despite a large rise in oil and other commodity prices, underlying global inflation remained subdued during most of the period, although an upturn was observed in some regions later in the reporting period. As a result, global bond markets generated positive returns in local currency terms while currency gains against the U.S. dollar further extended bond market returns for the period.

Amid this more positive global growth environment, some inflationary pressures finally began to emerge in the U.S., in part as high global commodity prices passed through to domestic prices. Core consumer prices (excluding food and energy) rose from historically low levels of 1.3% at the beginning of the fiscal year to a more typical level of 1.7% by period-end. Additionally, the labor market began to recover, although the pace of hiring was more tentative than in prior economic cycles. Even with some slowing in economic activity during the second quarter of 2004, productivity rates remained favorable. The Federal Reserve Board (Fed) began to remove some economic stimulus, raising the federal funds target rate half a percentage point (0.50%) to 1.50% by period-end as some of the deflationary risks present in the economy since the last rate reduction appeared to diminish.

Consistent with a pick-up in economic growth with U.S. trade partners and a relatively weaker U.S. dollar, export growth rebounded. However, import growth surged as well, driving the U.S. trade deficit to another record monthly deficit level of nearly $50 billion in July. 2 The trade deficit helped drive the current account deficit to a record level totaling over $500 billion, adding further negative pressure on the U.S. balance of payments position. 3 The magnitude of the current account deficit also remained quite large relative to the country's economy at nearly 5.0% of gross domestic product (GDP). 4 To help finance the deficit within the balance of payments, the U.S. continued to rely on foreigners' purchases of U.S. bonds. The U.S. dollar continued to depreciate over the past year, declining 8.34% against the U.S.'s major trading partners. 5

Economic growth in the 12-country euro zone strengthened throughout the course of the Fund's fiscal year, reaching 2.0% during the second quarter compared with one year earlier. 6 Growth was driven by the export sector rather than domestic demand, limiting underlying inflation pressures. The relatively stronger euro compared with prior periods has helped allow the European Central Bank (ECB) to keep rates historically low, in both nominal and real terms. The rebounding global economy also maintained healthy export growth, despite the relatively stronger euro. In contrast to the U.S., the euro zone current account remained in surplus at 0.7% of GDP. 7 Growth among surrounding European economies, including Scandinavia and central Europe, remained higher and more broad-based, reaching rates of 4.1% in Norway, 3.4% in Sweden, 4.0% in Hungary and 6.1% in Poland in second quarter 2004 compared with a year earlier. 8

Asia's economic growth remained robust, despite some indication of an engineered slowdown in China marginally impacting growth of regional trade partners. During the second quarter of 2004, economic growth was 9.6% in China, 6.3% in Thailand, 5.5% in South Korea and 4.3% in Indonesia compared with the same quarter in 2003. 9 Japan was the exception, with growth rates falling from 6.4% in the first quarter compared with a year earlier to 1.3% in the second quarter compared with a year earlier as a domestic demand recovery failed to take hold. 10 While growth was more broad-based in some Asian countries than others, one common characteristic was external sector strength. In South Korea for example, export growth continued to accelerate, exceeding 29% by period-end. 11 Similarly, Thai exports rose nearly 25% and Japan's over 14%.12 These positive conditions contributed to the region's rising international reserves, and despite showing signs

WHAT IS BALANCE OF PAYMENTS?

Balance of payments is a record of all of a country's exports and imports of goods and services, borrowing and lending with the rest of the world during a particular time period. It helps a country evaluate its competitive strengths and weaknesses and forecast the strength of its currency.

WHAT IS A CURRENT ACCOUNT?

A current account is that part of the balance of payments where all of one country's international transactions in goods and services are recorded.

of slowing, remained impressive. In Japan, foreign currency reserves increased $273 billion for the 12-month period, partially as a result of massive direct currency intervention during the first quarter of the year. Japan purchased foreign currency worth approximately $140 billion, slowing currency appreciation relative to the U.S. dollar. Overall, Japan's foreign currency reserves stood at $808 billion on August 31, 2004, up 51% from a year earlier. 13 Other Asian countries continued to experience similar reserve accumulation, although on a smaller scale. South Korea's reserves rose 25%, Thailand's 14% and Indonesia's 4% for the year under review. 14 With the exceptions of Japan, South Korea and Indonesia, there was some evidence of mounting inflationary pressure throughout the region, given strong aggregate growth and little changes in monetary or exchange rate policy.

INVESTMENT STRATEGY

We invest selectively in bonds around the world to generate income for the Fund, seeking opportunities while monitoring changes in interest rates, currency rates and credit risk.

MANAGER'S DISCUSSION

Sovereign interest rate yields declined from 482 basis points (100 basis points equal 1.00%) greater than the U.S. Treasury market at the beginning of the reporting period to 425 basis points by period-end. 15 Regionally, Latin American sovereign debt market returns rose 15.84%, eastern Europe 11.48%, and Asia 8.47% in U.S. dollars. 1 The JPM Euro EMBIG rose 11.41% in euro terms and 23.89% in U.S. dollar terms. 16 The global demand recovery significantly benefited emerging market economies, particularly commodity exporters, supporting growth and in some countries, balance of payment and fiscal conditions. As a result, underlying economic and credit fundamentals remained stronger than in previous economic tightening cycles. Although producing solid returns over the 12-month period, the Fund shortened duration and reallocated away from U.S. dollar-denominated sovereign credit given a greater sensitivity to rising U.S. rates. Consequently, the Fund added to local currency market exposure given our assessment of prospects for yield and currency appreciation.

LATIN AMERICA

The Fund's Latin American holdings were composed primarily of U.S. dollar-denominated emerging market debt. Despite some volatility surrounding the Fed's first interest rate increase, Latin America was the best performing region within the JPM EMBIG. The Fund benefited from its exposure to Brazil and Venezuela, whose bond markets rose 21.45% and 28.71% in U.S. dollars during the Fund's fiscal year. 1

In Brazil, aggressive interest rate easing earlier in the period provided growth stimulus and lower cost of interest on domestic government debt, strengthening credit fundamentals. Venezuela, one of the larger global oil exporters, and Venezuelan bond markets benefited from high oil prices. The nation's credit also benefited from increased stability following the conclusion of a lengthy referendum process that left the current presidential administration in place. Additionally, independent credit rating agency Standard & Poor's upgraded Venezuela's long-term sovereign credit from B- to B. 17

The Fund established a new position in Argentina during the Fund's fiscal year given improved economic conditions. In particular, growth recovered, rising to a 7.0% annual rate by the second quarter of 2004 while the country maintained a trade surplus. 18 Furthermore, Argentina demonstrated the ability to meet primary surplus targets. While much of Argentina's sovereign debt remained in default status, the Fund's holding paid interest. The Argentine subcomponent of the JPM EMBIG trailed other Latin American debt markets, rising only 1.03% in U.S. dollars during the period. 1

EASTERN AND CENTRAL EUROPE

Eastern Europe benefited from rising global demand, particularly commodity demand from Asia. In Russia, high oil prices provided an opportunity for the government to establish a stabilization fund. Russian reserves rose 42% during the Fund's fiscal year to over $88 billion, while economic growth remained strong at 7.4% in June 2004 compared with a year earlier. 19 Similarly in Ukraine, economic growth benefited from the rise in global demand for commodities, driving Ukraine's export and economic growth rates of over 13%. 20 This strong external environment supported underlying credit conditions, and Russia and Ukraine received credit upgrades during the period. Russia's sovereign debt was upgraded by independent credit rating agency Moody's Investors Service to investment grade status, from Ba2 to Baa3, and one notch below investment grade by Standard & Poor's, from BB to BB+. 21 Similarly, Ukraine was upgraded by Moody's from B2 to B1, and by Standard & Poor's from B to B+. 21 While generating positive returns,

Annual Report | 5

Russia's and Ukraine's bond markets underperformed the JPM EMBIG during the period, returning 8.16% and 8.19% in U.S. dollars, and detracted from Fund performance relative to the Index. 1 The Fund took profits in Russia and added to local currency denominated positions in central Europe.

Central European economies, including Hungary and Poland, which joined the European Union (EU) in May 2004, also benefited from strong growth rates and export performance. The Hungarian forint rose 14.58%, bringing cumulative bond market returns for the 12-month period to 17.38% in U.S. dollars, as measured by the JPM Government Bond Index (GBI) Broad, benefiting relative Fund performance. 22 In addition to the Hungarian forint's appreciation, the Polish zloty rose 8.64%. Higher growth rates, prospects for rising interest rates and attractive yields relative to the euro zone provided support to these currencies. The Fund added a new position in Poland later in the reporting period as its government bonds lagged other European markets. The zloty began to benefit only later in the period from progress on fiscal reform, entry into the EU and solid macroeconomic performance.

ASIA

The Fund also benefited from its overweighted position in South Korea, whose bond market rose 10.36% in U.S. dollar terms, as measured by the HSBC Asian Local Bond Index (ALBI), following 2.29% appreciation of the South Korean won versus the U.S. dollar. 23 The Fund continued to increase its allocation to non-Japan Asia during the period given strong regional growth and trade patterns, and the potential for currency appreciation. Exposure to other Asian currencies weighed on relative Fund performance. Strong economic expansion driven by export growth and private investment prompted the Thai central bank to raise interest rates 25 basis points to 1.50%. 24 Local bond markets reacted, declining 3.29% during the Fund's fiscal year while the Thai baht depreciated 1.34%. 23 To help manage this risk, we positioned the Fund in short duration assets in Thailand.

Indonesia, on the other hand, reduced interest rates 150 basis points to 7.00%, following an inflation decline and improved macroeconomic stability, driving local bond market returns of 10.34% during the Fund's fiscal year. 23,25 Following stable economic and fiscal policy, Indonesia concluded its program with the International Monetary Fund successfully and early. Strong local market returns in Indonesia provided a cushion to currency volatility as the market reacted to uncertainty surrounding Indonesia's first round of presidential elections. Although creating some currency volatility, Indonesia's presidential elections were the nation's first fully democratic elections. The Indonesian rupiah declined 9.49% against the U.S. dollar, bringing bond market returns in U.S. dollar terms to -0.08% for the fiscal year. 1

Templeton Emerging Markets Income Fund

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1. ORGANIZATION AND SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Templeton Emerging Markets Income Fund (the Fund, formerly Templeton Emerging Markets Income Fund, Inc.) is registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940 as a closed-end, non-diversified investment company. Effective June 1, 2004, the Fund was reorganized from a Maryland corporation into a Delaware statutory trust. The Fund seeks high current income, with a secondary goal of capital appreciation, by investing at least 80% of its net assets in a portfolio of high-yielding debt obligations of sovereign or sovereign-related entities and private sector companies in emerging market countries. The following summarizes the Fund's significant accounting policies.

A. SECURITY VALUATION

Securities listed or traded on a recognized national exchange are valued at the last reported sales price. Securities listed or traded on NASDAQ are valued at their official closing price. Debt securities, other over-the-counter securities and listed securities for which no sale is reported are valued within the range of the latest quoted bid and asked prices by independent pricing services or recognized dealers in such securities. Foreign securities are valued at the close of trading of the foreign exchange or the NYSE, whichever is earlier. If events occur that materially affect the values of securities after the prices or foreign exchange rates are determined, but prior to 4:00 p.m. Eastern time or the close of trading on the NYSE, whichever is earlier, or if market quotations are deemed not readily available or reliable, the securities will be valued at fair value. Investments in open-end mutual funds are valued at the closing net asset value. All security valuation procedures are approved by the Board of Trustees.

B. FOREIGN CURRENCY TRANSLATION

Portfolio securities and other assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are translated into U.S. dollars based on the exchange rate of such currencies against U.S. dollars on the date of valuation. Purchases and sales of securities, income and expense items denominated in foreign currencies are translated into U.S. dollars at the exchange rate in effect on the transaction date.

The Fund does not separately report the effect of changes in foreign exchange rates from changes in market prices on securities held. Such changes are included in net realized and unrealized gain or loss from investments.

Realized foreign exchange gains or losses arise from sales of foreign currencies, currency gains or losses realized between the trade and settlement dates on securities transactions and the difference between the recorded amounts of interest and foreign withholding taxes and the U.S. dollar equivalent of the amounts actually received or paid. Net unrealized foreign exchange gains and losses arise from changes in foreign exchange rates on foreign denominated assets and liabilities other than investments in securities held at the end of the reporting period.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS (CONTINUED)

1. ORGANIZATION AND SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONTINUED)

C. FOREIGN CURRENCY CONTRACTS

When the Fund purchases or sells foreign securities it may enter into foreign exchange contracts to minimize foreign exchange risk from the trade date to the settlement date of the transactions. A foreign exchange contract is an agreement between two parties to exchange different currencies at an agreed upon exchange rate on a specified date. Realized and unrealized gains and losses are included in the Statement of Operations.

The risks of these contracts include movement in the values of the foreign currencies relative to the U.S. dollar and the possible inability of the counterparties to fulfill their obligations under the contracts.

D. INCOME TAXES

No provision has been made for income taxes because the Fund's policy is to qualify as a regulated investment company under the Internal Revenue Code and to distribute substantially all of its taxable income. Fund distributions to shareholders are determined on a tax basis and may differ from net investment income and realized gains for financial reporting purposes.

E. SECURITY TRANSACTIONS, INVESTMENT INCOME, EXPENSES AND DISTRIBUTIONS

Security transactions are accounted for on trade date. Realized gains and losses on security transactions are determined on a specific identification basis. Certain income from foreign securities is recorded as soon as information is available. Interest income and estimated expenses are accrued daily. Discounts and premiums on securities purchased are amortized over the lives of the respective securities. Dividend income and distributions to shareholders are recorded on the ex-dividend date.

F. ACCOUNTING ESTIMATES

The preparation of financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the amounts of income and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

G. GUARANTEES AND INDEMNIFICATIONS

Under the Fund's organizational documents, its officers and trustees are indemnified against certain liability arising out of the performance of their duties to the Fund. Additionally, in the normal course of business, the Fund enters into contracts with service providers that contain general indemnification clauses. The Fund's maximum exposure under these arrangements is unknown as this would involve future claims that may be made against the Fund that have not yet occurred. However, based on experience, the Fund expects the risk of loss to be remote.

2. SHARES OF BENEFICIAL INTEREST

The Board of the Fund previously authorized management to implement an open-market share repurchase program pursuant to which the Fund may purchase, from time to time, Fund shares in open market transactions, at the discretion of management. This authorization remains in effect. Through August 31, 2004, the Fund had repurchased a total of 610,500 shares.

At August 31, 2004, there were an unlimited number of shares authorized (without par value). During the year ended August 31, 2004, there were no share transactions; all reinvested distributions were satisfied with previously issued shares purchased in the open market. During the year ended August 31, 2003, 169,776 shares were issued for $1,952,424 from reinvested distributions.

3. TRANSACTIONS WITH AFFILIATES

Certain officers of the Fund are also officers or directors of the following entities:

| ENTITY | AFFILIATION |
|--|------------------------|
| Franklin Advisers, Inc. (Advisers) | Investment manager |
| Franklin Templeton Services, LLC (FT Services) | Administrative manager |

A. MANAGEMENT FEE

The Fund pays an investment management fee to Advisers based on the Fund's average daily net assets as follows:

| ANNUALIZED FEE RATE | NET ASSETS |
|---------------------|---|
| 0.850% | First $1 billion |
| 0.830% | Over $1 billion, up to and including $5 billion |
| 0.810% | Over $5 billion, up to and including $10 billion |
| 0.790% | Over $10 billion, up to and including $15 billion |
| 0.770% | Over $15 billion, up to and including $20 billion |
| 0.750% | Over $20 billion |

Prior to June 1, 2004 the Fund paid an investment management fee to Advisers of 0.85% per year of the average daily net assets of the Fund.

B. ADMINISTRATIVE FEES

The Fund pays an administrative fee to FT Services of 0.15% per year of the average daily net assets of the Fund.

4. EXPENSE OFFSET ARRANGEMENT

The Fund has entered into an arrangement with its custodian whereby credits realized as a result of uninvested cash balances are used to reduce a portion of the Fund's custodian expenses. During the year ended August 31, 2004, the custodian fees were reduced as noted in the Statement of Operations.

5. INCOME TAXES

At August 31, 2004, the Fund had tax basis capital losses which may be carried over to offset future capital gains. Such losses expire as follows:

Capital loss carryovers expiring in:

|------------|--------------|
| 2009 | $ 4,205,169 |
| 2010 | 22,453,289 |
| 2011 | 24,484,014 |
| | ----- |
| | $51,142,472 |
| | ----- |

At August 31, 2004, the cost of investments, net unrealized appreciation (depreciation), and undistributed ordinary income for income tax purposes were as follows:

|--|---------------|
| Cost of investments | $591,759,516 |
| | ----- |
| Unrealized appreciation | $ 43,669,125 |
| Unrealized depreciation | (27,767,364) |
| | ----- |
| Net unrealized appreciation (depreciation) | $ 15,901,761 |
| | ----- |
| Distributable earnings - ordinary income | $ 3,553,693 |
| | ----- |

Net investment income (loss) differs for financial statement and tax purposes primarily due to differing treatments of accrual of interest on defaulted bonds, foreign currency transactions, and bond discounts and premiums.

Net realized gains differ for financial statement and tax purposes primarily due to differing treatments of wash sales, foreign currency transactions, and bond discounts and premiums.

The tax character of distributions paid during the years ended August 31, 2004 and 2003, was as follows:

| | ----- 2004 ----- | ----- 2003 ----- |
|--------------------------|------------------------|------------------------|
| Distributions paid from: | | |
| Ordinary income | $47,165,033 | $52,719,576 |

6. INVESTMENT TRANSACTIONS

Purchases and sales of investments (excluding short-term securities) for the year ended August 31, 2004 aggregated $422,621,858 and $402,271,016, respectively.

20 | Annual Report

Templeton Emerging Markets Income Fund

7. CREDIT RISK, DEFAULTED SECURITIES

The Fund has 22.75% of its portfolio invested in below investment grade and comparable quality unrated high yield securities, which tend to be more sensitive to economic conditions than higher rated securities. The risk of loss due to default by the issuer may be significantly greater for the holders of high yielding securities because such securities are generally unsecured and are often subordinated to other creditors of the issuer.

The Fund held defaulted securities and/or other securities for which the income has been deemed uncollectible. At August 31, 2004, the value of these securities was $15,234,325 representing 2.4% of the Fund's net assets. The Fund discontinues accruing income on securities for which income has been deemed uncollectible and provides an estimate for losses on interest receivable. For information as to specific securities, see the accompanying Statement of Investments.

8. CONCENTRATION OF RISK

Investing in securities of emerging market issuers includes certain risks not typically associated with investing in countries with more developed securities markets, such as political, economic and legal uncertainties, delays in settling portfolio transactions, currency fluctuations, and the risk of loss from underdeveloped systems of securities registration and transfer. As of August 31, 2004, approximately 30% of the Fund's net assets are obligations of the governments of Brazil or Russia and are subject to the credit risk of such issuers.

9. INVESTMENTS IN FRANKLIN INSTITUTIONAL FIDUCIARY TRUST MONEY MARKET PORTFOLIO

Edgar Filing: TEMPLETON EMERGING MARKETS INCOME FUND INC - Form N-CSR

The Fund may invest in the Franklin Institutional Fiduciary Trust Money Market Portfolio (the Sweep Money Fund), an open-end investment company managed by Advisers. Management fees paid by the Fund are reduced on assets invested in the Sweep Money Fund, in an amount not to exceed the management fees paid by the Sweep Money Fund.

10. REGULATORY MATTERS

MASSACHUSETTS ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDING

On September 20, 2004, Franklin Resources, Inc. (Franklin Resources, Inc. and its subsidiaries are referred to collectively as the "Company") announced that an agreement has been reached by two of its subsidiaries, Franklin Advisers, Inc. ("Franklin Advisers") and Franklin Templeton Alternative Strategies, Inc. ("FTAS"), with the Securities Division of the Office of the Secretary of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts (the "State of Massachusetts") related to an administrative complaint filed on February 4, 2004. The administrative complaint addressed one instance of market timing that was also a subject of the August 2, 2004 settlement that Franklin Advisers reached with the SEC, as described below.

Under the terms of the settlement consent order issued by the State of Massachusetts, Franklin Advisers and FTAS have consented to the entry of a cease-and-desist order and agreed to pay a $5 million administrative fine to the State of Massachusetts. The consent order has multiple sections, including "Statements of Fact" and "Violations of Massachusetts Securities Laws." The Company admitted the "Statements of Fact." The Company did not admit or deny the "Violations of the Massachusetts Securities Laws." While Franklin Advisers and FTAS did not admit or deny engaging in any wrongdoing, the Company believes that it is in its best interest and the interests of its funds' shareholders to settle this issue now and move forward.

U.S. SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION (SEC) SETTLEMENT

On August 2, 2004, the Company announced that an agreement has been reached by Franklin Advisers with the SEC that resolves the issues resulting from the SEC's investigation of market timing activity and the SEC issued an "Order instituting administrative and cease-and-desist proceedings pursuant to sections 203(e) and 203(k) of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 and sections 9(b) and 9(f) of the Investment Company Act of 1940, making findings and imposing remedial sanctions and a cease-and-desist order" (the "Order"). The SEC's Order concerns the activities of a limited number of third parties that ended in 2000 and those that are the subject of the Massachusetts administrative complaint described above.

Under the terms of the SEC's Order, pursuant to which Franklin Advisers neither admits nor denies any wrongdoing, Franklin Advisers has agreed to pay $50 million, of which $20 million is a civil penalty, to be distributed to shareholders of certain funds in accordance with a plan to be developed by an Independent Distribution Consultant. At this time, it is unclear which funds will receive distributions or which shareholders of any particular fund will receive distributions. The SEC Order also requires Franklin Advisers to, among other things, enhance and periodically review compliance policies and procedures.

OTHER GOVERNMENTAL INVESTIGATIONS

As part of ongoing investigations by the SEC, the U.S. Attorney for the Northern District of California, the New York Attorney General, the California Attorney General, the U.S. Attorney for the District of Massachusetts, the Florida Department of Financial Services and the Commissioner of Securities, the West Virginia Attorney General, the Vermont Department of Banking, Insurance, Securities, and Health Care Administration and the National Association of Securities Dealers, relating to certain practices in the mutual fund industry, including late trading, market timing and payments to securities dealers who sell fund shares, the Company and its subsidiaries, as well as certain current or former executives and employees of the Company, have received requests for information and/or subpoenas to testify or produce documents. The Company and its current employees have been providing documents and information in response to these requests and subpoenas. In addition, the Company has responded to requests for similar kinds of information from regulatory authorities in some of the foreign countries where the Company conducts its global asset management business.

The staff of the SEC has also informed the Company that it is considering recommending a civil action or proceeding against Franklin Advisers and Franklin Templeton Distributors, Inc. ("FTDI") concerning payments to securities dealers who sell fund shares (commonly referred to as "revenue sharing"). The staff of the California Attorney General's Office ("CAGO") also has advised the Company that the California Attorney General is authorized to bring a civil action against the Company and FTDI arising from the same events. Even though the Company currently believes that the charges the SEC staff and CAGO staff are contemplating are unwarranted, it also believes that it is in the best interest of the Company's and funds' shareholders to resolve these issues voluntarily, to the extent the Company can reasonably do so. The Company continues to have discussions towards resolving these governmental investigations.

OTHER LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

The Company, in addition to other entities within Franklin Templeton Investments, including certain of its subsidiaries, other funds, and current and former officers, employees, and directors have been named in multiple lawsuits in different federal courts in Nevada, California, Illinois, New York and Florida, alleging violations of various federal securities laws and seeking, among other things, monetary damages and costs. Specifically, the lawsuits claim breach of duty with respect to alleged arrangements to permit market timing and/or late trading activity, or breach of duty with respect to the valuation of the portfolio securities of certain funds managed by Company subsidiaries, resulting in alleged market timing activity. The majority of these lawsuits duplicate, in whole or in part, the allegations asserted in the Massachusetts administrative complaint described above. The lawsuits are styled as class actions or derivative actions on behalf of either the named funds or the Company.

Various subsidiaries of the Company have also been named in multiple lawsuits filed in state courts in Illinois alleging breach of duty with respect to valuation of the portfolio securities of certain funds managed by such subsidiaries.

In addition, the Company and certain of its subsidiaries, as well as certain current and former officers, employees, and directors have been named in multiple lawsuits alleging violations of various securities laws and pendent state law claims relating to the disclosure of directed brokerage payments and/or payment of allegedly excessive advisory, commission, and distribution fees. These lawsuits are styled as class actions and derivative actions brought on behalf of certain funds.

The Company's management strongly believes that the claims made in each of these lawsuits are without merit and intends to vigorously defend against them.

The Company cannot predict with certainty the eventual outcome of the foregoing governmental investigations or class actions or other lawsuits. If the Company finds that it bears responsibility for any unlawful or inappropriate conduct that caused losses to the Fund, it is committed to making the Fund or its shareholders whole, as appropriate.

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

TO THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES AND SHAREHOLDERS OF TEMPLETON EMERGING MARKETS INCOME FUND

In our opinion, the accompanying statement of assets and liabilities, including the statement of investments, and the related statements of operations and of changes in net assets and the financial highlights present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Templeton Emerging Markets Income Fund (the "Fund," formerly Templeton Emerging Markets Income Fund, Inc.) at August 31, 2004, the results of its operations for the year then ended, the changes in its net assets for each of the two years in the period then ended and the financial highlights for each of the five years in the period then ended, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. These financial statements and financial highlights (hereafter referred to as "financial statements") are the responsibility of the Fund's management; our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits of these financial statements in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements, assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, and evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits, which included confirmation of securities at August 31, 2004 by correspondence with the custodian and brokers, provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

TAX DESIGNATION (UNAUDITED)

At August 31, 2004, more than 50% of the Templeton Emerging Markets Income Fund total assets were invested in securities of foreign issuers. In most instances, foreign taxes were withheld from income paid to the Fund on these investments. As shown in the table below, the Fund hereby designates to shareholders the foreign source income and foreign taxes paid, pursuant to Section 853 of the Internal Revenue Code. This designation will allow shareholders of record on September 30, 2004 to treat their proportionate share of foreign taxes paid by the Fund as having been paid directly by them. The shareholder shall consider these amounts as foreign taxes paid in the tax year in which they receive the Fund distribution.

The following table provides a detailed analysis, by country, of foreign tax paid, foreign source income, foreign qualified dividends, and adjusted foreign source income as designated by the Fund, to shareholders of record. As a service to individual shareholders filing Form 1116, "Adjusted Foreign Source Income per Share" in column 4 below reports foreign source income with the required adjustments to foreign source qualified dividends. This information is provided to simplify your reporting of foreign source income for line 1 of Form 1116.

Foreign Tax Paid per Share (Column 1) is the amount per share available to you, as a tax credit or deduction (assuming you held your shares in the Fund for a minimum of 16 days during the 30-day period beginning 15 days before the ex-dividend date of the Fund's distribution to which the foreign taxes relate).

Foreign Source Income per Share (Column 2) is the amount per share of income dividends paid to you that is attributable to foreign securities held by the Fund, plus any foreign taxes withheld on these dividends. The amounts reported include foreign source qualified dividends without adjustment for the lower U.S. tax rates. Generally, this is the foreign source income to be reported by certain trusts and corporate shareholders.

TAX DESIGNATION (UNAUDITED) (CONTINUED)

Foreign Qualified Dividends per Share (Column 3) is the amount per share of foreign source qualified dividends the Fund paid to you, plus any foreign taxes withheld on these dividends. These amounts represent the portion of the Foreign Source Income reported to you in column 2 that were derived from qualified foreign securities held by the Fund. If you are an individual shareholder who does not meet the qualified dividend holding period requirements, you may find this information helpful to calculate the foreign source income adjustment needed to complete line 1 of Form 1116.

Adjusted Foreign Source Income per Share (Column 4) is the adjusted amount per share of foreign source income the Fund paid to you. These amounts reflect the Foreign Source Income reported in column 2 adjusted for the tax rate differential on foreign source qualified dividends that may be required for certain individual shareholders pursuant to Internal Revenue Code 904(b)(2)(B). If you are an individual shareholder who meets the qualified dividend holding period requirements, generally, these Adjusted Foreign Source Income amounts may be reported directly on line 1 of Form 1116 without additional adjustment.

In January 2005, shareholders will receive Form 1099-DIV which will include their share of taxes paid and foreign source income distributed during the calendar year 2004. The Foreign Source Income reported on Form 1099-DIV has been reduced to take into account the tax rate differential on foreign source qualified dividend income pursuant to Internal Revenue Code 904(b)(2)(B). Shareholders are advised to check with their tax advisors for information on the treatment of these amounts on their 2004 individual income tax returns.

Templeton Emerging Markets Income Fund

DIVIDEND REINVESTMENT AND CASH PURCHASE PLAN

The Fund offers a Dividend Reinvestment and Cash Purchase Plan (the "Plan") with the following features:

If shares of the Fund are held in the shareholder's name, the shareholder will automatically be a participant in the Plan unless he elects to withdraw. If the shares are registered in the name of a broker-dealer or other nominee (i.e., in "street name"), the broker-dealer or nominee will elect to participate in the Plan on the shareholder's behalf unless the shareholder instructs them otherwise, or unless the reinvestment service is not provided by the broker-dealer or nominee.

Participants should contact Mellon Investor Services, P.O. Box 3338, South Hackensack, NJ 07606-1938, to receive the Plan brochure.

To receive dividends or distributions in cash, the shareholder must notify Mellon Investor Services (the "Plan Administrator") at the address above or the institution in whose name the shares are held. The Plan Administrator must receive written notice within 10 business days before the record date for the distribution.

Whenever the Fund declares dividends in either cash or shares of the Fund, if the market price is equal to or exceeds net asset value at the valuation date, the participant will receive the dividends entirely in shares at a price equal to the net asset value, but not less than 95% of the then current market price of the Fund's shares. If the market price is lower than net asset value or if dividends and/or capital gains distributions are payable only in cash, the participant will receive shares purchased on the New York Stock Exchange or otherwise on the open market.

A participant has the option of submitting additional cash payments to the Plan Administrator, in any amounts of at least $100, up to a maximum of $5,000 per month, for the purchase of Fund shares for his or her account. These payments shall be made by check or money order payable to "Mellon Bank, N.A." and sent to Mellon Investor Services, P.O. Box 382009, Pittsburgh, PA 15250-8009, Attention: Templeton Emerging Markets Income Fund. The Plan Administrator shall apply such payments (less a $5.00 service charge and less a pro rata share of trading fees) to purchases of the Fund's shares on the open market.

The automatic reinvestment of dividends and/or capital gains does not relieve the participant of any income tax that may be payable on dividends or distributions.

Whenever shares are purchased on the New York Stock Exchange or otherwise on the open market, each participant will pay a pro rata portion of trading fees. Trading fees will be deducted from amounts to be invested. The Plan Administrator's fees for a sale of shares through the Plan are $15.00 per transaction plus a $0.12 per share trading fee.

DIVIDEND REINVESTMENT AND CASH PURCHASE PLAN (CONTINUED)

The participant may withdraw from the Plan without penalty at any time by written notice to the Plan Administrator sent to Mellon Investor Services, P.O. Box 3338, South Hackensack, NJ 07606-1938. Upon withdrawal, the participant will receive, without charge, share certificates issued in the participant's name for all full shares held by the Plan Administrator; or, if the participant wishes, the Plan Administrator will sell the shares and send the proceeds, less a service charge of $15.00 and less trading fees, to the participant.

ITEM 7. DISCLOSURE OF PROXY VOTING POLICIES AND PROCEDURES FOR CLOSED-END MANAGEMENT INVESTMENT COMPANIES.

The board of trustees of the Fund has delegated the authority to vote proxies related to the portfolio securities held by the Fund to the Fund's manager Franklin Advisers, Inc. in accordance with the Proxy Voting Policies and Procedures (Policies) adopted by the manager.

The manager has delegated its administrative duties with respect to the voting of proxies to the Proxy Group within Franklin Templeton Companies, LLC (Proxy Group), an affiliate and wholly owned subsidiary of Franklin Resources, Inc. All proxies received by the Proxy Group will be voted based upon the manager's instructions and/or policies.

To assist it in analyzing proxies, the manager subscribes to Institutional Shareholder Services (ISS), an unaffiliated third party corporate governance research service that provides in-depth analyses of shareholder meeting agendas, vote recommendations, recordkeeping and vote disclosure services. In addition, the manager subscribes to Glass Lewis & Co., LLC (Glass Lewis), an unaffiliated third party analytical research firm, to receive analyses and vote recommendations on the shareholder meetings of publicly held U.S. companies. Although ISS' and/or Glass Lewis' analyses are thoroughly reviewed and considered in making a final voting decision, the manager does not consider recommendations from ISS, Glass Lewis or any other third party to be determinative of the manager's ultimate decision. The manager votes proxies solely in the interests of the Fund and its shareholders. As a matter of policy, the officers, trustees and employees of the Fund, the manager and the Proxy Group will not be influenced by outside sources whose interests conflict with the interests of the Fund and its shareholders. All conflicts are resolved in the interests of the manager's clients. In situations where the manager perceives a material conflict of interest, the manager may: disclose the conflict to the Fund's board of trustees; defer to the voting recommendation of the Fund's board of trustees, ISS, Glass Lewis or those of another independent third party provider of proxy services; or take such other action in good faith (in consultation with counsel) which would protect the interests of the Fund and its shareholders.

The recommendation of management on any issue is a factor which the manager considers in determining how proxies should be voted, but is not determinative of the manager's ultimate decision. As a matter of practice, the votes with respect to most issues are cast in accordance with the position of the company's management. Each issue, however, is considered on its own merits, and the manager will not support the position of the company's management in any situation where it deems that the ratification of management's position would adversely affect the investment merits of owning that company's shares.

MANAGER'S PROXY VOTING POLICIES AND PRINCIPLES The manager has adopted general proxy voting guidelines, which are summarized below. These guidelines are not an exhaustive list of all the issues that may arise and the manager cannot anticipate all future situations. In all cases, each proxy will be considered based on the relevant facts and circumstances.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS. The manager supports an independent board of directors, and prefers that key committees such as audit, nominating, and compensation committees be comprised of independent directors. The manager will generally vote against management efforts to classify a board and will generally support proposals to declassify the board of directors. The manager may withhold votes from directors who have attended less than 75% of meetings without a valid reason. While generally in favor of separating Chairman and CEO positions, the manager will review this issue as well as proposals to restore or provide for cumulative voting on a case-by-case basis, taking into consideration factors such as the company's corporate governance guidelines or provisions and performance.

RATIFICATION OF AUDITORS. In light of several high profile accounting scandals, the manager will closely scrutinize the role and performance of auditors. On a case-by-case basis, the manager will examine proposals relating to non-audit relationships and non-audit fees. The manager will also consider, on a case-by-case basis, proposals to rotate auditors, and will vote against the ratification of auditors when there is clear and compelling evidence of accounting irregularities or negligence.

MANAGEMENT & DIRECTOR COMPENSATION. A company's equity-based compensation plan should be in alignment with its shareholders' long-term interests. The manager evaluates plans on a case-by-case basis by considering several factors to determine whether the plan is fair and reasonable, including the ISS quantitative model utilized to assess such plans and/or the Glass Lewis evaluation of the plans. The manager will generally oppose plans that have the potential to be excessively dilutive, and will almost always oppose plans that are structured to allow the repricing of underwater options, or plans that have an automatic share replenishment "evergreen" feature. The manager will generally support employee stock option plans in which the purchase price is at least 85% of fair market value, and when potential dilution is 10% or less.

Severance compensation arrangements will be reviewed on a case-by-case basis, although the manager will generally oppose "golden parachutes" that are considered to be excessive. The manager will normally support proposals that require a percentage of directors' compensation to be in the form of common stock, as it aligns their interests with those of shareholders. The manager will review on a case-by-case basis any shareholder proposals to adopt policies on expensing stock option plans.

ANTI-TAKEOVER MECHANISMS AND RELATED ISSUES. The manager generally opposes anti-takeover measures since they tend to reduce shareholder rights. On occasion, the manager may vote with management when the research analyst has concluded that the proposal is not onerous and would not harm the Fund or its shareholders' interests. The manager generally supports proposals that require shareholder rights' plans ("poison pills") to be subject to a shareholder vote and will closely evaluate such plans on a case-by-case basis to determine whether or not they warrant support. The manager will generally vote against any proposal to issue stock that has unequal or subordinate voting rights. The manager generally opposes any supermajority voting requirements as well as the payment of "greenmail." The manager generally supports "fair price" provisions and confidential voting.

CHANGES TO CAPITAL STRUCTURE. The manager will review, on a case-by-case basis, proposals by companies to increase authorized shares and the purpose for the increase and proposals seeking preemptive rights. The manager will generally not vote in favor of dual-class capital structures to increase the number of authorized shares where that class of stock would have superior voting rights. The manager will generally vote in favor of the issuance of preferred stock in cases where the company specifies the voting, dividend, conversion and other rights of such stock and the terms of the preferred stock issuance are deemed reasonable.

MERGERS AND CORPORATE RESTRUCTURING. Mergers and acquisitions will be subject to careful review by the research analyst to determine whether each will be beneficial to shareholders. The manager will analyze various economic and strategic factors in making the final decision on a merger or acquisition. Corporate restructuring and reincorporation proposals are also subject to a thorough examination on a case-by-case basis.

SOCIAL AND CORPORATE POLICY ISSUES. The manager will generally give management discretion with regard to social, environmental and ethical issues, although the manager may vote in favor of those that are believed to have significant economic benefits or implications for the Fund and its shareholders.

GLOBAL CORPORATE GOVERNANCE. Many of the tenets discussed above are applied to proxy voting decisions for international companies. However, the manager must be more flexible in these instances and must be mindful of the varied market practices of each region.

The manager will attempt to process every proxy it receives for all domestic and foreign proxies. However, there may be situations in which the manager cannot process proxies, for example, where a meeting notice was received too late, or sell orders preclude the ability to vote. The manager may abstain from voting under certain circumstances or vote against items such as "Other Business" when the manager is not given adequate information from the company.

Shareholders may view the complete Policies on-line at franklintempleton.com. Alternatively, shareholders may request copies of the Policies free of charge by calling the Proxy Group collect at 1-954/847-2268 or by sending a written request to: Franklin Templeton Companies, LLC, 500 East Broward Boulevard, Suite 1500, Fort Lauderdale, FL 33394, Attention: Proxy Group. Copies of the Fund's proxy voting records are available on-line at franklintempleton.com and posted on the SEC website at WWW.SEC.GOV and reflect the twelve-month period beginning July 1, 2003, and ending June 30, 2004.

ITEM 8. PURCHASES OF EQUITY SECURITIES BY CLOSED-END MANAGEMENT INVESTMENT COMPANIES AND AFFILIATED PURCHASES. N/A

ITEM 9. SUBMISSION OF MATTERS OF A VOTE OF SECURITY HOLDERS.

There have been no changes to the procedures by which shareholders may recommend nominees to the Registrant's Board of Trustees that would require disclosure herein.

ITEM 10. CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES.

(a) EVALUATION OF DISCLOSURE CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES. The Registrant maintains disclosure controls and procedures that are designed to ensure that information required to be disclosed in the Registrant's filings under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and the Investment Company Act of 1940 is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the periods specified in the rules and forms of the Securities and Exchange Commission. Such information is accumulated and communicated to the Registrant's management, including its principal executive officer and principal financial officer, as appropriate, to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure. The Registrant's management, including the principal executive officer and the principal financial officer, recognizes that any set of controls and procedures, no matter how well designed and operated, can provide only reasonable assurance of achieving the desired control objectives.

Within 90 days prior to the filing date of this Shareholder Report on Form N-CSR, the Registrant had carried out an evaluation, under the supervision and with the participation of the Registrant's management, including the Registrant's principal executive officer and the Registrant's principal financial officer, of the effectiveness of the design and operation of the Registrant's disclosure controls and procedures. Based on such evaluation, the Registrant's principal executive officer and principal financial officer concluded that the Registrant's disclosure controls and procedures are effective.

Edgar Filing: TEMPLETON EMERGING MARKETS INCOME FUND INC - Form N-CSR

(b) CHANGES IN INTERNAL CONTROLS. There have been no significant changes in the Registrant's internal controls or in other factors that could significantly affect the internal controls subsequent to the date of their evaluation in connection with the preparation of this Shareholder Report on Form N-CSR.
