The membership of the Compensation Committee is currently comprised of Messrs. Hasler, Horner, Delikanakis, Andreas Stengos and George Stengos. The Compensation Committee, which is responsible for both the establishment and administration of the policies that govern both annual compensation and stock ownership programs for the Company, and the Special Benefits Committee, which is responsible for both the establishment and administration of the compensation and bonus arrangement for the Chief Executive Officer, have furnished the following report of executive compensation.

The Compensation Committee was formed on March 12, 1998, and therefore did not participate in all components of 1998, 1999 or 2000 compensation.

Edgar Filing: NEWMARK HOMES CORP - Form DEF 14A

Specifically, base salaries of certain executive officers and employees were established pursuant to employment agreements with the executive officers entered into in November 1996, and amended in January 1998. Mr. Carr's employment agreement was amended December 15, 1999 to extend the term through 2002 and to address the change of control that resulted from the sale of 80% of the Common Stock by the Pacific Entities to TOUSA.

The Special Benefits Committee was formed May 12, 2000 to be responsible for the annual compensation and bonus plan of the Chief Executive Officer. On May 12, 2000, the Special Benefits Committee amended Mr. Fedrick's employment agreement to increase his base salary and to address his bonus arrangement.

DETERMINATION OF EXECUTIVE OFFICER COMPENSATION. The compensation policies of the Company are intended to: (i) reward executives for long-term strategic management which results in the enhancement of shareholder values; (ii) support a performance-oriented environment which rewards achievement of both internal Company goals and enhanced Company performance compared to performance levels of comparable companies in the industry; and (iii) attract and retain executives whose abilities are critical to the long-term success and competitiveness of the Company.

The Compensation Committee also evaluated the bonus structure for certain key employees of Westbrooke. Three individuals had received discretionary bonuses in 1998 in addition to the 2% of earnings incentive and the earnout in connection with the Westbrooke acquisition in January 1998. The discretionary portion of bonuses was added to each employee's base compensations and eliminated as part of the bonus structure for 1999 and 2000.

COMPONENTS OF EXECUTIVE OFFICER COMPENSATION. For 2000, the executive compensation program also consisted of two key components: (i) a base salary and (ii) incentive compensation (bonus).

Base salaries paid to executive officers were paid pursuant to agreements described in "Employment Agreements" above. Each executive officer's base salary was established based primarily on the individual officer's level of responsibility and comparisons to similar positions within the Company as well as with other companies in the industry.

In 2000, the Compensation Committee evaluated and approved a 2000 annual bonus program for the senior officers of Newmark Home Corporation and its subsidiaries. The two primary criteria in establishing the program were the level of profitability and expense control. Each bonus was also to be a percentage of the officer's base salary based on job position and experience with the Company. In the budgeting process for the Company, a profit goal or regional contribution target and an expense target were set for each city and region. The amount of bonus earned by the employee will be determined with each factor and actual performance of such factor evaluated.

Minimum threshold performance criteria must be reached before any bonus awards will be granted. In addition, the individual performance of executive officers may be taken into consideration in making any awards.

DETERMINATION OF THE CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER'S COMPENSATION. As Chief Executive Officer, Mr. Fedrick is compensated pursuant to an employment agreement described under "Employment Agreements" above. Mr. Fedrick was paid a base salary and an annual bonus in 2000. Mr. Fedrick's compensation is substantially related to the Company's performance because he receives an annual bonus, determined pursuant to a specific formula, which is based on the achievement of defined net income and expense control levels by Newmark Home Corporation and its subsidiaries. The actual achievement of a level of profitability for the combined cities and expense control are components of Mr. Fedrick's bonus. If the Company achieves the goals, Mr. Fedrick is entitled to receive a percentage of his base compensation. Mr. Fedrick's annual bonus plan was approved at the 2000 Annual Shareholders Meeting held July 17, 2000.

COMPLIANCE WITH SECTION 162(m): Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code (the "Code") generally disallows a tax deduction to public companies for annual compensation over $1 million paid to their chief executive officer and certain other highly compensated executive officers. The Code generally excludes from the calculation of the $1 million cap compensation that is based on the attainment of pre-established, objective performance goals. Where practicable, it is the policy of the Special Benefits Committee and the Compensation Committee to establish compensation practices that are both cost-efficient from a tax standpoint and effective as a compensation program. The committees consider it important to be able to utilize the full range of incentive compensations, even though some compensation may not be fully deductible.

SECTION 16(a) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE.

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, requires the Company's executive officers and directors and persons who own more than 10% of the Company's stock, as well as certain affiliates of such persons, to file the initial reports of ownership and changes in ownership with the SEC and NASDAQ. These parties are required to furnish the Company with copies of such forms they file. Based solely on a review of the copies of the Section 16(a) forms and amendments thereto received by the Company and on written representations that no other reports were required, the Company believes that all reports required pursuant to Section 16(a) for fiscal year 2000 were timely filed by all persons known by the Company to be required to file such reports with respect to the Company's securities.

CERTAIN TRANSACTIONS

TAX ALLOCATION AGREEMENT-TOUSA.

Pursuant to a Tax Allocation Agreement between TOUSA and the Company dated March 15, 2000 and effective as of December 16, 1999, the Company's earnings may be included in the consolidated federal income tax returns filed by TOUSA. The amount of the Company's liability to (or entitlement to payment from) TOUSA will equal the amount of taxes that the Company would owe (or refund that it would receive) had it prepared its federal tax returns on a stand-alone basis. In addition, under federal income tax law, each member of a consolidated group (as determined for federal income tax purposes) is also jointly and severally liable for the federal income tax liability of the consolidated group. Pursuant to the Tax Allocation Agreement-TOUSA, TOUSA has agreed to indemnify the Company for payments which TOUSA has already received from the Company or with respect to any tax liabilities of TOUSA or its affiliated entities other than the Company. The Company made a payment of $1.5 million related to this agreement to TOUSA on March 15, 2000 for the period beginning December 16, 1999 and ending December 31, 1999. The Company made additional payments totaling $13.9 million during and for the year ending December 31, 2000 related to this agreement.

WESTBROOKE ACQUISITION AMENDMENT.

Pursuant to the Stock Purchase Agreement dated January 15, 1998 entered into in connection with the acquisition of Westbrooke, certain additional consideration or "earn-out payments" based on Westrooke achieving specified income targets over a five year period became due and payable to James Carr, the prior majority owner of Westbrooke, and key employees of Westbrooke upon a change of control. Westbrooke and the Company entered into an Amendment to Stock Purchase Agreement dated December 15, 1999 with Mr. Carr and the key employees regarding the amount and timing of the additional consideration as well as the acquisition of certain partnership interests from the key employees. The additional consideration for the acquisition of Westbrooke paid to Mr. Carr was in the form of a $4.6 million promissory note with extended payment terms. On January 15, 2001, the Company, Mr. Carr and the key employees entered into the Second Amendment to Stock Purchase Agreement regarding the amount and timing of certain of the payments to Mr. Carr and the key employees. Mr. Carr is a director and an Executive Vice President of the Company.

ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES.

Pacific USA provided certain administrative services to and for the Company prior to the change of control on December 15, 1999. Functions that were performed by Pacific USA included payroll and employee benefits administration and the evaluation and negotiation under national contracts for the purchase of office supplies, long distance telephone and overnight delivery services. The costs of these office supplies, long distance and overnight delivery services may have differed from those available to the Company if it were to have negotiated these contracts on its own. The Company entered into a Services Agreement with Pacific USA on December 15, 1999 to continue to provide payroll and employee benefits administration, as well as certain other functions. The Company made payments totaling $414,000 during and for the year ending December 31, 2000 related to this agreement. This Services Agreement was terminated December 31, 2000.

Mr. Horner is the chairman of Pacific USA.

CAPITAL ACCUMULATION PLAN.

The Company and Pacific USA entered into a Schedule of Continuing Payments Related to the Capital Accumulation Plan (the "Schedule"), such Schedule dated November 1, 1999. Benefits from the CAP Plan, a former executive bonus plan earned in 1997 and prior years, were and are payable to Mr. Fedrick, Mr. Rome, Mr. White, Mr. Beckett and certain other officers of Newmark Home Corporation. Pursuant to the Schedule, Pacific USA agreed to contribute $200,394 for the annual payments by the Company in both January 2000 and 2001. See the "Summary Compensation Table" and the footnotes thereto.

MANAGEMENT SERVICES AGREEMENT.

TOUSA, through its subsidiary Techolym, L.P., provided certain corporate and staff support and management services to and for the Company in fiscal year 2000. Functions that were performed by TOUSA included consultation with and assistance to the Board of Directors and management of the Company in connection with issues involving any and all matters of the business affairs of the Company. MORTGAGE COMPANY BUSINESS.

On March 9, 2001, the Company acquired for nominal consideration a 49.99% limited partnership interest in Technical Mortgage, L.P., a Texas limited partnership, that is a mortgage origination company owned jointly with Preferred Home Mortgage Company, a Florida corporation that is an affiliate of TOUSA. Preferred Home Mortgage Company underwrites, originates and sells mortgages for homes the Company builds and for other homebuilders. The Company's capital is not at risk in connection with these mortgages beyond its limited partnership interest.

CONTRACTOR AGREEMENT.

On November 6, 2000, the Company entered into a Contractor Agreement with Technical Olympic S.A. ("TOSA"), an affiliate of TOUSA. TOSA agreed to provide certain construction services and to purchase such materials, supplies and labor on behalf of the Company pursuant to certain third-party contracts assigned to TOSA by the Company or its subsidiaries, all in an effort to consolidate the purchasing function. The Company maintained the right to contract directly for any construction services and purchase any goods and services from any vendors in its own free unlimited discretion. (Although TOSA would incur certain franchise tax expense, the Company and its subsidiaries are not liable for such additional purchasing liability.) The Company paid on behalf of TOSA, for goods and services pursuant to this Agreement, $51.0 million during the fiscal year ending December 31, 2000.

II. OTHER MATTERS

RELATIONSHIP WITH INDEPENDENT AUDITOR.

BDO Seidman, LLP ("BDO") was appointed on January 27, 1999 as the independent auditor for the Company and its subsidiaries and has reported on the Company's consolidated financial statements included in the Annual Report on Form 10-K of the Company which accompanies this proxy statement. The Company's independent auditor is appointed by the Audit Committee and reaffirmed by the Board of Directors. A representative of BDO is expected to be present at the Meeting, will have an opportunity to make a statement if such representative desires to do so and will be available to respond to appropriate questions of shareholders.

KPMG LLP ("KPMG") acted as the Company's independent auditors for fiscal years 1994 through 1997. The Company dismissed KPMG as its independent auditors on January 27, 1999, and engaged BDO as its new independent auditors for Fiscal Year 1998. The dismissal occurred as a result of Pacific Electric Wire & Cable's request that all of the companies consolidated into their financial statements be audited by their auditor, BDO.

During the past three years, the auditor's reports did not contain any adverse opinions or disclaimers of opinion and were not qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope, or accounting principles. The dismissal of KPMG was approved by the Company's Audit Committee of the Board of Directors. The Company and KPMG did not have any disagreements with regard to any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure. During the Company's two fiscal years and during the interim period prior to the dismissal of KPMG, the Company did not experience any reportable disagreement with KPMG on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure. BDO reviewed the past financial statements for the Company in making its determination to accept the engagement with the Company. The Company did not have any disagreements with KPMG and therefore did not discuss any past disagreements with BDO.

In a letter filed as Exhibit 16.1 to the Company's Current Report on Form 8-K dated February 3, 1999, as amended, KPMG confirmed its concurrence with the disclosures made above.

AUDIT FEES.

The aggregate fees billed for professional services rendered for the audit of the Company's annual financial statements for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2000, and for the reviews of the financial statements included in the Company's Form 10-Q's for such fiscal year were $119,000.

FINANCIAL INFORMATION SYSTEMS DESIGN AND IMPLEMENTATION FEES.

BDO did not provide, and the Company did not pay BDO for, professional services described in Paragraph (c)(4)(ii) of Rule 2-01 of Regulation S-X.

ALL OTHER FEES.

BDO did not provide, and the Company did not pay BDO for, any professional services other than the Audit Fees set forth above.

The Audit Committee has considered the fees paid to BDO and has determined that such fees are compatible with maintaining the principal accountant's independence.
