MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

Dear Shareholders:

I am delighted to present this convocation notice for the general shareholders meeting for the 19th fiscal year (from April 1, 2009 to March 31, 2010).

As Japan's mobile phone market has continued to mature, based on our new action plan, "Change and Challenge," we have moved ahead with our customer-centric business transformation initiatives, undertaking various initiatives aimed for growth, including, among other things, expanding subscribers' packet usage and enriching our product lineup and rolling out new services. As a result of these endeavors, we were able to secure an increase in operating income despite a decrease in operating revenues, and acquired the largest market share of net additions for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2010.

In the fiscal year ending March 31, 2011, we will devote ourselves to advancing our customer-focused reform initiatives, with the aim of earning the No. 1 ranking in customer satisfaction. This year is positioned as a year to enter the execution phase for the realization of our goals to deliver services precisely catered to the individual lifestyle needs of each customer and provide solutions to pressing social issues. To this end, we will swiftly and steadily implement various measures to achieve an increase in packet ARPU and ensure a smooth roll-out of the LTE system.

While the environment surrounding our business is expected to remain intense, through steadfast execution of the aforesaid initiatives, we aim to create a safe and secure society where everyone can find affluence and comfort, and to become a company that contributes to the sustainable development of such a society.

As always, I ask for your continued goodwill and support.

BUSINESS REPORT

(For the fiscal year from April 1, 2009 to March 31, 2010)

Note: The term "FY2009" hereinafter refers to the fiscal year ended March 31, 2010, and other fiscal years are referred to in a corresponding manner. All non-consolidated figures regarding results of operations in this report were prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in Japan ("Japanese GAAP"), unless otherwise stated herein. Consolidated results contained herein were prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States ("U.S. GAAP"), unless otherwise noted.

1. Business Matters of the Corporate Group

(1) Main Business Segments of the Corporate Group

The main business activities of our Group are summarized in the table below.

Business Segment	Main Business Activities
Mobile phone business	Cellular (FOMA) services, cellular (mova) services, packet communications services, international services, satellite mobile communication services, and sales of handsets and equipments for each service, etc.
Miscellaneous businesses	Credit business, wireless LAN services, home shopping services and other miscellaneous businesses

(2) Developments and Results of Operations for the Corporate Group

As Japan's mobile phone market has continued to mature in line with the rise in cellular penetration rate, competition among operators remains intense in such areas as acquisition of subscribers and further improvement of service offerings.

Under these market conditions, we have moved ahead with our business transformation initiatives from a customer-centric perspective based on our new action plan, "Change and Challenge." We aim to further increase our revenues by offering a wide array of services catered to the diverse needs of customers, thereby expanding the data communications market.

During the fiscal year ended March 31, 2010, we strived to expand subscribers' packet usage through the expansion and enrichment of our video content services as well as other measures, and also accelerated the personalization of services with the launch of an upgraded behavior support services compatible with the Auto-GPS locating capability and other initiatives. In addition, we have taken various steps aimed at enhancing customer satisfaction, including the enrichment of our handset lineup, billing plans and after-sales support. As a result of these initiatives and the widespread acceptance of our new business model, our cellular churn rate has dropped even further. The number of subscriber outflows due to Mobile Number Portability* has also improved, and we acquired the largest market share of net additions for the year ended March 31, 2010.

Table of Contents

As a result, for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2010, we recognized operating revenues and operating income of ¥4,284.4 billion (a decrease of ¥163.6 billion from the prior fiscal year) and ¥834.2 billion (an increase of ¥3.3 billion from the prior fiscal year), respectively. Income before income taxes was ¥836.2 billion and net income attributable to NTT DoCoMo, Inc.  was ¥494.8 billion.

Note: Consolidated results contained herein were prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States (U.S. GAAP).

* Mobile Number Portability (MNP) allows mobile phone users to keep their current phone numbers even if they switch mobile phone operators.

 Effective April 1, 2009, we adopted the accounting pronouncement issued in December 2007 relating to noncontrolling interests in consolidated financial statements. Upon the adoption, Net income attributable to NTT DoCoMo, Inc. is presented.

Item	(Billions of yen)			Year-on-Year Change

<<Number of Subscriptions for Principal Services>>

In the fiscal year ended March 31, 2010, the number of cellular services subscriptions was 56.08 million. Of this total, the number of FOMA subscriptions accounted for approximately 95% of all cellular services subscriptions, exceeding 53.2 million subscriptions. It is planned that mova services will be terminated at the end of March, 2012, and as a result of initiatives to promote migration to FOMA services, the number of subscriptions has dropped to 2.88 million. Also, for i-mode flat-rate packet services, among other efforts, we revised the monthly fee of Pake-hodai double, which has led to a steady growth in the number of subscriptions. For i-concier services, the number of subscriptions exceeded 4.20 million, due to increased i-concier-compatible handsets, the launch of an upgraded behavior support services compatible with Auto-GPS functions and enhanced contents.

Notes:

- The number of Communication Module services subscriptions is included in the number of subscriptions to cellular services, the number of subscriptions to FOMA services, and the number of subscriptions to mova services.
- From March 3, 2008 onward, another FOMA subscription is a prerequisite for the application of 2in1 in principle, and those FOMA subscriptions are included in the number of

subscriptions.

3. The number of subscriptions to i-mode Packet Flat-Rate services is the aggregate of subscriptions to Pake-hodai double, Pake-hodai simple, Pake-hodai, and Pake-hodai full.

4. The number of i-mode service subscriptions is the aggregate of FOMA and mova i-mode subscriptions.

<<Expanded Usage of Packet Communications>>

We revised the monthly fees for Pake-hodai double, to the lowest monthly rate starting at ¥390 (including tax) so that subscribers can utilize the various contents and applications available with FOMA services with greater ease and without worrying about the charges,

To promote the use of packet communication, we enhanced the content of the docomo doga website such as BeeTV[®] through collaboration with content providers.

As we believe the PC data communication field to be a growth market, we strategically reinforced sales efforts, by introducing easy-to-use payment plans and enhancing our product lineup.

As part of our endeavor to expand our user base in the smartphone market, we revised the monthly fees for our flat-rate packet service for smartphones Biz-hodai double, to the minimum rate starting at ¥390 (including tax). Further, as of April 1, 2010, to replace our prior fee structure which differed depending on the handset owned, with a simpler and comprehensive fee structure for all, we merged Biz-hodai double with Pake-hodai double allowing subscribers using both i-mode compatible phones and smartphones not to worry about the charges.

Table of Contents

<<Enhancement of Billing Plans and Promotion of New Handset Purchase Methods>>

We launched a new payment plan Mail Tsukai-hodai, which enables users who pay an i-mode additional function usage fee to send i-mode e-mails in Japan free of charge*, regardless of the destination e-mail address or regardless of whether photos, videos or other files are attached.

For students and their families who commit to a three-year subscription, we began offering a Type Simple Student Discount basic payment plan, which has a monthly fee of ¥390 (including taxes).

We have incorporated a new business model, including new discount services and handset purchase methods. As a result, in the fiscal year ended March 31, 2010, subscriptions to new discount services such as Fami-wari MAX 50 achieved approximately 35.40 million, and Value Plan subscriptions achieved approximately 32.7 million.

* Sending and receiving e-mail overseas and using email through the mova network while using dual network services incurs a fee.

The main services that were launched in the fiscal year ended March 31, 2010 are as follows.

Service	Overview
docomo Keitai Soukin	A service that enables a customer (the sender) to transfer money to another party (the recipient) by designating the recipient's cell phone number, without the need for such procedures as opening a new account or making prior registration.
MyArea	A service that, with the installation of compact femtocell base transceiver stations* in homes and the building of dedicated home use FOMA area, provides stable and high-speed packet communication.

* A highly compact indoor base transceiver station that can cover the area where radio signals from DOCOMO's outdoor base stations have difficulty reaching.

<<Enhancement of After-Sales Services>>

Primary after-sales services began or enhanced in the fiscal year ended March 31, 2010 are as follows:

We began offering the keitai tenken service, a check-up service for handsets designed to ensure that customers can use their mobile phones which have become an indispensable tool in their daily lives without worry or trouble. An expert staff will check mobile phones for breakage and wear and tear and other places needing repair, and for any problems in communication functions, and will also clean the phones.

With Battery Pack Anshin support, which is provided to docomo Premier Club members, we enhanced services by adding the portable charger to the lineup so that customers can select either a charger adapter or a battery pack, according to their needs.

For docomo Premier Club members, we started the Receive Anywhere Service for Repaired Mobile Phone, which allows a repaired FOMA phone to be picked up at any desired docomo Shop or other location in Japan free of charge.

Further, to promptly respond to customer opinions regarding area quality, we offer a service under which, if a customer requests, we perform area quality surveys, generally within 48 hours after service staff contacts the customer making the request. As of the fiscal year ended March 31, 2010, we had made 55,000 surveys.

The number of subscriptions to the Mobile Phone Protection & Delivery Service is advancing steadily. The service offers protection against water exposure, theft, loss or other trouble, and with just a phone call subscribers can have a replacement phone sent directly to them. As of the fiscal year ended March 31, 2010, there were approximately 26 million subscriptions.

<<Strengthening of Corporate Marketing>>

We engaged in endeavors such as the following to bring new value to our customers' businesses.

For Biz-hodai double, a flat-rate packet service for smartphones, we made communication made through connections with a PCs or other external devices subject to a maximum monthly fee of ¥13,650 (including tax).

We launched the FOMA UM02-KO, a FOMA Ubiquitous Model with which customers can engage in FOMA packet communication in combination with various devices.

We have been establishing a structure that ensures contact with every customer, proposing attractive solutions, and expanding B2B2C businesses. We received the No.1 ranking in the J.D. Power Asia Pacific 2009 Japan Business Mobile Telephone/PHS Service Customer Satisfaction Index StudySM.

<<Development of International Services>>

We expanded our international roaming service areas, and as of the fiscal year ended March 31, 2010, the number of services and regions where we offer international roaming services is as follows.

Voice, short message service (SMS): 207

Packet communication services: 156

Video phone services: 50

To offer greater convenience to subscribers who use international roaming services, we launched the Overseas GPS function, which enables confirmation of a user's current position on a map, a navigation function showing the route to a destination, local information search and other functions.

We reinforced our support structure, expanding the number of overseas support desks that offer support to mobile phone users to 13 cities. These support desks offer free handset charging services and respond to inquiries regarding how to use and operate mobile handsets overseas.

<<Establishing an International Business Foundation>>

We moved forward with investments in platform companies directed towards the establishment of an international business foundation, and in the development of services in collaboration with companies we have invested in and partner corporations.

In December 2009, in order to fortify our position in the establishment of an international mobile-content distribution platform, we acquired roughly 81.45% of the outstanding common shares of net mobile AG, a German mobile content distribution platform business, for approximately ¥5.8 billion.

As part of our initiatives to develop services and contents overseas, we launched i-channel, a push-type information distribution service, through Tata Teleservices Limited (TTSL) and Tata Teleservices (Maharashtra) Limited (TTML) in India, DOCOMO PACIFIC, INC* in Guam and Saipan, and DOCOMO Europe Limited in the United Kingdom (for Japanese residents of the U.K.). We also launched a manga distribution service, through TTSL and TTML in India and Bouygues Telecom S.A. in France.

Miscellaneous Businesses

<<Promotion of the Credit Business>>

We endeavored to promote the spread of the credit brand iD, which is used with the Osaifu Keitai, and the credit service DCMX, which can be used for payment on the iD.

With regard to the mobile credit iD, we worked to increase the number of participating stores, so that customers can continue to use iD at stores that play an important role in customers' day-to-day lives. In August 2009, iD became available for use in all McDonald's shops throughout Japan. In addition, we introduced the Kazasu Coupon (contactless coupon) to improve customer convenience. As a result, the number of card readers reached 440,000 at the end of March, 2010, up 30,000 units from end of March, 2009, and the total number of iD subscribers was 14.2 million at the end of March, 2010.

By increasing the number of appointed stores where docomo Points can be earned and the number of stores in DCMX docomo Point Mall website, we promoted the use of our DCMX credit service. As a result, the total number of subscriptions to our DCMX service reached 11.26 million at the fiscal year ended March 31, 2010, up 2.27 million from the fiscal year ended March 31, 2009.

<< Others>>

We worked to increase revenues by home shopping services provided primarily through TV media, marketing mobile advertising at i-mode sites, developing and marketing various system solutions that exploit our mobile technologies and know-how and engaging in the business of high-speed Internet connection services for hotels.

2. Operating revenues for the voice mobile phone business include circuit-switching data communication.

(3) Group Capital Expenditures

Major capital investments made in the fiscal year ended March 31, 2010 are described below.

<< Investments in Telecommunication Facilities >>

We endeavored to provide fine-tuned responses to the requests of customers, and made further quality improvements to the FOMA service area.

We expanded the FOMA HIGH-SPEED Area to enable customers to use large-volume content in a comfortable communication environment, and reinforced our facilities to meet large increases in communication volumes.

As a result of these initiatives, the number of outdoor base stations for FOMA services reached 55,700, and the number of in-building transmission facilities reached 24,700; these figures represent an increase of 7,200 stations and 4,800 facilities, respectively, from the fiscal year ended March 31, 2009.

<<Efforts to Improve Efficiency and Reduce Cost of Capital Expenditures>>

We moved forward with network IP-conversion, thereby simplifying the network, consolidating and increasing the capacity of network equipment, while also reducing prices for component procurement.

Taking into consideration such conditions as surrounding environment and communication traffic volume, we efficiently built areas and improved quality by using the optimal equipment from among the variety of types available.

Table of Contents

As a result, capital expenditures in the fiscal year ended March 31, 2010 were ¥686.5 billion.

(4) Group Financing Activities

During the fiscal year ended March 31, 2010, we did not make any long-term financing through capital increase, issuance of bonds, or long-term borrowings.

(5) Group Research and Development Activities

Research and development activities conducted in the fiscal year ended March 31, 2010 are described as below.

<<Development of Handsets and Services Launched in the Fiscal Year Ended March 31, 2010>>

We advanced new products to meet diversifying customer needs such as the docomo STYLE series, and we moved forward with the commercialization of products in new fields, such as handsets equipped with the Android™ OS.

We moved forward with the commercialization of i-ppli touch, Auto-GPS, and other new functions that provide new types of enjoyment to customers, as well as HSUPA, My Area, and other functions that provide subscribers with a comfortable communication environment.

<<Development of Technologies for Future Commercialization>>

We worked on the development of next-generation standard LTE*, which is a higher-speed communication technology, IP network technology for achieving flexible and economic network, and a new satellite system.

We made efforts in the development of operator packs, which are application software compatible with our own proprietary services to seek more efficient and low-cost handset developments. (We have already commercialized some of the packs.) We also made efforts in the development of an LTE-compatible communication platform.

* Abbreviation of Long Term Evolution.

<<Efforts Relating to Future Technologies>>

We continued to research a wireless access format for fourth-generation mobile communication systems and made proactive proposals in the international standardization project 3GPP*.

We continued to aim towards realizing cutting-edge interfaces such as eye-operated ear phones and forms of high sensation communication, such as surround-sound audio technology. We also conducted wireless device research for technology needed for future handsets, such as a multi-band power amplifier that can accommodate multiple frequency bands, with a view towards new spectrum allocation and globalization.

Table of Contents

As a result of these activities, research and development expenditures during the fiscal year ended March 31, 2010 totaled ¥109.9 billion.

(6) Group CSR Activities

Adhering to our message "We connect people to people, and people to their worlds. We open the door to the future, we will listen to each individual customer and to society, and will drive innovation toward the future to create abundance and convenience in life and culture. We have taken various actions in areas of key importance, such as environment protection, creation of a safe and secure mobile society, and emergency preparedness and promotion of universal design.

The main CSR activities for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2010 were as follows:

<< Environmental Protection >>

As a part of our initiatives to reduce greenhouse gas emissions by cutting electric power consumption by mobile network equipments, we launched the ICT* Ecology Project. In the first term of this project, we pre-validated DC power systems, new air conditioning technology and energy-saving servers and verified that we have greatly exceeded our goal in reducing CO₂ emissions (66% compared to previous equipment).

We carried out the docomo Woods reforestation program at five locations (totaling 48 locations on a cumulative basis) in the fiscal year ended March 31, 2010, contributing to the protection of biodiversity.

In the fiscal year ended March 31, 2010, we collected 3.76 million used mobile handsets (a cumulative total of 72.54 million mobile handsets). In collaboration with PLDT and SMART, we carried out tree planting activities in the Philippines. Some of the funds for these activities came from the sale of recycled cellular phones collected at docomo Shops and other locations.

* Information & Communication Technology

 Philippine Long Distance Telephone Company

 SMART Communications, Inc.

<< Creation of a Safe and Secure Mobile Society >>

During the fiscal year ended March 31, 2010 we held approximately 5,500 Mobile Phone Safety Classes to teach proper mobile phone use and etiquette as well as how to deal with phone-related problems. Approximately 800,000 attendees participated and since classes were first held in 2004, a total of approximately 14,700 classes have been held, with approximately 2.29 million attendees. We also further enhanced the initiative and distributed educational video materials of the Mobile Phone Safety Classes to approximately 31,500 elementary and middle schools nationwide, free of charge. We also added a program designed for seniors to protect themselves against crimes such as billing fraud, where the victim is deceived into remitting money to a bank account, and in the fiscal year ended March 31, 2010, approximately 600 classes were held with approximately 14,800 attendees.

Access restriction services (filtering services)*: Following the implementation of the Act on Establishment of Enhanced Environment for Youth's Safe and Secure Internet Use on April 1, 2009, we began strongly encouraging the use of access restriction services when young customers sign up for i-mode services and we have promoted the services. From November 2009, we began offering primarily to subscribers of Web Restrictions which is targeted at young elementary children, a Web Restricted Menu, which offers only a minimal number of links. We also decided to enhance the functions of Access Restriction Customize from April 1, 2010, by providing a Time Settings function that allows children's use of their phones to be restricted by one-hour units.

<< Emergency Preparedness >>

Considering the importance of mobile phones and PHP as emergency contact tools in times of disaster, by collaborating with five mobile phone and PHP operators, we started providing a comprehensive search across all carriers service, which enables mutual search of disaster message boards by the operators.

In an effort to secure means for communication in the event of a disaster, we constructed backup circuits and facilities by adopting two-routes transport circuits, installed duplicate systems in communication facilities and decentralized equipment installations.

Since Area Mail* began services in December 2007, to transmit emergency earthquake reports from the Meteorological Agency, there have been 14 transmissions in total, and in the fiscal year ended March 31, 2010, 23 municipalities introduced and used the systems as a means of disseminating disaster and evacuation information to residents.

To ensure the flow of communication channels in times of disaster, we deployed and operated mobile base stations equipped with satellite links, and to ensure power supply during blackouts, we deployed and operated mobile power supply generator vehicles and motor-powered electrical generators. We provided free loans of mobile phones, free phone battery charging service etc., at evacuation shelters.

* An emergency alert system service that broadcasts disaster and evacuation information to areas prone to natural catastrophe.

<<Promotion of Universal Design >>

In the fiscal year ended March 31, 2010, we made 543 docomo Shops barrier-free; this included the installation of entryway ramps and wheelchair-accessible restrooms.

In accordance with the universal design concept, we continued working to expand the number of handsets and functions that seniors, children and the disabled can use with a peace of mind. The Raku-Raku PHONE series has been extremely well-received by numerous customers since its launch in 1999. To date, we have launched 16 models, and cumulative sales have exceeded 17.5 million units.

<<Social Contribution Activities >>

Through the Mobile Communication Fund, a non-profit organization that we established in July 2002, we awarded commendations including the presentation of the DOCOMO Mobile Science Prize (three times in the fiscal year ended March 31, 2010) to recognize outstanding research results and papers relating to mobile communication and support foreign students from Asian countries (20 students from thirteen countries in the fiscal year ended March 31, 2010).

We made a donation of ¥5 million to support relief efforts in the aftermath of the January 2010 Haiti earthquake. The donation was made through the NGO Japan Platform.

(8) Issues Facing the Group

In the fiscal year 2010 ending March 31, 2011, based on the aforesaid action plan, DOCOMO's Change and Challenge to Achieve New Growth, which covers initiatives to be implemented between the fiscal year 2008 ended March 31, 2009 and the fiscal year 2012 ending March 31, 2013, we will focus on the following priority items to make progress toward our goal to create a safe and secure society where everyone can find affluence and comfort, and contribute to its sustainable development.

As part of the Change initiatives, we have reviewed every aspect of our business operations from products/services to customer care to network construction, with the aim of enhancing the satisfaction of customers. Our target is to receive the No. 1 rating in customer satisfaction in the fiscal year 2010 as a result of these efforts.

Table of Contents

With respect to the Challenge programs, we will position the fiscal year 2010 as the year to embark on the execution phase of our challenge toward the goal of providing services that are tailored to the lifestyle and individual needs of each customer, and to contribute to the sustained development of society by providing solutions to pressing issues, by promptly and steadily implementing the following actions:

Achieve growth through expansion of packet usage: We will aim to increase packet ARPU by proliferating the use of video services and data communications devices, and growing the subscriptions to flat-rate billing plans for packet access.

Roll-out of LTE and network evolution: Toward the commercial launch of LTE scheduled for December 2010, we will move ahead with the development of network, devices and services, to establish a foundation for promoting a wide array of advanced mobile broadband services.

Promotion and further advancement of service personalization: By further advancing the i-concier service, we will expand service personalization and offer a greater array of content tailored to the individual needs of customers.

Deployment of social-support services: We will continually strive to create new businesses with the full-scale launch of social-support services in such fields as environment, health management and finance, while seeking alliances with external partners to secure new revenue sources.

Introduction and promotion of converged services: Through the expansion of MyArea, Japan's first Femto BTS-based home area service, and Otayori Photo service, we will aim to provide more convenient services and comfortable usage environments to users.

Further advancement of handsets: We will enrich the lineup of our products including smartphones to cater to the needs of broader customer segments.

Collaboration of handsets and networks: We will aim to realize advanced services by optimizing the allocation of functions between handsets and networks, leveraging the high-speed, large-capacity and low-latency properties of LTE network.

Basic research aimed at new value creation: We will work on the verification of our research so that we can create businesses that contribute to the development of society and industries, aiming to realize a more affluent society that fully leverages the advantageous characteristics of mobile communications.

Expansion of international businesses: We will strive to expand the revenues streams from international businesses by further enriching our international service offerings and expanding our overseas service counters. We will also seek revenue expansion and sustained growth through overseas business deployment allying with partners.

Domestic investments and alliances: We will endeavor to grow revenues and achieve sustained growth by creating new business and reinforcing core business through the pursuit of investments and alliances in Japan.

Table of Contents

Improvement of cost efficiency: To solidify our financial standing for sustained growth, we will optimize our nationwide operations and make more efficient use of our network- and sale-related costs.

Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) activities: We will address issues of key importance such as global environment protection, realization of a safe and secure mobile society, various disaster responses and promotion of universal design products and services.

Operating income and return to shareholders: We will aim to achieve ¥840.0 billion in operating income for the fiscal year 2010, and endeavor to continue stable dividend payments.

Corporate governance: By establishing and operating an internal control system designed for lawful business conduct, we will continue to ensure compliance and thorough risk management on all fronts of our group so that we can earn the trust and confidence of all stakeholders.

(2) Policies concerning, and total compensation of, directors and corporate auditors

(a) Policies

Matters concerning compensation for directors are decided by the Board of Directors.

Compensation for directors (excluding outside directors) is comprised of a monthly salary and bonuses. Monthly salaries are paid on the basis on the each director's scope of roles and responsibilities. Bonuses are paid taking into account the Company's business results for the current term. Also, directors make monthly contributions of at least a certain amount for the purchase of the Company's shares through the Director Shareholding Association to encourage a medium- to long-term perspective. Purchased shares are owned by the directors during their terms in office.

Compensation for corporate auditors is determined by resolution of the Board of Corporate Auditors and in order to maintain a high level of independence, consists only of a monthly salary.

4. Independent Auditor

(1) Name of independent auditor

KPMG AZSA & Co.

(2) Audit fees paid to the independent auditor in the fiscal year ended March 31, 2010

Details	Amount (Millions of yen)
Audit fees for the independent auditor in the fiscal year ended March 31, 2010	715
Total monetary and other financial benefits payable by DOCOMO and its subsidiaries	784

Notes:

The audit contract between the Company and the independent auditor does not distinguish among audit fees paid for audits performed pursuant to the Corporation Law, audit fees paid for audits performed pursuant to the Financial Instruments and Exchange Act and audit fees paid for audits performed pursuant to the U.S. Securities Exchange Act, and since it is not practically possible to make such a distinction, the above amounts are totals.

(3) Policies concerning decisions to discharge or not reappoint independent auditors

In the event that the circumstances set forth in any of the items of Article 340, Section 1 of the Corporation Law apply to the independent auditor, the independent auditor is to be discharged by a unanimous resolution of the Board of Corporate Auditors.

In addition, if the Company determines that it would be difficult for the independent auditor to perform proper audits, the Board of Directors may, with the agreement of the Board of Corporate Auditors or upon request from the Board of Corporate Auditors, propose to the general meeting of shareholders that the independent auditor be discharged or that the independent auditor not be reappointed.

5. Systems for Ensuring the Propriety of the Company's Business Activities

A summary of the Board of Directors resolutions concerning the development of systems to ensure the propriety of the Company's business activities (internal control systems) is set forth below.

(1) Basic stance on fortifying internal control systems

- a) In fortifying the internal control systems, the Company aims to achieve legal compliance, management of loss risk and appropriate and efficient business operations and consider various measures, including regulations, organizational and structural improvement, formulation of action plans and the monitoring of activities.

Table of Contents

- b) An internal control committee will be formed as an entity overseeing efforts to have the internal control systems function more efficiently. The committee will aim to fortify internal control systems from the cross-departmental perspective; upon assessing efficacy, necessary improvements will be carried out.
 - c) Appropriate efforts will be made with regard to ensuring the reliability of the internal control systems, which will be involved with the financial reporting based on the U.S. Sarbanes-Oxley Act and the Financial Instruments and Exchange Act.
 - d) The Board of Directors will approve the basic policy on fortifying internal control systems (the Basic Policy), receive regular reports on the progress of the initiative to fortify internal control systems, and oversee and monitor the internal control systems of the Company.
 - e) As chief executive officer, the president and representative director will oversee the efforts to build the internal control systems based on the Basic Policy approved by board members.
- (2) Fortifying structure relating to internal control systems
- a) System to ensure that the performance of duties by directors and employees conform with laws and regulations and the Company's Articles of Incorporation

We institute the NTT DOCOMO Group Code of Ethics and compliance-related regulations and create requisite systems for ethical and legal compliance. In addition, when preparing financial statements, officers responsible for finance, corporate auditors, and independent auditors hold preliminary discussions of significant accounting policies, and for disclosure of company information including financial statements in a manner that conforms with securities-related laws and regulations, matters are decided at meetings of the Board of Directors after the necessary internal procedures pursuant to in-house regulations have been completed. Also, internal audit staff conducts audits of the company's overall business activities to ensure conformity with laws and regulations and in-house regulations.

- b) System for storage and maintenance of information relating to the performance of duties by directors

Information relating to the performance of duties by directors is recorded and stored in accordance with rules stipulating the methods of storage and administration of documents and administrative information.
- c) Regulations and other systems relating to the management of loss risks

Executive directors responsible for risk management periodically summarize information relating to risks in their organizations in accordance with rules concerning risk management, and the internal control committee made up of directors, senior vice presidents, and others identifies risks as necessary for companywide risk management, and decides management policy for identified risks to prevent risks from occurring and to take rapid countermeasures in the event that risks do occur.
- d) System to ensure that the performance of duties by directors is conducted efficiently

The efficiency of the performance by directors of their duties is ensured by such means as decision-making rules based on internal regulations and the specification of powers relating to their duties, the formulation of medium-term management policies and business plans by the Board of Directors, and the establishment of committees composed of directors, senior vice presidents, and others.

Table of Contents

- e) System to ensure the propriety of the business activities of the corporate group consisting of the Company, its parent company, and its subsidiaries

Based on rules governing fundamental matters relating to the management of our Group companies, group companies discuss important business matters with the Company or report them to the Company. In addition, officers with responsibility for corporate ethics who are appointed at subsidiaries report to the Company in a timely manner on the state of problems involving senior management, and the Company provides necessary guidance. With respect to unusual transactions with the parent company, investigations are conducted by legal personnel and audits are conducted by corporate auditors. Further, audits by internal audit personnel are directed to cover its subsidiaries, and whenever necessary they obtain and assess the results of the internal audits of those companies.

- f) Matters relating to employees who assist corporate auditors in the performance of their duties and the independence of those employees from the directors

The Corporate Auditor's Office is established as an organization dedicated to assisting the corporate auditors with the performance of their duties, and specialist staff are assigned to it. We provide the Board of Corporate Auditors with advance explanations concerning matters such as appointments and transfers of these personnel and their job assignments, and pay respectful attention to the board's opinions before acting on such matters.

- g) System for reporting to corporate auditors by directors and employees

Directors, senior vice presidents, and employees report promptly to the corporate auditors and to the Board of Corporate Auditors concerning matters prescribed by laws and regulations as well as requested matters necessary for the performance by the corporate auditors of their duties.

- h) Other systems for ensuring that auditing by corporate auditors is conducted effectively

Representative directors and the Board of Corporate Auditors hold regular meetings and develop an auditing environment necessary for enabling the corporate auditors to perform their duties. In addition, the internal audit staff coordinate with the audits by the corporate auditors to ensure auditing is conducted in a collaborative manner.

Throughout this report, amounts prepared based on domestic accounting standards are rounded down to the nearest unit. Amounts prepared in accordance with U.S. accounting standards are rounded off to the nearest unit.

Audit Report of Board of Corporate Auditors

Based on audit reports from each Corporate Auditor, and following due discussion at meetings, the Board of Corporate Auditors has prepared this audit report regarding the execution of the duties of the Board of Directors in the 19th fiscal year from April 1, 2009 to March 31, 2010. The Board reports as follows.

1. Outline of Audit Methodology

The Board of Corporate Auditors established an auditing plan and received reports from each Corporate Auditor on the status of the implementation of audits and the results thereof, as well as reports from the Board of Directors and the Independent Auditors regarding the status of execution of their duties, and requested explanations as necessary.

Also, on the basis of the Board of Corporate Auditors Rules established by the Board of Corporate Auditors, and in accordance with its auditing plan, the Corporate Auditors sought mutual understanding with the Directors, the internal auditing department, other employees and the Independent Auditors in their efforts to collect information, and carried out the audit as follows:

- (1) attended meetings of the Board of Directors and other important meetings, and received reports from Directors and employees regarding performance of their duties, requested explanations as necessary, perused important documents regarding decisions and approvals made and investigated the status of operations and the financial position at the company's head office and major offices of business;
- (2) carried out an audit and verification of the particulars of Board of Directors resolutions relating to the establishment of structures necessary to ensure that the Board of Directors' performance of its duties is in conformity with laws and regulations and the Company's Articles of Incorporation and to otherwise ensure the appropriateness of the business of a kabushiki kaisha, as well as the structures established pursuant to such resolutions (internal control system);
- (3) regarding the subsidiaries, the Board of Corporate Auditors sought to achieve a mutual understanding and exchange of information with directors and other persons and corporate auditors of the subsidiaries, and, where necessary, received business reports from the subsidiaries; and
- (4) audited and verified whether the Independent Auditors maintained their independence and carried out their audits appropriately, received reports from the Independent Auditors regarding the execution of their duties and, where necessary, requested explanations. Also, the Board of Corporate Auditors received notification from the Independent Auditors to the effect that the structure to ensure that duties are executed appropriately has been established and requested explanations as necessary.

Table of Contents

Based on the above methodology, the Board of Corporate Auditors evaluated business reports, supplementary schedules, the non-consolidated statutory report related to the fiscal year ended March 31, 2010 (the non-consolidated balance sheet, income statement, statement of changes in shareholders' equity, and note to non-consolidated statutory report), the supplementary schedules as well as the consolidated statutory report (the consolidated balance sheet, consolidated statement of income and comprehensive income, consolidated statement of shareholders' equity and consolidated note to consolidated financial statements).

2. Audit Results

(1) Results of the audit of the business report

- i. We find that the Business Report and its supplementary statements accurately reflect the conditions of the company in accordance with laws and regulations and the Articles of Incorporation.
- ii. No inappropriate conduct concerning the execution of duties by Directors or material facts in violation of law or the Articles of Incorporation were found.
- iii. We find that the particulars of Board of Directors' resolutions concerning the internal control systems are appropriate. Further, no matters requiring note on our part were found with respect to Directors' execution of duties in regards to the internal control system.

(2) Results of the audit of performance of the duties by the Independent Auditors

No matters requiring note on our part were found with respect to the structure for ensuring the proper execution of duties by the Independent Auditor, KPMG AZSA & Co..

(3) Results of the audit of the non-consolidated statutory report, supplementary schedules and the consolidated statutory report

We find that the methodology and results of the audit by the Independent Auditor, KPMG AZSA & Co., are appropriate.
