Item 3.01 Notice of Delisting or Failure to Satisfy a Continued Listing Rule or Standard; Transfer of Listing.

On January 15, 2019, Trans World Entertainment Corporation (the “Company”) received written notice from The Nasdaq Stock Market (“Nasdaq”) that the closing bid price for its common stock had been below $1.00 for the previous 30 consecutive business days, and that the Company therefore is not in compliance with the minimum bid price requirement for continued inclusion on The Nasdaq Global Market under Nasdaq Listing Rule 5450(a)(1).

In accordance with Nasdaq Listing Rule 5810(c)(3)(A), the Company has been provided a period of 180 calendar days, or until July 15, 2019, to regain compliance. In order to regain compliance with the minimum closing bid price rule, the closing bid price of the Company’s common stock must be at least $1.00 or higher for a minimum of ten consecutive business days during the compliance period. If the Company does not regain compliance during the initial compliance period, the Company may be eligible for additional time to regain compliance. If the Company is not eligible, the Company expects that Nasdaq will provide written notice to us that the Company’s common stock will be subject to delisting.

The written notice has no immediate impact on the listing of the Company’s common stock, which will continue to trade on the Nasdaq Global Market. The Company intends to monitor its closing bid price for its common stock between now and July 15, 2019, and will consider available options to resolve the Company’s noncompliance with the minimum bid price requirement, as may be necessary.
