EXPLANATORY NOTE REGARDING EXHIBIT A

Exhibit A contains our revised audited consolidated financial statements as of and for the years ended December 31, 2008, 2007 and 2006. Our consolidated financial statements in this exhibit supersede the audited consolidated financial statements in our Annual Report on Form 20-F for the year ended December 31, 2008, filed with the SEC on June 5, 2009 (our “2008 Form 20-F”).

The revisions only impacted certain US GAAP amounts that appeared in Note 22 to the audited consolidated financial statements, and in the tables on Item 3A. Selected Financial Data of the 2008 Form 20-F. The revisions related to the required retrospective adoption of SFAS No. 160, Noncontrolling Interests in Consolidated Financial Statements, an amendment of ARB No. 51, or “SFAS No. 160”. SFAS No. 160 requires a noncontrolling interest in a subsidiary to be reported within shareholders’ equity in the consolidated financial statements separate from the parent company’s shareholders’ equity. Net income and comprehensive income are reported in the consolidated statements of income and comprehensive income at the consolidated amounts, which include the amounts attributable to the company’s shareholders and the noncontrolling interest. The requirements of SFAS No. 160 have been retrospectively applied to all periods presented as appropriate.

The revised information in Exhibit A reflects the retrospective application of SFAS No. 160 in the audited consolidated financial statements. The revisions to the financial statements presented in our 2008 Form 20-F consist of changing the presentation of noncontrolling interests in our US GAAP statements of income and our US GAAP balance sheets and conforming changes in the other US GAAP statements which appear in Note 22 to the audited consolidated financial statements. The adoption of SFAS No. 160 had no effect on our US GAAP net income attributable to controlling interests, earnings per share, cash flow or any asset or liability account, nor did it effect any amounts reported in our 2008 Form 20-F in conformity with accounting practices adopted in Brazil.

The financial statements in Exhibit A should be read in conjunction with our 2008 Form 20-F.

EXPLANATORY NOTE REGARDING EXHIBIT B

Exhibit B contains the revised tables appearing in Item 3A. Selected Financial Data of our 2008 Form 20-F. The US GAAP amounts in these tables have been revised for the retrospective application of SFAS No. 160.

These materials may contain forward-looking statements within the meaning of the “safe harbor” provisions of the Private Securities. These statements are statements that are not historical facts, and are based on management’s current view and estimates of future economic circumstances, industry conditions, company performance and financial results. The words “anticipates”, “believes”, “estimates”, “expects”, “plans” and similar expressions, as they relate to the company, are intended to identify forward-looking statements. Statements regarding the declaration or payment of dividends, the implementation of principal operating and financing strategies and capital expenditure plans, the direction of future operations and the factors or trends affecting financial condition, liquidity or results of operations are examples of forward-looking statements. Such statements reflect the current views of management and are subject to a number of risks and uncertainties. There is no guarantee that the expected events, trends or results will actually occur. The statements are based on many assumptions and factors, including general economic and market conditions, industry conditions, and operating factors. Any changes in such assumptions or factors could cause actual results to differ materially from current expectations.
