MARSHALL & ILSLEY CORPORATION TO ACQUIRE
MISSISSIPPI VALLEY BANCSHARES, INC.

Milwaukee, WI June 17, 2002 Marshall & Ilsley Corporation (M&I) today announced it has signed a Definitive Agreement to acquire Mississippi Valley Bancshares, Inc. (Mississippi Valley), the holding company for Southwest Bank. M&I will offer Mississippi Valley shareholders $26.25 per share in cash and, based on the closing price of M&I's stock as of June 14, each shareholder would receive .8486 shares of M&I stock. The total value per share as of June 14 was $52.11. The stock component of the transaction is variable, based on the price of M&I's stock prior to closing. Please refer to the attached table for additional information.

The transaction is expected to be completed by the fourth quarter of 2002, subject to shareholder and regulatory approvals, and is expected to be accretive to earnings in 2003. All amounts above reflect the two-for-one M&I stock split that is effective today.

Mississippi Valley Bancshares, Inc., with $2.0 billion in assets as of March 31, 2002, has eight offices located in St. Louis, Missouri; Belleville, Illinois; and Phoenix, Arizona.

The Mississippi Valley franchise presents a unique opportunity for M&I as St. Louis is a vibrant center of commerce and research and offers us an opportunity to expand with a well-respected team of St. Louis bankers. This is consistent with our strategy to diversify our growth opportunities in both our banking business and Metavante, our technology company, said Dennis J. Kuester, president and chief executive officer, Marshall & Ilsley Corporation. Southwest Bank also has a superior customer relationship focus and philosophy on credit that is aligned with our own.

Partnering with M&I will let our customers use the additional products and services of a much larger bank, said Andrew N. Drew Baur, chairman of Mississippi Valley Bancshares, Inc. We had thought about this for some time, but had never before found the right partner. M&I is a very comfortable fit with Southwest Bank. They share our St. Louis values and our commitment to outstanding customer service.

M&I plans to retain the Southwest Bank name in the St. Louis market. The bank's Board of Directors will also remain in place to guide the efforts of the organization in line with M&I's commitment to local involvement and decision making in the communities it serves. Andrew N. Baur, chairman of Mississippi Valley Bancshares, Inc., will join the Board of Directors of Marshall & Ilsley Corporation upon the close of the transaction.

A conference call is planned to discuss the transaction Monday, June 17 at 11:00 a.m. central daylight time.
