This Free Writing Prospectus sets forth certain changes to the Preliminary Prospectus Supplement to reflect a decision, dated July 12, 2007, of the Constitutional Court of Colombia regarding the continuation of the criminal investigation against some officers of Bancolombia. The information in this Free Writing Prospectus supersedes the information in the Preliminary Prospectus Supplement to the extent such information is inconsistent.

The Preliminary Prospectus Supplement is revised to reflect the following information where applicable:

Addition to the Summary Recent Developments

On July 12, 2007, the Constitutional Court of Colombia (Sala Plena) upheld decision No. 171 dated March 7, 2006 of one of its Revision Divisions (Sala de Revisión), which ordered the reopening of the criminal investigation against our President and one of our Vice-Presidents. As a result of the Constitutional Court's decision the criminal investigation against these officers will continue. See Risk factors Risks relating to our business The Bank and members of its senior management are defendants in several legal proceedings .

Bancolombia believes that this decision should be considered in the context of the series of legal proceedings relating to the acquisition of Banco de Colombia and the subsequent merger with Banco Industrial Colombiano. This series of legal proceedings, which has been ongoing since 1999, is described under Item 8 Financial Information Consolidated Statements and Other Financial Information Legal Proceedings in our Annual Report on Form 20-F incorporated by reference in the Preliminary Prospectus Supplement, and has not to date resulted in any significant liability for or damages payable by Bancolombia.

Bancolombia intends to continue to support the officers involved in the criminal investigation.
