Dear Fellow Stockholder:

On behalf of the board of directors and management of QCR Holdings, Inc., we cordially invite you to attend the annual meeting of stockholders of QCR Holdings, Inc. to be held at 10:00 a.m. on May 2, 2007, at The MARK of the Quad Cities located at 1201 River Drive, Moline, Illinois. The accompanying notice of annual meeting of stockholders and proxy statement discuss the business to be conducted at the meeting. We have also enclosed copies of our 2006 Annual Report to Stockholders for your review. At the meeting, we will report on our operations and the outlook for the year ahead.

The annual meeting will be held for the purposes of electing four persons to serve as Class II directors and transacting such other business as may properly come before the meeting. We recommend that you vote your shares for the director nominees.

We encourage you to attend the meeting in person. Regardless of whether you plan to attend the meeting, please COMPLETE, DATE, SIGN and RETURN THE ENCLOSED PROXY CARD in the enclosed envelope or vote by telephone or internet by following the preprinted instructions on the enclosed proxy card. This will assure that your shares are represented at the meeting.

We look forward to seeing you and visiting with you at the meeting.

Very truly yours,

James J. Brownson

NOTICE OF
ANNUAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS
TO BE HELD MAY 2, 2007

To the stockholders of QCR HOLDINGS, INC.:

The annual meeting of stockholders of QCR Holdings, Inc., a Delaware corporation, will be held at The MARK of the Quad Cities, 1201 River Drive, Moline, Illinois on Wednesday, May 2, 2007, at 10:00 a.m., local time, for the following purposes:

1. to elect four Class II directors for a term of three years and
2. to transact such other business as may properly be brought before the meeting and any adjournments or postponements of the meeting.

The board of directors has fixed the close of business on March 14, 2007, as the record date for the determination of stockholders entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the meeting. In the event there is an insufficient number of votes for a quorum or to approve any of the proposals at the time of the annual meeting, the meeting may be adjourned or postponed in order to permit the further solicitation of proxies.

By order of the Board of Directors

PROXY STATEMENT

QCR Holdings, Inc., a Delaware corporation, is the holding company for Quad City Bank and Trust Company, Cedar Rapids Bank and Trust Company, Rockford Bank and Trust Company and First Wisconsin Bank and Trust Company. Quad City Bank & Trust is an Iowa banking association located in Bettendorf, Iowa, with banking locations in Bettendorf and Davenport, Iowa and in Moline, Illinois. In August 2005, Quad City Bank & Trust acquired 80% of the equity interests of M2 Lease Funds, LLC, a Wisconsin limited liability company based in Milwaukee that is engaged in the business of leasing machinery and equipment to businesses under direct financing lease contracts. Cedar Rapids Bank & Trust is also an Iowa banking association located in Cedar Rapids, Iowa. Rockford Bank & Trust is an Illinois state bank located in Rockford, Illinois. In February 2007, First Wisconsin Bank & Trust opened as our fourth bank charter. It is a Wisconsin chartered commercial bank located in Pewaukee, Wisconsin. Quad City Bancard, Inc. is a wholly owned subsidiary of QCR Holdings, which functions as a credit card center that provides cardholder and merchant credit card processing services. QCR Holdings also owns all of the common stock of five business trust subsidiaries that we created to issue trust preferred securities. When we refer to our subsidiaries in this proxy statement, we are collectively referring to Quad City Bank & Trust, Cedar Rapids Bank & Trust, Rockford Bank & Trust, First Wisconsin Bank & Trust, Quad City Bancard and the business trusts.

This proxy statement is furnished in connection with the solicitation by the board of directors of QCR Holdings of proxies to be voted at the annual meeting of stockholders to be held at The MARK of the Quad Cities, 1201 River Drive, Moline, Illinois, on May 2, 2007, at 10:00 a.m., local time, and at any adjournments or postponements of the meeting. We have enclosed our 2006 annual report, which includes consolidated financial statements of QCR Holdings and our subsidiaries. This proxy statement and related materials are first being mailed to stockholders of QCR Holdings on or about March 21, 2007.

The following is information regarding the meeting and the voting process, and is presented in a question and answer format.

Why am I receiving this proxy statement and proxy card?

You are receiving a proxy statement and proxy card from us because on March 14, 2007, the record date for the annual meeting, you owned shares of QCR Holdings common stock. This proxy statement describes the matters that will be presented for consideration by the stockholders at the annual meeting. It also gives you information concerning those matters to assist you in making an informed decision.

When you sign the enclosed proxy card, you appoint the proxy holder as your representative at the meeting. The proxy holder will vote your shares as you have instructed in the proxy card, thereby ensuring that your shares will be voted whether or not you attend the meeting. Even if you plan to attend the meeting, you should complete, sign and return your proxy card in advance of the meeting just in case your plans change.

If you have signed and returned the proxy card and an issue comes up for a vote at the meeting that is not identified on the card, the proxy holder will vote your shares, pursuant to your proxy, in accordance with his or her judgment.

What matters will be voted on at the meeting?

You are being asked to vote on the election of four Class II directors for a term expiring in 2010. This matter is more fully described in this proxy statement.

Table of Contents

If I am the record holder of my shares, how do I vote?

You may vote by mail, by telephone, by internet or in person at the meeting. To vote by mail, complete and sign the enclosed proxy card and mail it in the enclosed pre-addressed envelope. No postage is required if mailed in the United States. If you mark your proxy card to indicate how you want your shares voted, your shares will be voted as you instruct.

If you sign and return your proxy card but do not mark the card to provide voting instructions, the shares represented by your proxy card will be voted for all nominees named in this proxy statement.

Although you may vote by mail, we ask that you vote instead by internet or telephone, which saves us postage and processing costs. You may vote by telephone by calling the toll-free number specified on your proxy card or by accessing the internet website specified on your proxy card and by following the preprinted instructions on the proxy card. Votes submitted by telephone or internet must be received by midnight CDT on Monday, April 30, 2007. The giving of a proxy by either of these means will not affect your right to vote in person if you decide to attend the meeting.

If you want to vote in person, please come to the meeting. We will distribute written ballots to anyone who wants to vote at the meeting. Please note, however, that if your shares are held in the name of a broker or other fiduciary (or in what is usually referred to as street name), you will need to arrange to obtain a legal proxy from that person or entity in order to vote in person at the meeting. Even if you plan to attend the meeting, you should complete, sign and return your proxy card in advance of the meeting just in case your plans change.

If I hold shares in the name of a broker or fiduciary, who votes my shares?

If you received this proxy statement from your broker or other fiduciary, your broker or fiduciary should have given you instructions for directing how that person or entity should vote your shares. It will then be your broker or fiduciary's responsibility to vote your shares for you in the manner you direct. Please complete, execute and return the proxy card in the envelope provided by your broker.

Under the rules of various national and regional securities exchanges, brokers and other fiduciaries may generally vote on routine matters, such as the election of directors but cannot vote on non-routine matters, such as the adoption or amendment of a stock incentive plan or an amendment to our Certificate of Incorporation, unless they have received voting instructions from the person for whom they are holding shares. If there is a non-routine matter presented to stockholders at a meeting and your broker or fiduciary does not receive instructions from you on how to vote on that matter, your broker or fiduciary will return the proxy card to us, indicating that he or she does not have the authority to vote on that matter. This is generally referred to as a broker non-vote and may affect the outcome of the voting on those matters. We encourage you to provide directions to your broker or fiduciary as to how you want your shares voted on all matters to be brought before the meeting. You should do this by carefully following the instructions your broker or fiduciary gives you concerning its procedures. This ensures that your shares will be voted at the meeting.

A number of banks and brokerage firms participate in a program that also permits stockholders to direct their vote by telephone or internet. If your shares are held in an account at such a bank or brokerage firm, you may vote your shares by telephone or internet by following the instructions on their enclosed voting form. Votes made by telephone or internet through such a program must be received by 11:59 p.m. EDT on Tuesday, May 1, 2007. Voting your shares in this manner will not affect your right to vote in person if you decide to attend the meeting, however, you must first request a legal proxy either on the internet or the enclosed proxy card. Requesting a legal proxy prior to the deadline stated above will automatically cancel any voting directions you have previously given by internet or by telephone with respect to your shares.

The internet and telephone proxy procedures are designed to authenticate stockholders' identities, to allow stockholders to give their proxy instructions and to confirm that those instructions have been properly recorded. Stockholders authorizing proxies or directing the voting of shares by internet should understand that there may be costs associated with electronic access, such as usage charges from internet access providers and telephone companies. These costs, if any, will be borne by the stockholder.

What does it mean if I receive more than one proxy card?

It means that you have multiple holdings reflected in our stock transfer records and/or in accounts with brokers. Please sign and return ALL proxy forms to ensure that all your shares are voted. If you received more than one proxy card but only one copy of the proxy statement and annual and transitional reports, you may request additional copies from us at any time.

What if I change my mind after I return my proxy?

If you hold your shares in your own name, you may revoke your proxy and change your vote at any time before the polls close at the meeting. You may do this by:

signing another proxy with a later date and returning that proxy to us;

timely submitting another proxy via the telephone or internet;

sending notice to us that you are revoking your proxy; or voting in person at the meeting.

If you hold your shares in the name of your broker or through a fiduciary and desire to revoke your proxy, you will need to contact that person or entity to revoke your proxy.

How many votes do we need to hold the annual meeting?

A majority of the shares that are outstanding and entitled to vote as of the record date must be present in person or by proxy at the meeting in order to hold the meeting and conduct business.

Shares are counted as present at the meeting if the stockholder either:

is present in person at the meeting; or has properly submitted a signed proxy card or other proxy.

On March 14, 2007, the record date, there were 4,565,158 shares of common stock outstanding. Therefore, at least 2,282,580 shares need to be present in person or by proxy at the annual meeting in order to hold the meeting and conduct business.

What happens if a nominee is unable to stand for re-election?

The board may, by resolution, provide for a lesser number of directors or designate a substitute nominee. In the latter case, shares represented by proxies may be voted for a substitute nominee. Proxies cannot be voted for more than the number of nominees presented for election at the meeting. The board has no reason to believe any nominee will be unable to stand for re-election.

What options do I have in voting on each of the proposals?

You may vote for or withhold authority to vote for each nominee for director. You may vote for, against or abstain on any other proposal that may properly be brought before the meeting.

Table of Contents

How many votes may I cast?

Generally, you are entitled to cast one vote for each share of stock you owned on the record date. The proxy card included with this proxy statement indicates the number of shares owned by an account attributable to you.

How many votes are needed for each proposal?

Our directors are elected by a plurality and the four individuals receiving the highest number of votes cast for their election will be elected as Class II directors of QCR Holdings. Broker non-votes and abstentions will not be counted in tabulating the vote on the election of directors, but will count for purposes of determining whether or not a quorum is present on the matter.

The approval of all other proposals must receive the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares present in person or by proxy at the meeting and entitled to vote. Broker non-votes and abstentions will not be counted in tabulating the vote on such proposals, but will count for purposes of determining whether or not a quorum is present on the matter.

Where do I find the voting results of the meeting?

If available, we will announce voting results at the meeting. The voting results will also be disclosed in our Form 10-Q for the quarter ending June 30, 2007.

Who bears the cost of soliciting proxies?

We will bear the cost of soliciting proxies. In addition to solicitations by mail, officers, directors or employees of QCR Holdings or of our subsidiaries may solicit proxies in person or by telephone. These persons will not receive any special or additional compensation for soliciting proxies. We may reimburse brokerage houses and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries for their reasonable out-of-pocket expenses for forwarding proxy and solicitation materials to stockholders.

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

Our directors are divided into three classes having staggered terms of three years. Stockholders will be entitled to elect four Class II directors for a term expiring in 2010. The board has nominated Larry J. Helling, Douglas M. Hultquist, Mark C. Kilmer and Charles M. Peters to serve as Class II directors.

We have no knowledge that any of the nominees will refuse or be unable to serve, but if any of the nominees becomes unavailable for election, the holders of the proxies reserve the right to substitute another person of their choice as a nominee when voting at the meeting. Set forth below is information concerning the nominees for election and for each of the other persons whose terms of office will continue after the meeting, including age, year first elected a director and business experience during the previous five years. The nominees, if elected at the annual meeting of stockholders, will serve as Class II directors for three-year terms expiring in 2010.

Table of Contents

Directors are elected by a plurality and the four individuals receiving the highest number of votes cast for their election will be elected as Class II directors. Our board of directors unanimously recommends that stockholders vote FOR all of the nominees for directors.

Mr. Rife has been a director of Cedar Rapids Bank & Trust since its formation in 2001.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE AND THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

General. Currently, there are nine members of the board of directors of QCR Holdings and, immediately prior to the annual meeting of stockholders, the number will be increased to ten to accommodate the election of four Class II directors this year. Generally, the board oversees our business and monitors the performance of our management. In accordance with our corporate governance procedures, the board does not involve itself in the day-to-day operations of QCR Holdings, which is monitored by our executive officers and management. Our directors fulfill their duties and responsibilities by attending regular meetings of the full board, which are held no less frequently than quarterly. Additionally, the Executive Committee, which is comprised of directors who are deemed to be independent pursuant to the listing requirements of the Nasdaq Stock Market, LLC, also meets at least quarterly and has the authority to carry out many of the oversight functions of the full board. Our directors also discuss business and other matters with Mr. Hultquist, our Chief Executive Officer, other key executives and our principal external advisers (legal counsel, auditors and other consultants).

Table of Contents

Incumbent directors Baird, Brownson, Kilmer, Lawson, Peterson and Rife are deemed to be independent as that term is defined by Nasdaq. Additionally, Mr. Peters, who has been nominated by the board to serve as a Class II director, will also satisfy the independence standards of Nasdaq. Directors Bauer, Helling and Hultquist are not considered to be independent because they also serve as executive officers of either QCR Holdings or one of our subsidiaries. The board of directors has established an Audit Committee, an Executive Committee, a Compensation and Benefits Committee and a Technology Committee. The current charters of the Audit and the Executive Committee are available on our website at www.qcrh.com, as well as on our banking subsidiaries' websites at www.qcbt.com, www.crbt.com, www.rkfdbank.com and www.firstwisconsinbank.com. Also posted on the websites is general information regarding QCR Holdings and our common stock, many of our corporate policies, and links to our filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

A total of six regularly scheduled and special meetings were held by the board of directors of QCR Holdings in 2006. In 2006, all directors attended at least 75 percent of the meetings of the board and the committees on which they served during the period they served on the board. Although we do not have a formal policy regarding director attendance at the annual meeting, we encourage our directors to attend. Last year, all of the directors were present at the annual meeting.

Audit Committee. The Audit Committee consists of directors Baird, Brownson, Kilmer and Lawson. Each of the members is considered independent according to the Nasdaq listing requirements and the regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission. The board of directors has determined that Mr. Baird qualifies as an Audit Committee Financial Expert under the regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission. The board based this decision on Mr. Baird's educational and professional experience.

The functions performed by the Audit Committee include, but are not limited to, the following:

selecting our independent auditors and pre-approving all engagements and fee arrangements;

reviewing the independence of the independent auditors;

reviewing actions by management on recommendations of the independent auditors and internal auditors;

meeting with management, the internal auditors and the independent auditors to review the effectiveness of our system of internal control and internal audit procedures;

reviewing our earnings releases and reports filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission; and reviewing reports of bank regulatory agencies and monitoring management's compliance with recommendations contained in those reports.

To promote independence of the audit function, the Audit Committee consults separately and jointly with the independent auditors, the internal auditors and management. The Audit Committee has adopted a written charter, which sets forth the committee's duties and responsibilities. Our current charter is available on our website at www.qcrh.com, as well as on our banking subsidiaries' websites at www.qcbt.com, www.crbt.com, www.rkfdbank.com and www.firstwisconsinbank.com. The Audit Committee met four times in 2006.

Executive Committee. From January 1, 2006 to May 3, 2006, the Committee was comprised of directors Baird, Brownson, Kilmer, Lawson, Peterson and Royer. Mr. Royer retired from the board of directors on May 3, 2006 and Mr. Rife replaced him as a Committee member. If elected, nominee Peters will be assigned to this committee. Each of these directors is considered to be: independent according to the Nasdaq listing requirements, outside as discussed under Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, and a non-employee pursuant to Section 16 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Mr. Brownson serves as Chairman of the Executive Committee. The committee is charged with overseeing our corporate governance programs, board policies, committee structure and membership, reviewing and recommending the nominees for election to the board of directors, and reviewing and establishing the salaries and compensation of our executive officers. In carrying out the nominating function, the committee is charged with identifying and nominating individuals to be presented to our stockholders for election or re-election to the board of directors. The committee is further charged with the responsibility of working with management to maintain a company-wide succession plan to ensure the success of leadership succession at QCR Holdings and our subsidiaries. The committee also reviews and monitors our policies, procedures and structure as they relate to corporate governance. The committee's responsibilities and functions are further described in its charter, which is available on our website at www.qcrh.com, as well as our banking subsidiaries websites at www.qcbt.com, www.crbt.com, www.rkfdbank.com and www.firstwisconsinbank.com. The Executive Committee met seven times during 2006.

Director Nominations and Qualifications. In carrying out its nominating function, the Executive Committee evaluates all potential nominees for election, including incumbent directors, board nominees and those stockholder nominees included in the proxy statement, in the same manner. Generally, the committee believes that directors should possess certain qualities, including the highest personal and professional ethics and integrity, a sufficient educational and professional background, demonstrated leadership skills, sound judgment, a strong sense of service to the communities which we serve and an ability to meet the standards and duties set forth in our code of business conduct and ethics. The committee also evaluates potential nominees to determine if they have any conflicts of interest that may interfere with their ability to serve as effective board members, to determine if they meet QCR Holdings' age eligibility requirements (a person who has reached age 72 before the date of the annual meeting is not eligible for election to the board) and to determine whether they are independent in accordance with Nasdaq requirements (to ensure that at least a majority of the directors will, at all times, be independent). The committee has not, in the past, retained any third party to assist it in identifying candidates, but it has the authority to retain a third party firm or professional for the purpose of identifying candidates.

The committee determined that the number of directors should be expanded in 2007, due to the continued significant growth of QCR Holdings and the resultant need for additional board and board committee resources. As a result, the committee, in its role of recommending nominees for board membership, considered several candidates to serve as a Class II director. The committee considered candidates from the existing boards of directors of QCR Holdings' subsidiaries, as well as individuals from outside the Company. Utilizing the qualification criteria described above, and considering the experience, credentials and skills of the list of potential candidates, the committee determined that Mr. Charles M. Peters, a current director of Cedar Rapids Bank & Trust and the Chairman of the Board, should be nominated as a Class II director, along with Messrs. Helling, Hultquist and Kilmer, all incumbent directors. The Board did not receive any stockholder nominations for director for the 2007 annual meeting.

Independent Director Sessions. Consistent with the Nasdaq listing requirements, the independent directors regularly have the opportunity to meet without Messrs. Bauer, Helling or Hultquist in attendance. In 2003, the board of directors created the position of a lead independent director and appointed Mr. Brownson to serve in this position. The lead independent director assists the board in assuring effective corporate governance and serves as chairperson of the independent director sessions.

Compensation and Benefits Committee. The Compensation and Benefits Committee consists of directors Bauer, Hultquist, Helling, and Lawson, as well as Todd A. Gipple, Executive Vice President & Chief Financial Officer of QCR Holdings, John D. Whitcher, director of Rockford Bank & Trust, James A. Tinker, director of Cedar Rapids Bank & Trust and Joyce E. Bawden, John H. Harris, and Cathie S. Whiteside, directors of Quad City Bank & Trust. The Compensation and Benefits Committee has authority to perform policy reviews and to oversee and direct the compensation and personnel functions of the employees, with the exception of our executive officers, which is done by the Executive Committee. The Compensation and Benefits Committee met three times during 2006.

Technology Committee. The Technology Committee consists of directors Bauer, Helling and Hultquist, as well as Todd A. Gipple, Executive Vice President & Chief Financial Officer of QCR Holdings, nominee Peters, Monica B. Glenny, director of Rockford Bank & Trust, Ann M. Lipsky, director of Cedar Rapids Bank & Trust and John H. Harris and Cathie S. Whiteside, directors of Quad City Bank & Trust. The Technology Committee reviews the technology plans of QCR Holdings and our subsidiaries for the future. The Technology Committee met four times during 2006.

Code of Business Conduct and Ethics. We have a code of business conduct and ethics in place that applies to all of our directors and employees. The code sets forth the standard of ethics that we expect all of our directors and employees to follow, including our Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer. The code is posted on our website at www.qcrh.com, as well as on our banking subsidiaries' websites at www.qcbt.com, www.crbt.com, www.rkfdbank.com and www.firstwisconsinbank.com. We have satisfied and intend to continue to satisfy the disclosure requirements under Item 5.05 of Form 8-K regarding any amendment to or waiver of the code with respect to our Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, and persons performing similar functions, by posting such information on our websites.

Stockholder Communication with the Board, Nomination and Proposal Procedures.

General Communications with the Board. Stockholders may contact QCR Holdings' board of directors by contacting Todd A. Gipple, Corporate Secretary, at QCR Holdings, Inc., 3551-7th Street, Suite 204, Moline, Illinois 61265 or (309) 743-7745. All comments will be forwarded directly to the Chairman of the Board and lead independent director, James J. Brownson.

Nominations of Directors. In order for a stockholder nominee to be considered by the Executive Committee to be its nominee and included in our proxy statement, the nominating stockholder must file a written notice of the proposed director nomination with our Corporate Secretary, at the above address, at least 120 days prior to the anniversary of the date the previous year's proxy statement was mailed to stockholders. Nominations must include the full name and address of the proposed nominee and a brief description of the proposed nominee's business experience for at least the previous five years. All submissions must be accompanied by the written consent of the proposed nominee to be named as a nominee and to serve as a director if elected. The committee may request additional information in order to make a determination as to whether to nominate the person for director.

In accordance with our bylaws, a stockholder may otherwise nominate a director for election at an annual meeting of stockholders by delivering written notice of the nomination to our Corporate Secretary, at the above address, not less than 30 days nor more than 75 days prior to the date of the annual meeting, provided, however, that if less than 40 days' notice of the meeting is given, notice by the stockholder, to be timely, must be delivered no later than 10 days from the date on which notice of the meeting was mailed. The stockholder's notice of intention to nominate a director must include (i) the name and address of record of the nominating stockholder; (ii) a representation that the stockholder is a record holder entitled to vote at the meeting and intends to appear in person or by proxy at the meeting to nominate the person or persons specified in the notice; (iii) the name, age, business and residence addresses, and principal occupation or employment of each nominee; (iv) a description of all arrangements or understandings between the stockholder and each nominee and any other person or persons (naming such person or persons) pursuant to which the nomination or nominations are to be made by the stockholder; (v) any other information regarding each proposed nominee as would be required to comply with the rules and regulations set forth by the Securities and Exchange Commission; and (vi) the consent of each nominee to serve as a director of the corporation if so elected. We may request additional information after receiving the notification for the purpose of determining the proposed nominee's eligibility to serve as a director. Persons nominated for election to the board pursuant to this paragraph will not be included in our proxy statement.

Other Stockholder Proposals. To be considered for inclusion in our proxy statement and form of proxy for our 2008 annual meeting of stockholders, stockholder proposals must be received by our Corporate Secretary, at the above address, no later than November 23, 2007, and must otherwise comply with the notice and other provisions of our bylaws, as well as Securities and Exchange Commission rules and regulations.

For proposals to be otherwise brought by a stockholder at an annual meeting, the stockholder must file a written notice of the proposal to our Corporate Secretary not less than 30 days nor more than 75 days prior to the date of the annual meeting, provided, however, that if less than 40 days' notice of the meeting is given, notice by the stockholder, to be timely, must be delivered no later than 10 days from the date on which notice of the meeting was mailed. The notice must set forth: (i) a brief description of the proposal and the reasons for conducting such business at the meeting; (ii) the name and address of the proposing stockholder; (iii) the number of shares of the corporation's common stock beneficially owned by the stockholder on the date of the notice; and (iv) any financial or other interest of the stockholder in the proposal. Stockholder proposals brought under this paragraph will not be included in our proxy statement.

COMPENSATION DISCUSSION & ANALYSIS

This Compensation Discussion and Analysis (CD&A) describes QCR Holdings' compensation philosophy and policies for 2006 as applicable to QCR Holdings' executives, including the Named Executive Officers (NEOs) whose detailed compensation is set forth in the Executive Compensation section of this proxy statement. The CD&A explains the structure and rationale associated with each material element of the NEOs' total compensation, and it provides important context for the more detailed disclosure tables and specific compensation amounts provided following the CD&A. In this CD&A section, the term the Committee refers to the Executive Committee of QCR Holdings' Board of Directors.

Compensation Philosophy and Objectives.

All of the compensation programs are designed to attract and retain key employees, motivating them to achieve and rewarding them for superior performance, as well as having significant risk to not reward substandard performance. Different programs are geared to short and long-term performance with the goal of increasing stockholder value over the long term. Executive compensation programs impact all employees by setting general levels of compensation and helping to create an environment of goals, rewards and expectations. We believe the performance of every employee is important to the success of QCR Holdings; therefore, we are mindful of the effect of executive compensation and incentive programs on all of the employees.

Table of Contents

We believe that the compensation of the executives should reflect their success as a management team, rather than individuals, in attaining key operating objectives, such as growth of loans, deposits and total assets, and growth of earnings and earnings per share and ultimately, in attaining an increased market price for our stock. We believe that the performance of the executives in managing our company, considered in light of general economic and specific company, industry and competitive conditions, should be the basis for determining their overall compensation. We also believe that their compensation should not be based on the short-term performance of our stock, whether favorable or unfavorable, but rather that the price of our stock will, in the long-term, reflect our operating performance, and ultimately, the management of the company by the executives. We seek to have the long-term performance of our stock reflected in executive compensation through our stock option and other equity incentive programs.

QCR Holdings seeks to achieve these objectives through the following elements: salary, annual cash incentive (bonus), long-term equity incentives, primarily through stock option awards, and other perquisites.

Role of the Executive Committee in the Executive Compensation Process

Overview. One of the main responsibilities of the Executive Committee is to review and establish the salaries and compensation of the executive officers whose compensation is disclosed in the Summary Compensation Table on page 25 of this proxy statement. In this regard, the Committee uses outside consultants and experts. The Committee also works with management to develop and maintain a company-wide succession plan. In 2006, a specific succession plan surrounding the retirement of Mr. Bauer was implemented (as discussed on page 29 of this proxy statement).

Use of Consultants. The Committee uses compensation consultants from Clark Consulting to provide input on the competitive marketplace for executive compensation. The Committee has utilized Clark Consulting for annual executive compensation reviews since 2003. Clark Consulting specifically focuses on the banking industry, and has provided us with assistance surrounding various elements of the total executive compensation package. These reviews have focused on salaries, annual incentives, long-term incentives and executive benefits. Clark Consulting is an independent third party provider and reports directly to the Chairman of the Executive Committee, Mr. James J. Brownson.

The primary data source used in setting competitive market levels for the executive officers is the information publicly disclosed by a 2006 Peer Group of the 20 companies listed below, which will be reviewed annually and may change from year-to-year. These companies, which have been carefully considered by the Committee for inclusion in the 2006 Peer Group, include bank holding companies of similar size, location, and business strategy (i.e., those with a commercial lending focus).

Role of Executives in Executive Committee Meetings. The Executive Committee has requested in the past that Mr. Bauer and Mr. Hultquist be present at portions of selected Committee meetings to discuss executive compensation and evaluate QCR Holdings and individual performance. Mr. Bauer and Mr. Hultquist may provide their insights and suggestions, but the final decisions regarding pay are made by the Committee members alone. The Committee discusses Mr. Hultquist and Mr. Bauer's compensation with them, but final deliberations and all decisions regarding compensation are made without the officers present. The Committee also determines the compensation for other NEOs, based on Mr. Hultquist's recommendations and input from Clark Consulting.

Executive Committee Activity. In 2006, the Executive Committee met seven times. During those meetings and at the January 2007 meeting they took the actions listed below. The specific recommendations and compensation changes are discussed later in the CD&A.

Benchmarked the current total compensation packages for the NEOs to determine market competitiveness.

Reviewed peer performance data versus QCR Holdings and discussed performance goals for 2007 and beyond.

Approved annual salary adjustments for 2007 and annual cash incentive (bonus) amounts for 2006.

Approved performance goals for the annual cash incentive (bonus) and annual equity programs for 2007.

Reviewed and approved the executive retirement package for Mr. Bauer.

Put in place a succession plan for Mr. Hultquist to become the single Chief Executive Officer for QCR Holdings.

Benchmarked director compensation to the peer group at the 50th percentile.

Compensation Framework

The compensation framework for the NEOs is discussed in this section and is broken down into the following three aspects of our executive compensation policies and programs:

Pay components – a discussion of each element of total compensation, including the rationale for each and how each component relates to the total compensation structure.

Pay level – the factors used to determine the compensation opportunity, or potential payment amount at different performance levels, for each pay component.

Relationship to performance – how the Committee determines appropriate performance measures and goals for incentive plan purposes, as well as how pay levels change as a function of performance.

Pay Components Overview

The executive compensation program for the NEOs includes the following components:

Salary – this is the fixed amount of annual cash pay that reflects each executive's position, and is made based on the qualifications, experience and performance of the individual executive.

Table of Contents

Annual Cash Incentive (Bonus) this is an annual cash payout that varies by executive and is based on performance. Rewarding the executives who are directly responsible for the performance of QCR Holdings is the goal of the annual cash incentive (bonus) program. The Committee believes a meaningful portion of each executive's total compensation opportunity should be tied to QCR Holdings results and, in most cases, individual performance. The Committee determines and communicates the performance metrics, goals, and award opportunities (expressed as a percentage of salary) to the executives at the beginning of each year. Payouts occur following the determination of actual performance subsequent to the end of the year.

Long-Term Incentives (Equity) this has historically consisted of equity-based awards in the form of stock options. We currently utilize the 2004 Stock Incentive Plan for long-term incentive awards.

It is also our intention to assist the executives with meeting their retirement income, health care, survivor income, disability income, time-off and other needs through competitive, cost-effective, company-sponsored programs. The Committee will provide the executive officers with competitive compensation programs to prepare for retirement and assist in wealth accumulation. These programs will vary by executive and will often be influenced by individual tenure, performance and position. The goal of the Committee is to provide executives with a total compensation package that is competitive with the market, and encourages executives to remain with the organization and help continue to drive QCR Holdings to high levels of performance. These programs currently consist of the following:

401(k) / Profit Sharing Plan this is a qualified, tax-exempt profit sharing plan in which all employees are eligible to participate.

Executive Retirement Benefits this consists of Non-qualified Supplemental Executive Retirement Programs (SERP) and Deferred Compensation Plans (DCP). These plans are intended to provide additional retirement income for the NEOs of QCR Holdings.

Long-Term Deferred Incentive Compensation Program and Deferred Income Plans this consists of programs entered into with certain key senior officers, the 1997 Deferred Income Plan and the 2005 Deferred Income Plan. These plans are intended to provide additional retirement income for the NEOs of QCR Holdings.

Other Compensation this includes perquisites as well as broad-based employee benefits such as medical, dental, disability, and life insurance coverage. The executives receive perquisites in the form of country club dues and automobile allowances, which are similar to other bank holding companies within the industry.

Decisions regarding total compensation program design, as well as individual pay decisions and adjustments will be made in the context of our Executive Compensation Philosophy. The following is a more detailed discussion of the pay components of the executive compensation program.

Salary. Cash salaries are intended to be competitive with the market, and take into account the individual's experience, performance, responsibilities, and past and potential contribution to QCR Holdings. The salaries should offer each executive security and should allow QCR Holdings to maintain a stable management team and environment. The Committee reviews the salaries of the executives on an annual basis. In January 2004, QCR Holdings entered into new employment contracts with each of the NEOs, and the salaries provided in those agreements may be increased to reflect performance of the individual and QCR Holdings. On March 21, 2006 and again on December 14, 2006, QCR Holdings entered into an amended and restated employment agreement with Mr. Bauer as a part of our succession plan, as described on page 29 of this proxy statement. The Committee uses its own judgment and expertise when determining the positioning of the executive salary compared to the competitive marketplace. Examples of the determining factors include the executive's level of responsibility, prior experience, length of time with QCR Holdings, breadth of knowledge and internal performance. There is no specific weighting of the above-mentioned items.

In years prior to 2006, the Committee has benchmarked executive salaries at both the 50th and the 65th percentile of the competitive market. Given recent performance, the Committee has targeted executive salaries at the 50th percentile of the competitive market. Historically, targeted salaries have been at a lower competitive position than target total compensation including targeted incentives, as the Committee prefers to have a significant portion of each executive's total compensation to be considered at risk and linked directly to performance.

On January 25, 2007, based on recommendations from the Committee, QCR Holdings' board approved the salaries for all NEOs for 2007, effective January 1, 2007. The board approved the following executive officer salaries:

Executive	2006 Salary	2007 Salary
Douglas M. Hultquist	$220,500	$205,500 ⁽¹⁾
Michael A. Bauer	$220,500	$220,500
Todd A. Gipple	$178,500	$182,500 ⁽²⁾
Larry J. Helling	$200,000	$200,000

⁽¹⁾ Mr. Hultquist voluntarily reduced his salary by $15,000, based on QCR Holdings' financial performance in 2006.

⁽²⁾ Mr. Gipple's base salary was increased by $4,000 to recognize the additional responsibility of President and Chief Executive Officer of Quad City Bancard effective January 1, 2007.

In setting these base salaries, the Committee considered the compensation philosophy and guiding principles described in this section; the experience and industry knowledge of the NEO and the quality and effectiveness of their leadership, the mix of performance pay to total compensation and the base salary paid to the officers in comparable positions in the peer groups, using the 50th percentile as our point of reference.

Annual Cash Incentive (Bonus). The Committee uses annual cash incentives (bonuses) to reward the executives for achieving short-term corporate and individual performance objectives. Specifically, each executive has measurable goals that are determined by the Committee and focus on earnings per share, return on equity, asset growth, and other financial performance. The Committee believes the executive officers should have a significant portion of their total compensation package at risk and available through an annual cash incentive program.

In 2006, the Committee defined specific threshold, target, and maximum award opportunities as a percentage of salary for each executive. The specific percentages are based on the individual executive's position and competitive market data for similar positions. The annual incentive opportunities when combined with salaries are designed to position total cash compensation at approximately the 50th percentile for target-level performance, and the 65th percentile for maximum-level performance. The 2006 awards were contingent primarily on performance relative to goals for EPS, return on equity, and asset growth, which are objectives that are aligned with those of QCR Holdings' stockholders. The performance criteria were weighted to reflect QCR Holdings' 2006 strategic objectives. In addition, certain executives also had individual performance goals that were consistent with QCR Holdings' 2006 strategic objectives and more closely aligned with their specific role with QCR Holdings, as well as a subjective component scored by the Committee.

After taking into account the weighting of all criteria and the resulting performance of QCR Holdings and the executive officers, the Committee determined that the actual annual cash incentive (bonus) for 2006 were calculated as shown in the table below. The table indicates the award opportunities for 2006 at target, as well as each executive's actual award, both presented as a percentage of salary.

Executive	Target Award	Actual Award
Douglas M. Hultquist	65.0%	25.0%
Michael A. Bauer	65.0%	29.2%
Todd A. Gipple	45.0%	27.8%
Larry J. Helling	40.0%	33.6%

Cash Compensation. The combination of salary plus the annual cash incentive (bonus) makes up cash compensation. Given recent performance the Committee has targeted cash compensation between the 50th and 65th percentile with the higher level attainable when it is warranted by performance.

Long-Term Incentives (LTI). The Committee believes executive officers should have a meaningful portion of their total compensation opportunity linked to increasing shareholder value. The Committee also believes it is appropriate to provide executive officers with the opportunity to receive annual stock-based awards that are contingent upon individual performance and QCR Holdings' results. Long-term incentives, typically in the form of equity grants, are used to encourage ownership, increase proprietary interest in the success of QCR Holdings, and encourage retention of the executive officers. The Committee believes the long-term incentive awards promote tax efficiency and replace some of the benefit opportunities the executives lose due to regulatory limitations. The Committee has granted stock options in the past through the 1993 Stock Option Plan, the 1997 Stock Incentive Plan, and the 2004 Stock Incentive Plan. Stock options have been used to reinforce QCR Holdings' long-term goals and retain its valued executives. To support that objective, the Committee has implemented an annual equity granting methodology and has provided annual grants to the NEOs in both 2006 and 2005. The Committee has implemented a performance-based equity granting methodology for future equity grants. The performance-based award opportunities will be determined as a percentage of the executive salary in a similar fashion to an annual incentive plan. The Committee is also exploring alternative equity vehicles to stock options and the 2004 Stock Incentive Plan provides us with the ability to grant restricted stock and stock appreciation rights in addition to stock options.

For Messrs. Hultquist, Gipple and Helling, the long-term incentive awards are contingent on achieving the same financial performance goals that are used to measure executive officer performance for purposes of current year cash incentive awards. If QCR Holdings does not meet the threshold level of performance the executives will not receive the annual equity awards. The 2007 long-term incentive award opportunities, and the related financial performance measures were communicated to the executives in January 2007. For Mr. Bauer, the long-term incentive awards are contingent on the success of the overall transition and execution of the succession plan. In 2006, the stock option grants were granted on a discretionary basis.

Summary of LTI Opportunities for 2007 performance-based awards. As shown in the table below, the Committee has targeted equity compensation incentives between 15% and 20% of salary with maximum performance historically allowing for compensation incentives between 30% and 40% of salary. This table shows the award opportunities for the 2007 performance-based equity grants at threshold, target, and maximum levels. The table shows the awards as a percentage of salary for each executive, based upon grant date fair value as used for determining expense in the financial statements.

The Committee will grant equity awards based on 2007 executive officer performance, which will have a three-year vesting schedule after grant.

2007 Performance-Based Equity Incentive Plan (Grant Value Stock Option Awards as a Percent of Salary)

Executive	Threshold	Target	Maximum
Douglas M. Hultquist	16.25%	32.50%	65.00%
Michael A. Bauer	10.00%	20.00%	40.00%
Todd A. Gipple	8.75%	17.50%	35.00%
Larry J. Helling	7.50%	15.00%	30.00%

Total Direct Compensation. The sum of cash compensation plus the annual equity long-term incentive awards creates total direct compensation. The Committee has targeted total direct compensation between the 50th and 65th percentile with the higher level attainable when it is warranted by performance.

Timing of Equity Grants. In previous years QCR Holdings did not have a formal written policy guiding the timing of equity grants and would make such awards at our regularly scheduled meeting in January of each year. Additionally, all past grants have been priced appropriately at fair market value on the date of grant and in accordance with the terms of the appropriate Stock Option or Incentive Plan.

QCR Holdings recently adopted a formal policy regarding the equity grant process and related controls. The guidelines are to help ensure that all equity grants are properly and legally made, are reported and disclosed correctly and accurately, are properly accounted for, and receive proper tax treatment.

Stock Option and Equity Incentive Plans

1993 Stock Option Plan. In 1993, QCR Holdings adopted a stock option plan for the benefit of directors, officers, and employees of QCR Holdings and its subsidiaries. The plan was approved by stockholders and provided for the issuance of incentive stock options, nonqualified stock options and tax benefit rights. All of the options under the plan have been granted, and on June 30, 2003, the plan expired.

Table of Contents

1997 Stock Incentive Plan. In 1997, we adopted the QCR Holdings, Inc. Stock Incentive Plan for the benefit of our directors, officers and employees. The plan was approved by stockholders and provided for the issuance of incentive stock options, nonqualified stock options, restricted stock, tax benefit rights and stock appreciation rights. All of the awards available for issuance under the plan have been issued, although options remain outstanding.

2004 Stock Incentive Plan. In 2004, we adopted the QCR Holdings, Inc. Stock Incentive Plan for the benefit of our directors, officers and employees. The plan was approved by stockholders and authorized 225,000 shares for issuance under the plan. This plan provides for the issuance of incentive stock options, nonqualified stock options, restricted stock, tax benefit rights and stock appreciation rights. As of December 31, 2006, there are 124,996 remaining options available for grant under this plan.

2002 Stock Purchase Plan. QCR Holdings adopted and stockholders approved the QCR Holdings, Inc. Employee Stock Purchase Plan in 2002. The plan is intended to qualify as an employee stock purchase plan under Section 423 of the Internal Revenue Code. The plan allows employees of QCR Holdings and our subsidiaries to purchase shares of common stock available under the plan. The purchase price is currently 90% of the lesser of the fair market value at the date of the grant or the investment date. The investment date is the date common stock is purchased after the end of each calendar quarter during an offering period. During 2006, the maximum dollar amount any one participant can elect to contribute in an offering period is $5,000 and the maximum percentage that any one participant can elect to contribute is 5% of his or her compensation. During 2006, Messrs. Hultquist, Bauer, Gipple and Helling further limited their contribution to $50 per pay period, or $1,300 for the year. Beginning January 1, 2007, the maximum percentage that any one participant can elect to contribute is 8% of his or her compensation. During 2007, Messrs. Hultquist, Bauer, Gipple and Helling will limit their contribution to $100 per pay period, or $2,600 for the year. During 2006, 14,552 shares were purchased under the plan.

401(k) Retirement Savings Plan. QCR Holdings sponsors a qualified, tax-exempt profit sharing plan qualifying under Section 401(k) of the Internal Revenue Code. All employees are eligible to participate in the plan. Pursuant to the plan, QCR Holdings matches 100% of the first 3% of employee contributions and 50% of the next 3% of employee contributions, up to a maximum of 4.5% of an employee's compensation. Additionally, at its discretion, QCR Holdings may make additional contributions to the plan, which are allocated to the accounts of participants based on relative compensation. The total contributions under the 401(k) plan for the benefit of our NEOs are reflected in the Summary Compensation Table on page 25 of this proxy statement.

Non-qualified Supplemental Executive Retirement Program (SERP). QCR Holdings provides SERP benefits to its key executives, which will provide supplemental retirement income to the NEOs. The SERP arrangements are an important, common component of competitive compensation packages in comparable banks; forty percent (40%) of QCR Holdings' peer group currently utilize SERP arrangements. Furthermore, the SERP arrangements include retention and non-competition provisions that protect QCR Holdings and help support the objective of maintaining a stable, committed, and qualified team of key executives.

QCR Holdings currently has SERP arrangements in place for Messrs. Hultquist, Bauer, Gipple, and Helling. The SERP arrangements were approved by QCR Holdings in April 2004, and have an effective date of May 2004. Under the agreements, the executives will receive a supplemental retirement benefit in an annual pre-tax amount equal to 2.5% for each year of full-time service until the executive reaches age 65 (not to exceed 40 years), multiplied by the executive's average annual base salary plus cash bonus for the three most recently completed plan years, subject to a maximum of 70%.

Table of Contents

The supplemental retirement benefit will be reduced by any contributions plus earnings thereon made by QCR Holdings to the credit of the executive pursuant to the QCR Holdings, Inc. 401(k)/Profit Sharing Plan or other deferred compensation plans. The supplemental retirement benefit payable under the plans will generally be made in monthly installments for a period of 180 months. If an executive retires after reaching age 55 (but before reaching age 65) and has at least 10 years of service, QCR Holdings will pay a supplemental early retirement benefit made in monthly installments for a period of 180 months to the executive. The SERP arrangements also provide for the payment of a survivor's benefit payable to a participating executive's beneficiary upon the executive's death.

Pursuant to the existing SERP arrangements, assuming the participating executives retire on or after reaching age 65 and based on the participants' salary and cash bonus paid for 2006, we will owe the following projected annual amounts: Mr. Hultquist $214,036; Mr. Gipple $270,433; Mr. Helling $98,849. These amounts are for illustrative purposes only and do not reflect the reduction in payments as described above and do not reflect any annual increases in the executives' salaries. Mr. Bauer's SERP arrangement was amended on March 21, 2006 with respect to his upcoming retirement, to provide a fixed benefit of $117,000 per year commencing upon attainment of age 60.

Deferred Compensation Plan Agreements (DCPs). QCR Holdings has entered into DCPs with the executive officers to allow them to defer a portion of their salary or annual bonus. These plans are voluntary, non-tax qualified, deferred compensation plans that enable the executives to save for retirement by deferring a portion of their current cash compensation. QCR Holdings matches these deferrals up to certain maximums and interest is earned at the prime rate subject to certain floor and cap rates, as follows:

Executive	Deferred Compensation Plan Agreements
	2006 Match Maximum	2007 Match Maximum	Interest Rate Floor and Cap
Douglas M. Hultquist	$15,000	$15,000	8.00% - 10.00%
Michael A. Bauer	$20,000	$20,000	8.00% - 10.00%
Todd A. Gipple	$10,000	$10,000	6.00% - 12.00%
Larry J. Helling	$12,000	$12,000	8.00% - 12.00%

Our analyses of competitive positioning of total compensation took into account the value of both the SERP arrangements and the DCP agreements of the NEOs. Market data on the benefits and prevalence of SERP arrangements and DCP agreements in peer banks was utilized when implementing these plans. The SERP arrangements and DCP agreements are consistent with the compensation philosophy of QCR Holdings.

Long-Term Deferred Incentive Compensation Program. QCR Holdings has entered into a Long-Term Deferred Incentive Compensation Program with certain key senior management members at Cedar Rapids Bank & Trust, Rockford Bank & Trust and First Wisconsin Bank & Trust. Mr. Helling is a participant in this program. The program is administered by the Committee and results in deferred incentive compensation contributions being made into the plan, for the benefit of the participants, if certain growth and earnings objectives are met. Mr. Helling is a participant in the plan for the years 2006 through 2011, and can earn a range of between $16,000 and $120,000 annually based on the performance of Cedar Rapids Bank & Trust. Mr. Helling did not earn any deferred incentive compensation in 2006 as the minimum Return on Equity measure under the plan of 12.00% was not reached.

Deferred Income Plans. QCR Holdings adopted and stockholders approved the 1997 Deferred Income Plan and 2005 Deferred Income Plan to enable directors and selected key officers of QCR Holdings and its related companies, to elect to defer all or a portion of the fees and cash compensation payable to them for their service as directors or employees. The NEOs participated in the 1997 Deferred Income Plan in 2004 and prior years by deferring 100% of the director fees that they had earned from their service as directors. None of the NEOs have participated in the 1997 or 2005 Deferred Income plans since December 31, 2004 when QCR Holdings terminated board fees for inside directors.

Other Compensation. The NEOs participate in QCR Holdings' broad-based employee benefit plans, such as medical, dental, and life insurance programs. The NEOs also receive an automobile allowance, fuel, maintenance and insurance expense of such automobile and payments for country club memberships. In addition, QCR Holdings pays for tax planning and preparation services for each of the NEOs. The value of the perquisites provided by or paid for by QCR Holdings are reflected in the Summary Compensation Table on page 25 of this proxy statement.

Summary of Pay Components. The previously mentioned pay components are used to balance and achieve various objectives. The Committee desires to balance short-term and long-term objectives, so annual incentives are combined with long-term incentives. To attract executives, maintain a stable team of effective leaders, and provide non-competition and other protections for QCR Holdings, the compensation programs include components such as employment agreements and SERP arrangements. The compensation framework balances the executives' need for current cash, security, and funds to cover taxes on long-term incentives (through vehicles such as salary and annual incentives) with the need for alignment of executives' long-term interests with those of stockholders (through vehicles such as equity grants). The components provide a degree of security at the threshold level of compensation, while motivating executives to focus on the strategic goals that will produce both outstanding company financial performance and long-term incentives that align the interest of management with the long-term stockholders.

Pay Level

Pay levels for executives are determined based on a number of factors, including the individual's roles and responsibilities within QCR Holdings, the individual's experience and expertise, the pay levels for peers within QCR Holdings, pay levels in the marketplace for similar positions and performance of the individual and QCR Holdings as a whole. The Committee is responsible for approving pay levels for the executive officers. In determining these pay levels, the Committee considers all forms of compensation and benefits.

As noted earlier, compensation structure for QCR Holdings executives is designed to position an executive's total compensation near the 50th percentile of comparable companies, assuming QCR Holdings' performance is at target levels. In 2006, the Committee worked with Clark Consulting to review total compensation levels for the NEOs. Total compensation consists of salary, cash compensation (salary and annual cash incentives), direct compensation (cash compensation and all forms of equity compensation), and total compensation (direct compensation and all other forms of compensation, such as SERP accruals).

Chief Executive Officer (CEO) Comparisons. The Committee reviewed compensation comparisons for the CEO and a combination of the top two executives of the peer group when determining the CEO compensation. This review of the combined top two positions was requested specifically by the Committee, given the unique leadership structure at QCR Holdings. QCR Holdings' executive leadership and compensation structure was designed in the past to meet our dual leadership structure. Mr. Hultquist has been in the position of the President and CEO of QCR Holdings and

Chairman of Quad City Bank & Trust, and Mr. Bauer has been in the position of President and CEO of Quad City Bank & Trust and Chairman of QCR Holdings. In the past, the Committee has targeted identical levels of compensation for these two individuals. The two founding executives have operated as a dual CEO Team for both QCR Holdings and Quad City Bank & Trust since the inception of the entities. The Committee has targeted a total compensation package that is competitive when compared to the combined total compensation levels of the top two positions in a peer group of comparable companies. However, the leadership structure of QCR Holdings will be changing in 2007 and beyond given the upcoming retirement of Mr. Bauer (as discussed on page 29 of this proxy statement). Beyond 2006, Mr. Bauer's compensation will be determined based on his duties with Quad City Bank & Trust and his incentive performance will be based on specific goals and objectives on behalf of Quad City Bank & Trust. Mr. Hultquist's compensation in years beyond 2006 will be based on his role as the sole CEO of QCR Holdings. Based on the recent performance of QCR Holdings, Mr. Hultquist's compensation will be compared to the 50th percentile of the competitive peer group and transitioned to that level during the period preceding Mr. Bauer's retirement in May 2009. The Committee believes strongly in a "pay for performance" compensation philosophy and the exact percentile positioning versus the peer group will be dependent on the performance of QCR Holdings.

Other Officer Comparisons: The Committee also reviewed compensation comparisons for the other NEOs. The entire peer group was utilized for these comparisons, but the individual NEOs were only benchmarked to peer group NEOs with similar position titles and responsibilities.

After consideration of the data collected on external competitive levels of compensation and based on each executive officer's role within the executive group, the Committee makes decisions regarding individual executives' target total compensation opportunities based on the need to attract, motivate and retain an experienced and effective management team.

As noted above, notwithstanding QCR Holdings' overall pay positioning objectives, pay opportunities for specific individuals vary based on a number of factors such as individual experience, scope of duties, and individual Company knowledge. Actual total compensation in a given year will vary above or below the target compensation levels based primarily on the attainment of performance-goals under the annual incentive and long-term incentive plans. In some instances, the amount and structure of compensation results from arm's-length negotiations with executives, which reflect an increasingly competitive market for quality, proven managerial talent.

Review of Prior Amounts Granted and Realized. The Committee desires to motivate and reward executives relative to driving superior future performance, so prior stock compensation gains are not currently considered as a factor in determining future compensation levels.

Adjustment or Recovery of Awards

QCR Holdings has not adopted a formal policy or any employment agreement provisions that enable recovery, or clawback, of incentive awards in the event of misstated or restated financial results. However, Section 304 of Sarbanes-Oxley does provide some ability to recover incentive awards in certain circumstances. If QCR Holdings is required to restate its financials due to noncompliance with any financial reporting requirements as a result of misconduct, the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer must reimburse QCR Holdings for (1) any bonus or other incentive- or equity-based compensation received during the 12 months following the first public issuance of the non-complying document, and (2) any profits realized from the sale of securities of QCR Holdings during those 12 months.

Stock Ownership Guidelines

QCR Holdings does not have any stock ownership requirements for its executive officers or directors. Both the executive officers as a group and the directors as a group have made and continue to maintain significant investment in QCR Holdings.

Employment Agreements and Post-Termination Payments

On January 1, 2004, QCR Holdings entered into separate Employment Agreements with each of the NEOs. On March 21, 2006 and again on December 14, 2006, QCR Holdings entered into an amended and restated employment agreement with Mr. Bauer as a part of our succession plan, as described on page 29 of this proxy statement.

These agreements provide for severance compensation to be paid if the executive's employment is terminated under certain conditions, such as termination by the executive, following a change in control, or termination by us other than due to death or disability, for cause or upon a material breach of the agreement. The appropriate terms are defined in the employment agreements.

The employment agreements between us and the NEOs and the related severance provisions are designed to meet the following objectives:

Change in Control. As part of our normal course of business, we engage in discussions with other companies about possible collaborations and/or other ways in which the companies may work together to further our respective long-term objectives. In addition, many larger, established companies consider companies at similar stages of development to ours as potential acquisition targets. In certain scenarios, the potential for merger or being acquired may be in the best interests of our stockholders. We provide severance compensation if an executive's employment is terminated following a change in control transaction to promote the ability of our senior executives to act in the best interests of our stockholders even though their employment could be terminated as a result of the transaction.

Termination without Cause. If we terminate the employment of an executive officer without cause as defined in the applicable agreement, we are obligated to continue to pay him certain amounts.

We believe these payments are appropriate because the terminated executive is bound by confidentiality, nonsolicitation and non-compete provisions and because the executive and we have a mutually agreed to severance package that is in place prior to any termination event. This provides us with more flexibility to make a change in senior management if such a change is in our and our stockholders' best interests.

Tax and Accounting Considerations

QCR Holdings takes into account tax and accounting implications in the design of its compensation programs. For example, in the selection of long-term incentive instruments, the Committee reviews the projected expense amounts and expense timing associated with alternative types of awards. Under current accounting rules (i.e., Financial Accounting Standard 123, as revised in 2004), QCR Holdings must expense the grant-date fair value of share-based grants such as stock options, restricted stock, and SARs settled in stock. The grant-date value is amortized and expensed over the service period or vesting period of the grant. In contrast, awards that are not share-based (e.g., SARs settled in cash) are expensed based on a value that may fluctuate widely over the vesting period and is not fixed at grant date. In selecting appropriate incentive devices, the Committee reviews extensive modeling analyses and considers the related tax and accounting issues.

Table of Contents

Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code generally disallows a tax deduction to public corporations for compensation in excess of $1 million paid to the chief executive officer and four other most highly compensated executive officers in any fiscal year. The compensation QCR Holdings paid in 2006 to the NEOs is intended to be deductible under Section 162(m). However, deductibility is not the sole factor used in determining the appropriate levels or methods of compensation. The Committee retains the flexibility to pay non-deductible compensation if it believes doing so is in the best interests of QCR Holdings.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE REPORT ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

The Committee believes our compensation philosophy and policies regarding executive compensation has been established which will allow us to attract and retain exceptional executive officers and to motivate and reward those executives based on high levels of performance, which will contribute to long-term shareholder value.

In performing its oversight role, the Committee has reviewed and discussed the CD&A with management. Based on such review and discussion, the Committee recommended to the board of directors that the 2006 CD&A be included in its Annual Report on Form 10-K and this Proxy Statement.

Succession Plan

In March 2006, Mr. Bauer indicated to our Executive Committee that he intends to retire in 2009 at age 60. The Executive Committee, Mr. Bauer and Mr. Hultquist worked together during the following months to design a succession plan. This succession plan addresses the ongoing needs of QCR Holdings and recognizes Mr. Bauer's contribution to the organization. The Committee believes that the succession plan will further our interests by ensuring a smooth management transition, promoting the continued success and financial performance of QCR Holdings and outlining the continuing relationship with Mr. Bauer. On December 15, 2006, we issued a press release announcing that John H. Anderson will succeed Mr. Bauer as President and Chief Executive Officer of Quad City Bank & Trust at the time of our annual meeting in May of 2007. In the interim, Mr. Anderson has assumed the title of Executive Vice President. After Mr. Anderson becomes the President in May of 2007, Mr. Bauer will move into the role of Vice Chairman of both QCR Holdings and Quad City Bank & Trust and will continue to serve on the boards of both in addition to a number of the our other affiliated bank boards until his retirement in May of 2009. Mr. Bauer will gradually reduce his executive management duties with us over the next two years and continue to play a role beyond the May 2009 retirement date.

As part of the succession plan, Mr. Bauer entered into amended agreements that reflect his employment relationship with us, as more fully described below. As part of our desire to recognize Mr. Bauer's long-standing contribution and to reward his continued contribution during the transition period, the board of directors approved certain amendments to Mr. Bauer's compensation arrangements to provide additional retirement benefits and additional performance-based bonus incentives based on the success of the overall transition. These arrangements are further described in the following sections of this Proxy Statement.

Future arrangements contemplated under the succession plan include our plan to enter into a separate consulting agreement with Mr. Bauer that would take effect upon his retirement from the board of directors in May of 2009. The consulting agreement will provide for fees of up to $2,000 per month, based on customer retention formulas or other fee schedules set by the Executive Committee. Upon Mr. Bauer's retirement from the board of directors of QCR Holdings, we plan to establish and fund a charitable foundation to be administered by Mr. Bauer for the benefit of the local community. Mr. Bauer may earn additional fees of $1,500 per month for services rendered on behalf of the foundation.

Terms of Mr. Douglas M. Hultquist's Employment Agreement

On January 1, 2004, we entered into an employment agreement with Mr. Hultquist. The agreement has a three-year term and in the absence of notice from either party to the contrary, the employment term extends for an additional one year on the anniversary of the agreement. Pursuant to the agreement, Mr. Hultquist will receive a minimum salary of $175,000. The agreement includes provisions for the increase of compensation on an annual basis, performance bonuses, membership in various local clubs, an automobile allowance and participation in our benefit plans. The agreement also provides term life insurance coverage of two times Mr. Hultquist's base salary and average annual bonus as of the date of the agreement, which may be provided through a group term carve-out plan. The agreement further provides for severance compensation equal to one year of salary plus average annual bonus in the event Mr. Hultquist is terminated without cause and three times the sum of salary and average annual bonus if he is terminated within one year following a change in control or if he voluntarily terminates employment within six months of a change in control.

Terms of Mr. Michael A. Bauer's Employment Agreement

On March 21, 2006 and again on December 14, 2006, QCR Holdings entered into an amended and restated employment agreement with Mr. Bauer as part of our succession plan, as described on page 29 of this proxy statement. Both agreements have a term ending on the date of the 2009 annual meeting of stockholders. Consistent with QCR Holdings' corporate succession plan, Mr. Bauer shall serve as President and Chief Executive Officer of Quad City Bank & Trust through May 2, 2007. Upon relinquishing the above titles with Quad City Bank & Trust, Mr. Bauer shall continue as an employee of QCR Holdings and shall become Vice Chairman of the board of directors of Quad City Bank & Trust and QCR Holdings, until otherwise provided by QCR Holdings board of directors. Pursuant to the agreement, Mr. Bauer will receive a salary of $220,500 through his retirement in May 2009. The agreement includes provisions for the possible increase of compensation on an annual basis, performance bonuses, membership in various local clubs, an automobile allowance and participation in our benefit plans. With respect to performance bonuses, the agreement specifically provides for an additional transition incentive bonus arrangement with an opportunity to earn up to $80,000 annually based on overall assistance with the transition contemplated by the succession plan. The payment of the transitional incentive bonus may be credited to Mr. Bauer's deferred income account, with such election to defer made in accordance with applicable laws. The agreement also provides term life insurance coverage of two times Mr. Bauer's base salary and average annual bonus as of the date of the agreement, which may be provided through a group term carve-out plan. The agreement further provides for severance compensation equal to one year of salary plus average annual bonus in the event Mr. Bauer is terminated without cause and a pro-rata share, as if his employment was not terminated, equal to three times the sum of salary plus average annual bonus if he is terminated within one year following a change in control or if he voluntarily terminates employment within six months of a change in control.

Terms of Mr. Todd A. Gipple's Employment Agreement

On January 1, 2004, we entered into an employment agreement with Mr. Gipple. Mr. Gipple's employment agreement provides that Mr. Gipple is to receive a minimum salary of $140,500. The agreement includes a provision for the increase in compensation on an annual basis, performance bonuses, membership in a Quad Cities country club, a monthly automobile allowance and participation in our benefit plans. Mr. Gipple's agreement also provides term life insurance coverage of two times the sum of his base salary and average annual bonus as of the date of the agreement, which may be provided through a group term carve-out plan. The agreement further provides that he is entitled to a payment equal to the sum of one-half of his then-current annual salary plus one-half of his average annual bonus if he is terminated without cause and two times the sum of his annual salary and average annual bonus if he is terminated within one year following a change in control or if he voluntarily terminates employment within six months of a change in control.

Terms of Mr. Larry J. Helling's Employment Agreement

On January 1, 2004, we entered into an employment agreement with Mr. Helling. Mr. Helling's employment agreement provides that Mr. Helling is to receive a base annual salary of $167,000. The agreement includes a provision for the increase in compensation on an annual basis, performance bonuses, a monthly automobile allowance, membership in various country clubs and participation in our benefit plans. Mr. Helling's agreement also provides term life insurance coverage of two times the sum of his base salary and average annual bonus as of the date of the agreement, which may be provided through a group term carve-out plan. The agreement further provides for a severance payment equal to six months of his salary in the event of a termination without cause and two times his annual salary in the event he is terminated within one year following a change in control or if he voluntarily terminates employment within six months of a change in control. Additionally, Mr. Helling's agreement allows him to participate in the Cedar Rapids Long-term Deferred Incentive Compensation Program (as described under the heading "Long-Term Deferred Incentive Compensation Program"). Under the agreement, Mr. Helling will be allocated a total of 40% of amounts paid pursuant to the incentive program.

(1) In the event the NEO is terminated for cause or voluntarily terminates his employment, QCR Holdings would pay his accrued and unpaid salary, and any accrued and unpaid personal days and would have no further obligations to the NEO. Cause is defined in each NEOs employment agreement.

- (2) In the event of each of the NEOs disability during the employment term, payments based upon his then current annual salary and the average annual bonus shall continue thereafter through the last day of the one (1) year period beginning on the date of disability, after which time the NEOs employment shall terminate. Payments made in the event of the NEOs disability shall be equal to 66-2/3% of his salary and the average annual bonus, less any amounts received under his short or long-term disability programs, as applicable. The above amounts do not reflect the offset of disability insurance benefits.

- (3) In the event of each of the NEOs death during the employment term, the NEO shall be paid his accrued and unpaid salary, and his earned annual bonus for the year in which he died prorated on a per diem basis through the date of death.
- (4) In the event of a change of control, all outstanding options shall become immediately and fully vested, exercisable and unrestricted. This represents the aggregate fair value of option awards unexercisable at December 31, 2006, computed in accordance with FAS 123(R).
- (5) Health insurance coverage comparable to the coverage in effect immediately prior to termination would continue for a period of three years.

- (6) Health insurance coverage comparable to the coverage in effect immediately prior to termination would continue until May 2009.
- (7) A death benefit equal to two times the sum of the NEOs then current annual salary and the average annual bonus would be paid to his beneficiary as of the date of death.
- (8) Upon a change in control of QCR Holdings, the NEO may be subject to certain excise taxes pursuant to Section 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. We have agreed to reimburse each NEO for all excise taxes that are imposed on him under Section 4999 and any income and excise taxes that are payable by him as a result of any reimbursements for Section 4999 excise taxes. The calculation of the 4999 gross-up amount in the above tables is based upon a 4999 excise tax rate of 20%, a 35% federal income tax rate, a 1.45% Medicare tax rate and, for Mr. Hultquist, a 3% state income tax rate and for Mr. Gipple, a 6% state tax income tax rate. Based on the amounts shown in the Change-in-Control column, Messrs. Bauer and Helling would not have an excise tax liability.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

During 2006, the Executive Committee, which sets the salaries and compensation for our executive officers, was comprised solely of independent directors: Messrs. Baird, Brownson, Kilmer, Lawson, Peterson, Rife and Royer. The Compensation and Benefits Committee, which sets the salaries and compensation of all employees who are not executive officers, consisted of Messrs. Bauer, Hultquist, Gipple, Helling, Lawson and Harris, Ms. Bawden and Whiteside. Messrs. Bauer, Hultquist, Gipple and Helling are executives officers and do not participate in any decisions involving their own compensation.

DIRECTOR COMPENSATION

QCR Holdings uses a combination of cash and stock-based incentive compensation to attract and retain qualified candidates to serve on the Board. In setting director compensation, we consider the significant amount of time that Directors expend in fulfilling their duties as well as the skill-level required of members of the Board.

Cash Compensation Paid to Board Members

Members of the board who are not employees of QCR Holdings are entitled to receive an annual cash retainer and an attendance fee of scheduled Board and Committee meetings. Pursuant to the QCR Holdings, Inc. 1997 Deferred Income Plan, a director may elect to defer the fees and cash compensation payable by us for the director's service until either the termination of such director's service on the board or the age specified in the director's deferral election. During 2006, all but three directors deferred 100% of his or her director fees pursuant to the plan, and the total expense for the deferred fees with respect to all participating directors was $298,317 for 2006. Directors who are employees of QCR Holdings

Table of ContentsStock Options

In January 2006, each current non-employee director received a grant of 300 options at the fair market price of QCR Holdings stock on the date of the grant, or $18.38. In March 2006, director Brownson received a grant of 2,350 options, and director Kilmer received a grant of 500 options, for their additional work associated with the succession planning for Mr. Bauer. They were granted at the fair market price of QCR Holdings stock on the grant date, or $18.48. Until an option is exercised, shares subject to options cannot be voted nor are they eligible to receive dividends. The options have a 10-year life and will vest in five equal annual portions beginning one year from the date of grant.

The following table discloses the cash, equity awards and other compensation earned, paid or awarded, as the case may be, to each of our directors during the fiscal year ended 2006.

Table of ContentsSECTION 16(a) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 requires that the directors, executive officers and persons who own more than 10% of our common stock file reports of ownership and changes in ownership with the Securities and Exchange Commission and with the exchange on which the shares of common stock are traded. These persons are also required to furnish us with copies of all Section 16(a) forms they file. Based solely on our review of the copies of such forms furnished to us, and, if appropriate, representations made to us by any reporting person concerning whether a Form 5 was required to be filed for 2006, we are not aware of any failures to comply with the filing requirements of Section 16(a) during 2006.

TRANSACTIONS WITH MANAGEMENT AND DIRECTORS

Our directors and officers and their associates were customers of and had transactions with QCR Holdings and our subsidiaries during 2006. Additional transactions are expected to take place in the future. All outstanding loans, commitments to loan, and certificates of deposit and depository relationships, in the opinion of management, were made in the ordinary course of business, on substantially the same terms, including interest rates and collateral, as those prevailing at the time for comparable transactions with other persons and did not involve more than the normal risk of collectibility or present other unfavorable features. All such loans are approved by the subsidiary banks' board of directors in accordance with the bank regulatory requirements. Additionally, the Audit Committee considers other non-lending transactions between us and a director to ensure that such transactions do not affect a director's independence.

AUDIT COMMITTEE REPORT

The incorporation by reference of this proxy statement into any document filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission by QCR Holdings shall not be deemed to include the following report and related information unless such report is specifically stated to be incorporated by reference into such document.

The Audit Committee assists the board of directors in carrying out its oversight responsibilities for our financial reporting process, audit process and internal controls. The Audit Committee also reviews the audited financial statements and recommends to the board that they be included in our annual report on Form 10-K. The committee is comprised solely of independent directors.

The Audit Committee has reviewed and discussed our audited financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2006 with our management and McGladrey & Pullen, LLP, our independent registered public accounting firm, including their attestation report on management's assessment of the effectiveness of the internal control over financial reporting. The committee has also discussed with McGladrey & Pullen, LLP the matters required to be discussed by SAS 61 (Codification for Statements on Auditing Standards) as well as having received and discussed the written disclosures and the letter from McGladrey & Pullen, LLP required by Independence Standards Board Statement No. 1 (Independence Discussions with Audit Committees). Based on the review and discussions with management and McGladrey & Pullen, LLP, the committee has recommended to the board that the audited financial statements be included in our annual report on Form 10-K for the year ending December 31, 2006 for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

procedures for 2005.

- (3) Tax fees consist of sales tax
consulting fees.

Audit Committee Approval Policy

Among other things, the Audit Committee is responsible for appointing, setting compensation for and overseeing the work of the independent auditor. The Audit Committee's policy is to approve, on a case-by-case basis, all audit and permissible non-audit services provided by any audit, tax consulting or general business consulting firm. The Audit Committee does have a policy of pre-approving any of these services.
