Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On August 10, 2006, The Hartford Financial Services Group, Inc. (the Company) entered into an Initial Remarketing Agreement (the Agreement) with Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Incorporated and Morgan Stanley & Co. Incorporated, as remarketing agents (the Remarketing Agents), and JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., as purchase contract agent and attorney-in-fact of the holders of equity units, relating to the Company s 4.1% senior notes due November 16, 2008 (the Senior Notes), originally issued as part of equity units issued by the Company in September 2002. The Agreement was entered into in connection with the remarketing of, and the reset of the interest rate on, the Senior Notes by the Remarketing Agents as required under the terms of the equity units.

The Agreement provides, among other things, that the Remarketing Agents agree to use their reasonable efforts to remarket the Senior Notes tendered or deemed tendered to the Remarketing Agents at a price equal to approximately 100.50% of the purchase price of a specified portfolio of U.S. Treasury securities to be substituted for the Senior Notes as a component of the equity units (the Treasury Portfolio Purchase Price). For this service, and for other services rendered in connection with the remarketing, the Remarketing Agents are entitled to a remarketing fee which will be equal to the lesser of 0.25% of the Treasury Portfolio Purchase Price and the amount of the proceeds of the remarketing in excess of the Treasury Portfolio Purchase Price. The Company will not receive any proceeds from the remarketing of the Senior Notes. The Agreement includes customary representations, warranties and covenants by the Company. It also provides that the Company will indemnify the Remarketing Agents against certain liabilities, including liabilities under the Securities Act of 1933, arising out of or in connection with the Remarketing Agents duties under the Agreement, and contribute to payments the Remarketing Agents may be required to make in respect of those liabilities.

Certain of the Remarketing Agents and their respective affiliates have, from time to time, performed, and may in the future perform, various financial advisory and investment banking services for the Company or its subsidiaries, for which they received or will receive customary fees and expenses.

The foregoing description of the material terms of the Agreement is qualified by reference to the Agreement, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1.
