Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers

(e) American Express Company (the Company) maintains a Supplemental Retirement Plan to provide employees benefits that cannot be provided under its tax-qualified Retirement Savings Plan (the 401(k) plan) due to certain limits established under Internal Revenue Service (IRS) rules.

On October 27, 2010, the Compensation and Benefits Committee (the Compensation Committee) of the Board of Directors of the Company approved certain amendments to the Company's Supplemental Retirement Plan, effective January 1, 2011. Among other things, the Compensation Committee approved the following changes:

The Plan has been renamed the Retirement Restoration Plan (the RRP).

Employees will now be required to contribute 5% of Compensation (as defined in Section 5.2 of the RRP) to receive the full matching contribution thereunder.

All employees (including those employees below the senior management level) having compensation in excess of the limitations established by the IRS for tax-qualified plans will now be able to make an annual election to defer a portion of their compensation under the deferral provisions of the RRP, subject to the terms and conditions of the RRP.

Effective January 1, 2011, amounts deferred by an employee under deferral provisions of the RRP on or after such date will be invested based on the investment funds elected by the employee under the 401(k) plan. The investment performance of the amounts deferred will reflect the increases or decreases in value from time to time, whether from dividends, gains, losses or otherwise, as that experienced by the related investment fund under the 401(k) plan, with no opportunity for earnings in excess of the performance of the elected investment fund(s) (i.e., no above-market earnings).

Interest crediting on existing deferred amounts will be transitioned to that which is based on the performance of the participant's 401(k) plan investment fund elections as follows: the change for executive officers will become effective January 1, 2011; the change for employees who are non-executive officers will become effective on January 1, 2012; and the change for retirees will become effective January 1, 2013.

Until amounts are transitioned to the 401(k) plan investment fund elections, interest crediting on existing amounts previously deferred by executive officers will be limited to an SEC-defined market rate (i.e., 120% of the applicable federal long-term rate for December of the preceding year) if the Company does not meet its on average, over time target for return on equity of at least 25% for the given year.

A copy of the RRP is attached to this report as Exhibit 10.1, which is herein incorporated by reference in its entirety.
