ITEM 8.01      OTHER EVENTS.

As previously disclosed, ProQuest Company (the Company) has not yet finalized its financial restatement for fiscal years 2000 through 2005. As a result, the Company has delayed the filing of its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2005 (the 2005 Form 10-K) beyond the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) filing deadline and postponed its Annual Meeting of Stockholders, originally scheduled for June 7, 2006, and the mailing of its Proxy Statement for that meeting (the Proxy Statement). As a result of this delay, the Company has not made certain disclosures required to be made in those filings under Section 303A of the New York Stock Exchange (NYSE) Listed Company Manual as more fully discussed below. Based upon the Company's discussions with the NYSE, the NYSE has advised the Company that it could provide the required corporate governance disclosures through the filing of this Current Report on Form 8-K.

The NYSE Listed Company Manual requires NYSE-listed companies to make certain corporate governance disclosures in their annual reports on Form 10-K and proxy statements. In particular, Section 303A of the NYSE Listed Company Manual requires companies to:

- disclose the board's evaluation of each director's relationship with the company, whether the board has adopted categorical standards of independence, and its determination as to the independence of each director;
- identify the non-management director who presides at all regularly scheduled executive sessions of the non-management members of the board of directors;
- disclose a method by which interested parties may communicate directly with the presiding director or the non-management directors as a group;
- disclose the availability of such company's corporate governance guidelines, code of business conduct and ethics and charters for the board's audit, compensation and corporate governance committees on its website and in print upon stockholder request; and
- disclose that (1) such company's chief executive officer and chief financial officer have filed the certifications required by Section 302 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act with the company's most recently filed annual report on Form 10-K, and (2) such company's chief executive officer has certified to the NYSE that he is not aware of any violation of the NYSE corporate governance listing standards by the company.

The Company intends to provide these disclosures in its 2005 Form 10-K and/or Proxy Statement, to be distributed to stockholders, in substantially the form presented below. The Company is diligently working to complete its 2005 Form 10-K and Proxy Statement, and will distribute both filings to its stockholders as soon as possible. However, the Company can provide no assurances at this time as to when the distribution will take place.

Director Independence

Pursuant to NYSE corporate governance rules, the Company has adopted corporate governance standards that require that a majority of the Board of Directors qualify as independent directors. The Company's Board of Directors has also adopted the Independence Criteria for Directors, attached hereto and incorporated herein by reference as Exhibit 99.1. The Board of Directors of the Company has reviewed each of the director's relationships with the Company in accordance with the Independence Criteria for Directors and NYSE corporate governance rules, and has affirmatively determined that Messrs. David G. Brown; Michael Geltzeiler; Todd S. Nelson; William E. Oberndorf; Gary L. Roubos and Frederick Schwab and Ms. Linda G. Roberts meet the categorical standards under the Independence Criteria for Directors and the NYSE corporate governance rules. In addition, the Board of Directors considered transactions and relationships between each director and any member of his or her immediate family and the Company and subsidiaries to determine whether any such relationships or transactions were inconsistent with a determination that the director is independent. The Board has determined that Alan Aldworth, the Chief Executive Officer of the Company, Randy Best, who has received compensation from the Company as a consultant, and James P. Roemer, who has served as an executive officer of the Company, are not independent directors. Accordingly, seven of the ten members of the Board of Directors are independent.

Presiding Director for Executive Sessions

The Company's Board of Directors has designated Mr. Oberndorf as the presiding director of executive sessions of the non-management directors of the Board.

Communication with Non-Management Directors

The Company has established several means for shareholders or others to communicate their concerns to the Board of Directors. If the concern relates to the Company's financial statements, accounting practices or internal controls, the concern should be submitted in writing to the Chairman of the Audit Committee in care of the Company's Secretary at the Company's headquarters address; 789 E. Eisenhower Parkway, P.O. Box 1346, Ann Arbor, MI 48106-1346. If the concern relates to the Company's governance practices, business ethics or corporate conduct, the concern may be submitted in writing to the Chairman of the Nominating and Governance Committee in care of the Company's Secretary at the Company's headquarters address indicated above. In addition, shareholders or others may also communicate with the Board via email to board.directors@proquest.com as described on the Company's website (www.proquestcompany.com).

Corporate Governance Guidelines, Code of Business Conduct and Committee Charters

The Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines, Code of Business Conduct and charters for the Audit, Compensation and Nominating Committees are available on the Company's website at www.proquestcompany.com or a hard copy is available to any shareholder upon receipt of a request to the Company's Secretary at the Company's headquarters address; 789 E. Eisenhower Parkway, P.O. Box 1346, Ann Arbor, MI 48106-1346.

Annual CEO Certification

The certification by the Company's chief executive officer required under Section 303A.12(a) of the NYSE corporate governance rules (the Annual Written Affirmation and CEO Certification) has been submitted to the NYSE without qualifications. After taking into account the filing of the 2005 10-K and Proxy Statement, and the Company's compliance with NYSE disclosure requirements by issuing this 8-K, the Company intends to file its 2006 Annual Written Affirmation and CEO Certification, again, without qualification.

As discussed above, upon the filing of this Form 8-K, the Company will be in compliance with the NYSE corporate governance rules.
