Dear Caremark Stockholder:

As you know, Caremark's March 16th special meeting of stockholders to vote on the CVS merger proposal is fast approaching. Given the importance of the vote, it is logical that the Caremark Board of Directors should be doing everything in its power to ensure that its stockholders have the opportunity to receive the highest value for their shares. Instead, the Caremark Board continues to ignore the Express Scripts offer—one that is strategically and financially superior to the proposed acquisition of Caremark by CVS.

By voting AGAINST the CVS merger proposal you can send a message to the Caremark Board that it is time to level the playing field, sit down with Express Scripts and ensure that you, as a Caremark stockholder, realize maximum value for your Caremark shares. We and our advisors remain ready to meet with Caremark and its advisors to discuss our offer and to begin confirmatory due diligence immediately, a process that, with Caremark's cooperation, we should be able to complete very quickly. As we have informed the Caremark directors, if we were able to identify additional value during due diligence, including if we determine that there are greater net synergies beyond what we have reflected in our analysis thus far, it could result in an increase to our offer price. By repeatedly refusing to engage in a conversation with Express Scripts, it is clear to us that the Caremark Board has not acted in your best interests.

PROTECT YOUR RIGHT TO RECEIVE SUPERIOR VALUE FOR YOUR CAREMARK SHARES

VOTE AGAINST THE PROPOSED CVS MERGER

We firmly believe that you will see greater benefits through a combination with Express Scripts—a combination that is predicated on a model with a proven strategic rationale. Horizontal PBM transactions, like the proposed Express Scripts-Caremark combination, result in value creation on average of 89%. By contrast, vertical integrations involving a PBM have historically resulted in value destruction on average of 36%.

Our offer provides you with superior currency ownership in a high growth Express Scripts stock while the CVS proposal offers you currency in a lower growth stock. Express Scripts has significantly outperformed CVS over the last 10 years, with total stockholder returns of 1531% to 315%, respectively. In addition, Express Scripts is offering you greater certainty of value provided by the significantly greater cash portion of our offer as compared to the CVS proposal. In addition, we have recently announced that we have increased our offer to include a cash ticking fee which is intended to compensate Caremark stockholders for any additional time it takes for Express Scripts to obtain regulatory approval for the transaction.

We are confident that an Express Scripts-Caremark combination will deliver superior value to the companies' respective stockholders, plan sponsors and patients. We remain committed to effecting a combination of Express Scripts and Caremark and we also remain steadfast that we can close the transaction no later than the third quarter of 2007.

For more information on our offer, please refer to the Express Scripts prospectus/offer to purchase filed on Form S-4 with the Securities and Exchange Commission and a brief summary of our offer in the attached proxy supplement. If you would like to obtain free of charge copies of our prospectus/offer to exchange, the definitive proxy statement to which this supplement relates or any other related document filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission, please refer to the attached proxy supplement in which we have provided instructions as to how you may do so.

As a Caremark stockholder, we remind you that your vote is important, no matter how many, or how few, shares you own. Send a clear message to Caremark's Board that as an owner of the Company you demand that they act in your best interest.

Please note that enclosed is a duplicate GOLD Proxy Card; however the GOLD Proxy Cards that accompanied our original proxy statement AGAINST the Caremark Board's proposal to adopt the plan of merger and our other mailings will remain valid.

We urge you to VOTE the GOLD Proxy Card TODAY AGAINST the Caremark Board's proposal to adopt the plan of merger with CVS.

Sincerely,

George Paz
President, Chief Executive Officer
and Chairman of the Board

SUPPLEMENT TO PROXY STATEMENT OF
EXPRESS SCRIPTS, INC.
AND KEW CORP.

SOLICITATION OF PROXIES IN OPPOSITION TO THE PROPOSED MERGER OF CAREMARK RX, INC. AND CVS CORPORATION

This is a supplement to the proxy statement of Express Scripts, Inc., a Delaware corporation (Express Scripts), and KEW Corp., a Delaware corporation and wholly-owned subsidiary of Express Scripts (KEW) (for convenience purposes, throughout this supplement, we sometimes refer to Express Scripts singularly as the party soliciting proxies in connection herewith). Express Scripts is furnishing this supplement and the enclosed GOLD proxy card in connection with Express Scripts solicitation of proxies to be used at a special meeting (the Special Meeting) of stockholders of Caremark Rx, Inc., a Delaware corporation (Caremark), which is currently scheduled to be held on March 16, 2007 at 8:30 a.m., Central Time, at the offices of Waller Lansden Dortch & Davis, located at Nashville City Center, 511 Union Street, Suite 2700, Nashville, Tennessee 37219, and at any adjournments, postponements or reschedulings thereof. This supplement and the enclosed GOLD proxy card are first being mailed to Caremark s stockholders on or about March 10, 2007.

Express Scripts is soliciting proxies from holders of shares of common stock, par value $0.001 per share (the Shares), of Caremark to vote AGAINST the proposal to adopt the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of November 1, 2006, as amended by Amendment No. 1 to the Agreement and Plan of Merger dated January 16, 2007, among CVS Corporation (CVS), Caremark and Twain MergerSub Corp. (as the same may be amended, the CVS Merger Agreement) and to approve the merger of Caremark with and into Twain MergerSub LLC, a wholly-owned subsidiary of CVS that was formed for the purpose of the merger, with Twain MergerSub LLC surviving the merger and remaining a wholly-owned subsidiary of CVS (the Proposed CVS Merger).

On January 16, 2007, we commenced an exchange offer for all of the outstanding Shares (the Offer). This supplement describes certain amendments to the offer made since we mailed our original proxy statement on January 24, 2007 and updates the background events relating to our solicitation as well as information regarding the Proposed CVS Merger.

Enclosed is a duplicate GOLD proxy card for the Special Meeting. The GOLD proxy card that accompanied our original proxy statement dated January 24, 2007 and other mailings will remain valid. If you already returned a validly executed proxy card, your votes will be recorded unless you submit a subsequent proxy or you otherwise revoke your prior proxy. If you have not voted or wish to change your vote, please mark, date and execute the enclosed GOLD proxy card and mail it promptly in the enclosed envelope.

We recognize that time is short before the upcoming Special Meeting and if you have not yet voted or wish to change your vote, we urge you to vote by phone or through the internet as directed on the GOLD proxy card.

Except as described in this supplement, the information we provided in our proxy statement previously mailed to you continues to apply, and this supplement should be read in conjunction with the original proxy statement. To the extent information in this supplement differs from, updates or conflicts with information in the original proxy statement, the information in this supplement is more current. If you need another copy of the original proxy statement, please contact our proxy solicitor, Mackenzie Partners, Inc., 105 Madison Avenue, New York, New York 10016, at (800) 322-2885 or by email at expresscripts@mackenziepartners.com.

AMENDMENTS TO EXPRESS SCRIPTS OFFER

On March 7, 2007, Express Scripts announced that it was amending the Offer to increase the amount of cash to be paid to Caremark stockholders. As a result, Caremark stockholders who properly tender Shares in the offer and whose Shares are accepted for exchange and exchanged in the Offer will receive:

$29.25 in cash, less any applicable withholding taxes and without interest;

0.426 shares of Express Scripts common stock; and an additional $0.00481 in cash per day, less any applicable withholding taxes and without interest, commencing on April 1, 2007 until the earlier of (A) the Express Scripts acceptance for exchange of shares of Caremark common stock in the exchange offer or (B) forty-five (45) days following the later of (i) expiration of the applicable waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended (the HSR Act), or (ii) if applicable, termination or expiration of any agreement with the Federal Trade Commission (the FTC) not to accept Shares for exchange in the Offer.

The last day the additional cash consideration will accrue on the Shares will (1) in the case of clause (B), include the forty-fifth (45th) day following the date of such applicable expiration or termination and (2) in the case of clause (A), will include the expiration date. The additional cash consideration is conditioned upon acceptance of Shares for exchange in the Offer and will be paid at the same time as the other consideration paid in the Offer. Express Scripts intends promptly to amend the Registration Statement and to mail an amended and restated prospectus/offer to exchange to Caremark stockholders reflecting the revised terms of the Offer.

The Offer is currently scheduled to expire at 12:00 midnight on March 16, 2007. Express Scripts intends to extend the expiration date of the Offer to allow for a period of at least ten business days following mailing of the amended and restated prospectus/offer to exchange to Caremark stockholders.

UPDATE TO BACKGROUND OF THE SOLICITATION

On January 24, 2007, Caremark filed a Solicitation/Recommendation Statement on Schedule 14D-9 reporting that Caremark's board had met on January 24, 2007 and determined to unanimously recommend that Caremark stockholders reject the Offer and not tender Shares to us.

On January 26, 2007, Caremark filed an amended Solicitation/Recommendation Statement on Schedule 14D-9.

On January 31, 2007, Express Scripts announced that it intended voluntarily to withdraw, and on February 2, 2007 it voluntarily withdrew, the required notification and report form with respect to the offer and second-step merger filed with the FTC and Antitrust Division of the Department of Justice (the Antitrust Division).

On February 6, 2007, Express Scripts re-filed the required notification and report form with the FTC and Antitrust Division.

On the afternoon of February 9, 2006, Express Scripts delivered the following letter to Caremark's board:

February 9, 2007

Board of Directors
Caremark Rx, Inc.

211 Commerce Street, Suite 800
Nashville, Tennessee 37201

Ladies and Gentlemen:

Since our initial proposal to you more than seven weeks ago, setting out the terms of our proposed acquisition of Caremark Rx, Inc., Caremark stockholders and the marketplace as a whole have demonstrated their strong support for our offer. It clearly provides Caremark stockholders with superior value to the proposed acquisition of Caremark by CVS Corporation.

S-3

We feel that it is time to sit down and discuss our superior proposal to acquire Caremark. We are ready, willing and able to commence confirmatory due diligence immediately, and with your cooperation should be able to complete the process in a few weeks. It is time to level the playing field and negotiate a transaction that would create superior value and benefits for our respective stockholders, plan sponsors and patients.

Over the past weeks, we have had the opportunity to meet with many of your stockholders across the country as we explained the benefits of an Express Scripts/Caremark combination to stockholders, plan sponsors and patients. We have also met with many of our stockholders. The consensus has been clear Caremark and Express Scripts stockholders have clearly stated their desire to see Caremark and Express Scripts sit down at the table and talk.

In light of this, it is not too late to begin discussions regarding our offer, nor is it necessary to bring the CVS proposal to a vote of your stockholders on February 20th 2007. We do not believe that rushing your stockholders to a vote on such an important question is in the best interests of your Board or your stockholders. In any case, we strongly believe that there will be only one result at this meeting the rejection of the CVS transaction by Caremark's stockholders.

Let me reiterate that we and our advisors are ready to meet with you and your advisors at any time to discuss our offer and to answer any questions you or they may have. We look forward to hearing from you so that we can promptly begin working together to bring about the best outcome for our respective stockholders.

Sincerely,

/s/ George Paz

George Paz

President, Chief Executive Officer
and Chairman of the Board

On February 9, 2007 and February 12, 2007, four investment advisory groups, including Institutional Shareholder Services and CtW Investment Group, recommended that Caremark stockholders vote against the Proposed CVS Merger.

On February 12, 2007, Caremark filed a current report on Form 8-K providing an update and supplemental disclosures to the CVS/Caremark S-4. Many of the disclosures in Caremark's Form 8-K related to events and matters existing or known on January 18, 2007, the day CVS and Caremark mailed the joint proxy/prospectus contained within the CVS/Caremark S-4 to their respective stockholders.

On February 13, 2007, Express Scripts extended the expiration date of the Offer to March 16, 2007.

On February 13, 2007, CVS and Caremark issued a joint press release announcing that they had increased the special one time cash dividend payable to Caremark stockholders following the consummation of the Proposed CVS Merger by $4.00 to $6.00 per Share.

Also on February 13, 2007, the Delaware Court of Chancery issued an order enjoining any stockholder vote concerning a merger between Caremark and any other party until at least March 9, 2007 because of the materiality of the disclosures made by Caremark in its February 12, 2007 Form 8-K and the fact that timing of these disclosures was precariously close to Caremark stockholders' scheduled vote on the Proposed CVS Merger. Following this ruling, Caremark and CVS each put out press releases announcing that they would be postponing their respective meetings to approve the Proposed CVS Merger and would inform stockholders as promptly as possible regarding the new date for each meeting.

On February 23, 2007, the Delaware Court of Chancery issued an order enjoining the Caremark stockholder meeting for at least twenty days following Caremark's delivery to the Caremark stockholders of proper disclosure regarding their right to seek appraisal in the Proposed CVS Merger and the structure of the contingent fees payable to Caremark's investment bankers. The Court of Chancery declined, in the context of a motion for preliminary injunction, to address the merits of the $675 million termination fee and other deal protection provisions contained in the CVS Merger Agreement on the grounds that the availability of both a fully informed stockholder vote and appraisal rights served as a basis of protection for stockholders, but noted that the availability of appraisal rights would not excuse any violations of fiduciary duties under Delaware law.

On February 24, 2007, Caremark mailed a proxy supplement to its stockholders which contained supplemental disclosures regarding the contingent fees payable to its investment bankers and its stockholders' right to appraisal under Delaware law in connection with the Proposed CVS Merger. The proxy supplement also gave notice that Caremark would hold its special meeting of stockholders to vote on the Proposed CVS Merger on March 16, 2007.

On February 26, 2007, CVS issued a press release announcing that, on February 23, 2007, it had adjourned its special meeting of stockholders to approve the Proposed CVS Merger to March 9, 2007. CVS also stated that it intended to re-adjourn the meeting to a later date in March and would inform stockholders of the new meeting date as promptly as possible.

On February 28, 2007, Express Scripts sent a letter to the Delaware Court of Chancery to bring to the Court's attention various alleged violations by Caremark of the injunction order entered on February 23, 2007. Following a conference with the Court on March 1, 2007, Express Scripts filed a motion with the Court to enforce the injunction ordered on February 23, 2007. Among other things, Express Scripts sought an order from the Delaware Court of Chancery enforcing its order that Caremark not hold its special meeting of stockholders to approve the proposed CVS merger for at least twenty days after Caremark provides its stockholders with corrected and proper disclosures because Caremark had not properly cured the disclosure deficiencies identified by the Court.

Also on February 28, 2007, Express Scripts filed an application for leave to pursue an interlocutory appeal with the Delaware Court of Chancery with regard to the decision rendered by the Court on February 23, 2007. On March 1, 2007, Express Scripts filed a motion for injunction of the Caremark stockholders meeting pending decision on its application to pursue an interlocutory appeal.

On March 6, 2007, certain Caremark stockholders filed a motion in the Delaware Court of Chancery requesting that the Special Meeting scheduled for March 16, 2007 be delayed and that Caremark be held in contempt of the Court's February 23, 2007 order.

On March 7, 2007, the Court of Chancery denied Express Scripts' motion for leave to pursue an interlocutory appeal and for an injunction pending such appeal, as well as Express Scripts' March 1, 2007 motion to enforce the injunction ordered on February 23, 2007. The Court also denied the motion for contempt filed by the other Caremark stockholder plaintiffs.

Later in the afternoon on March 7, 2007, prior to the expiration of the waiting period under the HSR Act, Express Scripts announced that it expected that it would receive a request for additional information, commonly referred to as a second request, from the FTC and that it was amending the Offer to increase the amount of cash to be paid to Caremark stockholders whose shares are accepted for exchange in the Offer. Immediately prior to its announcement, Express Scripts delivered the following letter to the Caremark's board:

March 7, 2007

Board of Directors
Caremark Rx, Inc.
211 Commerce Street, Suite 800
Nashville, Tennessee 37201

Ladies and Gentlemen:

We remain committed to effecting a combination of our respective businesses, and we remain steadfast that we can close the transaction no later than the third quarter of 2007. In this regard, our board of directors has authorized an increase to the cash portion of our offer of an additional $0.00481 in cash per day. This represents an increase to our offer of approximately 6% per annum on the $29.25 cash portion of our offer. This increased cash consideration will accrue commencing on April 1, 2007 through the closing of the acquisition of Caremark by Express Scripts, or 45 days after Express Scripts receives

Federal Trade Commission approval of the transaction, whichever comes first. This additional cash consideration will be paid to Caremark stockholders upon the acquisition of Caremark.

In light of the observations made by the Delaware Court of Chancery regarding Caremark's process, we continue to believe that it is time, for the sake of your stockholders, that we sit down and talk. It is time that you acknowledge the undeniable merits of a horizontal PBM transaction. This course is in the best interests of your stockholders. We also firmly believe that our respective stockholders, the market and plan sponsors and patients want to see us talking and moving forward as a combined stand-alone PBM.

As I have said before, we and our advisors are ready to meet with you and your advisors to discuss our offer and to begin confirmatory due diligence immediately, a process that, with your cooperation, we should be able to complete very quickly. In this regard, we remain willing to sign a confidentiality agreement and, concurrently with the due diligence process, negotiate a merger agreement with you. I also want to be clear that if we were able to identify additional value during due diligence, including if we determine that there are greater net synergies beyond what we have reflected in our analysis thus far, it could result in an increase to our offer price.

It has been and remains an unwavering truth that the Express Scripts offer is in the best interests of Caremark stockholders - it offers them better value and is predicated on a model with proven strategic rationale. We have repeatedly cited stockholder affirmation of our position, and indeed, the market has consistently valued our offer higher than the CVS offer.

The future of our combined companies would be bright and our respective stockholders, plan sponsors and patients would thank us for the value we would create and the benefits we would offer.

Sincerely,

/s/ George Paz

On March 8, 2007, CVS issued a press release announcing that CVS and Caremark had agreed to increase the special one time cash dividend payable to Caremark stockholders following the consummation of the Proposed CVS Merger to $7.50 per Share. CVS also announced its intention to commence a cash tender offer for 150 million of its shares of common stock at a price of $35 per share following successful consummation of the Proposed CVS Merger.

Also on March 8, 2007, Express Scripts received a second request from the FTC.

OTHER DEVELOPMENTS

Antitrust Matters

On March 7, 2007, prior to the expiration of the waiting period under the HSR Act, Express Scripts announced that it expected that it would receive a request for additional information, commonly referred to as a second request, from the FTC. On March 8, 2007, Express Scripts received a second request from the FTC.

Delaware Litigation

On February 23, 2006, the Delaware Court of Chancery issued an opinion ruling that Caremark stockholders were entitled to appraisal pursuant to Section 262 of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware. In connection with its ruling, the Court enjoined any vote of Caremark stockholders with respect to the Proposed CVS Merger for at least twenty days after Caremark properly disclosed to Caremark stockholders (a) their right to seek appraisal under Delaware law and (b) the structure of the contingent fees paid to Caremark's investment bankers. The Court declined, in the context of a motion for preliminary injunction, to invalidate any of the deal protection provisions contained in the Caremark/CVS merger agreement and did not issue a broader preliminary injunction delaying the meeting of Caremark stockholders altogether.

Following Caremark's mailing of limited supplemental disclosures to its stockholders on February 24, 2007, on February 28, 2007, Express Scripts sent a letter to the Delaware Court of Chancery to bring to the Court's attention various alleged violations by Caremark of the injunction order entered on February 23, 2007. Following a conference with the Court on March 1, 2007, Express Scripts filed a motion with the Court to enforce the injunction ordered on February 23, 2007. Among other things, Express Scripts sought an order from the Delaware Court of Chancery enforcing its order that Caremark not hold its special meeting of stockholders to approve the Proposed CVS Merger for at least twenty days after Caremark provides its stockholders with corrected and proper disclosures.

Also on February 28, 2007, Express Scripts filed an application for leave to pursue an interlocutory appeal with the Delaware Court of Chancery with regard to the decision rendered by the Court on February 23, 2007. On March 1, 2007, Express Scripts filed a motion for injunction of the Caremark stockholders meeting pending decision on its application to pursue an interlocutory appeal.

On March 6, 2007, certain Caremark stockholders filed a motion in the Delaware Court of Chancery requesting that the Special Meeting scheduled for March 16, 2007 be delayed and that Caremark be held in contempt of the Court's February 23, 2007 order.

On March 7, 2007, the Court of Chancery denied Express Scripts' motion for leave to pursue an interlocutory appeal and for an injunction pending such appeal, as well as Express Scripts' March 1, 2007 motion to enforce the injunction ordered on February 23, 2007. The Court also denied the motion for contempt filed by the other Caremark stockholder plaintiffs.

Tennessee Litigation

Several state court and federal court actions are pending in Tennessee against Caremark and its directors alleging improprieties arising from the Proposed CVS Merger. Those actions have, in general, been stayed by those Tennessee courts in deference to the pending action before the Delaware Court of Chancery wherein similar allegations are being made.

There is an additional consolidated class action pending in the Tennessee State Circuit Court in which the plaintiffs are alleging wrongful backdating of stock options by Caremark officers and directors, said action seeking to impose personal liability upon those officers and directors for damages arising from the alleged backdating activity. In that action, In re: Caremark Rx, Inc. Stock Option Litigation, amended pleadings have been filed. On February 23, 2007, the Tennessee State Circuit Court ordered that the parties preserve all documents and information and that all matters be held in abeyance until further report from the parties concerning coordination with other similar lawsuits. Such report is scheduled for March 12, 2007. In a similar action in the United States District Court for the Middle District of Tennessee, In Re: Caremark Rx, Inc. Derivative Litigation, on March 5, 2007, the District Court entered orders of dismissal without prejudice after the plaintiffs in that case acknowledged that the Tennessee State Circuit Court action protected their interests.

AMENDMENTS TO THE PROPOSED CVS MERGER

On February 13, 2007, CVS and Caremark issued a joint press release announcing that they had increased the special one time cash dividend payable to Caremark stockholders following the consummation of the Proposed CVS Merger by $4.00 to $6.00 per Share. On March 8, 2007, CVS issued a press release announcing that CVS and Caremark had agreed to increase the special one time cash dividend payable to Caremark stockholders following the consummation of the Proposed CVS Merger to $7.50 per Share. Therefore, if the Proposed CVS Merger were to be consummated, Caremark stockholders would be entitled to receive 1.670 shares of CVS common stock and a $7.50 special cash dividend payable after the consummation of the Proposed CVS Merger. Also on March 8, 2007, CVS announced its intention to commence a cash tender offer for 150 million of its shares of common stock at a price of $35 per share following successful consummation of the Proposed CVS Merger.

Additionally, on February 23, 2007, the Delaware Court of Chancery issued a ruling that Caremark stockholders were entitled to appraisal for their Shares in connection with the Proposed CVS Merger pursuant to Section 262 of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware. Caremark mailed a proxy supplement to Caremark stockholders on February 24, 2007 which notified Caremark stockholders of the Court's ruling regarding appraisal rights.

OTHER PROPOSALS

In addition to soliciting proxies to approve the Proposed CVS Merger, Caremark's Board is also soliciting proxies for the Special Meeting for a proposal to approve any adjournment or postponement of the Special Meeting, including, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies in favor of the adoption of the CVS Merger Agreement and the approval of the Proposed CVS Merger if there are not sufficient votes for that proposal (the Adjournment Proposal). Because the Adjournment Proposal is designed to facilitate the approval of the Proposed CVS Merger, Express Scripts recommends voting AGAINST the Adjournment Proposal in addition to voting AGAINST the Proposed CVS Merger.

YOU CAN CAST YOUR VOTE WITH RESPECT TO ALL PROPOSALS TO BE CONSIDERED AT THE SPECIAL MEETING ON OUR GOLD PROXY CARD. THEREFORE, THERE IS NO NEED TO VOTE ON CAREMARK'S PROXY CARD.

Other than as set forth above, Express Scripts is not currently aware of any other proposals to be brought before the Special Meeting. Should other proposals be brought before the Special Meeting, the persons named on the GOLD proxy card will abstain from voting on such proposals unless such proposals adversely affect the interests of Express Scripts as determined by Express Scripts in its sole discretion, in which event such persons will vote on such proposals in their discretion.
