Item 5.03 Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year.

On January 26, 2010, the Board of Directors of MetLife, Inc. (the Company ) adopted Amended and Restated By-Laws of the Company (the By-Laws ). The changes in the By-Laws include (i) clarifying that stockholders must provide prior notice to the Company of their intention to nominate one or more directors at an annual meeting, or to bring other business before the meeting, even if they are not asking the Company to include their proposals in the Company s proxy materials, (ii) requiring that stockholders who nominate directors, or make other proposals to be voted on by stockholders, disclose their derivative positions and other economic interests in the Company (and any other information called for by a form of questionnaire approved by the Board of Directors from time to time and posted on the Company s website) in addition to disclosing their actual beneficial ownership of Company voting stock, (iii) clarifying that, except as otherwise required by law, the Company s Certificate of Incorporation, or New York Stock Exchange rules, only the shares of Company common stock that vote on a matter will count towards determining whether a majority of stockholders had voted in favor of the matter, and (iv) making certain other clarifying and technical changes. The By-Laws became effective on January 26, 2010.

The foregoing description of the By-Laws is not complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the By-Laws, which are filed as Exhibit 3.1 hereto and incorporated herein by reference.
