Item 5.04. Temporary Suspension of Trading Under Registrant's Employee Benefit Plans.

On April 10, 2014, Sterling Financial Corporation (the "Company") sent a notice (the "Participant Notice") to the participants in the Sterling Savings Bank Employee Savings and Investment Plan & Trust (the "Plan") informing them of a blackout period pursuant to Section 101(i)(2)(E) of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended, with respect to the Plan.

As described in the Participant Notice, in connection with the closing of the merger between the Company and Umpqua Holdings Corporation ("Umpqua"), each share of the Company's common stock ("Company Common Stock") held within the Plan will be converted into 1.671 shares of Umpqua Holdings Corporation stock and $2.18 in cash. The cash merger consideration will be reinvested in accordance with participants' investment elections under the Plan. In order to accommodate this change, a blackout period is expected to begin as of the market close (generally 4:00 p.m. Eastern time) on April 16, 2014, and is expected to be lifted on or about April 22, 2014 (the "Blackout Period"). During the Blackout Period, Plan participants will not be able to change Plan investment options or asset allocations involving, or request a loan, withdrawal or distribution from, Plan accounts that are invested in Company Common Stock.

On April 10, 2014, the Company sent a notice (the "BTR Notice") pursuant to Section 306 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 and Section 104 of Regulation BTR promulgated pursuant to the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, to its directors and executive officers informing them of the Blackout Period. During the Blackout Period, all directors and executive officers of the Company will be prohibited from, directly or indirectly, purchasing, selling or otherwise acquiring or transferring Company Common Stock (or related securities, including derivative securities) acquired in connection with employment or service as a director or executive officer of the Company.

Shareholders or other interested parties may obtain, without charge, information regarding the Blackout Period, including information as to whether the Blackout Period has begun or ended, by contacting Lara L. Hemingway, Senior Vice President and Associate General Counsel, 111 N. Wall Street, Spokane, Washington 99201, (509) 227-0967.

A copy of the BTR Notice, which includes the information specified in Rule 104(b) of Regulation BTR, is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.

Item 8.01. Other Events.

On April 1, 2014, the Company and Umpqua jointly announced that all required regulatory approvals necessary to consummate the merger of Sterling with and into Umpqua have been received. Completion of the merger remains subject to customary closing conditions. Assuming such conditions are satisfied, the merger is expected to be completed after the close of business on April 18, 2014.
