PROXY STATEMENT
FOR ANNUAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS
TO BE HELD MAY 26, 2004

This Proxy Statement is furnished in connection with the solicitation of proxies by and on behalf of the Board of Trustees of Lexington Corporate Properties Trust (the "Company") for use at the 2004 Annual Meeting of Shareholders, and at any adjournments thereof (the "Annual Meeting"), to be held on Wednesday, May 26, 2004, at the offices of Paul, Hastings, Janofsky & Walker LLP, 75 East 55th Street, New York, New York 10022 at 10:00 a.m. New York City time. This Proxy Statement and the related proxy card are first being sent to the holders (the "Shareholders") of common shares, par value $0.0001 per share (the "Common Shares") of the Company on or about April 19, 2004.

Valid proxies will be voted as specified thereon at the Annual Meeting. Any person giving a Proxy may revoke it by written notice to the Company at any time prior to its exercise. Attendance at the Annual Meeting will not constitute a revocation of a proxy unless the Shareholder affirmatively indicates at the Annual Meeting that such Shareholder intends to vote such Shareholder's shares in person.

ANNUAL REPORT

The Annual Report to Shareholders and Form 10-K of the Company for the year ended December 31, 2003, including financial statements audited by KPMG LLP, the Company's independent auditors, and their report thereon dated February 24, 2004, are being mailed together with this Proxy Statement to each Shareholder. Except as specifically incorporated herein by reference, the Annual Report is not part of the proxy solicitation material.

VOTING SECURITIES

The Shareholders of record of Common Shares of the Company at the close of business on April 12, 2004 (the "Record Date") are entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting. On the Record Date, there were outstanding 48,107,459 Common Shares, each entitled to one vote per share on all matters submitted to a vote of Shareholders.

Unless contrary instructions are indicated on the Proxy, all Common Shares represented by valid proxies received pursuant to this solicitation, unless previously revoked, will be voted at the Annual Meeting FOR the election of the nine nominees to serve as trustees until the 2005 Annual Meeting of Shareholders.

Assuming a quorum is present at the Annual Meeting, the affirmative vote of the holders of a plurality of the Common Shares cast at the Annual Meeting will be sufficient to elect each candidate for election as a trustee. Therefore, abstentions as to the election of trustees will not affect the election of the candidates receiving a plurality of the votes cast. Abstentions as to any other proposal will have the same effect as votes against such proposal. If a Shareholder is a participant in the Company's Dividend Reinvestment Plan, the proxy card enclosed herewith represents shares in the participant's account, as well as shares held of record in the participant's name as part of such plan.

The Company knows of no business, other than that set forth above, to be presented at the Annual Meeting which would be a proper subject for action by the Shareholders. If any other matter should be presented at the Annual Meeting upon which a vote properly may be taken, it is intended that any share represented by a proxy in the accompanying form will be voted with respect thereto in accordance with the judgment of the person or persons voting such shares.

SECTION 16(a) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, requires the Company's trustees and executive officers to file initial reports of ownership and reports of changes in ownership of Common Shares and other equity securities with the Securities and Exchange Commission and the New York Stock Exchange. Trustees and executive officers are required to furnish the Company with copies of all Section 16(a) forms they file. Based on a review of the copies of such reports furnished to the Company and written representations from the Company's trustees and executive officers, the Company believes that during 2003 fiscal year the Company's trustees and executive officers complied with all Section 16(a) filing requirements applicable to them, except that (i) Mr. Carroll inadvertently omitted the exercise of 3,406 non-qualified common share options from his Form 4 filed on August 20, 2003, the transaction was reported on a Form 4/A filed on March 22, 2004; and (ii) Mr. Glickman inadvertently omitted the acquisition of 244 common shares from his Form 4 filed on August 20, 2003, this transaction was reported on a Form 4/A filed on November 21, 2003. Additionally, Mr. Wood inadvertently omitted the disposition of 1,217 common shares in connection with an option exercise on July 29, 2002. As a result, the amount of securities beneficially owned as set forth in Table I was incorrect for his Form 4 filed on each of July 29, 2002, January 7, 2003, February 4, 2003, March 7, 2003, September 22, 2003, February 12, 2004 and March 26, 2004. This discrepancy was corrected in a Form 4/A filed on March 30, 2004.

MANAGEMENT

BOARD OF TRUSTEES AND COMMITTEES OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

The Board of Trustees of the Company held nineteen meetings during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2003. Each incumbent trustee attended at least 75% of the aggregate of the total number of meetings of the Board of Trustees and all committees on which he served. The Board of Trustees is comprised of nine trustees, a majority of whom are "independent" as defined by the applicable listing standards of the New York Stock Exchange. The Board of Trustees has four standing committees: the Audit Committee, the Compensation Committee, the Nominating and Governance Committee and the Executive Committee.

Audit Committee. The principal functions of the Audit Committee include engaging the independent public accountants, reviewing with the independent public accountants plans and results of the audit engagement, approving professional services provided by the independent public accountants, reviewing the independence of the independent public accountants, considering the range of the audit, and reviewing the adequacy of the Company's internal accounting controls. As of December 31, 2003, the Audit Committee was comprised of Messrs. Dohrmann, Lynch and Perla, all of whom were determined by the Board of Trustees to be "independent" as defined in Section 10A of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and the applicable listing standards of the New York Stock Exchange. Mr. Perla is an "Audit Committee Financial Expert," as determined by the Board of Trustees in accordance with Item 401(f) of Regulation S-K. The Audit Committee operates under a written charter adopted by the Board of Trustees, a copy of which is available on the Company's Internet address located at <http://www.lxp.com>, under "Company Profile/ Corporate Governance." Such document is not deemed incorporated by reference into this Proxy Statement. During the fiscal year ended December 31, 2003, the Audit Committee met four times, including quarterly telephonic meetings with management and the independent accountants, to discuss matters concerning, among other matters, financial accounting matters and the audit of the Company's consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2003.

Compensation Committee. The principal functions of the Compensation Committee are to determine the compensation for the Company's executive officers and to administer and review the Company's incentive compensation plans. The Compensation Committee operates under a written charter adopted by the Board of Trustees, a copy of which is available on the Company's Internet address located at <http://www.lxp.com>, under "Company Profile/Corporate Governance." Such document is not deemed incorporated by reference into this Proxy Statement. As of December 31, 2003, the Compensation Committee was comprised of Messrs. Dohrmann, Grosfeld, Lynch and Perla, all of whom are "independent" as defined by the applicable listing standards of the New York Stock Exchange. The principal function of the Nominating and Governance Committee is to identify individuals qualified to become trustees and/or executive officers, monitor corporate governance guidelines, lead the annual review of the Board and make recommendations for service on all other committees. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee operates under a written charter adopted by the Board of Trustees, a copy of which is available on the Company's Internet address located at <http://www.lxp.com>, under "Company Profile/Corporate Governance." Such document is not deemed incorporated by reference into this Proxy Statement. As of December 31, 2003, the Nominating and Governance Committee was comprised of Messrs. Dohrmann and Glickman, each of whom are "independent" as defined by the applicable listing standards of the New York Stock Exchange. The Nominating and Governance Committee met four times during 2003. The Nominating and Governance Committee does not currently intend to consider trustee nominations by Shareholders.

The Board of Trustees and the Nominating and Governance Committee believes that such Committee is qualified and in the best position to identify, review, evaluate and select qualified Board of Trustees candidates based on the criteria described in the next paragraph.

In recommending candidates for the Board of Trustees, the Nominating and Governance Committee's assessment includes consideration of issues of judgment, diversity, age, expertise and experience. The Nominating and Governance Committee also considers other relevant factors as it deems appropriate, including the current composition of the Board of Trustees, the balance of management and independent trustees, and the evaluations of other prospective candidates. After completing this evaluation and review, the Nominating and Governance Committee makes a recommendation to the full Board of Trustees as to the persons who should be nominated by the Board of Trustees, and the Board of Trustees determines the nominees after considering the recommendation and report of the Nominating and Governance Committee.

The Company expects all trustees to attend each Annual Meeting of Shareholders, but from time to time other commitments prevent all trustees from attending each meeting. All trustees that were trustees at such time attended the most recent annual general meeting of shareholders, which was held on May 21, 2003.

SHAREHOLDER COMMUNICATIONS

Shareholders wishing to communicate with the Board of Trustees should address their inquiries to the Company's Chief Financial Officer by mail sent to the Company's principal executive office located at One Penn Plaza, Suite 4015, New York, New York, 10119. Pursuant to these agreements, the Company agrees to indemnify each trustee and executive officer who is a party to such an agreement against any and all judgments, penalties, fines, settlements and reasonable expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually incurred by the trustee or executive officer of the Company or in a similar capacity for any other entity at the Company's request. Edgar Filing: LEXINGTON CORPORATE PROPERTIES TRUST - Form DEF 14A

Each non-employee trustee receives an annual fee of $25,000 for service as a trustee. Such trustees currently also receive $1,000 for each meeting of the Board of Trustees or any committee thereof attended by the trustee and reimbursement for expenses incurred in attending such meetings, and $500 for telephonic meetings of the Board of Trustees. In addition, the chairpersons of the Audit Committee and Compensation Committee and the Lead Trustee receive an additional $7,500 per annum. Pursuant to the 1994 Outside Director Stock Plan, as amended, each non-employee trustee was required to receive not less than 50% of such trustee's fees in Common Shares based on a per share value equal to 95% of the trading value of Common Share as of the date of payment. During 2003, all trustees elected to receive 100% of their trustee fees in Common Shares. Effective January 1, 2003, all non-employee trustees received, in addition to the fees described above, 2,000 nonvested common shares.

EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENTS

The Company has entered into an employment agreement with each of Messrs. Roskind, Rouse, Eglin, Carroll and Cinnamond as well as Mr. John B. Vander Zwaag, Executive Vice President and Mr. Paul R. Wood, Vice President, Chief Accounting Officer and Secretary. Each such agreement sets forth the terms of the named officer's employment by the Company including compensation and benefits. Roskind, Rouse, Eglin, Carroll and Vander Zwaag), two times (for Mr. Cinnamond) and one time (for Mr. Wood) the officers' current annual base salary and recent annual bonus, as defined.

In addition, the Company will, at its expense, provide continued health care coverage under the Company's medical and dental plans to the officers referenced above and eligible dependents for three years for Messrs. Roskind, Rouse, Eglin, Carroll and Vander Zwaag, two years for Mr. Cinnamond and one year for Mr. Wood.

REPORT OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

The Audit Committee of the Board is responsible for providing independent, objective oversight of the Company's accounting functions and internal controls. The Audit Committee is composed of three trustees each of whom is independent as independence is defined in the New York Stock Exchange's listing rules. The Audit Committee operates under a written charter approved by the Board of Trustees, a copy of which is available on the Company's Internet address located at <http://www.lxp.com>, under "Company Profile/ Corporate Governance". Such document is not deemed incorporated by reference into this Proxy Statement. As of December 31, 2003, the Audit Committee was comprised of Messrs. Dohrmann, Lynch and Perla.

10

Management is responsible for the Company's internal controls and financial reporting process. The independent accountants are responsible for performing an independent audit of the Company's consolidated financial statements in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America, and to issue a report thereon. The Audit Committee's responsibility is to monitor and oversee these processes.

In connection with these responsibilities, the Audit Committee met with management and the independent accountants to review and discuss the December 31, 2003 audited consolidated financial statements. The Audit Committee has discussed with the independent accountants the matters required to be discussed by Statement of Auditing Standards No. 61. The Audit Committee also received written disclosures and the letter from the independent accountants required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 (Independence Discussions with Audit Committees), and the Audit Committee discussed with the independent accountants that firm's independence.

Based upon the Audit Committee's discussions of the foregoing with management and the independent accountants, and the Audit Committee's review of the representations of management, the Audit Committee recommended that the Board of Trustees include the December 31, 2003 audited consolidated financial statements in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2003, to be filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE INTERLOCKS AND INSIDER PARTICIPATION

As of December 31, 2003, the Compensation Committee consisted of Messrs. Dohrmann, Grosfeld, Lynch and Perla. None of Messrs. Dohrmann, Grosfeld, Lynch or Perla are or have been executive officers of the Company.

REPORT OF THE COMPENSATION COMMITTEE OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

For the fiscal year ended December 31, 2003, all matters concerning executive compensation for the Chief Executive Officer and other executive officers were considered and acted upon by the Compensation Committee of the Board of Trustees.

Compensation Philosophy. The Company's compensation program for executive officers is based upon a desire to achieve both its short-term and long-term business goals and strategies with a view to enhancing shareholder value. To achieve its goals, the Company recognizes that it must adopt a compensation program which will attract, retain and motivate qualified and experienced executive officers, and that its compensation program should align the financial interests of its executive officers with those of its Shareholders.

Compensation of Executive Officers (other than the Chief Executive Officer). In approving the annual salary for the executive officers of the Company (other than the Chief Executive Officer) for 2003, the Compensation Committee considered several factors, including the scope of the individual's responsibilities, competitive payment practices, the historical financial results of the Company and the anticipated financial performance of the Company. The compensation determination for each individual was largely subjective and no specific weight was given to any particular factor. In addition to their base salaries, these executive officers of the Company receive discretionary bonuses tied to the overall performance of the Company and their individual performances. In this regard, the Compensation Committee established specific performance goals for the payment of discretionary bonuses which are based on the per share growth in cash available for distributions and total annual Shareholder return, and also considered the results of a compensation study prepared for the Company by an independent outside compensation consulting firm (as described further below).

Compensation of Chief Executive Officer. As with the other executive officers, the Compensation Committee determined the annual salary for the Chief Executive Officer based upon a number of factors and criteria, including the historical financial results of the Company, the anticipated financial performance of the Company and the requirements of such Chief Executive Officer. The compensation determination for the Chief Executive Officer was largely subjective, and no specific weight was given to any particular factor. The Chief Executive Officer of the Company is also eligible to receive discretionary bonuses tied to the overall performance of the Company and his individual performance. The Compensation Committee has established specific performance goals for the payment of discretionary bonuses which are the same as for the other executive officers of the Company, and also considered the results of a compensation study prepared for the Company by an independent outside compensation consulting firm (as described further below).

1998 Share Option Plan and 2002 Equity-Based Award Plan. The Company had traditionally provided its executive officers with the opportunity to acquire significant equity stakes in its growth and prosperity through the grant of Common Share options. Based in part on the results of a compensation study prepared for the Company by an independent outside compensation consulting firm, the Compensation Committee determined that it is in the Company's best interest to cease granting options to its executive officers under its existing plans (the 1998 Share Option Plan and the 2002 Equity-Based Award Plan) effective January 1, 2003. However, other forms of compensation, including Common Share awards which are subject to a vesting schedule, may be and have been granted to the Company's executive officers under the 2002 Equity-Based Award Plan and the 1998 Share Option Plan.

Compensation Study. In 2003, the Compensation Committee retained the services of an independent outside compensation consulting firm to review the Company's existing executive compensation program and to develop recommendations for bonuses in respect of 2003 and salary and bonus programs for 2004.

With regard to fees, annually, the independent auditor provides the Audit Committee with an engagement letter outlining the scope of the audit services proposed to be performed during the fiscal year. Upon the Audit Committee's acceptance of and agreement to the engagement letter, the services within the scope of the proposed audit services are deemed pre-approved pursuant to this policy.
