THE COMPANY

Newpark Resources, Inc. is a diversified oil and gas industry supplier. We provide our products and services primarily to the oil and gas exploration and production industry in the U.S. Gulf Coast, West Texas, U.S. mid-continent, U.S. Rocky Mountains, Canada, Mexico, Brazil and areas of Europe and North Africa surrounding the Mediterranean Sea. Further, we are expanding our presence outside the oil and gas exploration and production sector, particularly in our Mats and Integrated Services segment, where we are marketing to utilities, municipalities, and government sectors.

Our principal executive offices are located at 2700 Research Forest Drive, Suite 100, The Woodlands, Texas 77381, and our telephone number at that address is (281) 362-6800. Our website address is <http://www.newpark.com>. However, information contained on our website is not incorporated by reference into this prospectus, and you should not consider the information contained on our website to be part of this prospectus.

RISK FACTORS

An investment in our common stock is subject to numerous risks, including those listed under the caption Risk Factors incorporated by reference to our 2008 Form 10-K. You should carefully consider these risks, along with the information provided elsewhere in this prospectus and the documents we incorporate by reference in this prospectus before investing in the common stock. You could lose all or part of your investment in the common stock.

USE OF PROCEEDS

The shares of common stock to be offered and sold pursuant to this prospectus will be offered and sold by the selling stockholder. We will not receive any proceeds from the sale of the shares by the selling stockholder, although we may receive proceeds from the exercise of the warrant. We cannot guarantee that the selling stockholder will exercise the warrant. If we do receive proceeds from the exercise of the warrant, we will use such proceeds for general corporate purposes.

SELLING STOCKHOLDER

The common stock to be issued upon exercise of the warrant currently held by the selling stockholder was previously registered with the SEC for resale by Fletcher International Ltd. under that certain registration statement on Form S-3 under the Securities Act of 1933 (File No. 333-39978), filed with the SEC on June 23, 2000 (the Original Registration Statement), in accordance with the registration rights set forth in the agreement pursuant to which the warrant was originally issued. In 2006, as the result of an internal investigation, we restated our consolidated financial statements for the years ended December 31, 2005, 2004 and 2003 as well as our selected financial data as of and for the years ended December 31, 2005, 2004, 2003, 2002 and 2001. In the course of this restatement, we were delinquent in making certain requisite filings required under the Exchange Act. As a result, the Original Registration Statement is no longer effective. We filed a post-effective amendment to the Original Registration Statement to deregister the securities on January 22, 2009. We are filing this registration statement on Form S-3 under the Securities Act to re-register the resale of the common stock to be issued upon exercise of the warrant, which is now held by the selling stockholder.

The shares of common stock being registered hereunder are issuable pursuant to the exercise of the warrant held by the selling stockholder. The warrant was acquired by the selling stockholder from an affiliate, which acquired the warrant from Fletcher International Ltd., a non-affiliated third party, in a private transaction.

The following table sets forth information regarding the selling stockholder and the number of shares of common stock the selling stockholder is offering. The term selling stockholder includes donees, pledgees, transferees, or other successors-in-interest selling securities received from the named selling stockholder as a gift, pledge, stockholder distribution or other non-sale related transfer after the date of this prospectus. Under the rules of the SEC, beneficial ownership includes shares over which the indicated beneficial owner exercises voting or investment power. The percentage ownership data is based on 88,493,557 shares of our common stock issued and outstanding as of February 24, 2009.

The term selling stockholder includes donees, pledgees, transferees, or other successors-in-interest selling securities received from the named selling stockholder as a gift, pledge, stockholder distribution or other non-sale related transfer after the date of this prospectus.

In connection with sales of the common stock or otherwise, the selling stockholder may enter into hedging transactions with broker-dealers, which may in turn engage in short sales of the common stock in the course of hedging in positions they assume. The selling stockholder may also sell shares of common stock short and deliver shares of common stock to close out short positions, or loan or pledge shares of common stock to broker-dealers that in turn may sell those shares. If the selling stockholder effects such transactions by selling shares of common stock to or through underwriters, broker-dealers or agents, those underwriters, broker-dealers or agents may receive commissions in the form of discounts, concessions or commissions from the selling stockholder or commissions from purchasers of the shares of common stock for whom they may act as agent or to whom they may sell as principal. Any such discounts, concessions or commissions as to particular underwriters, brokers-dealers or agents may be in excess of those customary in the types of transactions involved.

Table of Contents

The selling stockholder may from time to time pledge or grant a security interest in some or all of the shares of common stock owned by it. If the selling stockholder defaults in the performance of its secured obligations, the pledgees or secured parties may offer and sell the shares of common stock from time to time under this prospectus or an amendment to this prospectus under Rule 424(b)(3) or other applicable provision of the Securities Act of 1933 amending the list of selling stockholders to include the pledgee, transferee or other successors in interest as selling stockholders under this prospectus. The selling stockholder also may transfer the shares of common stock in other circumstances, in which case the transferees, pledgees or other successors in interest will be the selling beneficial owners for purposes of this prospectus.

Direct Sales, Agents, Dealers and Underwriters

The selling stockholder or its transferees may effect transactions by selling the shares of common stock in any of the following ways:

directly to purchasers; or to or through agents, dealers or underwriters designated from time to time.

Agents, dealers or underwriters may receive compensation in the form of underwriting discounts, concessions or commissions from the selling stockholder and/or the purchasers of shares for whom they act as agent or to whom they sell as principals, or both. The agents, dealers or underwriters that act in connection with the sale of shares will be deemed to be underwriters within the meaning of Section 2(11) of the Securities Act of 1933, and any discount or commission received by them and any profit on the resale of shares as principal might be deemed to be underwriting discounts or commissions under the Securities Act of 1933.

Regulation M

The selling stockholder and any other persons participating in the sale or distribution of the shares are subject to applicable provisions of the Exchange Act and the rules and regulations under such act, including, without limitation, Regulation M. These provisions may restrict certain activities of, and limit the timing of purchase and sales of any of the shares by, the selling stockholder or any other such person. Furthermore, under Regulation M persons engaged in a distribution of securities are prohibited from simultaneously engaging in market making and certain other activities with respect to such securities for a specified period of time prior to the commencement of such distributions, subject to specified exceptions or exemptions. All of these limitations may affect the marketability of the shares.

Supplements

To the extent required, we will set forth in a supplement to this prospectus filed with the SEC the number of shares to be sold, the purchase price and public offering price, any new selling stockholders, the name or names of any agent, dealer or underwriter, and any applicable commissions or discounts with respect to a particular offering.

State Securities Law

Under the securities laws of some states, the selling stockholder may only sell the shares in those states through registered or licensed brokers or dealers. In addition, in some states the selling stockholder may not sell the shares unless they have been registered or qualified for sale in that state or an exemption from registration or qualification is available and is satisfied.

Item 15. Indemnification of Directors and Officers

The registrant's Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation (the "Certificate of Incorporation") and its by-laws provide for the indemnification by the registrant of each director, officer and employee of the registrant to the fullest extent permitted by the Delaware General Corporation Law, as the same exists or may hereafter be amended. Section 145 of the Delaware General Corporation Law provides in relevant part that a corporation may indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the corporation) by reason of the fact that such person is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if such person acted in good faith and in a manner such person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe such person's conduct was unlawful.

In addition, Section 145 provides that a corporation may indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit by or in the right of the corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that such person is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit if such person acted in good faith and in a manner such person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation and except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable to the corporation unless and only to the extent that the Delaware Court of Chancery or the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which the Delaware Court of Chancery or such other court shall deem proper. Delaware law further provides that nothing in the above described provisions shall be deemed exclusive of any other rights to indemnification or advancement of expenses to which any person may be entitled under any bylaw, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or otherwise.

The registrant's Certificate of Incorporation provides that a director of the registrant shall not be liable to the registrant or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director. Section 102(b)(7) of the Delaware General Corporation Law provides that a provision so limiting the personal liability of a director shall not eliminate or limit the liability of a director for, among other things: breach of the duty of loyalty; acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of the law; unlawful payment of dividends; and transactions from which the director derived an improper personal benefit.

The registrant has entered into separate but identical indemnity agreements (the Indemnity Agreements ) with each director of the registrant and certain officers of the registrant (the Indemnitees ). Pursuant to the terms and conditions of the Indemnity Agreements, the registrant will indemnify each Indemnitee against any amounts which he or she becomes legally obligated to pay in connection with any claim against him or her based upon any action or inaction which he or she may commit, omit or suffer while acting in his or her capacity as a director and/or officer of the registrant or its subsidiaries, provided, that Indemnitee acted in good faith and in a manner Indemnitee reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the registrant and, with respect to any criminal action, had no reasonable cause to believe Indemnitee s conduct was unlawful.

Reference is made to the form of underwriting agreements to be incorporated by reference in this registration statement for a description of the indemnification arrangements we agree to in connection with offerings of the securities registered hereby.

(4) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933 to any purchaser:
